By order of Maj. Gen. W. T. SHERMAN,

NOTICE.—A. Gilbert, a citizen of Memphis since 1848, was called on last Saturday night week, to deliver a Union address. On Saturday night next, Aug. 16th, at 8 o'clock, in Court Square, Mr. Gilbert will be happy to see all of his American, Irish, and German friends, previous to his making a trip to Washington, at which time he will gladly address them. au 15-2t

Go to the Arcade to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Money can be made.

WHO IS TO BLAME?—A colored man was shot yesterday evening on Main street, near Beal.

POLICE COURT.—Sixteen cases were on trial in this court yesterday morning, and $56 were deposited in the city treasury.

FIRE.—There was an alarm of fire about sunset last evening. It proved to be in an old chimney at the corner of Main and Madison streets. No loss.

STEALING.—A few nights ago, some thieves intruded on the premises of Mr. Metcalf and his neighbor on Dunlap street, and stole from the former eight hams, and from the latter nine hams of meat and some chickens.

SABBATH PREACHING.—Rev. Dr. Grundy will conduct religious services to-morrow morning, at 10½ o'clock, at the 2d Presbyterian church. The Sabbath School will open in the basement at 9 o'clock.

MR. GASSETT, bonnet and hat rejuvenator, Provine Block, up stairs, still holds himself in readiness, as will be seen by his advertisement, to make old things beat the new. Give him a hail.

FIGHTING.—Charles Hiner and Michael Cheek, who attempted to settle a personal difficulty by a resort to pugilistic strife, made their appearance before the Recorder yesterday morning, when Charles was fined $6, and Mike discharged.

A DISORDERLY HOUSE.—S. C. Thompson and Mary Welden were yesterday arraigned in the Police Court, on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, and, being found guilty of said charge, they were fined $6 each.

SELLING LIQUOR WITHOUT LICENSE.—John Mengher has been vending whisky without license, which is a violation of law, and for this offense he submitted his case to the discretion of the Recorder, yesterday morning, who fined him $25 and costs.

THE following are the names of the Committee of Safety of the city of Memphis, under King Jeff. the first: F. Titus, President; F. W. Royster, Secretary; W. B. Miller, D. R. Cook, A. Woodruff, E. Mageveny, M. Mageveny, J. O. Greenlaw, J. M. Gonder, C. B. Church, J. M. Patrick, M. C. Gallaway, Thos. A. Nelson; A. P. Merrill, President of the Military Board.

A CHANGE.—After a protracted term of heat and dry weather and immense dust, a change very favorable to us poor mortals who daily traverse the streets, has come in the form of refreshing breezes and dust laid low, after a splendid, a glorious rain, accompanied with peals of Heaven's artillery.

MORE THEFT.—The practice of thieving is getting to be pretty common out on Dunlap street, in the suburbs of the city. Night before last somebody entered the apartments of a resident on that street, seized, possessed, and carried off six gallons of spruce beer. If any intoxicating effects can be realized from imbibing such beer, no doubt the thief has had a glorious "bust."

BRUTALITY.—A personified specimen of brutality, enjoying the name of Pat Hughes, was examined before the Recorder yesterday on the disgraceful accusation of fighting and cruelly beating a woman; for which scandalous exercise of physical strength he was required to "fork over" the sum of $26. It is certainly the basest kind of cowardice in man to raise his brawny fist to strike tender woman, and whenever he does such a thing, he subjects himself to the utter contempt of respectable society.

UNION MEETING.—There will be a great Union gathering in Court Square to-night, which will be enlivened by the best of music. All our citizens should turn out with their families, and hear truth spoken and justice vindicated around the bust of "Old Hickory," who, in 1832, put his foot on the neck of South Carolina, and told her emphatically that "THE FEDERAL UNION MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED."

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The performances yesterday evening were pleasant and entertaining. The managers continue to attract full houses. Young Eph.'s Lament seems ever fresh and new. Mr. Purdy spreads himself admirably in singing this song. Mr. Manning, the bone-player, and Miss Frank Christie always meet the expectation of the audience. Joe Mairs, in his tamborine dance, brought down the house, which he is always sure to do. The bill to-night is attractive. Many of the lovers of fun will be there of course.

DEPARTURES TO-DAY.

Rowena.....Capt. Mason.....St. Louis.

MEMPHIS, August 16, 1862.

