

Walnut Salad.

Break the shells of some walnuts, remove the kernels carefully, blanch them to remove the skins, place them on a dish, squeeze over them the juice of one or two lemons, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and let them macerate for three hours, turning them about occasionally. At the end of that time they will be ready for serving, and will make a very nice dish. If the juice of pure ripe grapes can be obtained it will be preferable to the lemon juice.

Decision Reversed.

"Did he decide to marry her?" "Yes; but she reversed his decision."—May Smart Set.

Fried Cauliflower.

Strip off the outside leaves of a cauliflower, cut off the stalks, let stand upside down in scalded water for half an hour, then cook in salted boiling water until tender, but not soft enough to fall to pieces. Drain thoroughly, separate into flowerets, dip them in beaten eggs, then roll in fine crumbs and fry in deep, hot fat. Serve with cream sauce.

Barnard Would Unionize Matrimony.

Port Smith, Ark.—Miss Kate Barnard, commissioner of prisons and corrections for Oklahoma, would unionize matrimony. "No matter how much I loved a man, I would not marry him if I had to work more than eight hours a day," she told the Arkansas conference of charities and correction here. Compulsory arbitration between husband and wife and a minimum wage scale she neglected to discuss.

"That's what I call 'hush money,'" remarked a father, as he put down the cash for a bottle of paregoric for the infantile member of his family.

Lumberman's Estate Pays $297,385 Tax

Salt Lake City.—The state of Utah will receive a $297,385 inheritance tax from the estate of the late David Eccles of Ogden, millionaire lumber and sugar magnate. An inventory places a value of $6,340,000 on the estate.

GEO. F. BAER'S WILL FILED.

Each of Thirteen Grandchildren Are Given $10,000.

Reading, Pa.—The will of George F. Baer, late president of the Reading Railway Company, has been filed for probate here. It is in Mr. Baer's own handwriting, and is very brief. To his widow he gives $400,000 and his beautiful home, Hawthorne, in this city, together with all household goods, automobiles, carriages, horses, etc., and to each of thirteen grandchildren $10,000, to be invested by their parents until each attains the age of 21, when it is to be paid to them. The servants who have been in the family's service more than five years receive $50 for each year of service. The rest of the estate is divided in equal shares among the five daughters. The estate is valued at over $5,000,000. No public bequests were made.

Are Your Kidneys Weak?

You may have kidney trouble and not know it. The only signs may be occasional twinges in the small of the back, constant lameness, dizzy spells or some annoying irregularity of the kidney action. But no sign of kidney trouble can be safely ignored. Kidney disease moves rapidly. It leads to dropsy, gravel, Bright's disease, rheumatism. If you suspect that your kidneys are sluggish, use Doan's Kidney Pills, which have relieved thousands.

A Colorado Case

Mrs. A. E. McKenzie, 2845 Delgany St., Denver, Colo., says: "My kidneys didn't remove the poison from my system and if it wasn't for Doan's Kidney Pills, I wouldn't be alive today. The doctor's medicine didn't help me one bit and I was in agony. Doan's Kidney Pills made my kidneys normal and before long I was in good health again."

THOUGHT IT "REGULAR JOB"

Old Workman, Grown Gray in the Harness, Resented Being Looked On as a "Casual."

Bill Smith had worked at a certain firm for sixty years.

So the two sons of the employer thought that he had worked for them sufficiently long enough to be pensioned off, and this they decided to do at once.

So they called the old man into the office, and told him that as he had worked for them faithfully and well all these years they had decided to pension him off, but that he could draw the same wage as he was then earning.

The old man turned away, but the two sons could see that he hadn't taken it at all in the spirit in which they had given it, so they said:

"Well, Mr. Smith, what's the matter? Don't you like it?" "No," replied the old man; "I always thought that this place was a regular job!"

"Cause of Death." "You say your automobile didn't touch this man, and yet he was dead when you picked him up?" shouted the prosecuting attorney.

"That's my claim," coolly retorted the prisoner. "My machine didn't touch him."

"And you were driving not over 12 miles an hour?"

"Not over 12 miles and—"

"And you saw this man start to cross the street?"

"Yes."

"Did you blow your horn?"

"I did."

"What sort of a horn is it?"

"One of those newfangled clatter-boxes that create a sound that is a cross between a shriek and a dying wail."

"That explains it. You simply scared the man to death."

What He Feared.

It was during a very violent thunderstorm in which the lightning flashes were particularly vivid, terrifying and frequent.

"Do not be afraid, Tommie," said his mother, "our Father in heaven holds the lightning in his hands."

"Yes, I know he does, mother, but then, you see, lightning is so quick and slippery that I am afraid he might let some of it get away from him when he don't mean to."

FINE WINTER RESORT

St. Moritz, in Switzerland, Wonderful Pleasure City.

Features of the Town Are the Result of Thirty Years Expenditure of Energy and Capital—Haven for Lovers of Winter Sports.

