PERSONA NON GRATA.

It Looks Like Turkey Will Turn Down Dr. Angell.

SHE HAS NOT FORMALLY PROTESTED AGAINST HIS APPOINTMENT, BUT WANTS SOME EXPLANATION OF HIS RECENT UTTERANCES—ANOTHER SUGAR TRUST INVESTIGATION WILL BE ORDERED—AN EMPHATIC DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, May 29.—While it is not true that the Turkish government has formally protested against the appointment of Dr. Angell as minister to Turkey, it is true that the porte has asked the State Department for some explanation of the published statements of his alleged utterances in regard to the Turkish government and its treatment of foreign missionaries.

The State Department immediately took up the matter by correspondence, which it is thought will explain the matter in time for Dr. Angell to sail for his post.

It is the general opinion here that the Senate will order another sugar trust investigation. A new committee, however, will be named to succeed the old one. The action of the District court this week in clearing Havemeyer will make the committee somewhat more careful in framing its questions. A decision of the supreme court holds that the law is constitutional making it a misdemeanor to refuse to answer questions, if such information will have good effect.

Among the first witnesses to be called will be the newspaper correspondents, and it is well known that they will refuse to answer any questions.

It is emphatically denied at the White House to day that the President has been considering the name of ex-President Harrison for minister to Spain or that the place had been tendered to Gen. B. F. Tracy or anyone else.

NEW COMPANY ORGANIZED.

The Perkins Machine Company
Soon to Commence Business.

A company has just been organized under the name of the Perkins Machine Company, which is destined to be one of the most successful enterprises ever originated in this city.

The object of this company is to operate the new tobacco granulator invented by N. P. Perkins. Capt. Perkins has been working on this invention for several years and the signal success he has met with is sure is justly deserved. He has had a model machine on exhibition in Richmond for the past two months and the letters of praise and the number of voluntary orders that the company has received from the best and largest manufacturers of the country is evidence of the entire satisfaction given in all the tests, which it is needless to say were severe, as they were conducted by experts from the largest and best known manufacturers in the country.

The company is now preparing drawings and specifications for a number of new machines which are to be built at once to fill orders already received.

It is the intention of the company to place the machine on royalty, as the great percentage of material saved by the new process will easily allow the payment of a handsome royalty and still leave the manufacturer a neat margin.

The Richmond tests showed a saving of 10 per cent. in material on the best grade of tobacco and a correspondingly larger percentage on cheaper grades according to the quality desired.

It has been said by well informed business men that this company has in the smoking tobacco business what the Bon-sack Company had in the cigarette business.

There is every indication that the company will within the next few years be able to operate at least one hundred of their machines, which figured at a royalty of 1-4 cent per pound would yield an annual income of about $150,000.

The officers of the company are as follows: J. A. Jamison, president; J. O. B. Palmer, vice-president; N. P. Perkins, secretary; T. E. Jamison, treasurer.

DECORATION EXERCISES.

Roanoke Post, No. 48, Grand Army of the Republic, in conjunction with the sons of veterans, and wives and daughters of veterans, met at their hall yesterday evening and headed by the Roanoke Machine Works drum corps, marched to the City Cemetery, where the graves of Union soldiers were decorated. A very stirring address was delivered by Geo. H. Thompson, formerly pastor of Lee Street Church. After the exercises at the graveyard they all formed in line and marched back to the hall, where they disbanded.

TO PUT UP A TICKET.

People's Party to Hold a Convention Here July 28.

Richmond, May 29.—The State executive committee of the People's party of Virginia met at Ford's Hotel Thursday night at 9 o'clock to consider the calling of a State convention. After a full and exhaustive discussion, the following resolution, ordering a convention to be held on the last Wednesday of July, was adopted unanimously:

Whereas it is of the utmost importance that the People's party of Virginia should have a full ticket in the field this fall in order to advance the financial principles of our party, to enact such laws as will ensure a fair return of the votes as cast in all elections, and to reduce the expenses of government, that the people may be relieved of a part of the burdensome and much unnecessary taxation; therefore, be it

Resolved, That our State chairman, Mr. J. Haskins Hobson, is hereby instructed to call a convention to be held on July 28, 1897, in the city of Roanoke, as recommended by the conference of the People's party held at Lynchburg March 11th, to make nominations for governor, lieutenant-governor and attorney-general, and to transact such other business as may be properly brought before it.

