

ARE GOING TO TELL TAFT.

Seven Kansas Town Preachers Will Protest Against Wilson. Ottawa, Kan., Sept. 19.—When President Taft visits this city next week, seven pastors of Ottawa churches will make a personal appeal to him regarding the position of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Secretary of State Knox on the international brewers congress to be held in Chicago next month.

The seven pastors came to that conclusion today. They wrote letters to the president charging that he had allowed Secretary Wilson to become honorary president of the brewers congress and had allowed Secretary Knox to write letters to foreign countries giving official endorsement of the congress.

Attacks a Dakota Woman. Mitchell, S. D., Sept. 19.—Since Sunday night at 11 o'clock the police have been hunting for an unknown man who made an attack on Mrs. Stephenson who lives in the outskirts of town. He appeared at her home just about dusk and wanted to remain all night. She refused to rent him a room. He went away and later he returned and demanded a room. When she refused his request he grabbed her by the throat and threw her to the ground and threatened to kill her if she screamed.

FAIL TO MERGE.

Factory Inspectors and State Labor Commissioners in Wrangle. Lincoln, Sept. 19.—A split over the question of merging the two organizations occurred at the initial meeting of the International Association of Factory Inspectors and the Association of State Labor Commissioners in session here. After meeting jointly and being welcomed by state and municipal officials, the two bodies held separate meetings and the old question of amalgamation came up. The labor commissioners voted practically unanimously to merge. The factory inspectors showed every indication of being opposed to merger but some of the inspectors who are also labor commissioners, succeeded in preventing a vote and the question is not disposed of.

Becoming tired of the wrangle, the factory inspectors were adjourned by President Lewis Guyton of Canada. A joint committee which was appointed at the annual meeting last year is expected to report on the question of merger at this session. Some who oppose consolidation believe that if the societies are consolidated it will not be longer until the departments of factory inspectors and labor commissioners will be consolidated in all the states.

HURL BOMB FROM AUTO.

Concert Hall of Levee District Saloon Wrecked in Chicago. Chicago, Sept. 19.—A nitro glycerine bomb hurled from an automobile wrecked the concert hall of a west side saloon here this morning and shattered windows in buildings within a radius of nearly a block. Frederick W. Bruder, owner of the saloon, is said to be antagonistic to a faction of saloonkeepers headed by "Mike De Pike" Heltzer who came into prominence as witness for the prosecution in the trial of former Police Inspector McCann. Detectives are working on the theory that the explosion may be the result of a feud growing out of the rivalry of saloonkeepers in the west side levee district.

Congressman Climbs Ranier.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 19.—Representative Sulzer of New York returned from an attempt to climb Highmore is having a lot of trouble with its waterworks system. The body of Hanford Beals of Cottonwood, was found in the bottom of an old unused well. The Belle Fourche Commercial club is taking steps to induce Andrew Carnegie to build a library there. The circuit court in Yankton county will meet this year in October instead of November convening Oct. 9. Henry L. Graves, chief state forecaster, will soon make an official inspection trip to the Black Hills forest reserves. An attempt on the part of federal officers to round up cigar dealers in Sioux Falls who had not complied with the federal laws, failed because the dealers had been tipped off. Lake Andes, in Charles Mix county, is going to put up a fight to have the county seat located there. It has been held for years by Wheeler, an inland town.

The Girl is Married.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 19.—Eleanor Gladys Price, whose abduction and thirty hours of captivity in the woods last week resulted in a manhunt lasting several days and the arrest of Bill Davis, alleged to be a California convict, was married yesterday to Frank Patterson at the latter's home near Snowflake. Meantime Davis is held in jail at Morden.

New Wells at Neligh.

Neligh, Neb., Sept. 19.—Special to The News: Roy Killian of Morrisbluffs, who has been employed by the city to put down wells and secure water, completed his work last week, and has been entirely successful in his undertaking. The mayor and city council are highly pleased with the results. Four eight-inch wells are furnishing the city of Neligh abundance of pure water, and according to Dr. D. W. Beattie, who has been assisting the council for several months in this proposition, says that we have as good water as can be found in the state. The four wells are in the second strata of water and in twelve feet of gravel. Two of these wells before being connected up held eighteen feet and the other nineteen and one-half feet of water. On trial of these four wells, for seven hours the triplex pump forced 200 gallons per minute through the water mains without lowering the water in the wells a particle. The people of this city now feel assured that they have at least secured abundance of pure drinking water. This item alone has cost the taxpayers of Neligh several thousands of dollars in years past for insufficient water supply, because of unskilled and inexperienced men on the job. The council are praising the work of Mr. Killian, and are satisfied that his recommendation to them as the best well man in Nebraska is an assured fact.

Charles Korb.

