the same with all our Mens' and Boys' Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, Trunks, Valises, etc., which are lower than elsewhere.

THE OSGOOD MERCHANTILE Co.

The One Price Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers

505 and 508 Third St., next to Griffin & Reed's Book Store, Astoria.

WON ON MERIT.

LAY THOSE TWO FISHING OUTFITS ASIDE. You needn't keep them more than a half hour. We've examined several outfits in different stores, and we want to go to another. We saw an outfit in a window and both of us want to go and see it.

Thus said two customers to whom we had shown our fishing tackle. Further said they—We like your goods, but want to be sure of getting the best value for our money. We'll be back and let you see what we've bought if we like the other outfits better.

In less than half an hour back they come and say—We don't see anything that pleases us as well as yours. We'll take them.

GRIFFIN & REED.

TARIFF BILL WILL PASS

A Test Vote Shows a Majority For It.

CIVIL SERVICE LAW CHANGES

Kyle Introduces a Resolution on the Sandwich Islands—The Bribery Examination.

Associated Press.

Washington, May 23.—In the senate today Teller moved to lay the tariff bill on the table, in order to see if the bill was the one which the Democratic majority intended to pass.

The motion was defeated by a strict party vote—28 yeas, 38 nays.

Hill, Irby and Kyle voted against the motion.

Gorman spoke on the tariff. He claimed that action had not been unusually delayed. The Wilson bill had been reported before its effects upon existing industries could be properly studied. It failed to meet the demands of the treasury department and actually increased the deficit created by Republican prohibitive duties. In answer to the Republicans Gorman asserted that the compromise bill had been constructed on the Democratic theory of tariff for revenue with such incidental protection as could be given consistently to the industries of the country. It followed strictly the course marked out by President Cleveland in his letter of acceptance. This is not a free trade measure, but a longer step for the tariff act of 1883, and would prove the most advantageous tariff legislation since the Republican party sprang into existence. Gorman denied that any trust had dictated any part of any schedule. Justice to Louisiana required the retention of the sugar bounty.

Gorman deplored the fastening of an income tax on the tariff bill, but said he knew the majority of his Democratic colleagues differed from him, and the would vote for the bill.

Gorman's speech was the feature of today's session. He and Mr. Brice have been credited by the opposition with the joint authorship of the compromise amendments which consolidated the Democratic side, and Mr. Gorman especially has been subjected to much criticism, both in and out of the senate. The speech today was in a measure a reply to the attacks that have been made upon him, explaining the necessity for compromise and defining the theory upon which the modified bill, now before the senate, was constructed. It attracted intense interest, and was regarded as an exceedingly able exposition of the position of the conservatives.

Mr. Gorman's speech furnished texts for the Republicans for the remainder of the day. His statement that a majority of the senate would support the bill was put to the test by Teller, whose purpose was to "smoke out" any latent opposition on the Democratic side.

Gorman's statement was justified by the vote, as the Colorado senator's motion to lay the tariff bill on the table was met by an unbroken Democratic front. Both Senators Hill and Irby, whose positions have been the subject of gossip from time to time, voted with their Democratic associates, as did three Populists, including Peffer.

The following resolution was introduced by Senator Kyle:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the senate that the United States shall not use for the purpose of restoring to the throne the deposed queen of the Sandwich Islands, or for the purpose of destroying the existing government; that the provisional government having been duly recognized, the highest international interests require that it shall pursue its own line of policy; that intervention in the political affairs of these islands by other governments will be regarded as an act unfriendly to the government of the United States."

GEN. HASTINGS FOR GOVERNOR

Five Thousand Coxeyites Estimated to be on the Way to Washington.

Associated Press.

Harrisburg, May 23.—The Republican state convention held here today was the largest in the state in many years. The roll call showed the presence of 257 delegates, out of a possible 264. Gen. Louis Wagner, of Philadelphia, was made temporary chairman.

