

LOWELL SMITH ROUND WORLD FLYER, TO BE AT CELEBRATION

Captain Lowell Smith, he who lead the American army planes in the first flight around the world, will be a visitor to Winslow during the Tri-State Airway dedication, flying circus and aircraft show May 16 and 17, according to word received this week from Bob Hausler, who has been for a couple of weeks attending aeronautical conventions in San Diego and Los Angeles.

Captain Smith took command of the world flyers following the wrecking of Captain Martin's plane in Alaska, a few weeks after the flight started, when four ships set sail from San Diego March 17th last. Leading with his ship he succeeded in making the trip round the world with the other two, until one of the others was wrecked between Greenland and Iceland. Captain Smith himself suffered severe injuries in a mishap in China, but bravely continued the flight for weeks with broken bones unset, until, late in the fall, he landed on American soil.

Captain Smith is on a three-months furlough, and will come to Winslow by train, as he is taking a much needed rest from the strain of constant aerial work. He will be the guest of the city at the banquet and ball on Saturday evening, May 16.

Mr. Hausler will arrive in Winslow Sunday. He is expected to fly here in an naval deHavilland plane which has been detailed to his use in testing out the landing fields laid out and marked between Albuquerque and the coast at all important towns.

Indian Dances

Mike Kirk, of Gallup, leader of the dancers in the Inter-Tribal Indian ceremonies, was in Winslow yesterday and conferred with members of the committee about the part on the program his Navajo dancers will take. Joe Secakuku, of Canyon Lodge, who will provide a troop of Hopi dancers for the occasion, is getting things all arranged, and promises to aid in making this one of the most complete celebrations ever held in the southwest.

Boys' Model Planes

The contest on among the boys of Winslow to see who can make the best toy airplane, the winner of which contest will be rewarded with a special trip by plane into the blue sky, is creating a lot of interest. Several planes have already been submitted, and a few are being kept in secret places, so that they cannot be copied, to the detriment of the originator. All the planes must be submitted to the committee and put on display not later than Saturday evening, May 9, at 5 o'clock. The prize will be awarded the following week.

Young Movie Star Turns Picture Critic

Carmelita Geraghty is among those film players who see pictures. In one respect she differs, for while she closely follows every picture dramatic critics review as worth seeing, she also takes in those pictures that are "panned."

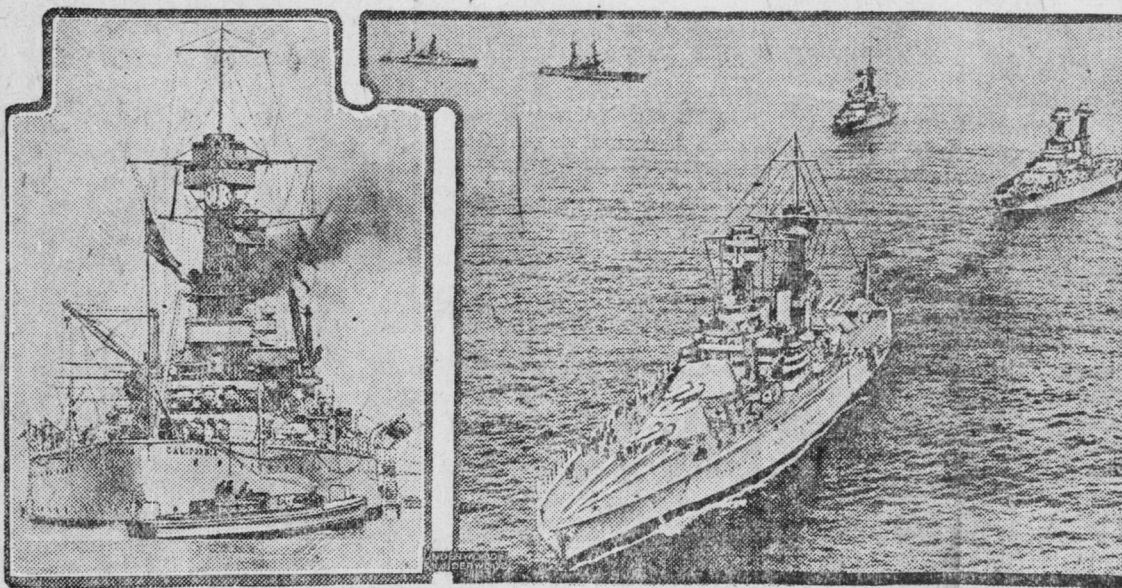

"Good acting and bad should be noted by the ambitious actor. I go to see pictures of all kinds. In this way I can elevate my own standards and by having examples of bad acting in my mind I take the better precaution to avoid doing things that are inartistic," she declares. "Every actor should read the criticisms of dramatic editors, and while one may differ with them sometimes, they offer valuable aid. Pictures are an open textbook on screen acting."—Los Angeles Examiner.

