

The Daily Astorian.
ASTORIA, OREGON:
FRIDAY, MAY 2, 1900
City and County Official Paper.

The Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt thinks that if St. Paul were living now he would be editing a religious newspaper.

A Wisconsin court has decided that a husband may open his wife's letters. That is all very well so far as it goes, but what this country wants is a law to protect a husband who forgets to mail his wife's letters.

EMPEROR WILLIAM, of Germany is having a yacht built in which he will visit this country. If he should come to Astoria he will be made welcome and granted the freedom of the city during his sojourn with us.

A DAKOTA paper thus states its latest rival: "A man living about twelve miles from here died from poisoning Monday afternoon. It seems he ate a lunch that had been wrapped in a copy of our local and disgusting contemporary, and it killed him. Others should take warning."

Floating in the minds of a few Astoria people is an intangible idea that has not assumed the coherence of a thought, that without any effort or inducement a railroad "is bound to come here eventually." "Eventually" is a very indefinite term. Eternity will come eventually, but time is fleeting, and if the people now on earth, on this portion of the sphere, want to see a transcontinental railroad they must instantly and finally discard the idea that natural situation and original advantages will outweigh other inducements. Our northern neighbors have not one tenth the advantages or attraction of location that we have, but they are swinging all things possible their way by the force of attraction. The time has gone by for idle prophecy. The golden opportunity is at hand. Let it not be said of Astoria that the opportunity was allowed to pass without being improved.

Dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache and that tired feeling are cured by Hood's Sassaaparilla, which tones the stomach, promotes healthy digestion, creates an appetite, cures sick headache and builds up the whole system. Sold by all druggists. 100 Doses One Dollar.