At the afternoon session the platform was adopted, which announced the same financial principles as the last state convention—favoring expansion of the circulating medium to $40 per capita; approving the issuing of national bank notes to a par value of bonds deposited, favoring a largely increased reserve of gold and silver as the standard money with restrictions that will maintain parity of value. The platform declares that the efforts of the Democratic party to destroy the system of protection has wrecked manufacturing establishments, destroyed the value of farm products and beggared the workingman. It denounces the selection of a Southern Democratic secretary of the interior, demands that anarchists be debarred from the rights of citizenship, and denounces the unpatriotic and un-American management of our foreign relations by the Democratic national administration.

UNITED PRESBYTERIANS.

The Assembly Opens at Albany, Or.

ALBANY, OR., MAY 23.—About 300 delegates and visitors to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church of the United States arrived in special trains at 5 o'clock this evening. They were met at Salem by a reception committee, and on their arrival in Albany were at once assigned to rooms at the various hotels and the homes of citizens. The assembly met in the splendid edifice of the United Presbyterian church, in this city, an immense audience being present. After prayer and song service, the annual sermon was delivered by the retiring moderator, Rev. James Bruce, of Andes, N. Y. At the conclusion of his sermon a reception was tendered the visitors at the church. An address of welcome was delivered by Mayor L. Flinn, on behalf of the city, and by Rev. H. Little, on behalf of the Albany church. Responses were made by officers of the assembly.

The regular business meeting will begin at 9 a. m. tomorrow. The visitors speak in the warmest praise of Oregon, and are delighted with the trip to the far west.

THE CUMBERLAND ASSEMBLY.

Eugene, May 23.—The Cumberland general assembly transacted but little business today, and since the question of whether women shall be ordained has been disposed of in the negative, the delegates seem to have concluded that little more is left to be done. This morning the pending report on theological seminaries was called up, and Dr. Goodnight spoke on the assembly affirming the election of teachers. After some discussion the question was brought to a vote and carried. This afternoon was devoted to the report of the committee on education. Many visitors were taken in carriages to the McKenzie river, where they enjoyed a few hours toying with the famous funny tribe, who inhabit that river.

Portland, May 23.—About 200 delegates and visitors to the United Presbyterian assembly, which convenes at Albany this evening, arrived here this morning on a special Northern Pacific train. They leave for Albany this afternoon.

THE SPOKANE BEATS THE RECORD.

Spokane, May 23.—The warm weather has brought the Spokane river to the highest stage known since the advent of white man. At 5 o'clock it was one inch above last year's record, and that was 21-2 inches higher than any previous records. The river is still rising. No serious damage is anticipated.

WANT WOOL PROTECTED.

San Francisco, May 23.—At a largely attended meeting of the California Wool Growers and Dealers' Association held in this city today Secretary Moody was instructed to send the following telegram to the California senators in Washington:

"Whereas, All other prominent industries are to be protected, in justice we ask protection for wool."

QUOTED ON STOCK LIST.

New York, May 23.—The governing committee of the stock exchange has placed the New York Security Trust Company certificates of deposit for the Spokane and Palouse Railway Company first mortgage bonds to the amount of $1,072,000 on the stock list.

THE MISSISSIPPI RISING.

LaCrosse, Wis., May 23.—The Mississippi here is at a 12-6 stage, the highest since 1882. It covers the railroad tracks, and the sawmills had to shut down.

POPULISTS OPPOSE FUSION.

Sacramento, May 23.—The Populist platform adopted today opposes fusion with any other party.

CALIFORNIA POPULISTS.

Sacramento, May 23.—The Populists have nominated J. V. Webster for governor.

TEXAS BANK ROBBERED.

The Thieves Escape With the Booty.

LONG VIEW, TEX., MAY 23.—At 3 p. m. today five robbers entered the First National bank. The president and cashier were ordered to throw up their hands, and the robbers secured $5,000. Several officers and citizens met the robbers, and a constant firing was kept up, during which George Buckingham and J. W. McQueen were killed and City Marshal Muckeler badly wounded. One of the robbers was killed. Over 400 shots were fired. The remaining robbers escaped, with the dead man's horse and gun. A large posse is in close pursuit.
