Ice Cream Supper.

For the benefit of the school an ice cream supper will be given on Satur day evening, June fifth, at 8 o'clock

o a delightful meeting of the Fernnesday afternoon; Mrs. Crowe presiding. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Miles Murphy, Miss Mary Moore, Mrs. Rhea and Mrs. I. C. Murphy. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Garfield Rhea on June 23.

Miss McKinney-Miss Frierson

Miss Mary McKinney, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mc Kinney, of this city, and Miss Frances Frierson, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frierson, of Mt. Pleasant, arrived Wednesday evening from New York City, where they have been for the past year attending Daverell College for young ladies. Misses McKinney and Frierson will spend most of the summer months in Maury county, which fact will enliven social activities.

Mrs. Lamer and Daughters.

Mrs. H. M. Lamar and two charming daughters, Misses Helen and Hazel Lamar, have joined Mr. Lamar in Co lumbia and have rooms at the Colum bia" institute for the present. They will make their future home in Co lumbia, Mr. Lamar being connected with the Columbia Mill & Elevator Co. The Misses Lamar were educated at the Columbia Institute during the management of that institution by Miss., and the coming of the Misses Lamar and Mrs. Lamar to Columbia will add much to Columbia society.

Bridge Party. Twenty-six guests enjoyed the hos pitality of Mrs. Davis Gray at a beau tifully planned bridge party on Wed nesday afternoon. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her sister. Mrs. Early Watson, and her guest, Miss Helen Brant, of Nashville Stands of yellow daisies and roses formed the attractive decorations Mrs. Jim Ridley was presented with the high score prize while the conso lation prize went to Mes, John Florer ing. At the close of the game a de lightful lunch course was served by the hostess.

In compliment to Miss Carver

Mrs. Mary Moses was the charming bostess at a bridge party in compli ment to Miss Vera Carver, of Roaring Springs, who is the attractive hours guest of Miss Lelia Barr Anderson The house was beautifully decorated in Dorothy Perkins roses and the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the refreshments Bridge was played at five tables. Mrs. Kenton Watson winning the prize fo the high score. Miss Lemyra Har lan was the lucky one in drawin for the consolation prize, and the honoree was presented a most attrac tive gift.

Williamson-Jones.

A marriage that will come as a sur prise to many friends is that of Mis-Louise Jones and H. B. Williamson which took place on Wednesday after noon at five o'clock at the home of the bride's friend, Miss Virginia Bar rett, of Pulaski. Miss Jones is a daughter of Mrs. Willis Jones, and one of the most popular of Columbia's younger set. Mr. Williamson is the only son of Mrs. Quina, of Pensacola, Fla., and attended Columbia Military Academy of a period of two years leaving here for Vanderbilt Univer sity. Since that time he has been with the firm of Marstin & Quina, wholesale dealers in furniture of Pen sacola. The wedding had been set for a later date, and is quite a surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left Wednesday evening for Louisville, Ky. After a ten days' trip they will return to Columbia' for a few days on their way to Pensacola, Fla., where they will make their home.
