EDITOR ASTORIAN: SIR:—I see that your paper along with others, notably the Oregonian, advocates the passage of the bill now before the Oregon legislature, enabling the U. P. R. R. to lease the O. R. & N. I am not sure that any of the stockholders in the Oregonian are stockholders in the O. R. & N. Co., who would like to make sure of that 6 per cent. At any rate, I fail to see the harm to the state should the bill not pass.

It is very important to the people of eastern Oregon that the bill authorizing the lease of the O. R. & N. Co. to the Union Pacific, pass the legislature, and become a law. This will give a competing line to the people of the northwest, and will be a means of regulating freight rates.

Miss Maud Howe thinks that women ought to be permitted to vote for superintendent of streets in order to protect their skirts from a mud bath. In the meantime, however, it might be in the line of common sense to shorten the skirts a little.—Omaha World.

When the Republicans talk about a chance of getting back into power in 1893, do they ever think of the records they are making in the nomination of money-bags for governors and the election of check-books to the United States senate?—New York World.

The dispute with Canada over the fisheries has caused a good deal of unofficial bad blood between the two countries. Our government will not submit to any permanent policy opposed to the interests of humanity.

Read what Jeannie Winston, Portland's favorite prima donna, says of Wisdom's Robertine: "To Mr. W. M. Wisdom—The 'Robertine' you so kindly sent me is excellent. It is the finest preparation I have ever used, and is a decided acquisition to a lady's toilet."
