INTERESTING SESSION HAS BEEN PLANNED.

The committee having charge of the winter meeting of Seward Pomona, to be held at Keweenaw Bay, has no definite program arranged as yet.

James A. Daley, an expert poultryman of Mohawk, will be present to talk on chicken raising, and we are informed that Supt. Clinton and George McNeil will give addresses, Mr. Clinton speaking on "Why Agriculture Should be Introduced into Our High Schools," and Mr. McNeil on "The Potato Industry in Baraga County." The Keweenaw Bay Grange will look after the musical numbers.

A dance will be given in the evening. All members of the Grange and others are urged to be present, as the winter sessions are always interesting and important.

A Former Resident.

John Gunness, a former resident of L'Anse, died last Saturday at his home in Anaconda, Montana, the news being received here with deep regret.

He came to L'Anse in the boom days of 1871 and for ten years or more was employed by J. B. Smith as a clerk in his general store, marrying Annie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Welsh.

Mr. Gunness left here in the early eighties for Hancock, where he was associated with James H. Segar in the manufacture of brick. His next move was to Anaconda, where he entered the same business, growing from a small to a large plant.

He is survived by a wife and four sons.

He Comes Up Smiling.

It is an old saying, often proven true, that you can't keep a good man down—he comes up smiling. This tells something of the theme of the new serial story soon to appear in the Sentinel. "He Comes Up Smiling," by Charles Sherman, one of the most delightful and entertaining tales that has been written in "many a moon." It is the story of a happy-go-lucky vagabond—no ordinary tramp—with a hearty contempt for work and an appetite for adventure that leads him into a delightful romance. In every emergency he "comes up smiling" and eventually lands at the top of the heap. Read the first installment of this story and you will "come up smiling" for more.

Receives Holstein Cattle.

Frank Stack on Wednesday received a pair of thoroughbred Holstein cattle direct from Amsterdam, Holland, and all who saw the animals adjudged them beauties. This breed is the celebrated type prevailing in all dairy countries.

Mr. Stack's land is located on the north end of the village limits and there he will endeavor to raise stock of the better grade. He is to be commended by the farmers for purchasing the best stock.

FINDS TIME TABLE OF OLD RAILROAD.

Office employees of the Oliver Iron Mining Company, while looking over old books and papers that were used by the Lake Superior Iron company in the sixties, and which had been stored away for many years, last week found a number of ledgers and other things containing information which is interesting to many copper country people. Among the cast away articles was a time table of the Marquette, Houghton and Ontonagon railroad, which went into effect on Sunday, May 25, 1877. Samuel Schoch, who is remembered by many of the pioneers, was then general manager and superintendent of the road, and L. S. Glazier was telegraph dispatcher.

At that time the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon railroad, which was later absorbed by the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railway company, ran only as far as L'Anse. In those days, the mines in the vicinity of Michigan were in operation and the greater part of the ore produced in Marquette county was shipped from Marquette.

A number of stations to be found on the map have long since been abandoned as stopping places for trains to and from Marquette. The first station out of Marquette where trains made regular stops was Bancroft, then Bruce, Morgan, Eagle Mills, Carp and Negaunee.

The stations at which stops were made between Ishpeming and L'Anse were Ontonagon Junction, which is now known as Winthrop Junction, Saginaw, Greenwood, Cralksburg, Humboldt, Champion Switch, Champion, Empire Siding, Michigamme, Spurr mine, Three Lakes, Sturgeon, Summit, Palmer and Taylor.

The passenger train made two round trips a day between Marquette and Ishpeming, but there were a dozen or more ore trains running regularly between that city and Marquette.

Among the rules and regulations published on the back of the time card the following reference to the time under which trains were operated is of special interest:

"The clock in the office of the telegraph dispatcher in Marquette is the standard time. Conductors and engineers will compare time daily, and keep their watches in exact conformity with it. Conductors and engineers not running into Marquette will compare time daily with conductors and engineers on through trains. Roadmasters and foremen of sections will compare time as often as once a week, and oftener if practicable.

"Three minutes are allowed for possible variation of watches and trains having the right of the road must always make this allowance of three minutes in favor of opposing trains. This variation of time must never be used for running under any circumstances whatever."

A section of the general railroad law of the state then in effect contained the following provision:

"Any conductor, engineer, servant or other employee of any such railroad corporation, who shall knowingly violate any of the written or printed rules or regulations of such company in relation to running of engines or trains shall be subject to a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, or to an imprisonment in the county jail of not more than three months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court."—Mining Journal.

