Writes Of Journey Across Continent

Mrs. Bell Finishes Iowa Visit and Travels Homeward on Oriental Limited.

(On Oriental Limited train of Great Northern between Havre, Mont., and Spokane, Nov. 7, 1908, 4:30 p. m.)

My journey is nearing its end. I think I wrote you last from Boone, where I was then enjoying a very pleasant visit with my school friend, Mrs. Dora Farrow. She is a very noted and earnest worker in the temperance cause. When I last saw her prior to this visit she was at the First Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon, attending the National Suffrage convention, the year of the exposition, she being a delegate from Boone county, Iowa, to that and also to the W. C. T. U. convention. Her husband, Alex Farrow, is mayor of the city, and was elected to that office although well known to be a strict temperance worker and a mayor who would use his influence and best efforts to enforce the laws against the liquor traffic. They seemed to be a devoted and model couple.

While in Boone I accompanied Mrs. Farrow to the M. E. church to services. We were ushered to our seats by her husband, the honorable mayor. As Samantha Allen would have expressed it, "I never let on but what it was an every Sunday occurrence to have a mayor act as usher," tho' I later heard Dora ask him "how that happened," and he said the usher was absent and somebody asked him to act. Here, too, I enjoyed the novel treat of hearing a Sunday school song led by a whistler accompanied by a pipe organ, and men, women, girls and boys, either whistling or singing, as they felt disposed. I thought - how nice this was to give children and people who had no voices for singing, yet had music in their make-up, a chance to join in the worship in that way. Why, I can hardly remember when I could not whistle and would in spite of having the old silly saying about a "whistling girl" and a crowing hen" flung at me, and this same Brother Pursel, with whom and my sister I took this lovely trip, saying "Let her alone, I like to hear her whistle."

Mr. and Mrs. Pursel telegraphed me from Neola, Iowa, on the 4th that they would pass Ft. Dodge at 11:50 a. m. of the 5th. Owing to a mistake by operator in making it read 50 instead of 5th, I inferred they meant 11:50 a. m. of the 4th. It was already 10:30 of that day when I received it, but I thought they would wait when they found no word from me at the depot. I caught the next interurban at 1 p. m. for Ft. Dodge. On this trip I crossed over the Des Moines river, the longest double track viaduct in Dodge at 3 p. m. No word from them at any depot. I went to the Northwestern telegraph operator and had him confirm the message and found it to mean the 5th. Then I found a directory and phoned to a niece of Mr. Pursel on a chance that it was she; was cordially invited there and a bus sent for me. I spent the time until 11:15 next day very pleasantly with the family of my brother-in-law's deceased brother. He (Mr. Pursel) having never met the widow and children and being anxious to get some word, and not knowing that the nephew whom he had met lived there, had not planned to visit here, and the relatives were much disappointed. However, the nephew and wife and his two young sisters (one a telephone girl, one a teacher) went with me to the train and at least had the pleasure of a short visit. We arrived in St. Paul about 8:30 p. m. and as we could not get a fast train out before 10:15 and as we could make time by waiting we went to the Union hotel near the Union depot for the night. On the morning of the 6th we put in about an hour seeing the capital city of Minnesota; then we stepped aboard the Oriental Limited enroute for the West.

As winter is coming on I wish to have more of a visit with my sister, Mrs. J. B. Thomson of Union, Oregon, and her family, also with my brother, Ed McComas and family, now of Elgin, Oregon, and get back to my home "stead of a home" in Wallowa county. I cut out Helena but the folks stopped off at Havre, Mont., at 1:58 p. m. today, bound to keep a promise to relatives to visit them, and so I am proceeding on my way via Spokane and Pendleton for Union, Oregon.

The weather is lovely for this time of year, tho' the storm winds are in this train and it has seemed stifling at times, but we are in the foothills of the Rockies tonight - for dusk is falling now - and the air grows chilly.

Lion Hotel, Spokane, Wash., Nov. 14. - I think this will surely be the last of my series of letters, still I am quite a ways from my home in Wallowa county yet.

