

Expeditionary Force In Russia to Be Withdrawn

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—American and allied troops operating in north Russia will be withdrawn "at the earliest possible moment that weather conditions in the spring will permit." To facilitate this movement and improve lines of communication for the supply of the forces that have penetrated into the country President Wilson has approved the sending of two additional companies of railroad troops to Archangel.

CHUCKEY

On January 21st the spirit of J. W. Stanton winged its flight from earth to heaven. For the past six months he had been giving battle. It changed the "morn of laughter" into a "night of tears." Mr. Stanton was 61 years of age. He joined the Baptist church at an early age, and proved to be a true and faithful member until God called him. He was married to Miss Genevieve Maupin, April 14th 1906. They spent the larger part of their married life in Knoxville. Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Stanton moved to their farm at Peterstown, where they had a host of friends. He always met his friends with a smile and kind word. He always looked on the brighter side of things, for his life was real and worth living. During his long sickness he never complained. His last words to his heart-broken wife were: "I hate to leave you here alone, but I will be waiting for you at the Golden Gate." Our dear one has gone. But, oh, abrighter home awaits him. It is very hard to part with loved ones, but for some reason unknown to us, they are taken away. He was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand to his friends in any way he thought best. He will be greatly missed by his many friends and especially by his lonely wife, who was so carefully cared for by his kind and loving acts. She has our deepest sympathy. May she look on the bright side and remember her loss is his gain; look forward to the day when they meet and sing around the throne of God. She will then not have to sit by his side and see him suffer such agony and pain as was his last days with her. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Carter, after which her remains were laid to rest in the Pleasant Vale cemetery, there to rest until the great and final day.

There is quite a lot of sickness in our community. The flu seems to be on the decline. Mrs. W. L. Davis is very ill at this writing. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. W. Stanton spent last week with her friend, Mrs. E. Hall. In spite of the flu, the Pleasant Vale Sunday school missed only four Sundays. It has now opened up again. We hope the flu will soon die out and every one will come out to Sunday school again. S. E. H.

Trains Tied Up By Heavy Snowstorms In Western States

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 18.—The storm accompanied by snow, wind and rain which for twenty-four hours has demoralized wire connection and railroad traffic in the territory between the Missouri River and the Rocky mountains, and from the Canadian border to Oklahoma, is still in progress and moving eastward, though with decreasing severity.

While the snowfall in most localities was comparatively light, high winds, especially in Nebraska and Western Kansas, caused huge drifts, which delayed rail traffic. All freight trains were annulled, and only a few passenger trains were able to get through the big snow drifts after hours of delay.

The wet snow and high winds caused unusual difficulties for telegraph and telephone companies.

No locality reported cold weather temperatures, being well above zero, and in most places above the freezing point.

ROY G. GREENLEE WRITES FROM FRANCE

The following letter has been received from Roy Guy Greenlee of Company A. 318 M. G. Bat., 81st Division, written to his wife, Mrs. Roy Greenlee, of Mosheim, Tenn. The letter follows:

Prusley, France, Jan. 19th, 1919.

My Dear Wife:—

It gives me great pleasure to answer your letter received today. I was delighted to hear from you and to know that you and the baby were well. I sure would like to see you and the boy, but I will soon be at home to stay with you all.

I had a letter from mother and one from Mae and Charley the other day. I am going to write them both today.

You said that you saw in the paper where the 81st was on the front. Yes, we were on the front in September and went back again in November but I got through all right without a scratch. We didn't lose many men—about thirteen were wounded and killed out of my whole battalion.

You need not worry about me for I am all right and expecting to be at home with you and the baby before very long.

Tell father and mother hello for me.

I will close for this time and write mamma and Mae a letter. With lots of love and kisses for you and the baby, I am, as ever,

Your husband,

ROY G. GREENLEE,

FULLER DETAILS OF DEATH OF ROWDY GENTRY

Belgium, Dec. 17th, 1918.

Mr. A. J. Gentry, Greenville, Tenn.,

Dear Sir:—

Doubtless before this you have received full particulars concerning the death of your son, Lieut. Rowdy Gentry, November 1st, at the Evacuation Hospital, after he was wounded in the Scheldt battle October 31st. I will write a word in addition because ever since I joined the regiment in August, I have been more or less closely connected with your son and came to know him very well, most of the time being in the same mess with him.

