A Place of Safety

No matter whether you have much or little money, the safe place for it is a good, reliable bank like ours.

If you keep money around the house, it has been aptly said that you are not saving it but merely gambling with it every night, with the odds not in your favor. If the amount is small even then its loss may mean much to you. If it is great, the greater the risk you run of fire, burglary or other accident. Let us care for it. We are prepared to do so.