STUDENTS FOUGHT TROOPS.

General Riot at Columbia Caused by a Foul Ball.

Columbia, S. C., May 29.—While two companies of local militia were standing their annual inspection on the athletic grounds of the South Carolina College here this afternoon, a foul ball struck by a student engaged in a game of baseball at the other end of the grounds struck the head of Maj. B. B. Evans, an officer on Adj. Gen. Watts' staff. The militia had only been given permission to use half of the grounds; but Gen. Watts immediately requested the hall players to withdraw until the troops could march past in quitting the field.

This the students refused to do; and the police declining to interfere, Gen. Watts ordered the troops to advance. The students resisted and some broke through the line. A general riot followed, in the course of which a policeman was knocked senseless and a student named McColl had his head crushed, from the effects of which he may die. Professor of History R. Means Davis interfered and was knocked down by a student, and two soldiers were knocked down. The soldiers advanced at right shoulder arms and were hardly to blame. They simply obeyed orders.

The police being powerless, the faculty finally quieted their students, and the soldiers were marched back to their armories. When seen by a press representative to-night, Adj. Gen. Watts declined to say anything.

MAY WORK BOTH WAYS.

New York, May 29.—Arthur Hittchings, a Brazilian delegate to the congress of South American merchants in session at Philadelphia, arrived here to-day. He said Brazil favors coming to some understanding with America looking toward an increase of trade between the two countries. "We buy a great deal from you," he said, "and we now come to see if we can induce you to buy more freely from us. We believe this congress will result in an increase of trade both ways."

OUT OF THE COMMONS.

Parnellites Suspended for Talking Overtaxation.

REDMOND WOULD NOT TAKE HIS SEAT—HE TOOK UP THE FIGHT AGAINST THE HARBOR BILL, AND AFTER A LENGTHY COLLOQUY HE WAS INVITED BY THE CHAIR TO WITHDRAW FROM THE PRECINCTS OF THE HOUSE. MR. CLANCY WAS FORCIBLY REMOVED.

London, May 29.—John E. Redmond, the Parnellite leader, was suspended in the house of commons to-day owing to his persisting in an irregular discussion of the financial relations between Great Britain and Ireland. John J. Clancy, member for the north division of Dublin county, William Redmond, member for West Clare, and William Field, member for the St. Patrick's division of Dublin, for similar conduct, were removed from the house by the sergeant-at-arms.

The disturbance took place during the committee vote for the maintenance of the harbors. John E. Redmond opposed the vote and discussed the financial relations between Great Britain and Ireland. The chairman called him to order, and when Redmond persisted in speaking he was ordered to resume his seat. This he refused to do, whereupon he was named. The president of the board of trade, Mr. Ritchie, moved Mr. Redmond's suspension, which was adopted by a vote of 223 to 32.

When the house resumed regular business, the matter was reported to the speaker, and the house confirmed the suspension by a vote of 238 to 52, several anti-Parnellites supporting the Parnellite minority.

The house then again went into committee, and Mr. Clancy persisted on the same lines as Mr. Redmond. The chairman ordered him to withdraw; he refused to do so, and the sergeant-at-arms was ordered to remove him. William Redmond adopted the same policy as Mr. Clancy, and was also removed by the sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Field, after having been repeatedly called to order, was told to withdraw, which he did, saying: "I obey."

The house in committee then resumed discussion of the votes.

Final Papal Declaration on Claims to Apostolic Succession.