Business was quite brisk on the levee yesterday, and several boats arrived with fair trips, both of passengers and freight. The river is still declining slowly.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The palatial Rowena, Capt. J. C. Mason, R. L. McGhee & Co., agents, will leave for St. Louis to-day at 5 o'clock P. M. The Rowena is a first-class boat, officered by experienced gentlemen, well qualified to discharge every trust confided to them. We call the public attention to the advertisement of the Rowena, to be found in another column.

THE magnificent Hiawatha made our landing yesterday. The admirer of naval architecture should not fail to see this splendid steamer, as her equals in every respect cannot be found but seldom. We hope she will be a frequent visitor to this port.

ARE WE TO HAVE A NEW JAIL?—It is said that Forrest's negro mart on Adam's street between Second and Third, is to be appropriated for the purpose of a city jail. It is time that the civil authorities were looking to something of the kind. Those who destroyed the old jail, were not looking to the future welfare of our city; but we must have another, and risk the chances of the jail burning Confederates coming back here. Shall we have it—the station-house won't do—its a filthy den, and would make any decent man sick to be there one night.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for September has been received, and may be had at Young & Brothers, 216 Main street. It is still edited by Mrs. Sarah J. Hale and Mr. L. A. Godey. It has reached its sixty-fifth volume. The September number presents a rich table of contents in both prose and poetry, as the following subjects may prove: "Eastern Rambles and Reminescences," "Memento Won," "A Life's Error Corrected," "Smiles," "Weeds and Habits," "Our Darling," "Out in the Red Clover," "Romance of Old Letters," "Lost and Found," "A Mother's Trial," "Editor's Table," "Health Department," etc., etc. The book is well worth having.

INTOXICATED WOMEN.—This is a subject about which we very much dislike to write, for the reason that woman should be a model of all earthly goodness, an example of piety and virtue, instead of appearing on the public thoroughfares of a city, or in the Police, as an object of disgust or a victim of degradation. Such a spectacle is to us anything but pleasant, and ever begets feelings which our pen fails to describe. A drunken woman is, indeed a pitiable object. There was a woman in the Police Court yesterday morning, for being drunk, and was fined $5. We saw two policemen passing up Main street, last evening, leading a woman, who was in an intoxicated condition. She was confined in the station-house.

SOLDIER KILLED.—Last night a soldier who had been confined as a prisoner in the Irving block, attempted to escape, first, by offering the guard ten dollars, but the guard refusing to accept the bribe, he ran, when the guard shot him, the ball passing into the back of his head. He was a member of the 6th Missouri regiment.

STATION HOUSE.—Several thieves were arrested yesterday, and lodged in this institution. Their cases will come up for investigation in the Recorder's court this morning.

LATE ARRIVAL.—A new gunboat arrived yesterday morning from up the river.

MORE GUERRILLA PRISONERS.—Captain Herrod's company of Illinois cavalry, having been scouting in the interior, came in yesterday morning with six or eight prisoners whom they captured somewhere.

WE call the attention of the public to the advertisement of G. Ranger, in another column.

BRANDING DESERTERS.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, writing from Culpepper, says: "Yesterday and day before I witnessed the unwelcome spectacle of branding deserters. By the decision of a court-martial, of which Lieutenant Colonel Wm. Leech, of the Ninetieth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, was President, three members of the Ninetieth, who had deserted and were retaken were sentenced to be branded on the left hip with the letter D, an inch and a half long, and ten days thereafter have one half of the head shaved, forfeit all their pay, and be drummed out of the service. Several others were punished for stealing and other minor offenses."

The notes of the banks of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana pass freely as "currency," and are about 10 per cent. discount for Tennessee bank notes.

The interior banks of the State, viz: Bank of Middle Tennessee, Bank of Nashville, Merchants' Bank of Nashville, Shelbyville Bank, Traders' Bank, &c., 5c. discount below Memphis city money.

Gold, over Treasury notes.....10 to 15 prem
Gold, over Tennessee money.....35 to 40 prem

Exchange on the Northern and Eastern cities scarce, and rates quite irregular.

The demand for U. S. Treasury notes, generally called "green-backs," is very lively, and the supply limited.

All up country money in good credit at home is bought by our brokers at 20 to 25 per cent. premium over Tennessee money.

On account of the impossibility of making exchanges with the banks of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, &c., the notes of these banks are not at all time convertable into Tennessee funds even at our rates. Southern money, just now, drags heavily.

BRAGG'S army is reported to be near Chattanooga moving toward Nashville.

