Don't Overlook Little Things.

The young fellow who thinks that little things are not worth bothering about stands a slim chance of ever having any big things to look after. Big things grow from little things. The tallest oak was once an acorn.

Formation of Asbestos.

Asbestos is found in fissures of rock and it is believed that, when the rock was forming and still hot, water penetrated the fissures, widened them and dissolved some of the silica and magnesia. On drying, these crystallized as a hydrated silicate of magnesia forming threadlike crystals building up from opposite walls of the fissure and meeting in the middle.

Compliment for Uncle Dick.

Uncle Dick, a bachelor, fond of children, was a great favorite with his little nieces and nephews, so when the new baby came and papa told them that the stork had left it at their house, Buddy said thoughtfully: "Too bad the stork didn't know where Uncle Dick lives."

Church of God.

P. M. Burgess, Pastor.

Services as follows:
(Eastern Standard Time.)

Sunday, July 4th, 1920.

The Lord willing—an all-day-meeting will be held, as has been customary for the past few years, at the Church of God Chapel July 4th (which comes on Sunday this year).

Sunday School at ten o'clock, Preaching Service at eleven. At one thirty a Baptismal service will be held at the lake after which we will return to the Chapel and partake of the other two ordinances of the Bible, namely: Feet-washing and the Lord's Supper. Preaching service again at seven thirty in the evening.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend this all-day-meeting. Other nearby congregations and ministers are expected to be present.

We feel this is a splendid way to enjoy a sane Fourth.

The word of God will be preached, and practised, in all its simplicity, purity and power.

Welcome to our services.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Burgess,
Pastors.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

LEMON PIE.

The world is full of gladness,
There are joys of many kinds,
There's a cure for every sadness,
That each troubled mortal finds.
And my little cares grow lighter
And I cease to fret and sigh,
And my eyes with joy grow brighter
When she makes a lemon pie.

When the bronze is on the filling
That's one mass of shining gold
And its molten joy is spilling
On the plate, my heart grows bold
And the kids and I in chorus
Raise one glad exultant cry
And we cheer the treat before us—
Which is mother's lemon pie.

Then the little troubles vanish,
And the sorrows disappear,
Then we find the grit to banish
All the cares that hovered near.
And we smack our lips in pleasure
O'er a joy no coin can buy,
And we down the golden treasure
Which is known as lemon pie.

Lion Heart as Nerve Tonic.

My lady of Zululand is not whisked off to a seaside resort or a mountain retreat to restore her shattered nerves; she is witch doctored with a prescription containing these ingredients: The heart and eye of a lion; the fat and flesh of an elephant; the hide of a rhinoceros; the second layer of skin of a hippopotamus; these mixed with the barks of many kinds of trees and soaked in the blood of a cow or sheep. This prescription is burned, made into a powder and taken internally. These and many "religious antidotes" of a like nature have been unearthed by the interchurch world movement in its economic, religious and social survey of the world.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

(Copy for This Department Supplied by National Headquarters of the American Legion.)

THE WORK IN PATERNALISM

Policy of Adopting Orphaned Children is Arousing Interest All Over the Country.

A total of three French war orphans, two girls and a boy, had already been assured of adoption in the American Legion's campaign for continuation of the late A. E. F.'s overseas paternalism, by contributions received at national headquarters of the Legion up to the close of business on May 25.

The forty-two members of the national headquarters staff of the Legion contributed $150 for adoption of the first two orphans, and the American Red Cross will be asked to select for them a boy and a girl waif as mascots for the next year or more.

Miss Lula B. Vize, a member of the headquarters staff, assisted in raising the money for the orphans.

The first post to send in its $75 contribution to the fund was Karl Ross post No. 16, Stockton, Cal. In a letter of transmittal, Ted Cloudsley, a member of the post and editor of the San Joaquin Legion, official American Legion newspaper of San Joaquin county, Cal., writes in part:

"We were told that there was a wide range of choice for us, so I hope you can secure as our war orphan a little Alsace-Lorraine girl of from six to ten years whose father was killed in battle. You see, we have a big post here and a big twice-a-month newspaper and such a little orphan would suit the boys best because of the sentiment attached.

"Please be sure that we receive the little one's picture and address. We will put her picture in our publication and would like to have her write to us. At Christmas time, too, we will be able to remember her."

THE RETURN OF THE DEAD

Red Cross Will Send Advance Notification of Arrival of Bodies From Over There.

The American Red Cross, as an especial courtesy to the American Legion, hereafter will send advance notification of the arrival of the bodies of American soldiers from overseas to posts of the Legion in towns and cities in which reinterment is to be made.

The Red Cross home service in each community will receive notice from Hoboken and in turn notify the relatives of the deceased and inform the Legion. Information will be received in time for local posts to make arrangements for the reception of the bodies and to provide for the formal honors due their dead comrades. Where there is more than one Legion post in a community, the county headquarters of the Legion will be notified, that it may designate the post or posts which shall render the honor.

Attends Vocational Conference.

At the request of Uel W. Lamkin, chief of the division of rehabilitation of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, Gerald J. Murphy, national vocational officer of the American Legion, was designated by the national commander, Franklin D'Oller, as the legion's representative to attend a recent conference of the board's district vocational officers at Washington, D. C., recently. The legion has inaugurated a plan of co-operation with the federal board, extending to each of the more than 9,000 posts of the organization in every state and community throughout the United States and many foreign countries, by which thousands of disabled ex-service men are being rounded up and gotten into immediate training every week. Plans for continuing the campaign until every pending case is definitely settled and all eligible persons are receiving the vocational training to which they are entitled, were laid at the conference.

Who Gen. George Crook Was.

The latest issue of The Crook Whizz-Bang, published spasmodically at Chicago by Gen. George Crook Post No. 434, American Legion, contains an interesting biographical sketch of the military leader of Civil war fame after whom the post is named. "He fought the Indians tooth and nail as commandant of the departments of the Platte and Arizona," the article reads. "His last official duties were performed as head of the Department of Missouri."

Will Erect Memorial Building.

Riggs-Hamilton Post No. 20 of Russellville, Ark., is planning the erection of a $75,000 memorial building, $50,000 of the amount being already subscribed. The post has 150 members.

Last Night's Dreams

—What They Mean

DANCING.

TO "TREAD THE MAZY" in shadowland; in other words to dream of dancing is, all the seers are agreed, a good sign. Just to dream that you are attending a dance foretells for you success in love and that you will have many friends if, indeed, it does not mean as many think, that you have many now, even if you are not aware of it. You had better join in the dream dance, however, and not be merely an onlooker; for to dream that you are dancing yourself is an omen of many other good things to come. However if you dream that you simply watch the others doing the minuet, fox-trot, valse de court, two-step or other terpsichorean exercise, it is not very bad—it only means that you have gone to bed tired. But to dream that you, yourself, are dancing—then, indeed, are things coming your way.

To begin with, there is the success in love and friendship. If you are unmarried, your sweetheart is kind, true, and will make you an excellent wife. If you are married, the dance of dreamland means an increase in the family. Also, all the authorities agree that for the dream dancer, there is a legacy impending. Some say a legacy is "probable," but most say that it is sure, and many declare that it will come from an unexpected source. To those in trade, the dream dance means increased profits, and from the present cost of things it is quite evident that many tradesmen have dreamed this dream of late.

To the sailor to dream of dancing foretells a pleasant and successful voyage, and to one and all it foretells good news from a long-absent friend, or from a distant country. Just one caution. Be careful how you dress yourself for your dance of dreams; for it you wear dancing tights, while all the other good things may come to you, you will be temporarily short of money.
