CHEATING BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of % Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that M Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD. and every buyer should see that the A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

CRISIS POSTPONED.

Blaine's Illness Delays the President's Chili Message.

& I LEET OFDERED TO VALPARAISO.

The First Warlike Move on Uncle Sam's Part-Startling Rumor Regarding the "Premier's" Indisposition—An Alleged Serious Break with the President-Tracy's Department in Fighting Trim -Two Conflicting Reports as to Chilian Feeling-Latest Developments of the Imbroglio-Prospects Still for War.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 .- Orders were issued from the navy department yesterday to concentrate the squadrons under Admiral Gherardi and Admiral Walker at Valparaiso, Chili. This is the first strictly wurlike move yet taken by the United S.ates, and is thought to be necessary, as the day for sending a message to congress draws near and there are no satisfactory indications of the peaceful intent of the Chilian government. Admiral Gherardi will be placed in command of the fleet and Admiral Walker will be second in command. The Philadelphia has already started on her trip and will be followed at once by the Concord and perhaps the Strength of the American Fleet.

The combined squadrons of Admirals Gherardi and Walker will meet at Valparaiso, making a fleet of nine vessels, three of which are the most powerful in the United States navy. The Chicago carries fourteen breech-loading rifles as its main battery, the Boston eight, the Atlanta eight, the Philadelphia twelve, the Bennington six, the Kearsarge fourteen guns, the Concord six and the Charleston eight, making in all seventy-six first-class guns, besides the secondary batteries. The average number of men on each vessel, including officers, marines and sailors, is about 180 men, making in all about 1,500 men that will soon be on the Pacific station under the command of Admiral Gher-

The news that the vessels in the Atlantic had been ordered around the Horn for service in Pacific waters was not entirely unexpected. It was known that such an order might come at any moment. The assignment of Admiral Gherardi to the chief command of naval forces in Chilian waters was received with satisfaction on all sides, his well known fighting abilities and his popularity with officers and men alike, eminently fitting him for that posi-tion. It was stated last night that six of the swiftest vessels in the American merchant marine are practically ready to be fitted out as transports in the event of war. They will be armed with 5 and 6-inch rifles with which the government is plentifully supplied.

Tracy Ready for Emergencies. Secretary Tracy finds himself with every prospect of a naval war on hand. He is prepared for it, however; has all the avail-able ships in excellent fighting condition and has all the details of a campaign mapped out. Minister Montt received all newspaper correspondents graciously last night and in the same manner informed them that he had no news to impart. To questions in regard to the movements of the Chilian war vessels, if Chili has asked England to act as arbitrator for the two countries, and other questions of a like nature, the minister was diplomatically

Startling Rumor as to Blaine. A startling rumor prevailed in the city last night to the effect that the sudden departure of Secretary Blaine from the cabi-net meeting yesterday was the result of serious difference of opinion which arose between the president and himself. The rumor further says that the secretary's absence from the state dinner was for the e reason. with personal friends all the afternoon and evening, and this fact lends color to the reported disagreement. Nothing to Fear from the Prat.

It is said that Secretary Tracy received a dispatch yesterday from Toulon, France, stating that the Chilian warship Captain Prat, which is being built at that port and now nearly completed, will not be ready for service before April 1. This information will undoubtedly relieve the minds of many people, as the Prat is regarded in some circles as about the most formidable man-of-war ever built, and able to cope with the best fighting vessel of any of the great powers.

The President's Special Message. There will be about 125,000 words in the message and correspondence which the precident will submit to congress. Secretary Elkins in an interview last evening said the situation was very serious and that war must come unless Chili made ample reparation. The whole matter, he added, was in the hands of the president and Secretaries Blaine and Tracy. The cabinet was in full accord with the whatever they decided upon would meet with the approval of the other members of

BLAINE'S SUDDEN ATTACK.

It Steps Further Proceedings in the Matter-Arbitration Talk.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20-When Secretary Blaine went to the cabinet meeting yesterday morning he evidently did not expect the attack which forced him to be removed to his residence, so he dismissed his carriage on arriving at the White House, telling the driver not to return until the usual time for the adjournment of the meeting. The cabinet assembled at 11:30 and began a discussion of the Chilian situation, Secretary Blaine taking part in it. After the session had lasted about twenty minutes Blaine suddenly said that he felt ill and would be compelled to re-

