AMERICAN Field Fencing.

A fence that always keeps its shape because it's built that way—

Nothing but large size heavily galvanized wire made of best Bessemer steel and in its construction—same in all the 20 different styles made—turns all kinds of stock and leaves the stock unharmed while the fence stands strong and sturdy.

THIS hinge-joint makes an adjustable fence and prevents stay wires from bending—rip makes as tight a fence in summer as in winter, and prevents stay wire from being displaced.

There's no fence that excels it; and few, if any, as good.

Manufactured by AMERICAN STEEL AND WIRE CO., PITTSBURG, PA. FOR SALE BY 7-15 SATTERFIELD & DODSON.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING, IRON CITY COMPANY.

The stockholders of Iron City Company are hereby notified that there will be a meeting of the stockholders of said company at the Bethel House, Columbia, on Tuesday, July 19, 1898, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of taking such steps as they may deem proper to wind up the affairs of said company, settling its property of every description, paying its debts and distribution of its assets pro rata among its stockholders, and for any other business that may properly come before said body.

By order of the President, H. G. EVANS, Secretary and Manager, Columbia, Tenn., July 4, 1898.

An Uncertain Disease. There is no disease more uncertain in its nature than dyspepsia. Physicians say that the symptoms of no two cases agree. It is therefore most difficult to make a correct diagnosis. No matter how severe, or under what disguised dyspepsia attacks you, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it. Invaluable in all diseases of the stomach, blood and nerves. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Rev. W. H. McKennon. On last Sunday morning at 8 o'clock Rev. W. H. McKennon went to his heavenly home. He was in the sixty-seventh year of his age. For several weeks he had languished on the bed of sickness, and when the final summons came he went as composedly and peacefully to sleep in the arms of his Saviour, as a little babe closes its eyelids in slumber and nestles to rest on the bosom of its mother. To many of his most intimate friends his death came as a great surprise, and to everyone it brought a feeling of sorrow at parting with one so universally loved.

With his departure there is brought to a close a life truly of a most exemplary character; a life devoted to doing good; in the upbuilding of his Father's kingdom on earth; in helping weak and erring humanity. With an unflinching trust, he labored untiringly in his Master's vineyard, and followed steadfastly in the path of the meek and lowly Nazarene. The law of love dwelt in his heart, and the "milk of human kindness" flowed through his every vein. Kind-hearted, true, charitable, gentle, he gained the love, the respect, the admiration of everyone, and drew about him a large circle of loving friends. In religious belief he was a Methodist, being, at the time of his death and for many years of his useful life, a local preacher, going about doing good, supplying vacant pulpits, without the thought or hope of reward, other than the betterment of mankind and the approval of his Master. For four years past he had been Register of Maury County, and served in that position as he did all others, conscientiously, and to the entire satisfaction of all. He leaves surviving him an aged wife, two brothers, and the following children: Mrs. Andrew Gray, of Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. Charlie Davis, of Ashwood; Mrs. Edward Coe, of Baltimore; Messrs. W. E. and Geo. E. McKennon, of this city and Mr. Charlie McKennon, of Waco, Texas. His brothers are, Messrs. Leroy McKennon, of Smyrna, Tenn., and Jas. McKennon, of this place.

Unbidden tears will come when those we love are taken from us, and sympathy must be felt for those who weep. But such a life robs grief of its heaviness and illumines the way of hope, and gives such comfort as can come from no other source; for we all do know that he has "fought a good fight, that he has kept the faith, that he has run his course, and that henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness."

The funeral services were conducted Monday morning at 11 o'clock in the First Methodist Church by Dr. D. C. Kelley, assisted by Revs. F. B. Webb and D. T. Waynick. After these services the remains took charge of the casket, and the remains were laid in their final resting place with Masonic honors. The following were pall-bearers: Eugene Anderson, U. H. Foster, Geo. Nichols, W. P. Woldridge, H. L. Hendley and J. F. Wiley.

Mrs. Maude Church Barrow. The remains of Mrs. Maude Church Barrow—whose sad death was announced in last week's HERALD—reached here from Forest City, Ark., last Saturday at 10 a. m. An exceptionally large number of friends met the remains at the depot and followed them to Rose Hill Cemetery, where loving hands tenderly laid them to rest in the bosom of the universal mother. The funeral services were conducted by Dr. D. C. Kelley, who made a few touching and appropriate remarks and delivered a beautiful prayer. The pall-bearers were Messrs. C. A. Parker, Wm. Chaffin, Edgar Latta, A. B. Rains, Ed Turner, U. H. Foster, R. P. Dodson and James Andrews.

