

Bible Class Is Reorganized

The Bible class of Asbury Memorial church has been reorganized for the New Year with the following officers: A. N. Shoun, teacher; J. S. Jaynes, assistant teacher; T. J. Luttrell, secretary; J. E. Hacker, president; C. H. Bewley, vice-president; J. W. Walker, treasurer.

Judge A. N. Shoun has promised a number of most interesting lectures on Bible topics and we hope to have the largest class during the next few months in the history of the school. All who are not attending Sunday school at some other church are extended a cordial invitation to attend the Asbury Bible class.

SANDY HILL.

Will some one move over this week and give me a little corner in the paper?

The health of this community is not very good at this writing.

There is not any new cases of flu around here that I know of.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Light, of Kingsport, have been spending the holidays with their parents at this place.

Mrs. Alice Deatherage has been one among the sick for some time, but is reported better at this writing.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Charlton has whooping cough.

Mrs. Martha Morrison is one among the sick at this time.

Come on, soldier boys, with your letters. We sure enjoy reading them.

Miss Rhoda Eastey and Miss Bettie Charlton were the pleasant guests of Misses Laura and Leona Rector Saturday afternoon.

Hog killing and rabbit hunting is the order of the day.

We are expecting to have some weddings to report soon.

Mr. George Jackson, who has been working at Kingsport, is spending a few days with home folks at this place.

Mr. Guy Price and mother are planning a trip to Rogersville, Tenn., in the near future.

Mr. Onnie White has been having some work done that is adding lots of beauty to his house.

Mr. M. H. Charlton was the dinner guest of his sister, Mrs. Lew Rector, Sunday.

Mr. Shields Crawford, of Rabbit Town, was a pleasant caller in our little town Saturday.

Some of the soldier boys are returning home. We hope it won't be long until they can all say hello to home folks.

Miss Leona Rector spent Sunday very pleasantly with Miss Pearl Price.

The farmers all say they are glad to see the snow on their wheat crops.

Mrs. Ester Morrison was visiting at the Pierce home one evening last week.

Mr. Lanty Armstrong is suffering severely with a boil on his arm.

Miss Artie Armstrong was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Martha Morrison, one evening last week.

Mr. Ike Coates and Mr. Ern Rutledge were hauling lumber through our burg one day last week.

Little Master Delmar Rector has whooping cough.

Lawrence, the little grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Charlton, is on the sick list.

As this is my first letter, I will ring off and if this escapes the waste basket I'll come again.

A Home-Made Doll

The dolls of yesterday—so beautiful and so cheap—they are no more. It is the war. But no little maid need be without a doll, for it is the easiest thing ever to make one of heavy domestic and paint a face on it. One can buy a pattern of any of the pattern companies and make the body which is to be stuffed with sawdust. Such a doll dressed and making her appearance at Christmas time will be as much loved as the most fragile waxen beauty that ever came from overseas.

Forefathers Had No Luxuries.

People who complain because they cannot get some of the little luxuries they used to enjoy before the war might do well to remember that their forefathers lived without sugar till the fourteenth century, without coal till the fourteenth, without butter on their bread till the fifteenth, without tobacco and potatoes till the sixteenth, without tea, coffee and soap till the seventeenth, without umbrellas and lamps till the eighteenth, and without trains, telegrams, telephones, gas and machines till the nineteenth.

Silk Shopping Bag

Whoever she is, she will love this shopping bag of taffeta silk with its celluloid mountings, but if it matches her street suit in color her joy in it will be complete. This one is of navy blue taffeta lined with bright red taffeta. The celluloid mounting is of the same red and so is the long silk tassel. The bag is suspended by a strap of the navy silk.

PROVED SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Voluntary Basis of Food Saving
Showed Heart of America
Beat True for Freedom.

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people must be attributed the continued health, strength and morale of the Allied armies and the civil populace.

Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in the months to come. In the past year we have carried out an export program, the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with the new demands that have come, with the liberation of nations freed from German oppression, our exports must be almost doubled. Instead of 11,820,000 tons, we must ship twenty million tons of food to Europe in the coming year—as much as can be pushed through our ports.

If the Allies had not been fed by America, it would have been impossible for them to maintain their defense against Germany.

Meeting this world need on a purely voluntary basis, the American people have conclusively proved that democracy is a success and that in time of need it will rise to its own defense.

If there were no other accomplishment to its credit the very fact that it has shown the strength of democracy has in itself more than justified the existence of the Food Administration in the eyes of the world.

Less than four months after the United States declared war the United States Food Administrator expressed his determination to meet America's food problem on a basis of voluntary action and reiterated his confidence that awakened democracy would prove irresistible.

"Many thinking Americans," said Mr. Hoover, "and the whole world have been watching anxiously the last four months in the fear that democratic America could not organize to meet autocratic Germany. Germany has been confident that it could not be done. Contrary proof is immediately at our door, and our people have already demonstrated their ability to mobilize, organize, endure and prepare voluntarily and efficiently in many directions and upon the mere word of inspiration aside from the remarkable assemblage of our Army and finances." The history of the Food Administration has clearly shown that the trust of those who put their faith in democracy has not been misplaced.

Mosheim School Resumes Work

The Mosheim school began work Monday after a short Christmas vacation. The attendance has never been but very slightly affected by influenza. There are few schools that can boast of such a splendid faculty and well-trained student body. Ample provision is made for reaching the school from the surrounding country. Much of the buoyant health and energy of the pupils is attributed to basketball and baseball at the noon hour.

Teachers and students may, if they choose, board in the building and the wholesome, well-prepared food is deserving of especial mention.

Long live the girls and boys of Mosheim.

U. S. Warships To Bring Men Home

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Fourteen battleships and ten cruisers have been assigned by the navy department to help bring American troops home from France. The work of altering the battleships to fit them for transport work is being rapidly completed and several of them already are in service. All of the ten cruisers have been fitted up and the navy department announced yesterday that one had sailed from Brest with its first load of troops. Another is at Brest, and two of the battleships are reported to have left Brest with troops.

The battleships assigned for this service are among the older on the navy list and in order that they may bring as many soldiers as possible, are operating with far less complement than usual.

Following are the battleships and their locations: Virginia, Rhode Island, Georgia, Louisiana, Kansas and New Hampshire, already in service; Ohio, being fitted out at navy yard, Philadelphia; New Jersey, Nebraska and Connecticut, Hampton Roads; Minnesota and Vermont, navy yard at Philadelphia; Michigan, navy yard at Norfolk; South Carolina, York river, Virginia.

The cruisers assigned to transport troops are the North Carolina, Montana, Huntington, Pueblo, St. Louis, Rochester and South Dakota, already in service; Seattle at Brest; Charleston at Portsmouth; Frederick at navy yard, Norfolk.

BRADBURN HILL.

A revival meeting will begin at this place Sunday night, January 5th. Misses Marie and Robbie O'Dell spent Sunday with Miss Bonnie Holbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Duncan and Mr. Troy Justis, of Gillespie, Ill., are spending the holidays with relatives and friends here.

James and Robert McAmis are spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. Jake Johnson, of Cross Anchor.

Mrs. D. C. Chapman and daughter, Miss Fannie, who were seriously hurt in a runaway, are still at the home of Mr. H. H. Brown.

Messrs. George and Claud Scott spent Sunday at the home of G. F. Fortner.

Among those who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Till Justis Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan and little daughter, Mr. Ben Dixon and family, Mrs. J. C. Monroe, Misses Laura and Mary Gass and Mr. R. L. King.

Several of the young folks enjoyed a social Friday night, given by Miss Bertie Tilson.

Mr. Troy Justis spent Saturday night with Mr. Raymond Ross.