That Correspondence Delayed. The illness of Secretary Blaine will rebult in delaying the transmission of the Chilian correspondence to congress, probably until next week. When he left the White House the cabinet was discussing the message of the president to accompany the correspondence, as the president desires, of course, that what he has to say-his recommendations, etc.-shall have the concurrence and approval of the members of the cabinet. But no conclusion had been reached when Blaine was compelled to leave, and as he was the official most interested in the matter the further discus sion was without result. The next meeting will not occur until Friday, and as the conclusion of the members, whatever it is, will have to have to be put in shape, after adjournment the message will u ready for transmission before Saturds

The Mooted Arbitration. The rumors that the delay in sending the message and correspondence was due to the expected offer of arbitration by a friendly power, or the receipt of advices that a more friendly spirit prevails in Chilian official circles, are untrue. Neither of these occurred. An official of the state department, referring to the reported offer of arbitration by a friendly third power, said yesterday: "A third power does not offer to arbitrate. The offer is to mediate, and its good offices may lead to a settle-ment under any one of three different names, the practical result being the same, however. Another form of manifestation of outside interest is known as interven-tion. In that case the intervening power usually insists upon enforcing its views or suggestions by force, if necessary."

WORK IN CONGRESS.

A Synopsis of the Proceedings in Both

Houses, WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.-In the senate yesterday Jones of Nevada appeared and took his seat, making the senate roster complete. Patton reported favorably the pure food bill of last congress. Hoar presented a bill providing for two more judges for the court of claims. Kyle of South Dakota in-troduced a resolution for a constitutional amendment to enable congress to enact a marriage and divorce law. A bill was passed appropriating $100,000 for a public building at Hoboken, N. J., and after pass-ing a few other bills the senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. - In the senate resterday Cullom, by request, introduced a bill requiring railways to equip cars with automatic couplers and brakes. A bill to give the Colorado School of Mines a sum per annum not greater than $12,000, Colorado to do the same, was passed. A few other bills were passed, an executive session held, and the senate adjourned.

In the house pending debate on Hol-man's economy resolution bills were introduced repealing the non-legal tender clause of the silver act of 1880, and giving totally blind pensioners $100 per month. Holman's resolution then came up and was debated for the rest of the day, Democrats, except Owens of Ohio, supporting, and Republicans opposing. Holman finally moved to stop the debate, as he was thinking of moving a reconsideration of the demand for the previous question. Agreed to, and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.-In the house yesterday Holman's anti-subsidy and economic resolutions were adopted, the first by 220 to 40 and the second by 164 to 98, the Democrats and Alliance members voting solidly for the first-with some Republicans-and dividing on the second. New-berry of Illinois introduced a bill to provide schools of spelling reform at the World's fair, New York city, and in this city, $50,000 being appropriated for each scheme. This is the phonetic spelling school. Birls were introduced to place salt, lumber, cotton ties, nails, binding twine and agricultural implements on the free list; to pension wounded "home guards;" prohibiting gambling in agricul-tural products, and to improve the harbor of Oconto, Wis. A report was adopted giving the chairman or each committee a clerk, and the house adjourned to Mon-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.-Eighteen sena tors were present at the session yesterday, including Sherman, for the first time since his re-election. A memorial from the League for the Protection of American Institutions was read asking for a consti-tutional amendment to keep church and state thoroughly separate. The house bill fixing the times and places for holding district and circuit courts in the northern district of Iowa was passed. A resolution was presented asking the state department to report on the progress of reciprocity and its effect so far. After an executive session the senate adjourned.

In the house a resolution was adopted calling on the treasury for an accounting of the appropriations in aid of the World's tection of American Institutions as to a non-sectarian amendment to the constitution was presented. During the sesssion Mills entered and took his seat. Simpson of Kansas introduced a bill to repeal the law that makes the gold dollar the unit of value. The bill to generally regulate the printing and distribution of public documents was then read and discussed, and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.-The senate, with an average attendance of not more than twenty-five members during the greater part of the day, discussed the La Abra claim till adjournment. During the morning hour public building bills were passed appropriating about $800,000, one of which gives $75,000 for a building at Jack-sonville, Ills. Bills were passed to aid South Dakota to support a school of mines, $12,000 a year: to increase the accommodations at the Detroit marine hospital, $20,-000; and after an executive session the sen ate adjourned.

The house galleries were crowded in the expectation that the president's message on Chili would be sent in, but it was not. A bill was passed fixing the time for hold-ing circuit and district courts in the western Wisconsin district. The bill to generally regulate the printing and distribution of public documents took up the remainder of the day. The bill was finally laid on the table—137 to 103-killing the bill so far as the house is concerned. The house then adjourned.