St. Moritz, Switzerland.—It has been said that it requires not only natural advantages, but a quarter of a century's labor, to make a really good Swiss winter resort. At St. Moritz is to be seen the outcome of 30 years of energy and capital expenditure. The Cresta, most wonderful of toboggan-runs—a glistening polished sheet of ice from Church Leap to Cresta village—is the result of many years of loving study and labor. The rinks are the product not only of much money, but also of long experience in the fine art of tending ice at an altitude of 6,000 feet. Many years of observation have enabled the devoted engineer of the bobrun to combine the maximum of thrills with the minimum of danger. At St. Moritz a man will find any winter sport he loves, and find it the very best of its kind. Bandy, tobogganing, bobbing, ski-joring, curling, are all at their best in this the most important winter sport centers in Switzerland, and are to be had side by side with every amenity and luxury of modern life. First-class hotels, a well-appointed club (where cards are not unknown), a fine English church (where the services are choral), a series of race-meetings, shops full of Paquin dresses, expensive instructors both in the complete Continental or English styles and in the most hybrid developments of the tango, covered lawn tennis courts lit by electricity and warmed by "central heating," such are a few of the adjuncts and by-products of life at St. Moritz in winter.

Church Leap on the Famous Cresta Run.

Pleasures and activities are as multitudinous as human nature in this gay vanity fair in the snow, where, in the electric air, the active are more vigorous, the delicate and fragile awake to new energy. The so-called "blue" rays of the Engadine sun have very magic and mysterious properties not merely of a therapeutic but also of a moral and a social sort. It is, however, primarily for winter sports that the newcomer will visit St. Moritz.

EASY WAY TO GOOD HEALTH

Stand Straight and You'll Steer Clear of Lung Trouble, Says Medical Body.

New York.—The first essential in the avoidance of tuberculosis of the lungs, or consumption, is to keep the lungs strong, so that if the germs are breathed they can do no harm, according to a bulletin of the American Medical association.

One of the most important things in keeping the lungs strong is to keep the chest wide open, so that the lungs can be properly used. If the body is dropped or stooped, or if the shoulders are allowed to drag forward (round shoulder), or if the head is carried forward instead of well back over the shoulders, the chest must be flattened, the breathing must be shallow, and the lungs, not being freely used, become weak.

It is in this type of chest that tuberculosis usually begins. The consumptive is usually narrow chested, with drooped shoulders and with the head craned forward. While the development of a strong, well formed chest is one of the most important factors in preventing tuberculosis, the same thing is to be desired if the disease has once started. Not only should we live in the open, but we should stand up straight and learn to "throw a big chest," so that the lungs can grow strong and the fresh air be taken in.

The runner, the singer, or any one who is obliged to make sustained effort is taught to stand and sit with the chest high, so that the lungs can be used to the best advantage, and if every one would do the same thing there would be less tuberculosis, because there would be fewer weak lungs.

NOT A SOOTHING APOLOGY

Bobby's Well-Meant Effort Probably Made Indignant Private Soldier Maddier Than Ever.

Colonel Blank had a little boy five years old, and little Bobby had often heard the men in his father's regiment spoken of as "Colonel Blank's men." So he said to one of them: "My father owns you."

The soldier was very angry. "You little imp!" he exclaimed. "What are you talking about? Nobody owns me."

Bobby's mother heard about it, and was much distressed. Calling the little boy to her, she said:

"Bobby, you were wrong when you said your father owns his men, and I want you to tell the soldier that you are sorry for what you said."

Running to overtake the private, the little boy exclaimed breathlessly: "I'm sorry my father owns you!"

HAIR CAME OUT IN HANDFULS

Hughson, Cal.—"Last winter my hair began to fall out and later my scalp began to itch terribly and my hair was full of dandruff. There were pimples broke out on my scalp, especially around the edge of my hair. Sometimes I would wake up at night and lie awake an hour or so with the itching. My hair came out in handfuls when I combed it. It was dry and lifeless and the dandruff was so thick it could be plainly seen."

"I used several different kinds of shampoo and soap but it got worse all the time for five or six months. When I had lost about half of my hair I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In about six weeks my scalp stopped itching and in two or three months my hair began to come in new. My head is clear of dandruff now and new hair is coming in all the time." (Signed) Mrs. W. R. Candlish, Dec. 10, 1912.

Law Condoned Negligence.

In Kelsey vs. Rebuzzini, in the supreme court of errors of Connecticut, it appeared that defendant, after notice that a division wire fence between his lot and a lot where plaintiff pastured his cattle was broken, took no steps to repair it and the following day plaintiff's heifers passed through the broken fence and reached a lot lying south of both of such lots and there cropped grass which had been poisoned in the mixing of a spray for potato vines, in consequence of which part of them died. Defendant did not know that the potatoes had been sprayed, or that any poison had been spilled on the grass and could not have anticipated that some person might have scattered poison about the grass there. It was held, assuming defendant's negligence, that it was not the proximate cause of injury.

Thoughtful.

Sick Women Made Well. Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N. J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N. J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock:

UTICA, OKLA.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
