

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1901.

NOTICE.

The Globe invites correspondence from all persons of all ages. We aim to make this paper the leading news medium of the county and invite our readers to assist us by sending in the news of their respective neighborhoods. Correspondence must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith, and the editor assumes no responsibility for opinions expressed by correspondents.

It is said that Aguinaldo wishes to visit this country and study our institutions. Perhaps he wishes to take a course in grafting in order to be able to hold his own with some of the American Army officers now stationed at Manila.

A correspondent of the Heppner Times relates how he dug out a den of young coyotes the other day only to find that some thrifty individual had been there ahead of him. The coyote puppies had been scalped alive and turned loose presumably that they might grow and replenish the earth. The correspondent states that a certain individual over there has an Indian hired to lift the scalps carefully without injuring the vitality of the animals and suggests that the County Court of Morrow County hunt him down and give him a dose of his own medicine. If this practice spreads to other counties it may be necessary to amend the scalp bounty law to require undertaker's certificates to accompany each bunch of scalps showing that the varmints have been not only scalped but decently buried.

The Quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society for March, 1901 has been received. This is the first number of Vol. 2. Its contents are as follows: Political History of Oregon from 1853 to 1865, by Hon. George H. Williams. Flotsam and Jetsam of the Pacific—The Owyhee the Sultana and the May Dacre, by Mrs. Francis Fuller Victor. The vessels referred to entered the Columbia river between the years 1829 and 1834. An Historical Survey of Public Education in Eugene, Oregon, by Joseph Shafer. The Aurora Community, by H. S. Lyman. All these articles are of vital interest to every one who cares to know anything about the beginnings of things in our State. The object of this publication is to create an interest in the study of Oregon History. Address all inquiries to Geo. H. Himes, City Hall, Portland, Oregon.

School Law Decision.

The following circular letter has been sent out by the superintendent of public instruction to the various county school superintendents.

Salem, Oregon, May 29, '01.
To County Superintendents:

The following decision has been recently rendered by this department:

"Qualified elector" in the third proviso, section 45, of the school laws, reading as follows: "provided further, that in districts of the third class any head of a family who is otherwise a qualified elector and having children of school age, may vote at such election without property qualifications," means any citizen of this state, male or female, who is 21 years of age and has resided in the district 30 days immediately preceding the meeting or election; and, further that such "elector" cannot vote for any other purpose than the election of school officers; and, further, that petitions for changing district boundaries must be signed by legal voters, and that "legal voters" here means those who can vote for any purpose whatever and, hence, those who can vote only for the election of school officers cannot legally sign a petition for the change of a district boundary.

Respectfully yours,
J. H. Ackerman,
Supt. Public Instruction.

Read It in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will bear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by the Hudson Pharmacy.

Card of Thanks.

In doing so you have all earned the gratitude of his mother, brother and sister in a distant state.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and some times dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal function, renew his vitality improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Hudson's Pharmacy.

Obituary.

Ray Smith, of near Clem, died at the Condon hotel Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, aged about 31 years. He was brought to town last Friday suffering from an attack of appendicitis and was operated on the same evening by Drs. Guille and Luna, but the case was of long standing for the operation to prove successful and from the first there was but little if any hope for his recovery. Deceased came to this country from Indiana about 2½ years ago and had always been an upright and respected citizen. He worked several months for John Cunningham, at Arlington, when he first came to the country and made many friends who will sincerely regret his untimely demise. He had no relatives in the west so far as known, but leaves a mother and brother who reside at Thornton, Indiana. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at Mount Moriah cemetery.

Pullman Ordinary Sleepers

The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Co. has issued from its shops what it technically calls the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper." These cars appear similar to the regular sleepers being built on the same plan, but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow-cases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for making tea and coffee and doing "light housekeeping", and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. A uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths; keep the car clean, and look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers". The car attached to the "Chicago-Portland Special" goes through to Chicago without change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change. Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar car at Granger.

Each of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers.