Unexpected Mail—United States Minister—Consul Trouble feared from Cordoba—Fears Allayed—Precious Metals—Prosperity—Money for Mendoza—Indians—No help for it—Railroad Projects—Commerce—Prices, &c.

Correspondence of N. Y. Times.]

BUENOS AYRES, S. A.,
Wednesday June 16, 1862

Unexpectedly, there is a supplimental French mail, and accordingly I have a chance to send you news three days later than by the regular mail of the 13th.

In that time legislation in the National Congress has taken a step in advance on the subject of a National Capital. A committee has reported a bill to make the whole province of Buenos Ayres National domain, just as the District of Columbia is in the United States. Whatever cutting down this project may undergo, it seems quite certain Buenos Ayres will be the National Capital. This secures the residence here of the Foreign Ministers, and at the same time it shows to them the best part of South America, and they will thus be much more favorably impressed with the Government and country.

Within two or three days the Hon. Robert C. Kirk has arrived, and has found suitable rooms. The United States Legation and the United States Consulate will be located in the same square. Thus far, there is reason to believe that President Lincoln's selection for the incumbency of these offices could not be excelled. Hon. Rowan P. Helper is the Consul.

The National Congress recently rejected, for illegality of election, the delegates from Cordoba, and much was feared as to the result in that turbulent province. More recent advices assure us that the province will quickly proceed to re-elect the same men in a more legal manner, averting thus a civil war.

No doubt exists as to the mineral resources of this country. Gold has lately been found in Uraguay. In the Province of San Juan there has lately been found gold, silver, copper, lead, quicksilver and several other metals. Col. Sarmiento, the present Governor of that province, is owner of large tracts of mineral lands, and he is making great efforts to develope them, thus far with encouraging results.

A new company is about being organized here, to own and run a first class American steamer between this city and Montevideo. The prespectus promises grand returns. Expenses here are high, but the rates for freight and passage are about five times those of the vicinity of New York.

The whole of the Confederation is rapidly recovering from the disasters of war, drouth and earthquake. Business revives under the sure prospect of permanent peace. Rains are now abundant, and poor earth-shaken Mendoza is slowly recovering from the fearful earthquake of March 20, 1861. This calamity opened the hearts and hands of people everywhere. Hundreds of thousands of hard dollars were raised in this vicinity, and large sums also came from Europe. Over a year has passed, the second winter is upon the houseless and impoverished people, and yet there are deposited in the bank in this city over 50,000 Spanish dollars of funds gathered for the relief of the sufferers of Mendoza.

In the provincial portions of the Confederation there is now no armed opposition to either the general or local government. Great [illegible] toward prisoners taken by the government, and the mountaineers retaliated by sending back the prisoners which they had taken unransomed.

An inroad has recently been made upon Santa Fe by Indians, over 500 in number, who carried off 6,000 cattle, many horses, and some women and children. There seems to be no defense against these inroads. When the Indians do not come there is no danger, and when they do, the troops cannot overtake them.

The price of gold still goes up, or rather the price of paper still goes down. Three days ago the doubloon sold for 436 paper dollars, and they bade fair to go up to 500. The result was ruinous to the whole country, and attracted the attention of government. A project is on foot to issue State bonds to the amount of 6,000,000 of silver dollars, and thus call in about 150,000,000 of paper. The expectation of this has given ounces a decidedly downward tendency. To this result the peaceable disposition of Cordoba has also contributed. To-day ounces are 427, with a prospect of a rapid fall.

From the Richmond Dispatch, Aug. 2.]

We are on the eve of great events. The hour of decision has been placed by Providence in our hands. In that Providence we cherish an abiding faith and an unfaltering trust. But we do not believe that the providence of God conflicts with the free agency of man. It works for and with us in temporal as well as spiritual things; but in one, as in the other, we must use the means vouchsafed and opportunities afforded, and work out our own salvation. The hand of God has enabled us to smite back the enemy from the Chickahominy, but this was only the beginning of the work. If we do not follow it up—if we do not heap blow upon blow—if we permit our enemy again to rally and organize—then, indeed, shall the summer be past, the harvest ended, and the day of our salvation delayed, if not forever gone. We rejoice to believe that our government fully appreciates this momentous truth. Now is the time to strike; now, whilst our banners are flashing in the light of victory; whilst every southern sword mirrors the bright forms of glory and hope, whilst the accursed foe is preparing once more for a final spring, now is the time for a blow that shall crush this hydra-headed despotism forever, and send an electric thrill of deliverance and joy from one end to the other of this struggling, valiant and glorious country.