I remember seeing him in the hard eight-day fight in the Argonne, where he received a sickness for awhile through gas, but where he fought so well he was recommended for promotion from the First Lieutenant. I recall with pleasure, as we were bivouached at Oostrosbeke, October 29th, just before we made our night march to Waerghem, where our fight began the 31st, he came to the medical tent where I was and showing the silver bars that were marks of promotion. The doctors insisted that they pin them on his shoulders, which they did to his evident satisfaction.

I did not see him after he was wounded, but about two weeks ago I stood by his grave in the well kept cemetery at Staden, with two of the officers who knew and loved him, and we spoke of the days that were so recently passed when he was with us.

Though not inclined to be demonstrative, Rowdy Gentry was naturally lovable—a true friend, but most of all I know you remember with pride, a true soldier who gave his life for his country and the world.

May God's blessings be yours in your sorrow.

Sincerely,

ALEXANDER LEWIS,

Chaplain 363 Inf.

IN BLOOD DISEASES

Like Scrofula, Eczema, and Many Skin Troubles.

As well as a general Spring medicine for catarrh, rheumatism, dyspepsia, Hood's Sarsaparilla is of great value to men, women, children. It does its thorough work in these well-defined diseases by cleansing the blood, on the pure, healthy condition of which depend the vigor and tone of the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is equally successful in the treatment of troubles that are not so well defined—cases of a low or run-down condition or general debility, loss of appetite and that tired feeling, or cases in which we see now very plainly after-effects of the worry and anxiety caused by the world war and the debility following the grip, influenza and fevers. In all such ailments it has accomplished a wonderful amount of good. Hood's Pills help as a stomach-toning, digestive cathartic.

DEBUNK

We are still having plenty of cold weather. Suppose this is still ground hog weather. It is very hard on the farmers to get their tobacco beds ready to sow for burley.

Old Aunt Hulda Forby, an old and highly respected colored woman, is very ill at this time. She does not know how old she is, but thinks she is somewhere in ninety.

Mr. Tom Haney and children have been sick the past week, but are reported better at this time.

Mr. Lanford Lane spent a few hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jones Sunday morning.

Miss Ruby Wagner was the guest of Mrs. Bruce Wells of your city a part of last week.

Mr. Edgar Haney spent the week end with his uncle, Mr. William Lowry, of Walker's who has been confined to his home for the past two months. Improvement in Mr. Lowry's condition is not as rapid as his friends would like, we are very sorry to say.

Mrs. J. F. Wagner has been very much indisposed. We trust for a full restoration of her former good health in the near future.

Mr. Hubert Headrick, a soldier boy who is visiting relatives in Greenville, visited his aunt, Mrs. W. O. Wells, near Amity. He and his cousin, Miss Alice Wells, called on Miss Mabel Kate Wells one day recently. Mr. Headrick's home is in Kansas, where he will go shortly, having received his discharge from the service.

Mr. Claud McCampbell, of Greenville, was here Saturday. We are always glad to see Claud, and hope he will decide to move back to his farm.

Miss Sallie Jones is staying with Mrs. Drew Susong. Sallie is looking well.

Mr. Verna Wagner, who came home from the army last week, was out calling on his old friends Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Warren Anderson, one of the soldier boys, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wykle last Saturday.

Mr. Horace Wykle went to Greenville this morning with a load of tobacco.

Come on, soldiers, with your letters. We always enjoy reading them.

"Begorra, I'd niver go near th' place at all, at all," says Pat.—Just a Little Better.

Calomel Makes You Sick, Ugh!

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Better Than Calomel and Cannot Salivate.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury: quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and cannot salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

New Armistice Stops Offensive of Hun In Poland

PARIS, Feb. 18.—Marshal Foch this afternoon informed the supreme council of the acceptance by the Germans of the conditions for a renewal of the armistice.

Two notes were handed to Marshal Foch by Mathias Erzberger when the renewal of the armistice was taken up at Treves. One note concerned the employment of the German mercantile marine for various purposes while the other was longer and contained several requests, including the release of German prisoners and the maintenance of the economic intercourse between Germany and occupied German territories.

TREVES, Feb. 18.—Under the new terms for the renewal of the armistice, as presented to the Germans by Marshal Foch, Germany must abandon all offensive movement against the Poles and also must prohibit her troops from crossing the Russian frontier at a certain line.

