LATE NEWS.

AN IMPORTANT CIRCULAR.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Atty. Gen. Miller has issued a circular to United States supervisors of elections, U. S. marshals and U. S. attorneys in all parts of the union in regard to their duties in the coming election. At the outset Mr. Miller refers to the fact that on October 5, 1886, President Cleveland addressed to Atty. Gen. Garland a communication thus:

"Dear Sir.—You are hereby requested to take general charge and direction of the execution of the statutes of the United States touching the appointment of supervisors of election and special deputies and the performance of their duties and their compensation, in so far as these subjects are by the constitution and laws under the supervision and control of the executive branch of the government."

Mr. Miller then says that he believes the authority thus given to his predecessor is general. The attorney general then submits his letter to the chief supervisor, Evans, under New York date. The Dennison letter is clearly in response to an inquiry from one of his subordinates, and in what Mr. Miller quotes, for the purpose of indorsing its provisions, occurs the following:

"Sir.—I am in receipt of your letter of the 11th instant, asking if the special deputy marshal has right to be inside the special place of registration and whether they can be inside the polling place on election day outside of the guard rail. The question raised by you is settled by a decision of the supreme court of the United States, Martin C. Burns, Lewis Coleman and Henry Bowers, reported in 10 Otto, 371. The case was heard on the petition of Siebold and others for habeas corpus. The petitioners were judges of election at different voting precincts in the city of Baltimore, in an election held in November, 1878, at which representatives for congress were voted for. They were indicted for alleged offenses committed by them while acting as judges of such election, were tried and convicted and sentenced to fine and imprisonment. They applied to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus to be released from imprisonment, on the ground that the federal election law was unconstitutional. Bowers was convicted on account of the indictment charging him with unlawfully obstructing, hindering, interfering with and preventing a supervisor of election from performing his duty; that of personally inspecting and scrutinizing at the beginning of said day of election, the manner in which the voting was done at the said poll of election by examining and seeing whether the ballot first voted at said poll of election was put and placed in the ballot box containing no ballots whatever. Tucker was convicted on a count in the indictment charging that he unlawfully prevented and hindered the free attendance and the presence of the special deputy marshal in the due execution of his office at the poll of said election, and the full and free access of the said deputy marshal to the poll of the election. The other petitioners were convicted for other offenses against the federal election law. The section of the law on which the indictments were founded and the other sections, the validity of which was sought to be impeached for unconstitutionality, are sections 2011, 2012, 2016, 2017, 2021, 2022 and in part sections 5814 and 5825. The decision of the court was against the petitioners.

STEALING REPUBLICAN CAPITAL.

The People's party are trying to induce railroad men to vote their ticket by promising that they will pass laws in their favor in case of injury. The Republican Territorial convention adopted the following resolution in that respect long before these people even thought of it, and the entire Republican party of the territory, not a single county, stands pledged to carry it out:

We favor the unqualified protection of all honest labor and capital through the means of local government, and condemn all efforts or attempts to control the same or the relations of one to the other by means of any armed body of men, imported into the territory through private sources, under the name of Pinkertons, or however else designated, believing it to be an American and subversive of the rights of the people. We favor the enactment of such laws as will protect the employes of corporations, who may be injured in the line of their employment.

TIME TO WAKE UP.

The Phoenix Herald gives the Arizona people the following hit on the World's fair question and we judge that New Mexico is in about the same position for slowness as Arizona:

The people connected with the World's fair in Chicago are beginning to inquire for Arizona: No building has been put up, no space applied for and no indications that the territory is in existence so far as indications go at Chicago. No wonder inquiries are beginning to be made as to what has become of Arizona. It might more pertinently be asked, what has become of Arizona's World's fair managers, the men who are supposed to handle the funds? Our World's fair commissioners for Arizona, Hon. Geo. F. Coats, W. K. Meade and Mrs. J. T. Butler and Miss L. Lovell, all are waiting; the counties are all waiting; the people of the territory are all waiting—waiting in astonishment that the managers have turned not a clod in Chicago or in the territory, while expenses have been paid to some where near $3,000. The very last day the fair authorities at Chicago would hold space for Arizona expired a few days since and only by an effort outside our "managers" was any space set aside. Had it not accidentally been mentioned the space on the ground would have gone to those anxious to occupy it, and our space in the main building has been cut down to fifty square feet. It is time for somebody to wake up.

The Territorial Republican Central committee says it has information that the Democrats intend to spread a report on election day that Mr. Catron was shot and killed by a Mexican he was attempting to put off of some land. As this has leaked out it is thought some other gag will be sprung on election day. Voters will do well to pay no attention to any such reports.

The Hispano Americano has removed into the premises of its friend, the Yoz del Pueblo.

WATROUS ITEMS.

Married, 1st of November, at the Catholic church at Tiptonville, by Rev. L. Gilbertson, P. P., Mr. Montfort, of El Paso, to Myrtle, youngest daughter of Taylor Maudling, esq., of Wagon Mound.

Rev. W. L. Gibbens gave one of his popular lectures last evening in the church, subject "Venice." A large attendance appreciated his remarks and hopes for another intellectual treat in the near future.

Miss Aspen, from Albuquerque, has obtained the appointment to teach the public school for the next term.

Rev. Gibbens lectures in Wagon Mound on Thursday evening, and in Raton on Friday, when he intends holding Episcopal services. PAX.

SANTA FE REGISTRATION.

The registration in the four precincts covering Santa Fe is 1498. This shows an increase of 178 over the total vote of two years ago.

In the Cerrillos precinct the registration is 235. Some of the Democratic manipulators down there had paid poll tax for 290 voters, but many of them were new comers and failed to show up when it came down to the question of registration where the law makes it a penalty for only qualified voters to apply for registration.

There is a small change in other precincts over two years ago.

Agua Fria registers 180, or two more than voted two years ago; Pojoaque registers 192, nine less than two years ago; Dolores registers 12 voters; Glorieta 40 voters, while San Pedro's registration 298.

There are six large dams across the Rio Grande in Colorado belonging to irrigating companies organized in Colorado; these with the Taos irrigating company take all the water in the Rio Grande river. Mr. Joseph is responsible for all this, and yet he comes here and asks for support.—Socorro Chieftain.

At last night's meeting of the city council, the Italian accepted $100 for the loss of his house on Ulibarri street. A box for the acquiescence was ordered to be put through the whole length of the same street. The electric light company's bill was not allowed because it was an over charge, the city having been deprived of the light 300 hours during the month. The usual amount of bills were allowed.

The boys have a good story on Griff Roberts, the night policeman. As Chas. Brown, the hack driver, was driving along the road last night, Griff came up to him and asked him why he had the windows of his hack painted. Charlie replied, they're not painted, so Griff told him to stop and with his pistol held in one hand while he rubbed the pane with the other he discovered that the paint was frost. It is only justice to Mr. Roberts to add that he was hunting for the men who held up Mr. Miller last night.

The Republicans and Leaguers of the West Side will hold a meeting at the court house tomorrow evening, to which they have invited the members of the People's party if they desire to have a joint debate. It is expected that the Union League will adjourn to meet with them.

The registration of precinct 49 reaches 559, being 200 short of the usual number.