West Point, Neb., Sept. 19.—Special to The News: The death of Charles Korb, one of the best known men of West Point, occurred Monday morning after a long illness, in the forty-sixth year of his age. The cause of death was an aggravated pulmonary affection from which the deceased had suffered for some years. Mr. Korb was a native of Rhenish, Prussia and came to this country with his parents in his early youth. He had been an honored resident of Cuming county for nearly forty years. In the year 1885 he, with his brother George established a hardware business in West Point conducting the same very successfully until the year 1902 when he retired by reason of ill-health. He was married in 1893 to Miss Ottilie Metz of this city, the fruits of the union being an only son, now 13 years of age. He leaves a wife and child, an aged mother and two brothers, George and Adolph, both of West Point.

Mr. Korb was a man of exceptionally high character and attainments, genial and companionable and a man of rigid probity—a most worthy type of American citizenship. His demise is a distinct loss to the community where he lived so long. Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon under the auspices of the German Lutheran church, Rev. A. R. E. Oelschlaeger, pastor, officiating.

PRESIDENT IN GOOD HUMOR.

Despite Hard Day Monday, Taft Looks Fresh Tuesday Morning. Mackinaw City, Mich., Sept. 19.—For the first time a president of the United States passed through here today enroute to northern Michigan when the special train carrying President Taft and his party were taken aboard the ferry to cross the straits of Mackinaw. In spite of his hard day yesterday in the southern part of the state the president looked fresh and was evidently in good humor. His train stopped in Mackinaw City only a few minutes. This afternoon the president will be the guest of Sault Ste. Marie, where he will lunch with Gov. Osborn and inspect the locks at the Soo. Because of his knowledge of the work on the Panama canal and locks, the president is intensely interested in those at the Soo.

Leaving the Soo in the evening he will travel still further into the Michigan peninsula with Marquette as his stopping place over night. Senator Townsend of Michigan accompanied the president from Detroit north. Senator Smith did not come on account of the illness of his father, but will greet the president Thursday in Grand Rapids. That there were other causes than home trouble which prompted self destruction by Ernest Pense, who suicided while driving on Norfolk avenue Monday afternoon, is the belief of his wife, who emphatically denies that there has been trouble between herself and her husband. "We have not quarreled," she says, "and there has been no trouble between us. My husband and I were visiting at Omaha only a few days ago Sunday night Robert Fenske, my husband's brother from Hoskins, was visiting at our place and they were playing cards. There seemed to be no trouble. During the night there was much noise in the yard and my husband went out to see what was the matter. He came back to bed and I asked him if he found anything and he said 'no.' During breakfast Monday morning he threw silver knives and forks at a dog under the table because the dog would not go out when ordered. This is all the trouble that I can think of that has been going on. My husband and his brother left Monday morning for Norfolk and Robert was to go back to his home on the train. I received a telephone call from the Craig farm afterwards that my husband had shot himself. I found his revolver at home. He must have bought a new one here."

A MABRAY VICTIM DEAD.

Banker who Lost $30,000 on Horse Race Bet, Started Prosecution. Excelsior Springs, Mo., Sept. 19.—T. W. Ballew, a former wealthy Princeton Mo., banker who was responsible for the first prosecution of the Mabray kang, died at his home here yesterday. Ballew moved to Kansas City a year ago. It was an old friend of Ballew, John R. Dobbins, who drew him into the Mabray net. Dobbins professed to give Ballew some exclusive information on a horse race that was supposed to be "fixed." The wrong horse won and Ballew dropped $30,000 on the race. He immediately instituted proceedings against Dobbins and John C. Mabray. Eventually they were both convicted. Ballew's loss, including the bet and the money he spent in prosecuting members of the kang, amounted to approximately $40,000.

To Unionize Bakeries.

Kansas City, Sept. 19.—Enough money has been assured union heads for the establishment of the six "anti-bread trust bakeries," according to announcements made today at the session of the convention of the International Union Bakery and Confectionery workers. Upon the first bakery, which will be built in Pittsburg, Pa., the union will expend $75,000. "The laboring people of the country purchase 95 percent of the bread that is bought," said Otto E. Fischer of Chicago, secretary of the union. "With this element backing the union it is only a question of time until all bakeries will be unionized."

BREAKS FATHER'S RIBS.

Fast Curve Lands on Parent's Mid-section Sending Him to Hospital. Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 19.—Aaron Robinson, 14 years old, is some baseball pitcher. He has a strikeout record. His father, Abraham Robinson, is proud of Aaron and says the boy has more curves than a serpent, and as to speed that boy is a regular cannonball artist. Abraham Robinson is proud of this season, too, and he figured that a fitting climax to his son's record would be a victory over a team of the neighborhood. Accordingly Robinson Jr. organized his team and Robinson Jr. was in the lineup. They were practicing with father at the bat. The latter watched Aaron wind up for another strike. The ball whizzed toward father, and Aaron gave a yell. "BEE!" went the horsehide somewhere on father's frame. Robinson Sr. groaned and sank in his tracks. "O, pop, did I hurt you?" wailed the frightened Aaron. "Son," groaned his father as they hauled him away, "I'm proud of that speed, but please try to improve that aim."