QUAY WINS A LIBEL SUIT.

His Journalistic Opponent Found Guilty

on a Criminal Charge. BEAVER, Pa., Jan. 20.-Near the close of the last political campaign in this state some one got possession of a certificate among the papers of the Keystone bank having the name of Senator Quay attached, with an indorsement by John Bardsley, the defaulting Philadelphia treasurer. The paper was given to the Democratic managers and the central committee had a fac simile of it electrotyped and sent it broadcast to Democratic papers in the state with a slip of paper containing a proposed "scare" head, the first line being, "Quay, Too, Was in It," the object being to connect the senator with Bardsley's stealings. One of the papers which re-ceived, published and commented on the certificate was The Star, of this city, Quay immediately entered criminal libel suits against the editor of The Star and others. The case was decided yesterday, the jury finding the defendants guilty of criminai libel.

MANNING AND SIMEONI PASS AWAY

Two Liminent Prelates of the Roman Catholie Church Die on the Same Day as Prince Albert Victor-Some Account of Their Cureers-England's Flag at Half-Mast All Over the World-Intense Sorrow of the Princess of Wales and the Queen-Heartbroken Princess May.

LONDON, Jan. 15.-The "meteor flag of England" was at half-mast all over the world yesterday wherever the telegraph could flash the news that Prince Albert Victor was dead. When the solemn tolling of the great bells in St. Paul's cathedral were heard yesterday morning, they conveyed to every one within hearing of their deep-mouthed booming the fact that the duke of Clarence add Avondale had passed away. The bells of St. Paul's are never tolled save on the occasion of the death of an heir to the throne, and therefore no further information was necessary for the people of London to make them aware that the duke had finally succumbed. The death took place at 9 a. m. The prince was born Jan. 8, 1864.

Connaught Arrives at Portsmouth. The Duke of Connaught and Stratheran. uncle of Prince Albert Victor, and personal aid-de-camp to the queen, arrived at Portsmouth at noon from Osborne. He traveled in the royal yacht Albert and Victoria, which entered port with the ensign at half mast. As the royal yacht got abeam of the flagship Victory the latter's ensign was lowered to half mast, and this movement was followed by all the other ships in the harbor. The Duke of Con-naught immediately landed and took a special train at once for Sandring-

His Heart Broken Fiance. And there is another who will mourn the ad event with intense sorrow, and that is the Princess May. Her betrothal to the prince, the outcome of a real affection so seldom the case with royalty, had en-deared her more than ever to the British people, who have always loved her. Be-reaved as she is almost on the eve of her marriage, the poinancy of her grief must be overwhelming, and to no member of the royal family do the sympathies of the people of all classes go out with such heartfelt carnestness. At Belfast the looms which are weaving the linen for the stopped and at Spitalfields, where the satin for the wedding dress of Princess May was in hand, the looms also stand still by the order of death.

THE GREAT MANNING DEAD.

Manning, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Westminster, Suddenly Called.

LONDON, Jan. 15.-Almost simultaneously with the announcement of the death of Prince Albert Victor London was startled yesterday morning with the appouncement of the death of a man whose influence on this country has been immeasurably greater than that of the prince, although he could not have the same influence on the future of the country as was possible in the prince's case. Cardinal Manning died at 8:20, forty minutes before the demise of the prince. The cardinal has been in feeble health for some time from old age, but his death was caused rather suddenly by an attack of bronchitis, complicated with pneumonia.

Henry Edward Mauning was born at Tolleridge, Hertfordshire, July 15, 1808. He was educated at Harrow and Oxford, being graduated with first class honors. He began life as a Church of England cler-gyman, and remained in that communion until 1851, when he became a convert to Rome, to the dismay of many persons in England. From that time on his advancement was steady and he finally reached the archbishopric of Westminster, and was le a cardinal by Pius IX. Of late years he had taken much interest in labor matters and social questions, following the trend of Rome's policy. His jubilee was celebrated with great pomp June 8, 1890.

ANOTHER LOSS FOR ROME.

Cardinal Simooni, Formerly Papal Secretary of State, Goes Hence.

ROME, Jan. 15 .- Rome, that is ecclesiastical Rome, suffered two severelosses yester day-Manningand Simeoni. The latter was formerly papal secretary of state and suceumbed to an attack of la grippe yesterday, after an illness of several days. Gionni Simeoni was born at Paliani July 23, 1816, and having been ordained a priest be was, on account of his learning, employed in offices of importance all his life. He rose step by step until in 1875 he was made a cardinal by Pius IX., and on the death of Cardinal Antonelli the same pope appointed him secretary of state. When Pope Leo came in Simeoni was succeeded secretary of state by Cardinal Franch in March, 1878, when Pope Leo appointed Cardinal Simeoni prefect general of the propaganda. When the ecumenical council of the Vatican was convoked Mgr. Simeoni was one of the advisers for the commission of Oriental churches and missions for ecclesiastical discipline.