Mrs. Barrow was born at Santa Fe, in this county, and resided here until her marriage to Mr. E. J. Barrow, brother of Mr. J. D. Barrow, of this county, several years ago, when she moved to Arkansas. She was a daughter of Mr. R. C. Church, of this city, and her mother, who was Miss Elizabeth Oakley before her marriage, died while the deceased was a young child. Mrs. Barrow, though young, was a devout, Christian woman, spotless in character, loving, gentle and kind. To the bereaved father, husband and little child, the deepest sympathy of her many friends is extended.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cole. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cole departed this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Wulthorne, in West End, last Saturday evening, in the 67th year of her age. Deceased had been a great sufferer from rheumatism for years, and death came as a sweet relief to her pain-racked body. Mrs. Cole was the widow of the late P. C. Cole, who died in 1894. She was a member of the First Methodist Church of this place, and was a consecrated Christian woman. The greater portion of her life was spent in this county, and she so lived as to gain the love and respect of everyone with whom she came in contact. She leaves surviving her two sisters—Mrs. W. M. Voorhies and Mrs. Albert Alexander, of this county, and an only daughter, Mrs. W. C. Whitthorne.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. D. C. Kelley in the First Methodist Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the interment took place in Rose Hill Cemetery. Before her death, Mrs. Cole requested that the stewards of her church should be the pall-bearers at her funeral, and from the list of stewards the following were chosen: Messrs. H. P. Figuers, F. D. Lander, Thos. H. Williams, John Latta, Ed. Turner, R. C. Gant.

Mr. W. F. A. Shaw, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Maury county, died at his home near Culleoka, last Friday night.

Miss Mary Morris Perry. Miss Mary Morris Perry died last Saturday morning at 1 o'clock at the Perry homestead near Bigbyville, in the 79th year of her age. The funeral services were conducted Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Methodist Church at Bigbyville by Rev. W. F. Powers, and the interment took place in the family grave-yard near that place. The deceased had many friends who will deeply regret to hear of her death.

Garwood's Sarsaparilla—for the blood—guaranteed to cure. A. B. RAINS. RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Rev. T. E. Hudson has returned from Elkton Springs, where he has been taking a much needed rest; he will conduct Sacramental Service at Pleasant Mt. next Sunday at 11 a. m. There will also be preaching Saturday morning and evening. This congregation will proceed at once to erect a handsome new church building. This is one of the strongest congregations in Richmond Presbytery; they now pay their pastor five hundred dollars for two Sabbaths in the month, and hope in the near future to secure his services for full time. Revival services will begin the 5th Sabbath in this month.

The L. U. P. M. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Mrs. Young's. Subject, Mark 15 chap. Leader, Mrs. Reece Adkisson. Full attendance requested.

Dr. Kelley by appointment addressed the National Good Citizens' Convention in Nashville Wednesday night. His subject was "A Study in Citizen Duty from a Bible standpoint."

The International Christian Endeavor Convention closed its seventeenth annual session at Nashville Monday. The attendance was smaller than was expected, but they made up in earnest enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers.

Rev. E. W. Sears, pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Jackson, Tenn., occupied the pulpit of the First Cumberland Church in this city last Sunday morning, and preached at the Union meeting Sunday night, in the First Methodist Church.

The Union service, in which the Methodist, Presbyterian and First Cumberland Presbyterian churches are engaged, will be held in the First Cumberland church next Sunday night. The pastors of these churches earnestly request their members to attend upon these meetings.

Rev. L. R. Amis, by invitation of Mr. Hawes, will preach at Zion Church next Sunday morning. Dr. D. C. Kelley is in Nashville this week on church business, but will return to-morrow, and will occupy his pulpit at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning at the usual hour.

FIRE AT MURFREESBORO. Seven Business Houses Reduced to Ashes. MURFREESBORO, July 13.—Seven of the handsomest business houses on the north side of the square are a smoldering lot of ruins this morning, having been entirely consumed by fire last night.

The fire began about 3 o'clock in the furniture store of W. B. Cook & Co., and before the people could be aroused had gutted that and was spreading right and left, to Byrn's hardware store and Smith & Cason's dry goods store. The fire brigade responded promptly and immediately turned five streams of water on the flames, but they had gained such headway nothing could be done until they had run their course westward and had consumed two stores occupied by Smith & Cason, owned by M. F. Jordan; the drug store of H. H. Kerr, owned by M. F. Jordan, and two stores owned and occupied by Tom Tobias & Co., on the corner, and on the east side of Cook's store, C. H. Byrn's hardware store. Maney & Aven's drug store was ruined by fire, water and smoke. This store was saved by a high fire wall. The two lost stores are owned by Mrs. D. H. C. Spence and Mrs. W. T. Doty, respectively.

Seven stocks of goods have gone up in smoke and one is ruined by water. The loss is nearly $200,000. The origin of the fire is unknown and it is the worst one that the town has ever suffered. About thirty-five or forty clerks are thrown out of employment. It is likely that the buildings will be rebuilt.

ROBBED THE GRAVE. A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c per bottle at Wadridge & Irvine's drug store. June 15

RUSKIN. Painter in words, on whose resplendent page, Caught from the palette of the seven hued bow, The colors of our English Turner glow, Silver of silent stars, the storm's red rage, The spray of mountain streams, rocks gray with age, Gold of Athena, white of Alpine snow, Cool green of forests, blue of lakes below And sunset crimsoned skies—O see and sing, Crowned with wild olive, fine of sense and sight, In thy prophetic voice, through work, trade, strife, The stones cry out: "By truth the nations live And by injustice die. Be thy weights right, Thy measures true. These be the lamps that give The way of beauty and the path of life!" —R. R. Bowker in Century.
