

LOCAL

Read the millinery ad in another column.

John L. Kiser, of Midland, was a business visitor in the city Monday.

We can use some good Farm Loans. See us. Security Banking & Trust Co. 40tf

Harold Walden has entered the employment of L. B. Hartwick as clerk at the store.

Adolph Afekson, of Hilland, was a passenger last night for Ostrander, Minn., where he will remain indefinitely.

Herman Dunn, of Ash Creek, consigned a carload of sale horses from this station to Fondelac, Wis., Tuesday.

Edwin Walker, a former resident of this locality, orders his address changed from Mitchellville, Iowa, to Altoona, Iowa.

Mrs. M. I. Diehl has arranged to move her bakery to the old land office building, next south of the North-Western hotel, within a few days.

Vogue Perfume at the Pioneer Pharmacy only.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fetrow returned Tuesday night from Hot Springs, where Mrs. Fetrow has been taking medical treatment for the past month.

Mrs. Hannah Lewis and grand daughter, Miss Gladys Lewis, came down from Wall Friday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schlekau.

As will be noted by her ad in this issue, Mrs. F. G. Schwartz will within a few days open millinery parlors in the room next south of McLane's hardware store.

Mrs. E. C. Terhune and children were arrivals this morning from an extended visit at the home of relatives in Percival, Iowa, and went out to their home at Ash Creek.

C. A. Bennett was in attendance at the meeting of the Stanley County Development League at Belvidere Friday. The attendance was small, but a good meeting was held.

The township caucus, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of Philip township for the ensuing term, will be held next Tuesday. The election occurs on Tuesday, March 5th.

Jud Robinson wishes to extend his sincere thanks to the party who appropriated a quarter of beef that Jud had intended to make use of himself; he says he doesn't believe beefsteak is good for the hives, anyway.

A large number of farmers from the Milesville country have been in the city yesterday and today, to haul out a carload of oats purchased for use during the spring work. Among those in the party are noted Tom Hart, Owen Hart, Edgar Watwood, Chas. Flowers, Ed Zink, John Malone, Pat O'Conner and Frank Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dunbar returned on Friday morning's train after an absence during the winter months, and have again taken up their residence on their claim southeast of the city. They were in Minneapolis for a time, and then removed to Mankato, where both had positions with a firm that had moving picture houses in that city.

C. A. Bennett, Ned Ronning, M. W. May and Oscar Hargreaves left Sunday night for Pierre, attending a meeting of the county there Monday afternoon and evening, at which the grand jury was present. Work in all the degrees of the blue lodge was put off, and a most interesting session held. W. F. Schlekau was down on Monday's mixed train, and was able to attend a session of the session.

Leon Wheeler has accepted a position with the Bank of Philip.

Wm. Hess went to Pierre and Fort Pierre Tuesday, to spend a day looking after business matters.

"Folks From Vermont" will be the attraction at the Grand opera house on Monday, Febr. 26th.

Mrs. Jesse Case returned Sunday morning from a visit of several weeks with relatives in Persia, Iowa.

Mrs. J. J. Berry returned Friday morning from Linville, Iowa, where she has been visiting at the home of relatives for the past two months.

Miss Edna Dickson, of St. Paul, Minn., was an arrival on Friday morning's train, and is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Edw. A. Lins.

Rev. C. H. Bryan, pastor of the Methodist church at Custer, and former pastor of the local church, came down yesterday to look after some business matters and to visit briefly with friends.

Mrs. Milo C. Tone, formerly Miss Ada Roush, writes to her relatives here informing them of the safe arrival on Valentine's Day to Mr. and Mrs. Tone of a bouncing baby boy.

Otto Schulz is enjoying a visit with his brother, J. R. Schulz, who arrived a few days ago from his home in Alberta, Canada. This is Mr. Schulz' first visit with his brother in seven years.

We write Life Insurance, and Sickness and Accident Insurance in one of the best companies in the west. Call and see a sample policy. Security Banking & Trust Co. 40tf

Will R. Walpole has taken over the interests of his partner, Wm. Kelly, in the real estate firm of Walpole & Kelly, and will now "go it alone." Mr. Kelly will remain in the office, though, and will look after the field work.

Editor Swenson, editor of the Cottonwood Republican, who has been a patient at the city hospital for the past month, is now able to be up for a short time each day and will doubtless be able to return to his home in a short time.—Pierre Capital Journal.

A fine new line of box stationery. Pioneer Pharmacy.

Mrs. M. Gust and son, Siedrick, were arrivals yesterday morning, from Medford, Oregon, to make the home of the family here again. Miss Berenice is a guest at the Hargenheimer home in Minneapolis, and will come on from there within a short while. The many friends of the family are glad to welcome them back to Philip.

The masquerade ball given at the Grand opera house Friday evening was well attended. The floor was crowded with maskers, and King Carnival had everything his own way for several hours. Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Mrs. R. M. Durkee and J. D. Rainey. The ball was one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

A spelling school and basket social was held Tuesday evening at the opera house, under the auspices of the lecture course committee. A large number was in attendance. A short program was given, followed by the spelling school. Sides were chosen by R. M. Williams and R. M. Durkee, and after an hour's trial, a decision declaring the former's side the winners in the contest was given. This was followed by the auction sale of the large number of baskets contributed by the ladies. Jud Pepper officiated in the style peculiarly his, and pulled off one of the best sales in his experience. Some $40 was added to the lecture course fund from the proceeds of the evening.

"Folks From Vermont" will be seen at the Grand on Febr. 26th.

