NOTICE!

To the Occupants of Lots on the "Way Up" Mining Claim Surface.

I have heretofore notified you that I own three-fifths of the surface ground of the Way Up mine. I now notify you that I claim no right to said ground against any one who has been in possesion of a lot or lots thereon for five years, as I think the five years statute of limita tion c mmenced to run on September 22, 1880, when the patent to the townsite issued. But, in any event, I would not disturb any one who has improve ments on a lot for several years; unless, in the case of one who has indentified himself with those who fraudulently obtained the townsite title from Alder Randall, mayor, or who now buys or has lately bought of them or given them aid or assistance

But, as to all of the lots on said Way Up mine now vacant or unoccupied, or that have lately been settled on or bought from the townsite claimants, or claimants under the Way Up mine, 1 will assert my rights, but will sell at a reasonable price, reserving my right to refuse to sell to any one who, by purchasing lots as aforesaid from other claimants and paying for more than two-fifths thereof has indentified himself with the frauds.

N. B. The two-fifths interest in said Way Up surface which I do not own or claim, does not belong to any one in Tombstone, as near as I can find out by the records of the county.

JAMES REILLY.

Notice.

I desire to noti y all settlers upon town lots, who have not already got the townsite title to the same, that they can procure the title from my agent, Jas. S. Clark. I propose to place the price upon the same so reasonable that all those who desire to own their property by paying almost nothing for the same can do so The prices will range from $15 to $50, accord ing to location. This certainly ought, and will stop all litigation, and I am sure it will meet with the approbation of all parties who desire justice and who would see justice done. J. W. LOCKER,

Further Notice.

As there has been considerable controversy in egard to raising money for school purposes in the city, I have instructed my agent, J. S. Clark, to pay into the county treasury for the benefit of the Tombstone public school the sum of ten per cent of all sales made by him of townsite property from and after this date. J. W. LOCKER.

About Sleeping Rooms.

Housekeepers will appreciate these remarks on the care of sleeping rooms, culled from Good Housekeeping:

It is to be regretted that paperings or carpetings should ever be used in the sleeping-room. Alas! what evil is lurk-ing in the area of the four square walls which encompass us! What enemy is that, although trodden upon, yet is not subdued? Let the walls of our sleepingrooms be calsomined and the carpets removed from the floors. Let the crevices be carefully filled with putty (any one can do this), and the floor neatly painted or stained. A rug at the bedside, with small ones at the bureau and commode (Kensington rugs), will relieve the nakedness of the floor. These should be carried out weekly, thoroughly shaken and exposed for an hour to sun and wind. Towels and wash cloths used during the day should never remain in the room during the night. I have seen wash cloths, used day after day in a sleeping-room, become sour and musty, emitting a strong odor both disagreeable and unhealthy. The water can and the entire toilet set must be kept perfectly sweet and pure. I do not mean merely clean to the eye, but clean enough for a chemist's use. Attention must also be called to the tooth-brush, which should always be thoroughly cleansed after using, and placed, handle down, in an upright holder. I have found odor enough about one tooth-brush to infect the atmosphere of a common sleeping room. In regard to ventilation, open as many doors and windows as permissible, avoiding a draft; but moving air is absolutely indispensible to the health of the sleeper. Let the bed stand as near the center of the room as possible, but on no account close to the wall. No one housekeeper may be able to carry out all of these suggestions, but it is the ideal of housekeeping, as it ought to be, which should be held up to the eye of the reader, that each one may choose what she can best carry out in her daily practice.

Ladies' Hair.

A "sweet disorder" in the arrange-ment of the hair is not only allowable just now about the temples and upon the crown of the head, but it is consid-ered very proper and "stylish" to allow numberless short stray zephyr locks to fall carelessly from either side of the graceful Erench twist which carries the most of the high hair to the front and sides of the head. The fashionable young lady thus coiffured naturally gives the idea to people not yet instructed in this new art of bair dressing, that she has either quite forgotten to make her usual toilet, or has recently encountered a gale. The struggling wisps, never-theless, are noticed upon every other "society girl" one meets just now. They are fashionable, and we know what fierce violent objections may quickly be crushed out and overruled by that magical assurance. Critically, how-ever, the "latest style" in hair dressing is an untidy one, but no more so than the wearing with the most carefully made and handsome toilet of a dingy and soiled undressed glove-a fashion which still obtains with many best dressed people. - N. Y. Evening Post.

Japan Ladies.

The ladies of Japan show not less readiness to adopt Western ideas and usages than the Japanese of the other sex. The belles of Zedo order dresses from Paris; and the progress of imitation has gone so far as to make a knowl-edge of the fashionable dresses of Europe an indispensable feature in the education of every Japanese lady who respects herself. A riding school is about to be opened in Yokohama ex-clusively for the use of native ladies, and it promises to be largely patronized. The Japanese Government is about to take a step which will have the effect of bringing the more solid branches of Western education within reach of the female subjects of the Mikado. A number of young women are about to be sent to Europe to re ceive a thorough training in the essential branches of female education as it is understood there, with a view to their subsequent employment as teachers in their own country when qualified.

A good deal has been said of late years as to the changes in the manners and customs of Quakers, who, it is urged, have put aside drab and laven-der for more decided colors, and indulge in many ways after a fashion George Fox would have reprobated. But it ap-pears from Mrs. Fry's memoirs that in her day some Quakers, at all events, were as frivolous as persons of any other sect. She and her sisters, the Misses Gurney, seem, indeed, to have had a thoroughly "good time," in the American girl's sense of that expression. She went to London in the season, and saw everything. Her hair was dressed in the height of fashion, and she "paint-ed a little." When an American Quaker of the old school, traveling in England upon a religious mission, cast his eyes around the company he was horrified and scandalized, especially at the appearance of Miss Elizabeth Gurney, who wore "purple boots, laced with scarlet."

Speaking of Sherman's position as vice president it is a curious coincidence that at the last inauguration he was the second to take President Cleveland's hand. President Arthur shook it first, just as he turned about and after finishing his inaugural and the next mai. 19 step up was Sherman, of Ohio. Had there been a vice president he would naturally have come behind Arthur, But there was none, and Senator Sherman happened to be the man to take his place.—Cleveland Leader.