The line of demarcation between Germany and Poland is outlined as follows: East of Grosser Neudorf (southeast of Bromberg), south of Labischin, south of Scholdzisen north to Exin, (southwest of Bromberg), south of Sann, north to Czarnickau (east of Kreuz), west to Birnbaum and Bentschen (west of Posen) Wollstein, Lissa and north of Weirnszow and thence along the frontier between Silesia and Poland. (This line of demarcation gives to Poland a considerable part of German Posen).

It was provided by the allied terms that the armistice must be renewed for an indeterminate period with a fixed delay of three days for the denunciation of it. The old terms of the armistice are to be carried out completely by Germany.

The German delegates reached Treves Friday morning and Marshal Foch arrived at noon. The first discussion was at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and was begun by Marshal Foch. Mathias Erzberger spoke first for the Germans.

Owen Disgusted With Conditions At Brest

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—United States Senator Owen of Oklahoma, who for the last two months has been studying the reconstruction program of the American army in France, upon his arrival here today on the steamship Rotterdam, said: "Brest is not fit for cattle to live in."

LETTER FROM FRANCE

American Exp. Forces, Jan. 3rd, 1919.

Dear Mother:—

Will drop you a few lines to let you know I am still living.

I am not getting more than half enough to eat, and would almost give my right arm to sit down to your table and eat one square meal. When it comes to 1 slice of old fat back meat, a little syrup, a cup of coffee, and a very thin slice of bread for breakfast, it makes me think of home. I am as hungry as a wolf. I have about one hundred lice to the minute. With the exception of this I think I am all right. It sure is tough to be hungry all the time. I haven't had a dozen good meals since I left the 5th division, November 14th 1918. I got plenty to eat while I was in the 49th Infantry; also got enough while I was in the 11th.

Hope you are all well.

Will be at home in six or eight months I think. Give my love to all and write me a line once in a while.

This is all for this time. As ever,

Your son,

JOSEPH F. HYDER.

Co. E. 23rd Inf. 2nd Div., American E. F.

VISIONS

By Mrs. P. Culhane.

I never watch the sun set, adown the western skies,

But that within its wonderness I see my Mother's eyes;

I never hear the west wind sob softly in the trees,

But that there comes her broken call, far o'er the distant seas.

I never watch the dim stars, but that my heart would go

Away and back to olden lands, and dreams of long ago.

A rover of the wide world, while yet my heart was young,

The sea came whispering to me, in well-beloved tongue;

And oh! the promise she held, of golden lands a gleam;

They clung around my girlhood heart, and filled my eyes with dreams.

Still wild unrest kept luring me, 'till 'neath the stars I swore

That I would leave old Erin's shore forever—evermore.

And now I watch the sun set, adown the western skies,

And glimpse within its wonderness my Mother's plading eyes;

And yet I hear the west wind sob softly in the trees,

That vainly cloaks her broken call, far o'er the distant seas;

And never shine the dim stars, but that my heart would go

Away, and back to her side, and dream of long ago.

A CREED OF SUCCESS

I believe in the stuff I am handing—that honest stuff can be handed out to honest men by honest methods.

I believe in working; not weeping; in boosting, not knocking; and in the pleasure of my job.

I believe that a man gets what he goes after, and that one deed done today is worth two deeds tomorrow and that no man is down and out until he has lost faith in himself. I believe in today and the work I am doing, in tomorrow and the work I hope to do, and the sure reward which the future holds.

I believe in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good cheer, in friendship and honest competition.

I believe there is something doing, somewhere, for every man ready to do it. I believe I am ready—RIGHT NOW.—Elbert Hubbard.

FINLEY DAWSON

WRITES FROM GERMANY

Jan. 11th, 1919.

Dear Dad:—

Will try and write you a few lines to let you know that I am well and getting along fine.

Guess you are having some winter back home. There hasn't been but one little snow over here and that did not amount to very much.

Suppose you all had a nice Christmas. I got a Red Cross package and some chocolate.

I am in a good company and they feed us good. I have plenty to eat and a good bed to sleep in. The German people are very nice to us.

I don't know when I will get to come home, but I am hoping it will not be long, as I am very anxious to see you all.

I have written Hattie a letter. What is my Hattie girl doing? I would like to see her.

Had better close for this time. Write me a long letter and tell me all the news you can. With love to all, I am,

Your soldier boy,

FINLEY DAWSON.