AGED RED MAN PASSES AWAY.

Benjamin George, one of the oldest pioneer residents of Baraga county, died Tuesday morning at his home in the M. E. Mission at the age of one hundred and one years.

He was born in 1812 near the present city of Marquette and at an early date came to this section, which has since been his home. He was a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal church and early assisted in converting his brother Indians to this faith. To live over a century is a distinction that but few share, and Mr. George has seen many changes come over this district. He has seen the bringing in of the railroad; telephone, telegraph, the auto and many other improvements, and has seen the giving way of the wigwag to the palatial homes and fertile fields of our prosperous settlers.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning from the M. E. Mission church, Rev. G. P. Davey officiating, interment being in the Indian burial ground at Pinery, beside the body of his wife, who died only a few weeks ago.

MASS MEETING OF BARAGA CITIZENS.

At a meeting of the citizens of Baraga, held Thursday evening, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Congressman MacDonald made report for a fair and impartial investigation of conditions in the copper strike in Michigan; a statement of facts concerning this district which we believe are indisputable and that there is a most urgent need for an investigation of the labor disputes existing in the Upper Peninsula, and

Whereas, a number of pretenders representing the Progressive party of the 12th district of Houghton county, Michigan, have taken it upon themselves to censure Congressman MacDonald for his action in demanding a congressional investigation of the copper strike, and

Whereas, we severely condemn the action of U. S. Senator Charles E. Townsend in misrepresenting the people of the copper strike of Michigan in saying "There was no need of an investigation at this time." Therefore be it

Resolved, by the citizens of Baraga in mass meeting assembled this 22nd day of January A. D. 1914, do most sincerely endorse the report of Congressman MacDonald and of the truthfulness of same and the urgent need of a Federal investigation, and be it further

Resolved, that this body emphatically condemn the action of members of the "Citizens Alliance" in telegraphing extortions to Congressman MacDonald for his action in trying to secure a Federal investigation and that matters that are wrong or believed to be wrong looked into and made right, and that we also condemn all statements published from time to time concerning the action of Congressman MacDonald; and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to Congressman MacDonald and to the L'Anse Sentinel and Baraga Journal for publication; and be it further

Resolved, that Judge Patrick H. O'Brien be commended for his actions and attitude taken in the copper strike and for his judiciousness in showing no partiality and taking no sides in meeting out justice and further we condemn the actions of members of the Citizens Alliance in criticism toward the action of said Judge Patrick H. O'Brien.

Receives Order for Boat.

Thomas Carberry on Tuesday received an order for the building of a 25 foot launch for Burnstad Bros. of Munising. The boat will have a 10 h. p. gasoline engine and will be built for good speed.

Mr. Carberry was employed last year as assistant millwright by the Butters Lumber Company. Most of our readers are unaware that he is a builder of yachts, but prior to locating here he turned out a number of crafts that were speed winners.

Sam Emery on Monday started hauling his timber to the landing on L'Anse bay. He will deliver 1300 hemlock ties to the National Pole company and one hundred thousand feet of logs to the Baraga Lumber company.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST LIQUOR LAID OUT.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs Cato Sells has outlined his program of bettering the conditions of Indians and recovering from embezzlement the millions of dollars the red men have lost to land sharks.

The commissioner met thirty special officers and clerks at Denver, Col., and received their report on what they had done to suppress the liquor traffic, which is obviously at the root of a great deal of misfortune attending the Indian. At Muskogee, Okla., he held a conference with forty county judges of the forty counties in which there are Indian tribes, with the attorneys of the tribes and with a number of attorneys he appointed. These latter are to look into the cases of numerous estates of the richest Indians in America, which have been dissipated and the heirs impoverished.

Commissioner Sells is a man that certainly intends to see that the Indian interests are fully protected. It is his intention to squash the liquor traffic among Indians. He is also appointing attorneys all over to look into Indian matters and straighten them out. This in itself is a good move.

MASON'S "DROWNING" CUTS NO FIGURE.

The following is taken from the Detroit Free Press.

That Attorney W. L. Mason staged a fake drowning to throw creditors off his track, is allegation made in the case of Samuel L. Smith vs. John O. Maxey, now on before Judge Murphy.

Attorney James O. Murfin for Smith and Angus Kerr, of Houghton, for Maxey, are both of the opinion that Mason became involved and adopted the "drowning" methods as an easy means of evading those who were seeking him.