New York, May 29.—A special from Washington to the Journal and Advertiser says: An important encyclical from the pope arrived at the apostolic delegation to-day. It is the official and final papal declaration regarding the claims of the Eastern and Anglican churches to the apostolic succession. The document is one of the lengthiest of Pope Leo's papers. It covers more than thirty papers of finely printed Latin.

QUALITY A PROOF OF QUALITY.
Twenty-five years of steadily increasing business proves the worth of Shoes. At the start we gave more quality than others cared to do for the money. Each week we have striven to improve. To-day the condensed experience of all these years goes into each pair of shoes we sell. To-day hundreds of people are "tramping upon our reputation," and thousands of thrifty "comfort-loving" people stand in our great "trade pulling" shoes.

The greatest value we ever offered in all these years is our Tan Bats at $1.98. This is saying a HEAP, but it's a fact. See it. Don't take our say-so.

SOME WORDS OF HOPE.

Secretary Gage Speaks on the Financial Situation.

WHEN MR. GAGE PROPOSED TO SPEAK OF THE IMPORTANCE OF PROPER REVENUE AND A SOUND CURRENCY, THE PRESIDENT SAID THAT WAS JUST WHAT HE WANTED—HE EMPHASIZES THE ZEAL AND GOOD FAITH OF BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS.

Cincinnati, May 29.—The crowning event of the visit of the Eastern and Western commercial clubs, who have been here for the past two days, was the banquet last night at the Clifton mansion of Alexander McDonald, who was the host of the Cincinnati Club. Owing to the necessity for a midnight departure of the Boston guests, the dinner was served early. Among the speakers was Secretary of the Treasury Gage, who was given a vociferous welcome. He said:

"As I have observed and listened to the words passing from lip to lip among the members of the commercial clubs gathered here, I discover two particular themes which have first place in the thoughts of all. These two themes are the tariff and the public finances. You say on the settlement of these two questions enterprise waits and industry languishes. Over fifty times have I been asked when the tariff discussion would end and the measure proposed receive the final vote which will formulate the measure into law. Over fifty times more I have been asked, have the financial reforms, for which the people struggled in November last, been forgotten."

"Now, it is not to be wondered at that you who have so long borne the burden of anxiety and fear, who have so long waited and watched for the restoration of conditions on which some secure estimate of to-morrow can be made, grow nervous and impatient over every act or word which seems to suggest doubt or delay in the establishment of such conditions. I have thought that on this occasion I could do no better service than to give you needed reassurance and hope as to the great fabric now before Congress as the tariff bill. I have nothing to say in detail. I want to bear testimony, however, to the zeal and good faith of those in both Houses who have that measure in charge. They are fully conscious of their great responsibilities and are working faithfully to discharge them. Nor do I think that the opponents of these measures are likely to oppose with wilful and unjust obstruction the course of legislation. That there will be more or less fencing for position is expected, but having now come into contact with many of the representatives of the people in both houses of Congress, I deem it my duty to bear witness, so far as it may have value, to the honorable and patriotic motives that inspire the minds of the great majority, whether on one side of the house or the other, and I prophesy an early result in the national councils to which this great commercial question is now committed."

"I make these remarks not to defend anybody, for whom I hold no commission to speak, but to correct in one direction, if I may, the operation of an injurious sentiment—a sentiment which is sowing evil seed in many directions. It is dividing classes, destroying unity and breeding hatred. The one word for that sentiment is distrust. Faith and courage lead to conquest and victory. Distrust paralyzes and destroys."

"As to the financial question, to which I have already referred, I am glad that they may be words of assurance. If any of you harbor the suspicion that the administration but just now installed into the responsibilities of high office has forgotten, or is likely to forget, the mandate of the people whose voices in behalf of honest money and sound finances rang out clear in November last, put that suspicion aside. It is unjust and unfounded. In good time and in proper order the affirmative evidences of my declaration will appear."

The superiority of Cleveland Bicycles was fully demonstrated at Saturday's races. Nine different makes of bicycles were represented, and yet the Cleveland won 50 per cent. of the prizes.