Miss Geraghty will be in Winslow during the airway celebration as the representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Winslow Rotarians Elect New Officers

Election of officers and directors of the Winslow Rotary club took place at the regular meeting held Wednesday noon in the Community hall above the Central drug store. The successful candidates were Claude Quebadeaux, president; Walter L. Martin, vice president; R. M. Bruchman, secretary; E. C. Gilpin, treasurer; J. A. Greaves and Charles Daze, directors. Installation of the new officers and directors will be held Wednesday evening, May 6, at the Baptist church. Special plans for the entertainment for the evening are under way and will be announced later.

BASEBALL LEAGUE OF NORTH ARIZONA COMMENCES MAY 3

The Northern Arizona Baseball League, with Kingman, Seligman, Prescott, Jerome, Clarkdale, Williams, Flagstaff and Winslow as members, begins its schedule of games next Sunday and continues with games every Sunday until Sept. 23.

Owing to the fact that Winslow had a game scheduled with Gamercos for next Sunday, Winslow will not participate in league games until May 10, when Clarkdale will visit here. Winslow will play ten games on the local field and nine away from home.

The schedule in full is printed on this page. It probably will not be printed again this season, therefore it is suggested that the fans clip it and save it for reference.

Evelyn Proctor 5,587

The winner of the contest will be the social representative of the city to receive Miss Carmelita Geraghty, the beautiful young movie star who will represent the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the young ladies to be selected by popular vote in other Northern Arizona cities.

At Holbrook six young ladies are striving for the honor, with Fay Flannigan leading, and Dorothy Twitt, Mildred Miles, Merle Douglas, Gladys Manley and Lillian Chamberlain actively contending.

Contests are on at Kingman, Williams and Gallup for the selection of queens.

Artillery Officer Will Come Here with Flyers

Rene Pincetl, secretary of the Winslow Reserve Officers' association, this week received word from K. V. Muehlberg, of the state association, that Captain McDonald, executive officer of the 382nd Field Artillery, will meet the contingent of flyers from Fort Bliss, El Paso, at Phoenix, and accompany them to Winslow for the Tri-State Airway dedication May 16 and 17. The army machines will leave El Paso on the 15th and leave Phoenix for Winslow on the 16th.

Bandsmen Will Meet at City Hall Monday Night

Frank Christensen, organizer of the band which will play its first date at the Tri-State Airway dedication ceremony on May 16 and 17, has called a meeting of all bandsmen of the city for Monday evening, May 4, at the city hall, at 7 o'clock. Mr. Christensen desires that all men who have had experience in band work be present with their instruments.

Rooms Are Tinted for New Beauty Parlor

The rooms in the office building formerly occupied by Dr. McIntosh are being tinted this week in preparation for a new beauty parlor to be opened at that location in the near future by Mrs. M. L. Weaver. Three booths and a waiting room will compose the new shop. A new facial chair and all up-to-date equipment has been ordered by Mrs. Weaver, and it is expected that she will open her parlor sometime during the early part of May.

WINSLOW WILL BE STARTING POINT FOR HOPI DANCE

Winslow promises for the first time in history to be the main starting point this summer for the greater part of the tourists who come from all parts of the United States to attend the annual snake dance of the Hopi Indians each year. This fact has been made possible through a pamphlet which is being distributed and mailed out all over the country by the merchants of the city.

The pamphlet is an interesting piece of literature prepared for distribution by the Winslow Commercial club and written by Charles L. Murphy. It deals with an introductory description of the desert and surroundings of Winslow which leads into a detailed account of the Hopi Indians, their mode of living, their traditions concerning the snake dance, and their actions during the dance, from the catching of the snakes to the last rites at the end.

R. M. Bruchman, local Indian trader, has mailed out about 7,000 of these circulars, sending them to merchants and customers on his mailing list. To date, replies have been received from practically every state, Mr. Bruchman says, and almost every mail brings additional letters.

Some of the letters ask for more information, while others state that the writers will be present for the dance if they are notified of the exact date of the dance. One reply from Oakland contained the information that a party of 12 people from there are planning to make the trip. They will come several days before the dance and make Winslow their headquarters while seeing some of the scenic wonders of the surrounding country, it was stated.

Another letter, from Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, states that a party of five are planning the trip from that place.

Many other letters of a like nature have been received, and Mr. Bruchman says that many have asked for more information who have not said definitely that they would attend.

The snake dance is the prayer of the Hopi Indians for rain and it is the only strictly religious dance of their tribe which the public is allowed to attend. It usually takes place at some time the latter part of August. This year it will be held at Mesa de Walpi, at which place the postoffice is called Polacca.

GAMERCO TEAM TO VISIT WINSLOW FOR RETURN BALL GAME

The Meteors will have a chance Sunday to pit their skill against the Gallup Gamercos on the home diamond, and notwithstanding the overwhelming defeat of last Sunday, the local boys are not downhearted over the prospect. On the contrary they are eager to have the chance to redeem themselves.

There is no denying that they will have some job on their hands, for the Gamercos is one of the fastest aggregation of players ever assembled in a small town. They always have a good team at Gallup, and this year is no exception, unless it be that they have a better one than usual.

