

Personal Items

Superintendent Charles Wagner and J. Wilson of the Truxton Canyon Indian Training School at Valentine, visited Kingman Wednesday from that place on business.

Charles Oster, who has extensive mining interests in this county, left Wednesday evening for San Francisco, California, where he will attend to important matters.

T. J. Sparkes is confined to his room at the Beale Hotel with an attack of influenza.

Deputy Sheriff C. A. Imus is now about after having a serious case of influenza.

A. F. Harris and daughters Irene and Mrs. Eva Cofer are now fast convalescing from the ravages of a dose of "flu" at their home in this city.

H. C. Zulch and Harry Newton are two of Oatman citizens who visited Kingman last Sunday.

John Fancher was a Kingman visitor Sunday last from the Big Sandy.

Earnest Neal was here Monday from the Big Sandy Neal Ranch.

Many persons are looking forward to the chance of shooting a turkey at the Putnam Ranch on the Big Sandy Thanksgiving. Better grease up your musket.

M. B. Lauzon came in from the Colorado River last Tuesday for a load of supplies.

H. L. Hill of San Bernardino, California, was here for a day this week from that place.

V. J. Hill visited here Tuesday from Trout Creek.

Frank Kirby of Phoenix was one of Kingman's visitors this week.

Doctor E. S. Miller, the well known and popular physician of Flagstaff, Arizona, is in Kingman this week attending to professional duties.

A. Patterson was in Kingman during the past week from Prescott, Arizona.

Lutie Paxton of Flagstaff was a visitor here one day this week from that city.

F. A. Weage came up from Phoenix Tuesday last and visited here for a day or so.

L. F. Rothe is in town after a trip to the hills of a month or more.

Joe Lee and Geo. A. Vice are Sandytites who spent several days here the early part of the week just passed.

L. E. Moore was in Kingman Tuesday from the Big Sandy. Mr. Moore is one of the more recent additions to the Sandy section but says that he likes the country and will make his home there.

John H. Baker is again in Kingman asking his many patrons how many carloads of "blasts" they want.

A. T. Threlkeld of Needles was in town last Tuesday.

C. V. Dillon and Charles Puckett are two of the force at the Standard Minerals Camp who visited Kingman this week from that place.

Frank Packard and wife were in town Wednesday from Hackberry.

Kenneth C. Kuencer, U. S. N., arrived this week from Mare Island in response to notice of the serious illness of his father here. Mr. Kuencer, Sr. is now up and about and fast recovering his strength.

Frank Humphrey and wife are Leviathan Mine residents who visited here Monday of this week.

E. B. Gilbert of Needles was in Kingman last Monday.

R. C. Neville came in from Oatman Monday last and visited here for a day.

James B. Gregg of the Standard Minerals Camp was a Kingman visitor Tuesday of this week.

D. E. Kelley came up from Needles last Tuesday and registered at the Beale.

Charles Canall spent several days of this week as a visitor to Kingman from Coconino County attending to business for his company, the Western Union Telegraph Company. Mr. Canall is one of Arizona's oldest residents and renews acquaintances with many friends at each visit to this section.

N. F. Wykoff is one of the latest arrivals to this section from Jerome.

R. V. Reed of Jerome Arizona arrived here from that place this week early.

Charles L. Moore came down from Holbrook, Arizona Wednesday last and was a guest of the Beale Hotel that night.

Mrs. Frank Reimer was one of Wednesday's arrivals from Flagstaff, Arizona, coming to join her husband at Oatman, who had preceded her by some days to the Gold Camp.

H. F. Dillman is a Phoenixite who visited Kingman Wednesday of this week.

C. J. Wilson of the Round Valley Ranch spent a couple of days as a business visitor to Kingman this week from that place.

Charles A. Dutton returned from Bremerton, Washington the first of this week in response to a call from here notifying him of the serious illness of his mother. Mr. Dutton has been employed in the ship yards at that place for the greater part of the past year.

W. B. (Dad) Small returned this week from Kansas, where he has been a resident since leaving this section a couple of years back. Mr. Small is well known to many of the people here having resided here for some years and during part of that time was occupied in ranching the "Potato Patch" in the Wallapai Mountains.

