

ROSENBAUM BROS.

The opportunity presented itself to purchase some good values in Figured Organdies, and when you see them you must admit that they are exceptionally pretty—the quality good, and prices way below anything offered heretofore for the same grade of material; they would be cheap at 15 cents and 20 cents—we will offer them out at 10 cents and 12 1-2 cents.

A few more pieces Jaconot Duchesse, to close at 8 cents.

10 pieces Lace Striped Velours—sold all the season at 8 cents and 10 cents—will close at 6 cents.

10 pieces Silk Striped Challie, cream ground, just the thing for wrappers, at 10 cents.

In connection with our big assortment of waist goods we are also showing all colors of thin things at 7 cents.

Silks! Silks!

We announced last week the sale of 20 pieces of waist silks—we sold half of this lot out, but concluded to continue the sale at same prices.

2 pieces of the 25c grade at 15 cents.
4 pieces of the 35c grade at 19 cents.
4 pieces of the 50c grade at 35 cents.

Call and select silk for a waist before all are gone.

Shirt Waists.

The shirt waist season is now upon us, and we will offer on Monday 20 dozen assorted grades at 25c, 50c, 75c, $1 and $1.25.

Counterpanes.

10 dozen good sized counterpanes, hemmed top and bottom, only 50c.
5 dozen better grade counterpanes at 75c.
5 dozen extra heavy counterpanes at $1.
These three numbers are extra good values.

Millinery.

An up-to-date assortment of trimmed and untrimmed hats. Short black sailors, in white and black tape, rough straw in white and black, Leghorn flats, and all the leading and nobby shapes in fancy straws, also a full assortment of Taffeta and changeable ribbons, flowers and feathers. Full line of Baby Caps and bonnets.

Please ask for one of our premium tickets, and when your purchases amount to $25 it will entitle the holder to one of the three different styles of rockers, an oak table or a white enameled table.

SOME LOCAL NEWS

It is high time that you were putting in your screen doors and widows and don't forget that Catagni Bros. keep them and will be glad to furnish you at any time.

NOTICE.

My friends and patrons will please take notice that I have moved my place in the city market house from stall 11 to stall No. 17, where I will be prepared to serve nice fresh meats of all kinds.

I. S. GRAVETT.

If your horses are lame and you find that no one else is able to make them go straight, take them around to J. S. SHANER, 307 Salem avenue, and he GUARANTEES to make them go all right. No doubt about this, he is the man to fix your horses up O. K. This "old reputation" is played out. Work tells the tale.

Virginia Carriage Co's prices for painting single buggies range from $8 to $15. All other repair work equally as low.

INDIAN ROCK LIME is the best. Try it. J. H. WILKINSON, 102 Third street s. w. Phone 210.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

There were only a few cases before Justice Wood in the police court yesterday morning.

Lucy Wiggins, colored, was up for having struck young Danforth on the head with a rock and the case was thought to possess sufficient merit to be sent to the grand jury for investigation.

William Austin and James Parker were each fined $5 for being drunk and disorderly. Parker paid his fine and was dismissed, but Austin was committed to jail in default of payment.

MEETING OF THE O. R. T.

The Order of Railway Telegraphers are holding meetings of that order in this city. They will be in session several days, as matters of a secret nature of considerable importance are to be transacted. Among the members present are: J. H. Fitzgerald, of Radford; C. E. Lyman, Troutville; R. K. Currie, Dunlow, W. Va.; A. L. Woody, Crews; P. E. Almond, Lynchburg and Durham division; B. R. Luttrell, Cooper, W. Va.; J. H. Wilson, Wellville; R. H. Ryan, Allsionia; E. B. Spedden, St. James, Md., and A. R. Hume, of this city, are among the telegraph operators of the Norfolk and Western railway, who are in the city. They are all stopping at the St. James Hotel.

MODERN COOKING.

There is now going on at the rooms on Jefferson street next door to W. U. Telegraph office, an exhibition of cooking on vapor stoves. Come and see what can be done without dust, ashes, smoke and the other discomforts of the kitchen. Free lunch will be served from 12 to 3.

HAMPDEN SYDNEY.

Judge W. S. Stuart, of the hustings court of Bristol, passed through the city yesterday returning to his home from Farmville, where he delivered the annual alumni address on Wednesday night. Judge Stuart is considered one of the most brilliant young lawyers in Southwest Virginia or East Tennessee, and persons who heard his address at Hampden-Sydney pronounce it one of the most masterly efforts yet of this talented young judge. Rev. W. C. Campbell, who is attending these exercises, was detained by a slight indisposition and will return today.

OTHER TICKETS.

The notice in another column for a mass meeting to fix up a slate for the convention delegates from the First ward, has, it is understood, instilled the same idea into the minds of the left-out-in-the-cold Democrats of the other wards and they will also call a meeting and select a slate. It is generally believed that the Democrats generally will not support the slate promulgated by the last Saturday night meeting.

WHAT REV. THOS. E. CARSON SAYS OF THE BEHR PIANO.

We are using in our Sunday school, and often in congregational worship, the "Behr" piano bought of your music house. As far as I am able to judge and as far as others more capable of judging than I am have reported, it gives abundant satisfaction. Yours etc.,

WON'T SWALLOW THAT TICKET.

A mass meeting of the Democrats of the First ward, this city, will be held in the hustings court room, to night at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of naming candidates for delegates and alternates for the coming State convention, and to give such other instructions as may be desired. This call is signed by Jno. L. Doggett, C. I. Lunsford, S. K. Duerson, J. M. Roberts, W. P. Mundy, C. C. Nelms, J. R. Ellis, C. S. Beller, T. W. Spindle, Van Talianero, Harvey Dillard and others.

ALMOST FOR NOTHING.

