LIAR MEETS HIS WATERLOO.

An old story in new guise comes from a train hand with a rail west. He was in a caboose near Agency...

He was a rather green-looking countryman got aboard. The champion liar among the train hands was aboard the car and at once set out to fill the country with "pip-dreams."

Then he switched to patent car couplers that allowed the switchman to sit on the tender of the engine and handle long strings of cars.

That reminds me of a case out there in Agency," said he. "They was a steep painter at work on the Methodist Church."

SURGEON GENERAL STERNBERG.

His Report in Regard to the Operation of the Medical Corps.

Surgeon General Sternberg, in his report of the operation of the medical corps during the war, meets criticism with a statement at the outset that the force of the medical department is inadequate even in time of peace...

He admits that the abandonment of regimental for division hospital was opposed by regimental medical officers. Ample provision of medical supplies was made for the expedition to Santiago, but most of the outfit was left behind.

The Rev. I. K. Hicks' Annual Almanac and monthly paper, Word and Works, are now known from sea to sea.

Annual Almanac and monthly paper, Word and Works, are now known from sea to sea. We are pleased to call the attention of our readers to the Almanac for 1899, now ready.

It is a splendidly printed and illustrated book of 116 pages, and the storm forecasts and diagrams and astronomical and scientific matter are superior to anything that has ever been seen before in a 25 cent book.

His monthly journal, Word and Works, is one of the best literary, home and scientific magazines in the country, besides containing his monthly storm forecasts with explanations.

Also contributions from Mrs. Burton Harrison, Clara Morris, Goida, Burgess, Lloyd, DeGroot, Lt. Endicott, Poulney Bigelow, Lt. Peary, etc., etc.

Every household with children should have St. Nicholas.

ST NICHOLAS MAGAZINE.

Conducted by MARY MAPES DODGE.

This magazine for boys and girls is without a rival in its field. The features for the coming year will gain for it a host of new friends.

A new feature, "THE SOLE SURVIVORS," by G. A. Henry, tells a tale of early American history by the favorite story teller of American and English boys.

"TRINITY BELLS," by Amelia E. Barr, a delightful historical romance for girls, dealing with life in Old New York, and written by one of the most spirited and conscientious American authors.

"A STORY FOR GIRLS," by Laura E. Richards, no writer is more beloved to the young folk of today than the author of "Captain January," and this is one of her best efforts.

"BRIGHT SIDE OF HISTORY," by E. H. House, a volume of amusing episodes of history, ancient and modern, told in an entertaining way. It will awaken a new interest in this important branch of study.

Mrs. C. D. Sigbee, the wife of the captain of the battleship Maine, will write about "Pots Afloat."