Charles Seeley is now one of the "regulars" of the Central Commercial Company force here, arriving from Oatman the first of this week to take up his duties. Mr. Seeley has been a resident of Mohave County for five years or more past and the greatest part of that time has been spent as manager of the Central Commercial Company branch at that place. Mr. Seeley leaves many friends in the Gold Camp and we know that he comes to many here, who are glad to see him become a resident of Kingman.

Homer Gaddis and wife were visitors to Kingman this week from the Oneida Ranch.

L. A. Newton was one of Kingman's visitors from Yucca this week.

Roy Cornell spent several days here this week from the Standard Minerals Camp.

H. G. Murphy is one of the "flu" victims, who is now slowly recuperating strength, making a first appearance on the streets one day this week.

Guy D. Atlee and wife are now fast recovering from an attack of influenza.

George Wolhuter is now able to be about on the streets although very weak still from the effect of a combined attack of influenza and pneumonia. He was so ill that for a time his life was despaired of but a strong constitution and the careful nursing of his wife, who was called from Los Angeles, brought him back to the land of the living.

Dr. J. H. Petty, wife and son were Kingman visitors this week from Oatman.

B. H. Hart and Joe Daniels came down from Hackberry last Sunday and were Kingman visitors for several days this week.

E. T. Ferguson is a Phoenixite who paid a business call to Kingman this week.

Bernard Vogt was here for several days this week from Chloride.

E. C. Bradshaw and wife are two who visited here from the Hamme Camp this week.

Frank Reimer returned to Oatman this week from Flagstaff to take charge of the Central Commercial Company branch store at that camp. Frank is filling the vacancy recently caused by the transfer of Charles Seeley to the Kingman store.

A. C. Goodwill was a visitor to Kingman this week from Stockton Hill, where he is working on the Fountain Head property at that place. He reports that he is nearing the vein, the cutting of which he anticipates will make a favorable showing.

There was born to the wife of E. R. Alderson last Saturday morning a baby boy. All concerned are progressing favorably.

Clifford Potts, U. S. N., passed through Kingman yesterday enroute to New York, where he expects to be assigned to one of Uncle Sam's vessels in the Atlantic. Cliff is one of Kingman's boys, having grown to manhood here, although during the last few years he has been a resident of Santa Ana, Calif. A large crowd of friends and former school mates met him at the depot to wish him good luck on his journey.

Mrs. L. W. Quinlan is a visitor here from Winslow, Arizona, from which place she arrived last week to visit with her husband, L. W. Quinlan, manager of the Arizona Stores Company of this place. She will return to her home in the above city today.

J. H. Hopkins, cashier for the Arizona Stores here, was called to Los Angeles last week to attend the funeral of his sister Miss Sadie Hopkins, who passed away in that city from the effects of an attack of influenza. Just preceding his return a brother, William Hopkins, who has gone to that city from Phoenix, Arizona, was stricken with the same malady and is now seriously ill. Mr. Hopkins is remaining there to attend his brother.

J. S. Amundsen is spending a ten day business trip in Williams, Arizona.

Genevieve Potter Case and Dolly Potter Epps, sisters and writers of note of the Pacific Coast, who have been visiting in Kingman for the past month or more, departed for Glendale, California the first of this week and they will visit with friends there for some time before returning to their home in Los Angeles.

F. N. Ransom was a visitor to Kingman Thursday from Yampai.

Jesse S. Hulet, wife and baby girl arrived from Navajo, Arizona Thursday evening and are visiting with relatives here.

M. W. Hamilton is now spending

(Continued on Page 8)

A BOOK OF INTEREST

Look For the Clock

to all—especially young married folk, is the SAVINGS PASS BOOK. Read it over often. Every time you read it you'll find something new added to it which is of more interest.

Let us start you with one of our Savings Books. We will be glad to do it. We pay five per cent interest on Savings Accounts.

The Citizens' Bank

Capital $150,000

KINGMAN,

ARIZONA.

WILLARD SERVICE STATION

Just got a Willard Battery

Kept it for a while

Like it better all the time —

So said one of our now regular Willard patrons—so will you when you try a WILLARD—Come in and see our complete line. We have now in charge of our repair department one of the best mechanics ever to enter Kingman—try him and be convinced of his ability.

We are vulcanizers—carry second hand tires and cars—accessories, oils and gasoline.

OLD TRAILS GARAGE

M. G. Wagner, Prop.

Phone Blue 30

Kingman, Arizona

STANDARD AUTO STAGE

OFFICE: BEALE HOTEL LOBBY, PHONE BLUE 147

BONDED CARS—COMPETENT DRIVERS

Car Leaves Kingman for Oatman 8:30 A. M.
Returning, Leaves Oatman 2:00 P. M.