INTIMIDATE TIMES WITNESSES.

So the Prosecution Files Contempt Charge Against Lawyer. Los Angeles, Sept. 19.—A warrant charging John Harrington, a Chicago attorney allied with the defense of the McNamara brothers, with contempt of court for having refused to answer questions before the grand jury, was issued. It was given to the sheriff for service, but a brief search for him developed the fact that he was in San Francisco working for the present, in the office of secretary-treasurer of state building trades council. The warrant, according to the deputy district attorney, is the first of a series planned by the prosecution to put a stop to alleged attempts to intimidate or influence witnesses for the state at the coming trial of the accused dynamiters. The warrant was issued after Veitch had fled with the superior court citation in contempt against Harrington accusing the attorney of having refused to answer grand jury questions concerning an alleged attempt to influence Mrs. Ingersoll, wife of D. H. Ingersoll at San Francisco. It was at Mrs. Ingersoll's boarding house that the "J. B. Bryce" said to have been the blowing up of the Times building, October 1, 1909, and identified J. B. McNamara later as the man she had known as "J. B. Bryce."

Supporting the citation were two affidavits. One was that of Charles F. Wier, foreman of the grand jury before which Harrington was called. The other affidavit was sworn to by D. H. Ingersoll. "Many witnesses have reported to us that they are being annoyed by persons who wish to frighten them or influence them in other ways," said Veitch. "The result was that we are forced to proceed with the contempt charges against Harrington."

THIS HARVEST HAND A WOMAN.

"He" Had Frequent Saloons With the Men, Sold Booze to Reds. Spokane, Wash., Sept. 19.—"Harry Allen" a harvest hand arrested at Tekoa Saturday for selling liquor to an Indian, confessed that "he" is Nell Pickerell, a young woman of Seattle, who for several years has persisted in disguising herself as a man. As a harvest hand she proved her ability to smoke, drink and frequent saloons but was not able to do the heavy work required on the farm.

MYRTLE ONE, TWO, THREE, FOUR

Young Hoosier Husband Takes Fourth Wife With This Flowery Name. Evansville, Ind., Sept. 19.—Clyde A. Bayes, who is only 27 years old, married his fourth wife, Miss Myrtle Hoover, aged 15. He obtained a divorce from his third wife yesterday. All the wives of Bayes have been named Myrtle, and he says he is partial to that name. Wife Denies Home Trouble. That there were other causes than home trouble which prompted self destruction by Ernest Pense, who suicided while driving on Norfolk avenue Monday afternoon, is the belief of his wife, who emphatically denies that there has been trouble between herself and her husband. "We have not quarreled," she says, "and there has been no trouble between us. My husband and I were visiting at Omaha only a few days ago Sunday night Robert Fenske, my husband's brother from Hoskins, was visiting at our place and they were playing cards. There seemed to be no trouble. During the night there was much noise in the yard and my husband went out to see what was the matter. I received a telephone call from the Craig farm afterwards that my husband had shot himself. I found his revolver at home. He must have bought a new one here."

Schenzel home at noon Sunday from cholera infantum, was buried in the New Lutheran cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. P. Mueller of the Christ Lutheran church held services. A number of Norfolk people are said to have been victimized by agents of the Western Furniture company of 1715 Leavenworth street, Omaha. They sold furniture on a 25-cent-a-week plan, it is said. Chief of Police Donahue of Omaha writes City Clerk Ed Harter of Norfolk that the concern went into bankruptcy a few days ago.

Under the provisions of the act of congress indemnity will be paid for the value of domestic third and fourth class registered matter mailed on and after July 1, 1911, last, and lost while in the custody of the postal service up to the limit of $25 in any one case. The foregoing is a part of a notice received recently by Postmaster John R. Hays from the postal department at Washington.

Among the day's out-of-town visitors in Norfolk were: W. Stanton, Meadow Grove; W. H. Burney, Hartington; O. Lambert, Fairfax; Eva Adele, Lambert, Fairfax; W. H. Romig, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. I. Ellingson, Center; C. F. Lynn, Winner; Mr. and Mrs. P. M. White, Foster; H. F. Saunders, Creighton; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Slaughter, Dallas; E. L. C. B. Cabaniss, secretary of the Norfolk club, went to Lincoln at noon to speak before the Lincoln club. Mr. Cabaniss will talk on "Copy For Newspapers" and will tell the ad men of Lincoln whether in advertising one product only, he thinks it is more efficient to use small copy frequently or larger copy less frequently; whether humorous or poetical copy is ever justifiable and all the ins and outs of the regular newspaper advertising. Mr. Cabaniss went to Lincoln at a request from S. R. McKelvie, chairman of the program committee.