ROUGH ON EX-TREASURERS.

Wisconsin Obtains Judgment for Several Hundred Thousand Dollars, Madison, Wis., Jan. 19.-Judge New man filed his opinion in the great state treasury cases with the clerk of the Dane county circuit court yesterday morning. The decision is in favor of the state in every point, giving all that the state claimed. The casses tried were one against E. C. McFetridge, state treasurer for the official term from 1884 to 1896, and one against H. B. Harshaw for the two years 1889-1800. They were tried as test cases, involving all the points covered by all the cases from 1878 to 1891. The amount involved in the cases covered in this decision is about $350,000, and is for interest th treasurers have received on the deposits of state funds and kept for their own use.

The Judge's Prime Contention. The decision covers ten folio pages in tlose typewriting. Judge Newman's prime contention is that as the money in charge of the state treasurer unquestionably the property of the state, so the state is justly and of right entitled to the natural and lawful increase of it, just as, should a herd of sheep be entrusted by one man to another, the natural increase of the flock belongs, not to the shepherd, but to the owner. The defeated defendants will appeal to the supreme court.

RODE TO ETERNITY.

Death Pilots a Merry Party of Sleighers

St. Louis, Jan. 20.-At 10:53 last even ing as a four-horse sleigh load of twenty one persons, members of the Clover Leaf club, was going north on Sarah street, and as the rear pair of horses and the forward bobs of the sleigh were on the tracks, they were struck by a Wabash westbound pas senger train, No. 273, at the Wabash railway crossing. The colored driver and seven of the party were instantly killed and the others more or less seriously in-jured. The dead were taken to the morgue, while the injured were brought in on the train and were taken to their homes. The List of Dead and Wounded.

Following are the casualties: Killed-Frederick Neubert, barkeeper, of this city; J. C. Schieffle, Chicago; Gustave Neubert, bartender; William Krone, James Connors, F. Von Behren, Al Muller, bartender, head cut off; Andy Stephenson, colored driver—all of this city.

Wounded—Charles Frey, both legs broken and terribly cut about head and body; James Barrett, slightly; an unknown man, left arm cut off and skull fractured; others more or less bruised, and all, so far as known, of this city.

Caused by a Toboggan Slide.

At the scene of the a sident there is a steep hill which has been used by persons in the neighborhood during the present cold snap as a sort of toboggan slide. The slide down the hill leads across the railroad tracks. A disaster or a serious accident has been predicted at this spot, but the young folks only laughed at the prophets and kept up their dangerous

Throwing the Entire Train from the Rails -List of Victims.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Jan. 19 .-Passenger train No. 9, on the Northwestern and Omaha road, which left Chicago at 11:15 o'clock Monday night, was wrecked at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at Shephard's switch, six miles east of this city, while running at the rate of fifty miles an hour. The entire train, except engine and baggage, left the rails. The sleeper, breaking loose from the train, left the roadbed, rolling into the ditch upon its side, the others remaining intact.

The Roll of Casualties. The injured are: G. G. Shouer, Chicago, head and shoulder badly hurt; E. G. Fowler Chicago, leg badly bruised and hurt about the head; A. Hunt, Chicago, head badly hurt; George W. Little, Chi-cago, left leg badly hurt; J. Steward Wal-lace, London, England, bruised about the head; E. G. Schultz, St. Paul, scalp wound and sharp cuts about the face; H. H. willis, Boston, Mass., cut on head and badly hurt; Harvey H. Bell, of Philadel-phia, considerably hurt internally, but able to walk.

The accident was caused by the breaking of a switch rail at Shephard's switch as the engine and baggage car passed over. All but one of the injured, G. W. Little, Jr., traveling for D. B. Fisk & Co., Chi cago, were able to continue their journey on a train promptly made up here.

The Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Jan. 20.-The legislature yesterday did little more than to canvass the vote for governor. A few bills were introduced in the house, the one of particular importance being the Republican measure for ballot reform presented by Representative Norris, of Delaware. It is a very voluminous measure, and is a com-bination of the chief features of the laws of the several states. Governor Boies will be inaugurated at 2:30 this afternoon.