The affidavit that Mason had been seen was produced by Attorney Kerr, but the plaintiff holds that Mason's fate cuts no figure in the case. Mason, it is alleged, acted as a go-between in a deal of the L'Anse Lumber company to sell out its property to the Marshall Butters company. Mason got land from Smith for $10,000 to be paid for later, the understanding being that the L'Anse company, then just being organized, could sell out at a profit to the Marshall Butters company. The Smith property was sold to Maxey who turned it over to the Butters company, receiving $9,000 for it in the transfer. Maxey claims he was to pay Mason nothing for it.

Condolence Resolutions.

The following resolution was adopted by the L'Anse Odd Fellows:

Whereas, God has promoted through death G. W. Moore of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, a faithful and beloved brother of the L. O. O. F., L'Anse Lodge No. 445, and

Whereas, we have lost from our Order a member of the very best type who was ever willing and anxious to aid in all works of fraternity, while he shall be missed still we realize that God whose all-seeing eye looks into the future, does all things well.

Therefore be it Resolved, that we extend our sympathy to his beloved wife and survivors and assure them that we mourn with them in the death of so useful a member of society; and

Be it Further Resolved, that we drape our charter for thirty days and spread a copy of these resolutions upon our minutes and commit him to the God of love in his translation to the realm of F. L. and T.

L'ANSE TAKES THE INITIAL CONTEST.

The first hockey game of the season in Baraga county was played on the new Pequaming rink last Sunday afternoon between the L'Anse and Pequaming teams, L'Anse being on the big end of a 7 to 4 score.

The game was rather rough, but despite this fact it was a pretty contest.

The first half ended 3 to 2 in L'Anse's favor.

The second half opened up with Pequaming netting two goals, one by a high shot from the center of the ice with the goal tender asleep on the job and another by a rebound from a L'Anse players' stick, the puck being shot from back of the net. They scored no more after that, but L'Anse brought its score up to seven.

Two Pequaming lads appeared in the line-up with L'Anse, Wm. Neipert, and Alfred Andersen. Neipert scored 2 and Andersen 4, with the result that Andersen has had his measurement taken for a Pequaming uniform. It was a losing mistake for someone, methinks, for "Dave" was one of the best players, if not the best, on the ice Sunday, and with few changes Dr. Marshall's boys should at the very least clean up on anything in the county. They're perfectly willing to try it anyway, for fun or marbles.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, God has seen fit to remove from our midst, by death, Charles Picard, a faithful charter member of L'Anse Grange, and

Whereas, we shall greatly miss our departed brother who so greatly assisted us in keeping up this Order,

Therefore be it resolved, that we extend our sympathy and heartfelt grief to his beloved wife and children and assure them that we mourn with them in their loss of a faithful husband and father; and

Be it further Resolved, That we drape our charter for a period of thirty days and that the secretary be instructed to spread a copy of these resolutions upon the record books.

Zeeveldt Resigns.

L. G. Zeeveldt, superintendent of the Baraga electric light and water station, has tendered his resignation to the common council, to take effect March 1st, when he will leave for Millbank, S. D., to assume a position similar to the one held here.

Mr. Zeeveldt has had charge of the Baraga plant since its completion, September 1, 1912, and through this period has given the citizens of Baraga the best possible service, and has kept the institution up in a splendid manner.

Robert Martin, the present electrician, will no doubt succeed Mr. Zeeveldt as superintendent, he being competent and perfectly familiar with the workings of the plant.

CONVENTION FOR U. P. GRANGERS.

A call has been issued by the Grangers in Escanaba for an Upper Peninsula Convention to be held in that city on Tuesday, February 3, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization.

Northern Michigan has many problems of vital interest to itself and the purpose of this meeting is to promote the welfare of Cloverland for and by the Grangers. There are 125 Granges in Upper Michigan and each will be urged to send at least two delegates.

At this convention Governor Eberhart of Minnesota, who made the splendid address at the recent State Grange convention, will be present and will give an address. Dean Shaw of the Michigan Agricultural College will also be present. Invitations have also been extended to Governor Ferris, State Master John C. Ketcham of Hastings and D. E. McClure of Lansing.

In addition to this organization movement for the Grange, there will be a Farmers' Short Course in session in Escanaba the first week in February; also the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau will hold a meeting on Feb. 3rd, and the Delta County Pomona will hold a meeting. So it will be a week of big things for the farmer who visits Escanaba for the occasions.