M. J. Sanders, R. Y. Hyde, and Walter Jones, officials of the Nebraska Telephone company, left the city for Winner, Carter and Gregory where the company is installing larger switchboards. At Winner there is a new 100 line board, at Carter the same and at Gregory a larger board is needed. This will be Mr. Hyde's last trip to the new country. He has recently been promoted to the position of division plant foreman with headquarters at Omaha. This new position will give Mr. Hyde supervision over the entire state in his department of the telephone work. John Stanfield of Beatrice succeeds Mr. Hyde in this city.

Frank Spencer, who was found guilty of conducting a "blind pig" on Norfolk avenue recently and who still owes the police court a sum of money assessed him in the $100 fine, which he is to pay in small installments, is out of the state and the Norfolk court may not get the money due it. According to Capt. H. P. Haze, former Omaha chief of police, who is here attending the United States court, Spencer was given verbal permission to leave the state a few weeks ago. Capt. Haze arrested Spencer recently for selling liquor without a government license and Spencer after paying his federal fine was let go on $500 bonds. Recently he called at the Omaha federal offices and declared he wanted to leave the state. He declared he was going to Iowa. Spencer is well known to Capt. Haze who says Spencer before coming to Norfolk conducted a place in Blair, Neb., where, with a "partner," he sold liquor without a license. Captain Haze arrested both of the men.

The Dentists Played Golf. Golf, Country club, 10 a. m. Dinner, Pacific hotel, 12 m. Business session, Marquardt hall, 2 p. m. Special dinner, Pacific hotel, 6 p. m. Adjournment.

Because of the slow arrival in the city of members of the North Nebraska Dental association who held their annual convention in Marquardt hall Tuesday, the regular program was somewhat changed. The teeth extractors on the ground, with Dr. C. S. Parker, chairman of the entertainment committee, took it upon themselves to hold off the serious talks about teeth until afternoon, when President C. M. Burris of Randolph would call the meeting to order with his annual report.

There was a rush for caddies immediately after the change in the program became known and soon the Country club golf links were dotted with swatting dents who tried hard for bogey. By noon most of the members of the association were accounted for and after luncheon play was put aside for actual hard work. Dr. Burris' address promised to be the feature and the discussions led by Dr. H. J. Cole of this city, and J. H. Wallace of Omaha were to be many and very interesting.

Dr. Burris talked on "Dentists As Business Men" and he was followed by the report of Secretary G. B. Baird of Fremont, who early in the morning was unaccounted for. A rumor that Dr. Baird had given up the convention in search of matrimony caused some pleasant jests in the convention hall.

There seemed to be no chosen candidates for the offices of president and secretary and this work was left over for evening when the dentists and their ladies would enjoy a special dinner in the Pacific hotel. At this dinner there were scheduled some interesting papers. After the election of officers, adjournment was booked at Washington.

"HONOR THE OLD MAIDS."

Creed of Newest Religion Founded by a Cincinnati man. "Honor all 'old maids,' for they are worth more in ability and in character than the molluscoidies they are replacing right and left every day."

This is the creed established by Henry Andre of Cincinnati for his new organization, which will be established in forty countries on the globe. The new body will take the form of a new seven day a week religion which will be spread everywhere so that everybody may learn its doctrines. Mr. Andre says the organization is not to include suffrage clubs and sewing circles, but rather is to be preached to men by men. The keynote will be: "Personally I'd rather marry an old maid who knows life, than some brainless, extravagant young girl. There is less danger of divorce."

A ROCKEFELLER TUNNEL.

Oil Magnate Won't Have Delivery Man on His Grounds. John D. Rockefeller has begun the work of digging a tunnel from his home on top of Kykuit hill, near Tarrytown, N. Y., to the road near his stable to be used by drivers of all delivery wagons. The tunnel will be about 1,000 feet long and will cost many thousands of dollars, but Mr. Rockefeller has decided that hereafter no delivery wagon will drive up the roadway to his home. "The tunnel may be large enough for wagons to drive in, or there may be an escalator to carry heavy boxes, etc., up to the house."

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

Street Frocks For Autumn Made With Coat Effect. For early fall street suits are being made with revers and side frills. There is a peptum extension that gives the impression of a coat. "Great liberty has been taken, says the Dry Goods Economist, with the brims of the autumn hats. The great majority of brims are turned up or down several times at one side. The brim, with a long, pointed extension in one place that is turned up and reaches almost to the top of the crown, is in many variations. Long coats this season are made of Scotch tweeds, ratines, fancy mixture and woven serges, and the lines of these coats are very smart. Such a fancy blouse as this one finds many uses. It is an excellent model, too, for the entire gown, and it serves admirably for the waist of lighter material than the skirt."
