S. W. — I have been boxing as an amateur and self-trained for 2 years. My friends regard me as a good heavyweight prospect. Boxing is my ambition. I am 23 years of age, weigh 194 lbs., and 6 feet 1 inch tall. Would it be hard for me to secure a manager in the north?

Ans: You can't hope to accomplish much in the boxing game situated as you are... in the deep South. There are too many obstacles to hurdle and the quickest and easiest way to get started is to go north. I suggest that you go to any of the big cities such as Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, or New York. These cities have Golden Glove Tournaments; if you can get to the top through winning the Tournament, you will then be in a position to get a manager. A little tournament experience will prove to your satisfaction if you have what it takes to make the grade.

B. M. C.—He has spoken of marriage several times, but I would not talk on the subject because I feel that he suffers with an inferiority complex. Tell me does he want to marry me?

Ans: Men don't get down on their knees and beg a girl to marry them these days... they approach the subject and they feel if the girl is interested she will help him along. Since you know that he has an inferiority complex, is all the more reason you should help him express his wishes about marriage. You could win him if you tried.

J. R.—I am a sophomore in high school and would give anything in the world to play football this next fall. Should I go out for the team or forget the whole thing?

Ans: By all means go out and make a stab at the team. You won't make the first or second team, but there is a possibility of your getting on the third string. The exercise and association with the fellows will do you a world of good.

M. W.—The married man I go with is jealous of me and the single man I love is the one I really want. Tell me which should I give my time to?

Ans: Single men should be the only ones that you or any other girl should consider going with. You can't profit anything by associating with married men, but the single fellow does admire you greatly but he won't if you don't drop your friendship with this other party.

M. S.—Will I be successful in completing my profession and make good in life with my work and my husband?

Ans: There is no doubt but what you will complete your training and begin work... the help that you give your husband will make it possible for you two to put away a nice "nest egg" and buy the luxuries that you two dream about so much.

M. T. Z.—I am running a filling station and a store and there is barely a living as it is and I wonder if you have any suggestions to offer whereby I could make a little money?

Ans: After giving serious thought to your case, concentration reveals that your location is a poor one and this is the main reason that you do not do a good business. You must do some extensive advertising if you remain where you are in order to increase business. Look around and try to make a trade for a better location.

J. E. E.—My wife and I have read the column for years and I know if you put my question in the paper she is bound to see it. We always called her "Little Bit". I want to locate my darling little wife and make up for everything that has been done. She is really the only little girl I will ever love. I realized it soon after I left but I was cowardly and ashamed to go back to her but now I don't care for I want her under any condition. She is great for traveling but I know wherever she may go she will always read the paper and your column and she will see this. Thanks a million and please try to help me?

Ans: Conditions have changed greatly during the eleven years that you two have been separated. Indications are that you will come in contact with your wife again, but it does not appear to be in the immediate future.

R. T. C.—Am young, talented, and present a nice appearance. I wish to become a movie star and wish to know if it is advisable to go west in order to accomplish my aim?

Ans: One as ambitious as yourself will eventually reach your goal. The best possible thing for you to do is to go to Chicago or

New York and begin on the stage. You're talented, but you must have experience and learn to act. One of the two above mentioned cities would be the best place for you right now.

W. E. R.—I have three years more in college before receiving my degree. After getting my degree which one of the traditions do you think I will be best suited for, a medical career, dentistry, or to work for a Ph.D. in higher college?

Ans: I favor the course in Medicine or Dentistry for you. You possess the characteristics of a reputable Doctor and I feel confident that you would be contented and happy in work of this kind. Seek your higher degree if you like before taking up a profession.

T. A. D.—I love my wife and child desperately. Our separation was caused by her mother. I wish to know if I should leave town and go to my people and send for her?

Ans: Heaven's no. She wouldn't like your people any more than her people liked you. Make a change if you like, but get down to brass tacks and find you a job so you can take your wife and baby to live with you. She will come, but you must support her before you expect her to give up her head and butter where she is now.

J. F.—I love my wife but someone must have done something to us where we can't live together. My wife just can't stay at home long at a time and we want to know why?

Ans: There isn't anyone responsible for her restless disposition but herself. She could stay at home if she wanted to... she gets a big kick out of getting out and leaving her work undone, and I assure you that it will continue as long as you stand for it. Let her know that her place is in the home for a part of each day at least and she must keep up her end of the bargain.

R. N. W.—I am the agent for several newspapers here. I want to know whether or not I will be able to build a house or will there be a separation between my wife and me?

Ans: After giving your case serious thought, it seems to me that you could arrange to build a home of your own within the next year. There is danger of a separation between you and your wife... you can't go with ANOTHER WOMAN and expect your wife to stand for conduct of this kind.

Sue Leaf

Dear Sue Leaf:

I wonder if you can help me with my problem. I have heard of a resort in North Carolina for colored people and I would like to know if you can find out where it is. I have three children and want to take them away for a short trip.

Please explain in full the different styles of paying the bills. I want to go north and intend to stay at a hotel.

E. L. B. I understand there is a resort at Winston, N. C. You may be able to get full information by writing the Journal and Guide, Mr. P. B. Young, 719 E. Olney Road, Norfolk, Va. There is a resort for colored at Hampton, Virginia, Beach.

If you are interested in a lovely quiet place, why not try Georgia first. There is a charming place for you and your children, lovely conveniences, swimming, etcetera, about fifty miles from Atlanta near Monroe, Georgia. The place is known as Bay Shore Hotel and is known as Brigrory Inn, formerly Lake Lillian. Call the office if you are interested and further information will be given you over telephone.

Dear Bernice:

I know your town and what it affords. Why don't you come to Atlanta often to football games, meetings and the like. It is time you were looking out for yourself or what you want will pass you by. You have friends here so why not pay them a visit before school opens and meet some of Atlanta's eligibles.

Sue will help you with your problems. All letters will be treated confidentially and names withheld. All replies will appear in the columns of this paper.

NO PERSONAL REPLIES. Address: your problems to SUE LEAF, S. N. S., 210 Auburn Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia.

FIGHT POLICE BRUTALITY

PHILADELPHIA—(A N P)—Over 500 citizens of Germantown are holding meetings in protest against police brutality in that section against Negroes. The victim concerning whom the meetings are held is Samuel Hollman, 27, who was arrested two weeks ago and badly beaten because he was seen taking down automobile numbers in a notebook.