Want Ads -- Results

OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS

	Assessor		State Senator		House Representatives		Sheriff		Clerk		Supervisors		Treasurer		Recorder		County Attorney		School Supt.		State Senator		TOTAL PRECINCT VOTE
	RUGGLES	HERNDON	ANDY GOODWILL	ALLEN WARE	WATERS	SHEA	MAHONEY	COHENOUR	TEALE	AYERS	MAC DUFFEE	KNIGHT	COOLING	HUBBS	VER MEHR	I. N. HART	BARTHOLOMEW	MARTIN	ARMOUR	STEWART	LASSSELL	MRS. M. E. COHENOUR		JOHN WARE	U. GRILL
EAST KINGMAN	210	215			84	158	150	118	192	176	121	167	3	203	66	186	8	130	136	222					286
WEST KINGMAN	201	207			94	150	31	125	201	156	118	158	6	181	76	187	12	130	121	205			1	1	268
OATMAN	267	241			229	63	266	47	236	208	174	76	71	235	37	234	37	203	89	258					330
CHLORIDE	164	147		1	80	86	126	63	147	76	163	66	8	261	16	150	4	91	95	156					203
GOLCONDA	4	5			3	2	4	1	5	4	1	5	4	4		4		4	1	6					6
GOLDROAD	12	11			9	1	9	5	11	14	8	4		13		12		13	1	13					14
HACKBERRY	34	30			19	13	27	13	34	27	18	19		35	8	32		32	1	37					42
YUCCA	34	36			23	19	25	25	30	25	22	33	5	33	11	33	7	24	22	31		2			53
FRISCO	13	13			5	9	11	3	12	11	5	9	3	13	1	8		11	4	13					18
TROUT CREEK	14	14			11	4	12	4	15	13	11	3		14	1	13		14	2	13					16
OWENS	20	15			6	14	12	10	16	8	4	20		19		13		20	2	16					18
WHITNEY	17	16			14	4	16	2	17	16	15	5		17	1	19		17	1	17					22
SHORT CREEK	15	14			13	7	16	6	14	13	13	7		13	7	14		13	2	16					18
LITTLEFIELD	27	28			28	1	27	2	28	28	27	1		28	1	28		28	1	14					22
WALLAPAI SPRINGS	10	11			8	3	5	8	10	7	6	9		13		10		10	3	27					29
MINERAL PARK	7	7			3	6	3	5	4	5	4	9		6	3	6		6	3	12					14
SIGNAL	14	13			8	6	2	13	11	10	2	14		6	3	8		6	3	7					10
CERBAT	1	1			1	3	1	3	1	1	1	4		13	3	10	1	9	4	13					15
BURRO CREEK	7	8			1	7	4	5	5	6	3	6		7	2	8		1	3	1					4
YUCCA TUNGSTEN	13	12			4	10	10	4	13	11	8	3		13	1	14		8	2	8					9
SECRET PASS																				14					16
PEACH SPRINGS	8	6			5	3	5	4	7	2	4	9		5	5	7	1	6	4	6					10
CYCLOPIC	5	5			4	2	5	1	5	1	6	4		5	1	5		1	5	4					6
GLENWOOD
MOCCASIN	13	13			11	2	12	1	13	10	11	3		10	2	13		11	2	13					13
KEOHAN'S RANCH	5	5			4		2	3	5	3	2	3		5		4		1	5	7					5
STOCKTON HILL	14	13		1	8	7	12	3	13	8	11	3	4	14	1	12	1	8	7	14					15
TOPOCK	8	7			6	3	7	2	8	4	4	6		5	4	7		1	7	9					9
FORT MOHAVE
GRAND GULCH	3	3			3	2	3	2	3	3	2	2		3	2	3		3	2	3					5
WILLIAMS TUNGSTEN
PEACOCK	10	9			7	4	11	1	12	12	4	6	1	11		10		7	4	10					13
COPPERVILLE	15	16			9	4	10	6	14	9	8	15		14	1	12		10	5	14					17
MT. TRUMBULL	16	16			16	1	18	1	17	16	14	2		15	1	17		17	1	17					19
WILLOWS	7	7			1	4	4	3	6	7	5	2		7		7		5	2	7	</					