

Sunday next, is March 1st.
Harry Osburn Sundayed in Owosso.
75,000 envelopes in stock at THE TIMES office.
Moore's Cornet Band has added a clarinet player.
Keep your firm name and business before the public.
Gent's furnishing goods at bottom prices at THE FAMOUS.
An immense job stock received at THE TIMES office this week.
John Wesener returned to the Agricultural College on Wednesday.
M. W. Willoughby left this morning for Ann Arbor to visit his family.
The genial face of Stanley E. Parkhill was seen about the city on Sunday.
Your sign in the weekly paper is fresher than the one painted on the fence.
There has been more than 40 days since January 1st that the thermometer has been below zero.
There is to be a partial eclipse of the sun visible in Michigan on Monday the 16th day of March.
R. N. Parshall, of Perry, and Howard Parker, of Flint, will wrestle at Linden tomorrow night for a purse of $100.
The rink was opened Wednesday evening to accommodate a sleigh load of young people who drove over from Perry.
Grand masquerade carnival at the Rink Saturday March 7th. All intending to mask will leave name with proprietors.
Mrs. H. B. Tillotson left for New York last Monday night. She was accompanied by Mrs. N. G. Phillips, of Bancroft.
Advertise in THE TIMES—goes everywhere in the city and county—is a salesman that never sleeps, and never is weary.
The Shiawassee county lodge of Good Templars met at Bancroft on Wednesday. The prize banner was awarded to Bancroft lodge.
Miss Lucy Scott, of Cleveland, who has been visiting at E. B. Knapp's and Mrs. Dr. Goddard's homes, for the past six months, returned home last night.
Miss Nellie Griggs, of Rochester, Mich., and Hal. D. Swayze, of Granger, Ind., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Swayze, of this city, a few days this week.
The Publishers' Book Sale which has been so successful for the past week, will continue one week more at Dingman & Laverock's on Washington street.
S. F. Smith was at Flint on Wednesday settling a bill of exceptions before Judge Newton in the case of Augusta Merkle, as administratrix, etc., vs. Bennington township.
E. A. Gould is in Jackson to day. He was called there by W. F. Brown of the Spaulding Manufacturing Co., Chicago, for whom they have a large contract to manufacture polo bats.
We have sent out from our job department this week 5,000 quarter sheet circulars printed in two colors for the Bailey Mfg. Co., setting forth the merits of their self-centering gauge lathe.
The case of John T. Crane vs. School District No. 6, of Bennington, was tried on Thursday of last week before Justice Harper, at Corunna, and a verdict of $100 rendered in favor of the plaintiff.
F. H. Winegar, champion boy skater of the Northwest, will give an exhibition at the Owosso Roller Rink on Tuesday evening next. He is a fine expert and trick skater, and will introduce many new and novel feats.
The Bending Works shipped their first straight car load shipment of scythes, snaths, rakes, etc., to Liverpool, this morning. Also a car lot to Grand Rapids. This is one of the liveliest firms in Owosso and are now under full headway. We predict for them a prosperous future.
At the championship race last night, Fred Shaw won and received the gold medal. The race was very close between him and Alfred Goodell of Corunna. At the close he was at once challenged by young Goodell and they will try it again on Thursday evening next at the Owosso Roller Rink. Later—the winner has been challenged, again, by George Robinson of this city, and the three will contest on the above date.
A 11 year old girl named Eva Bradley, taken from the Coldwater Public School about a year ago by some parties in Clinton county, and afterwards transferred to a Mr. Stevenson of this county, was arrested last week for arson on complaint of Stevenson. The case was taken in hand by Prosecuting Attorney Smith and H. B. Gates county agent of the Board of Charities, and resulted in the girl being sent to Newaygo to the Superintendents of the Poor by order of the Coldwater school authorities. That a girl of her age would set a house on fire, with criminal intent, does not seem possible.

