AID OUR HOME ASSOCIATION.

Tucson, June 14.—The Arizona Children's Home Association is the only non-sectarian, or inter-denominational charitable institution of its kind in Arizona. It is supported by the donations of business and charitable people of this state irrespective of religious or political affiliations. This association was organized in 1915, in Tucson, having been started in connection with the same kind of work in California by Rev. Dr. Ginett, who did a great work for the homeless children of Arizona. After the Arizona Children's Home was organized, the Rev. E. D. Raley became the State Superintendent and he was succeeded by the Rev. W. L. Summers, who was the Superintendent for some years, but was called to California last September to assist Dr. Ginett, whose failing health made it necessary for him to have an assistant. Then Mr. D. L. Reid was appointed and is now the Superintendent and traveling over the state in the interest of the Home and homeless children. He is the only person authorized to represent the Home throughout the state.

The Arizona Children's Home Association desires the newspapers of the state to call the attention of the people to the fact that the liberal and charitable people of Arizona are being imposed upon by organizations and workers for these organizations in other states. Recently it has come to the Association through reliable sources that the representatives of Children's Homes, or Orphanages of various kinds have been in different parts of this state from New Mexico and Colorado, if not from other states, raising money for their institutions. Some of them have so represented their work that even people who know the Arizona Children's Home Association well, thought they were working for our institution.

Because of health conditions in Arizona, the people of this state do more than their share, according to the population, for sick and needy people from other states, and it is a double imposition on the people of Arizona to be expected to help support these institutions in other states in addition to all they are called upon to give to the Near East Relief, and the European and China Famine sufferers.

The Arizona Children's Home Association does not send its Superintendent into other states to collect funds for its work; then why should others be permitted to take money out of this state that should be given for the care of homeless children of Arizona?

Respectfully,
 FRANCES MAJOR, SECT.
 A. C. H. A.

SPECIAL ELECTION SEPT. 12.

Phoenix, June 14.—An executive proclamation calling for a special election to be held on September 12, 1922, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the state the eight proposed amendments to the state constitution as provided for by the special session of the fifth legislature, has been issued by Gov. Thomas E. Campbell. Copies of the proclamation are being mailed to each of the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the state.

Chapter 12 of the session laws of the first special session of the Fifth legislature, 1922, provides that a special election shall be held to submit the proposed amendments on the eighth Tuesday prior to the general election which makes the election on the same day as the primary election. The chapter further provides that the governor shall issue a proclamation proclaiming the election not less than 90 days prior to the date of the election.

Copies of the proposed amendments have been printed by Ernest R. Hall, secretary of state, and can be obtained by each voter in the state from the county recorders or from registering officers at the time of registration.

UNFAIR TO THE BORDER.

Are the El Paso papers Anti-Oregon? This question was asked today by a Nogales business man, after he had read in the papers of the Pass City for several days reports of new revolutions in Mexico.

Such reports have been "played up" prominently by El Paso papers recently and particularly since Minister of the Treasury Adolfo de la Huerta has been in New York conferring with financiers of various nations relative to Mexican finances.

To people residing in Nogales and other border points outside of El Paso, it looks like that the El Paso papers are opposed to recognition of the Oregon government and that they are siding in with persons who would like to see another revolution started in Mexico.

Printing of reports of trouble brewing in Mexico, particularly right at a time when it appears that the Oregon government is about to be recognized by the United States, is embarrassing to the Mexican government, and something should be done to prevent newspaper correspondents along the border from sending out such "news" as long as Mexico is at peace and there is no real prospect of a new revolution breaking out.

If there's a Yaqui war in Sonora, only El Paso knows about it and if there's a revolution in Mexico, nine times out of ten, it's revolution on paper only and the reports are started by the El Paso newspapermen.

The publication of such erroneous revolutionary reports as has been appearing in El Paso papers recently is damaging to the Oregon government, and is unfair both to that government and to residents of the border who depend largely upon Mexican business for their living. Such false reports hurt everybody and business in general along the border.

De la Huerta is a very busy man in New York these days, trying to arrive at an agreement about Mexican finances, and instead of papers trying to create the impression in the United States that new revolutionary movements are under way in Mexico, they should be advising the world the real truth of matters—that the Oregon government is the best that Mexico has had in twelve years, and that the reports of new revolutionary movements in Mexico are largely the result of news manufactured by a number of border newspaper correspondents working in conjunction with Mexican trouble makers residing in the United States who do not want to see recognition. —Nogales Herald.