A reference to the large ad. of Helronimus & Brugh discloses an interesting fact. To-day and to-morrow they will hold a "giving away" sale of ladies' shirt waists and house wrappers. You will never get such a chance again.

THEY TENDER THANKS.

We desire to express our thanks to the Stuart W. C. T. U., of Roanoke, for the nice flowers sent us. They will be placed on the pulpit and shall be as sweet prophecies of the resurrection as well as a reminder of the beneficence of our Heavenly Father. As they shed forth their odors so unselfishly to all who come within their presence, so may we therefore shed forth from our daily lives the holy fragrance of gentleness, kindness and love.

E. G. HUTCHINSON,
Pastor Lee Street M. E. Church.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will have their regular weekly meeting to-day at 3 p. m. at the Dunkard Tabernacle on Salem avenue. Come and find a welcome.

FROM THE STAUNTON INSTITUTE.

Worth Allen, of Rocky Mount, and Garrett Bondurant, of Martinsville, two deaf and dumb boys, were in the city yesterday returning to their home from the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute at Staunton. These young men were very chatty and carried on an almost incessant conversation with their hands while waiting for their train at the depot yesterday evening. There were about forty pupils from that institution passed through the city yesterday enroute to their homes in different parts of the State.

THEY ARE PIONEERS.

The pioneer furniture dealers, the E. H. Stewart Furniture Company, have an ad. on the eighth page of The Times this morning. As leaders of low prices in house-furnishing goods they confidently feel that the public of Roanoke will inspect their large line of goods. They keep in stock everything necessary for household adornment and use.

CHERRY SEEDERS.

Cherry time is with us and Fairfax Bros. have a fine line of cherry seeders to meet the occasion—some as low in price as 40 cents. Go to No. 9 Jefferson street and supply yourself.

SHOT IN THE ARM.

Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock as Harry McAfee, a youth about 17 years old, was passing along Fourth street s. e., near the Roanoke brick yard, he was struck in the right arm above the elbow by a ball from an air gun. It seems that George Fortune and a boy named Thomas were shooting at a target. At last accounts the bullet had not been extracted. The wound, though painful, is not a dangerous one. Boys should be careful when practicing with firearms.

IN THE REGULAR ARMY.

Frank Maginnis and Isador Pfeiffer, both of this city, and popular members of the Machine Works Band, have accepted a position with Edwin G. Clark's Twenty-first Infantry Band, which is stationed at Plattsburg, N. Y. They will leave for Richmond to-night to report to the recruiting officer. The Times wishes them every success in their field of labor.

DEMAND FOR HOUSES.

Rental agents in the city say they are unable to supply the demand for dwelling houses in desirable portions of the town. The demand is for small houses and mostly comes from workmen. The cause of this demand is supposed to be on account of the number of railroad employees who have been forced to make Roanoke their headquarters since the re-districting of the road.

A ROANOKE MOTHER.

Heart Broken, She is Anxious to Find a Lost Son.

Bristol Courier: Without saying whether she is white or black, in a rather legible but scrawling hand, Mrs. Francis Washington, of Roanoke, addresses a letter to her son, Preston Washington, at Bristol, with the following note to the postmaster on the envelope: "Dear Postmaster, please open this letter and read it on all the works."

In the letter this woman implores the aid of the postmaster in finding her son, who says he has been lost to her for eight years. She states that the lost boy's father is named Aaron Washington. She says further in the letter, which explains her plan of search:

"I, dear postmaster, want this letter to go on from one place to another and opened and read on all the works, and see if he can be found. I know he can be found if he is on the top side of the earth. If he is dead some one knows, and if he is alive some one knows it."

Her letter to her son reads as follows: "Dear son Preston, we want to see: We would be so glad to see you once more in this life. Remember, when you want able to do for yourself your mother and father done for you as far as they was able. Now I think you should try to help us in our old age. Times are very hard here in Roanoke. Our house rent is very dear. If I never see you no more this side of the grave, hope to meet you in glory."

Your dear mother,
"FRANCIS WASHINGTON."

PREVENTED A DOUBLE LYNCHING

Negres Were Hurried Away From Huntsville, Ala., by Officers.

Birmingham, Ala., June 10.—The timely action of the officers in capturing and hurrying away to Huntsville for safe keeping the two negroes who had assaulted the 13-year-old daughter of William Lawton alone prevented a double lynching at Decatur last night. Recently Lawton's wife died, and he employed a negro to cook and attend to the household work under the direction of his young daughter. Last evening Jim Dudley and Amos Johnson, negro friends of the cook went to the Lawton house and assaulted Miss Lawton. It is said the negro woman was a party to the assault and kept watch while it was in progress.

When the crime became known tremendous excitement prevailed and threats were made to lynch all three of the negroes. The two men were captured and secretly hurried out of town to Huntsville. The woman is still at large, but officers are after her.

OFFICERS' REPORTS READ.

Ladies' Auxiliary of the Episcopal Diocese in a Flourishing Condition.

Norfolk, Va., June 10.—The fifth annual session of the diocese of the Episcopal Church in Southern Virginia convened in Trinity Church, Portsmouth, to-day at 10 o'clock, with Bishop A. M. Randolph presiding. Sixty counties of the State are represented, and the sessions will continue until Sunday. More than a hundred delegates have already arrived.

Preparatory services were held yesterday and the Ladies' Auxiliary held a session at 10 o'clock, holy communion being administered by Bishop Randolph, who also delivered an address. Reports of officers were read, showing the work and condition of the auxiliary, which was very gratifying to the large number in attendance.

GILROY HAS APPENDICITIS.

Norfolk, June 10.—Jack Gilroy, Norfolk's crack pitcher, had what is thought to have been a successful operation for appendicitis performed on him at St. Vincent's Hospital to-day.