Hon. Hugh McCurdy intends to see Cleveland inaugurated.
Remember the Ithaca social at Oakeside next Tuesday evening.
Episcopal services during Lent on Tuesday and Friday at 7:30 p. m.
Advertising is a commercial science as indispensable to real business as book-keeping.
Dr. O. J. Perkins, of Byron, has been seriously sick for several days— inflammation of the lungs.
We learn that Mr. G. S. Beardsley, of this city will soon open a photographic gallery in Corunna.
An Ithaca social will be given by the Ready Helpers at Oakeside next Tuesday evening. Admission 10 cts.
Thos. M. Savage, one of the leading business men of Grand Haven, was in this city Thursday, the guest of P. M. Rowell.
Married, by Rev. J. Donnelly, in this city, Feb. 25th, Mr. Wm. H. Sharp and Miss Amelia M. Petty, both of Bay City.
The annual collection for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions will be taken at the Congregational church next Sunday.
J. V. Stickney, for several months past the editor, has purchased the Detroit Post. It will continue to be one of the best dailies published in the State.
At the State Prohibition convention Thos. M. Cooley was nominated for Justice of Supreme Court; L. S. Ellis, of Manistee, and F. B. Cressey, of Detroit, for Regents of the University.
We wish all our patrons would think up the name of some friend or enemy—who would be benefited by subscribing for THE TIMES and thus double our circulation.
K. Beelby, of Rush, will sell at auction at his place on section 19, on Tuesday March 10, 1 span of mares, a new milch cow, a four year old cow, etc., and a quantity of farm tools, etc. Usual terms.
In the case of the People vs. Luther Sawtell, on charge of embezzlement, before Justice Taylor of this city, the examination was partially had on Tuesday and was continued until April 9th.
Miss Ella Buckley, a young lady employed as a domestic in the family of Chas. Lawrence, died on Wednesday morning after a short illness from pneumonia. Her parents live north of the city.
About one half of the township treasurers have made their returns to the County Treasurer—most of them have collected all the taxes, but very few descriptions being returned. Mr. Southard, of Bennington, returned a clean roll, every dollar collected.
D. L. Murphy and C. E. Godfrey, of this city, have purchased a furniture store in Bancroft, and will take possession next week. Both of these young men have been in the employ of the Woodards for several years, and are two of Owosso's best citizens. We wish them abundant prosperity.
Corunna Journal: It is getting to be a common thing for young Owosso boys to visit Corunna Sundays and paint the town red. Really they present a deplorable sight.—Two ex-soldiers were mustered into the Wallace Post last Friday evening. The Post is rapidly gaining strength. All old soldiers should belong to it.—The Adventists of Judd's Corners are preparing to build a shed one hundred feet long to shelter their horses.—A Vernon baby was recently welcomed into the world by its parents, grand-parents and great-grand-parents.
VISIT OF QUACKENBUSH POST
Quackenbush Post, No. 205, G. A. R., of Owosso, under the leadership of Commander Wiley, paid Wallace Post, No. 160, G. A. R., of Corunna, a pleasant visit on Friday evening last. They were cordially welcomed by Commander Wilcox in a neat and characteristic speech on behalf of the comrades of the Post. The visitors were well pleased with the manner in which they were received by the old soldiers of this city. After the adjournment of the Post they repaired to the Central Hotel, where a very pleasant time was passed. Reminiscences and recollections of the war were indulged in by the veterans and a general good feeling prevailed among them. Notwithstanding the jealousy existing between the two cities, it was all forgotten by the friendly visit of the "boys in blue," who wish to retain the same brotherly feeling they had when they marched shoulder to shoulder over the bloody fields of the South. About thirty comrades composed the visiting delegation. Commander Wilcox was in his usual happy mood and made them feel at home. An invitation was extended the Wallace Post to attend the performance of "Andersonville, or The Scout's Last Shot," in Owosso, on Friday, Feb. 27th, which was accepted. Commander Wiley is a genial, pleasant gentleman and made a very good impression by his humorous and happy style. Three or four sleighs conveyed the visitors home.—Journal.

Petitions are being circulated praying the legislature to amend the law so that the liquor tax shall be paid into the county poor fund.
STOCK NOTES.
P. M. Rowell had his mare Kate Rowell, out for a little exercise on Wednesday, and the way she went up the street was a surprise.
Mr. E. M. Jordan, of this city, has sold to W. A. Underwood, of New Haven, the Jersey heifer calf, Daisy Yokun; sire Syringa's Yokun; dam Daisy Hendricks.
Messrs. C. Hibbard & Son killed on Feb. 23d three full blood Berkshire hogs, sixteen months and two days old—live weight respectively 521, 415 and 311 pounds; dead weight 289, 378 and 279 pounds; net shrinkage 32, 37 and 32 pounds each. This beats the best record.
Bert. Holmes, of Vernon, has sold his trotting mare (sired by Judge McCurdy) to T. W. Whitney, of St. Louis, Mich. As a two year old this mare trotted very fast at our county fair. Reported price $600.
Messrs. James and Fred Osburn have sold to Bruce Buckminster their pacing mare; sire Napoleon; dam said to be a Morgan mare. This mare is a fast one, and she is likely to prove a bonanza, as a breeder.
The magnificent imported Percheron stallion "Volney" belonging to Hiram Byam that took first premium at the last fall fair of the Central Michigan agricultural society and was said to have been the finest animal of the kind ever brought into the State, died at his owner's stock farm in Eagle last Friday morning. His death occurred just a year to a day from the time Mr. Byam lost the valuable imported horse "Montrose," a remarkable coincidence or else a very suspicious circumstance.—Lansing Republican.
James Baldwin, of Ovid, has purchased of D. P. Wilcox, of Riley, Clinton Co., the Short Horn cow Fourth Maid, Forset Hill, 15919 and heifer calf Pride.
Tell your neighbors to take THE TIMES.
CAUCUS CALLS.
OWOSSO CITY.
Republican caucus, to elect delegates to the county convention, will be held at the Council room Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m.
By order Com. C. McCORMICK, Chairman.
OWOSSO TOWNSHIP.
A meeting of the Republican electors of Owosso township will be held at the Brooks school house in said township on Monday the 2d day of March 1885, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing six delegates to the county convention to be held at Corunna, March 3d, 1885.
F. M. SHEPARD, Chairman Com.
GOLD WALL PAPER.
As my new Spring Stock of Gold Wall paper will not arrive until March 12th, the slaughter in Gold Paper will continue 'till that date, and no longer. G. W. LORING.
LOST!
A note of $20.00 given to Henry Ries by P. M. Hodge and Franklin Schanbel, dated on or near the 29th of October, 1884, due 8 months from date. All parties are here by cautioned against purchasing said note.
HENRY RIES.