E. Jacobsen, of Pierre, representing the state land department, was an arrival this morning.

It will pay everyone in Philip territory to read the advertisement of the First State Bank in this issue.

Portrait and view work that suggest style and quality at the High Studio. All work fully guaranteed.

The Catholic ladies altar society are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. R. W. Riley next Wednesday, Febr. 28th.

Mrs. Lottie Buckley departed Monday night for Coon Rapids, Iowa, for an indefinite stay at the home of relatives.

Sid Alice Cigars 5c. Pioneer Pharmacy.

Mrs. C. A. Lamb, and daughter, Hazel, returned Saturday night from an extended visit at the home of relatives in Walker, Iowa.

John Fitzgerald, of Lead, came down Tuesday night, and is visiting at the Wm. Walpole home and with his other friends in the city.

For Sale or Exchange—Philip lots on easy terms of payment, or will exchange for live stock or other property. E. F. Walden. 38tf

M. A. and A. F. Ferguson came down from Manila the fore part of the week, stopping with their mother at the J. Q. Daniels home. M. A., or "Cap", as he is more familiarly known has been quite sick for the past two weeks and came down for medical treatment.

"The Freedom of the Press" is a mighty good thing but it does not mean that patrons should expect the paper to come to them gratis, as seems to be the case with a number of our subscribers. Let us add the three sweetest words in the English language, "Enclosed Find Draft."

The announcement of Guy H. Waldo, of Midland, an aspirant for the nomination for clerk of courts on the republican ticket, appears this week. Mr. Waldo is spoken of as a fine young man one who will fully care for the duties of the office should he be successful in his campaign.

The First State Bank has a complete tax list for the City of Philip. Pay your City taxes there.

For many days past the weather has been warm and spring-like and the unusually heavy snows have nearly disappeared. The melting has extended over nearly two weeks' time, and practically all the moisture has gone into the soil. At Pierre crossing the river on the ice has been given up and the bridge trains put into operation for the season.

C. M. Peirce and L. C. Keck were in Fort Pierre yesterday, to see what the commissioners would do to the seed grain proposition. The question was laid over until Saturday, when definite action will be taken, although the matter was threshed out fairly well yesterday, to such an extent, at least, that the applicants for seed grain can determine how many of the commissioners are really alive to the needs of the county. Messrs. Peirce and Keck speak in terms that cannot be misunderstood of one of the members, Geo. Mathieson, who seems to have his neck bowed in opposition at any time something of vital importance comes up. Mathieson is holding his seat on the board illegally, and the people of his district are several kinds of chumps if they don't hang his hide on the fence without further delay. If they want to know how to get action, the Review will be pleased to furnish the information to them.

For Sale—Six head of geldings, four well broken, also two mare mules, coming three. Having sold my sheep, I have woven wire fencing and sheep shearing machine to sell. F. M. Ring, Philip, S. D. Three miles southeast of town.

F. S. Rowe, Fort Pierre's prominent merchant and said by some to be the leader of the democratic hosts within the county, was a visitor in the city Friday and Saturday. His visit here, he assures us, did not have any political significance.

The last issue of The Faith, published at Faith, Meade county, notes the retirement of the editor Arthur Keene, who goes to the Daily American at Aberdeen, E. A. Butterfield, who was foreman at the Review office, leaving here about a year ago, succeeds to Mr. Keene's position on The Faith.

Pay your City taxes at the First State Bank. They have a complete tax list for the City of Philip.

Mrs. F. E. Olney, writing from the ranch below Powell, says: "You should see the picture of Mrs. Larimer and her daughters. They made Grandfather Olney brighten up a few when he came home." Mr. Olney was a caller at this office while in the city Tuesday, and said that they had just received notice of the addition of a second daughter to the Larimer family at their home in Woodbridge, Virginia, and that the letter was written on the young lady's first birthday. She has been christened Mildred Virginia.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by all dealers.

Millinery

I will have a nice, new and up to date line of Tailored Hats ready for your inspection soon.

One door south of McLane's hardware store.

Mrs. F. G. Schwartz

If You Want Your Goods Handled Promptly and in a Satisfactory Manner call Phone 7-6-B

THE CITY DRAY Fred Block

DR. F. H. BORST DENTIST

Office hours 9 to 12, 1 to 4

Parlors above the Postoffice

Phone 70.

PHILIP, S. D.

S. M. KYDE

Physician and Surgeon

Calls answered day or night

Office and residence North Center Street. Phone 35

O. K. WHITNEY R. A. BIELSKI

Whitney & Bielski

Attorneys at Law

Office in Bank of Philip Building

PHILIP : : SO. DAK.

Specials!

Onions = = = 3c

Calicoes = 5c

Brown Sheeting 6c

Bleached " 7c

Hartwick's

The Last One of the Season

THE FOLKS FROM VERMONT

Will be sure to be at

Grand Opera House
Tuesday, February 27th

MR. FRED PARKER

MISS DAISY ASHMORE

In the leading roles, supported by a capable cast.

SCENERY! SPECIALTIES! WARDROBE!!!

You will surely enjoy it
A Guaranteed Attraction

Prices 25, 35, 50c. Advance sale at the usual place

Range Mercantile Company

Have just received 50 pieces of percale, 28 inches wide, that we are going to sell at 7c per yard. This percale is three inches wider than calico.

We handle nothing but the best calico, which we are selling at 6c.

A nice line of Dress Gingham at 15 and 25c.

Come in and see our line of Dress Trimmings before you buy.

G. L. DOROTHY