The fans are assured of a good game, fast and clean. The Meteors are good sports, as are the Gamercos players, and whichever side wins, the spectators will know they have been to a ball game.

U. of A. Wins Three Straight from California

The University of Arizona took its greatest athletic victory of the year last week when it won three out of three games from the University of Southern California in the annual baseball championship series.

At no time during the games was the California team able to prove that it had the best team, and although for the first few innings of the second game of the series things looked bad for Arizona, they were able to rally under pressure and decisively put the California men out of the running.

One Killed in Wreck of Santa Fe Train

The engine, baggage car, mail car and two coaches of the five-car train left the track. Warboy's body was pinned under the overturned engine. The fireman was removed to a hospital at La Jolla.

Hammonds, of California, for the sum of $45,630, at Holbrook Thursday. The stock was sold under court order and all bids were submitted to the receiver and in turn opened in court and submitted to Judge Gibben of Apache, who presided at the hearing.

Among those who attended the sale were A. T. Hammons, superintendent of banks, and E. Ray Cawden, of Phoenix, and Burr Porter, of Navajo, who made bids on the stock.

Voorhies. The rank entitles her to participate in all military drills of the company. This is the way she looks in her uniform.

Mothers' Club Will Observe Music Week

As a special feature of the last meeting of the Mothers' club to be held this year, the pupils of the grade schools will present a musical program in connection with the observing of National Music week, which is to be observed between May 3 and 9. The meeting of the Mothers' club will take place at 3:00 o'clock on the afternoon of May 5, and will be held in the Washington school auditorium.

The program will be under the direction of Miss Hortense Miller, supervisor of music in the Winslow grade schools, and everyone is invited to attend. The program will consist of groups of selected songs to be sung by the different grades from the first B to the fifth grade inclusive. The classes of smaller children will perform separately, while the third, fourth and fifth grades will join in singing a number of folk songs. The origin and characteristics of the folk songs will also be explained by them.

Nephew Winslow Woman Finds Corpse in Chicago

A murder mystery in Chicago was started a few days ago by the finding of a mutilated body in a sewer catch basin by Jesse Williams Kerwer, 12 years old, who is a nephew of Mrs. Stanley Pincetl of Winslow.

The Chicago Tribune and other papers carried full accounts of the finding of the body, which is believed to be that of a young girl who disappeared from her home last June.

STILL ANOTHER ADDITION TO WINSLOW TO BE OPENED UP

Another addition will be made to the city of Winslow within the next few weeks, announces John L. Sweeney, owner of the Sweeney Heights addition, the sale of lots to begin as soon as necessary improvements can be made on the property.

The first section of Sweeney Heights, the three blocks containing thirty-six pairs of lots between Oak and Elm streets west of Washington school, were put on the market just after the first of the year, and the ready sale prompted Mr. Sweeney to proceed with the opening up of the second half of the division at an earlier date than he had at first considered.

The same building restrictions will be incorporated in the sale of lots in the three blocks to be sold as applied in the first sale. The property will be improved in a like manner, with the laying of concrete walks, lots and streets graded, and water, gas and sewer connections made, and in addition the streets will be surfaced with the blue-white rock as laid on the highway leading west of town and from the eastern edge of the city to the Little Colorado river bridge. Arrangements are now being made to have Maple street improved in this manner at once, through consent of people who purchased lots along Maple in the first subdivision and Mr. Sweeney. Bob Evans will have charge of hauling the material, which will be put on as soon as street grades have been perfected.

Out-of-town people were represented among the purchasers of lots in the first sale of Sweeney Heights, the first restricted residence district to be added to Winslow. Nineteen of the thirty-six pairs of lots were sold to prospective home builders in Winslow, four to people in Joseph City, three in Holbrook and three in Flagstaff. Williams people bought two, and lots were sold in Snowflake, Ashfork, Gallup, Needles and Albuquerque.

Several lots have been spoken for in the new addition, but the plans of the subdivision have not yet been perfected. However, it is expected that even a more ready sale will follow the formal opening of the next sale than prevailed in the former.

Mr. Sweeney states that in those cases where out-of-town people purchased lots, the drawing power of Winslow was stated to lie in the desirability of Winslow as a place of residence, the good schools and churches. Snowflake people in particular plan building homes in Winslow, owing to the fact that besides the schools and churches, the greater volume of their business is done here, where they find a ready sale for their farm produce.

HAROLD DRYBREAD TO BE BURIED HERE THIS AFTERNOON

The body of Harold Drybread, former popular Winslow youth, son of Mrs. Horace Evans, who was found dead in his bed at Los Angeles last Saturday, will be buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Evans home on Warren avenue. The services will be under the auspices of the Christian Science society of Winslow.

The body of the young man was brought home yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Croft of Prescott, the latter a sister.

Harold Drybread was born in Chanute, Kansas August 28, 1903. He was a member of the class of 1921 of the Winslow high school. At the time of his death he was employed by the McColloch Drug company of Los Angeles.