Elmer Howe has been on the sick list part of the week and Chas. Green has filled his place as express messenger on the T. A. A. & N.
The Democrats and Greenbackers at their State conventions fused and nominated A. B. Morse (Dem.), of Iowa, for Justice of the Supreme Court; Moses Field, (Green.) of Detroit, and Chas. R. Whitman, (Dem.) of Washtenaw, for Regents of the University. Moses F. generally manages to get on the ticket.
While going to Washington to attend the Washington monument ceremonies Gov. Alger started to pass from his car into the one occupied by the Detroit Light Guards; it was very dark and he slipped (there were no aprons between the cars) and fell astride the bumpers and coupling. He grasped one of the rods and thus saved himself from instant death.
Letters advertised for week ending Feb. 21st: Lea Reed, Geo. Witherell, Harry Koepf, Mrs. Mary Carroll, Ney & Foster, Clara Belle Decker or Baldwin.—Drop letters—Ishabel Dutcher, Charles King, Henry Reese. N. BALL, P. M.

Wonder-Books

WONDER-BOOKS in no trifling sense, but the best literature of the world presented in excellent and attractive form, at prices so low as to excite universal "wonder."

LIBRARY OF STANDARD HISTORY. Containing in one volume, imperial octavo, good type, with numerous fine illustrations, the whole richly bound in fine cloth, ornamented, the following celebrated works, unabridged:

GREEN'S Larger HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PEOPLE.
CARLILE'S HISTORY OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.
CREASY'S FIFTEEN DECISIVE BATTLES OF THE WORLD.
SCHILLER'S HISTORY OF THE THIRTY YEARS' WAR.

HARPER & BROTHERS' lowest price for these four great works is $14.50; my price is $2.50; postage 40 cents extra.

"A wonder-book in more senses than one. The idea of putting a work like this at only $2.50 per copy, seems preposterous; and yet there is wisdom in it, for everybody will want it, and it will thus be the means of advertising and introducing the numerous other valuable books which the publisher is putting forward."—Christian at Work, New York City.

"It is truly a marvel of skill and a triumph of modern mechanical art that such a noble volume can be furnished at so small a cost. Whether we admire its large proportions, beautiful binding, fair page, excellent paper, numerous and striking illustrations, numbering nearly 100—all are first-class."—Christian Cynosure, Chicago, Ill.

LIBRARY OF STANDARD POETS, containing in one imperial octavo handsomely bound volume, of about 1,100 pages, Bourgeois and Brevier type, leading, the following works, unabridged:

Scott's Complete Poetical and Dramatic Works.
Complete Poetical Works of Robert Burns.
Complete Poetical Works of Thomas Moore.

Equally good editions of these are not elsewhere obtainable for less than $4.50; my price $2.00; postage 34 cents.

LIBRARY OF CLASSIC PROSE. In one imperial octavo volume of about 600 pages, handsome type, and fine cloth binding, ornamented, the following famous essays and works:

Macaulay's Essays on Milton.
John Stuart Mill on Liberty.
P. G. Hamerton's The Intellectual Life.
Herbert Spencer on Education.
Great Thoughts from Greek Authors.
Great Thoughts from Latin Authors.
Complete Essays by Lord Bacon.
Complete "Letters of Junius."
Irving's Rip Van Winkle and Other Sketches.
Washington's Farewell and Other Addresses.
Macaulay's Life of Frederick the Great.

The above cannot be obtained from any other publishing house for less than $10; my price is $1.75; postage 30 cents.

"This is indeed a wonder-book, in the amount and valuable quality of its contents. The wonder is how such a book, which is a library in itself, can be sold at such a price."—Methodist Recorder, Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Your 'Historical Wonder-Book' is a wonder—a wonder how an imperial octavo volume of over 1,000 pages, with many illustrations, clear type, fine paper, handsomely bound, containing four standard historical works of great value, can be sold for $2.50."—BENSON J. LOSSING, LL.D., the Historian.

COUPON 25 CENTS. This coupon may be received in lieu of 25 cents cash, toward the price of either of above works, if sent within ten days from date of this paper (mention name of paper). This offer is to secure your prompt response and indicate the buying advertising medium.

100-PAGE CATALOGUE sent free. The best literature of the world at the lowest prices ever known. Books sent for EXAMINATION BEFORE PAYMENT on reasonable evidence of good faith. Address

JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher.