I arrived here Sunday morning about 8 a. m. Had myself and baggage transferred to the O. R. & N. depot and found there would be no train toward Pendleton until 4 p. m. so as it was raining and I had so long to wait I had a bus to take me to the home of Mrs. L. J. Childs whose son married a niece of mine, and at whose home my young nephew, who died last November, was taken ill. I was somewhat acquainted with the lady, having called on her last fall in company with the young nephew and his sister, Mrs. Childs informed me that my namesake niece, Mrs. Alice McComas Parker, who recently married Dr. Parker, government physician at Marcus, Wash., was now at that place instead of, as I had thought, being on her homestead near Syreap. I phoned there, found such to be the case and decided to visit her. On Sunday evening I attended an Epworth League meeting with Mrs. Childs and on Monday at 10:30 a. m. stepped aboard a car of the S. F. & N. and at 2:45 p. m. was met at the depot in Marcus by the bride and groom of less than six months, my nephew and niece, Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Parker. This gentleman, by the way, is a classmate of the Dr. L. U. Temple quite well known in Wallowa county, also of Dr. Phyl of Hot Lake sanatorium.

I found this young couple easily settled in light housekeeping rooms in the Hotel Marcus, and learned that her sister Mae was in such poor health that she and the mother, who were up in the Okanogan country, might go south for the winter. When the noon train came from the north on Tuesday it brought a very welcome surprise to us all in that it brought us these two ladies whom I wished but had not expected to meet. Since I parted with my sister-in-law eleven years ago she has yielded up her husband, and their only son to the grim reaper, Death.

We had a lovely visit of several days together, and I was delighted with the beautiful Colville valley. Marcus tho' only a small place, situated on the bank of the Columbia, has beautiful scenery.

Today Mae and I came on the early morning train hoping by watching the O. R. & N. trains to catch her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pursel, as they pass through. We have rooms at Lion hotel and expect her mother and sister in at 4 p. m. Will visit here a few days then go for Grande Ronde!

ALICE M. BELL.

For a Lame Back.

When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for five minutes at each application. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain, and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

JAPANESE GIRL GREAT SUCCESS

The tuneful operetta, "The Japanese Girl," was splendidly presented at the opera house Saturday night, by the ladies of the Library association. Miss Joyce Craig sang the leading part, O Hanu San, the Japanese girl, with sweetness and understanding, and Mrs. Lockwood and Mrs. Kerns, as O Kiku San and O Kayo San, supported her admirably. Miss Alta Davis took the difficult role of Chaya. The Misses Houck made a distinct hit as the Twin girls, singing, acting and looking their parts to perfection. Mrs. Gally was fine as their governess and kept the audience in roars of laughter. The chorus was well trained and consisted of Mesdames Donnelly, Conley, Miller, Dill and Foley; Misses Combes, Ragsdale, Lomatch, Stubblefield and Carter.

The operetta was produced under the direction of Mrs. Wheat with Mrs. Ketchum as accompanist. The costumes were realistic and no work or expense had been spared to give the play its right setting.

The specialties as predicted made a big hit. Miss Clara and Master Joe Bauer were fine in their song and dance, Miss Nanne Heaton gave

For that Dull Feeling After Eating.

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy, dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample Burnaugh & Mayfield's drug store and see what a splendid medicine it is.

O. R. & N. WILL KEEP BUSY.

From the Asotin Sentinel.

Peter Flicker, who was out from Troy, Oregon, last week making his wholesale purchases for his store, started on his return trip home last Saturday, being accompanied by Mr. A. S. Stacy, of the Lewistown mercantile company. Mr. Flicker stated that his section of the country is very prosperous and everybody feeling good. He further stated that the outlook was extremely good for his section of the country getting a line of railroad within a very few months. He says the information has already been given out that it is the intention of the O. R. & N. people to keep busy with their construction work, as soon as the company has got well established in Joseph and build down the Grande Ronde river. Mr. Flicker says such prospects as these naturally make the people of that section very hopeful.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as far superior to any other cough medicine to my knowledge." For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.