Soldiers of the South, Napoleon told his warriors in Egypt that from the summit of the pyramids forty centuries looked down upon them. Without the language of rhetorical exaggeration, we can say to you that from 10,000 anxious homes the eyes of mothers, sisters, wives and children are looking upon you—looking upon you, their brave and beloved—looking upon you as their only help and hope, save that God in whose hands are the issues of battles, and to whose Almighty throne arise day and night those prayers of faith which he has promised to answer and to bless. Inspired by such reflections, let our gallant sons of the South once more give their glorious banners to the breeze, and let the resolve of every heart be "victory or death."

The whole South looks on; the world looks on; the fate of future generations trembles in the balance. Never did such calamities visit a civilized and Christian people as those which now threaten every southern home, and which can only be averted by the power of Heaven and your own strong arm. The result we cannot doubt. Now let there be no delay, nor an hour's procrastination; it may be now or never.

The Lies of Rebel Newspapers.

From the Richmond Examiner, August 5.]

From a gentleman recently returned from Winchester, whither he had been under flag of truce, we learn of a very extraordinary rumor which, at the time of his visit, was prevalent in that town. It was said and believed there that the governors of the States of Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Ohio had refused to furnish their quotas under the call of Lincoln for the th[illegible] resigned in consequence of this action of the governors. We give the rumor as it was told to us.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 67.

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH DIVISION,
ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE,
MEMPHIS, August 8, 1862.

Inasmuch as by law of Congress, recently enacted, the President of the United States is authorized to receive and employ the labor of slaves or fugitives from slavery; and such fugitives on coming to our camps seeking protection, the following rules will be observed at and near Memphis until the President prescribes others, when these will necessarily be superseded and made to conform to the pleasure of the President.

I. All able bodied negroes who apply for work at Fort Pickering will be received and put to work by the Engineer in charge, Captain Hoepner; the names of owners and slaves registered, with date of commencement of work, and a general description by which the negroes can be known. Such negroes will be entitled to rations, to be drawn on Provision returns similar to those used for soldiers, and will be supplied with necessary clothing, and tobacco at the rate of one pound per month. An account will be opened with each negro, and his wages will be charged with the value of the clothing and tobacco; but no wages will be paid until the courts determine whether the negro be slave or free. The negroes employed on the fort are working as laborers, and will be allowed to return to their masters or mistresses at the close of any week, but masters or mistresses cannot be allowed to enter the fort in search of their slaves, because it is improper that any one not belonging to the garrison should enter Fort Pickering, or even follow its lines and ditches on the outside. A list of negroes so employed will be kept at headquarters, which may be seen by parties interested.

II. The Post Quartermaster, Captain Fitch, will in like manner employ a force of about one hundred negroes out of those who apply to him for work, or he may, on occasions, take by force when he thinks it absolutely necessary to have an increased force work on the levee, loading and unloading steamboats, coal boats, and such like labor; a list of whom, similar to that referred to in paragraph I, will be kept by the Quartermaster, and a copy sent to headquarters for reference. These will in like manner be entitled to rations, necessary clothing and tobacco, but the pay must be reserved until the proper judicial tribunals determine to whom such labor and wages belong.

III. Division Quartermasters may employ fugitives to drive teams and attend to horses, mules and cattle keeping accurate accounts under the rules of their department applicable to "persons and articles employed and hired," and subject to the condition of paragraph I of this order; this list of persons so employed to be sent to headquarters for reference. The number of negroes so hired not to exceed one per team, and one to every six span of animals herded or stabled.

IV. The commanders of regiments may cause to be employed as cooks and company teamsters, not to exceed five per company and ten per regiment for extra wagons, and five for stand wagons: in all, sixty-five per regiment, which negroes shall be borne on the muster rolls, and supplied with provisions and clothing as soldiers, but in no case will they bear arms or wear the uniform. The Quartermaster of the Division will supply the Regiments Quartermasters with clothing suitable for such negroes, an account of which will be kept separate and distinct from that of the soldiers. These negroes must be kept to their appropriate duties and place, and the question of wages must remain open and unsettled until the order of the President are received or until fixed by subsequent regulations.

V. The Commanding General here thinks proper to make known to the people of Memphis the principles by which, in the absence of instructions from his superior officers, he will be governed in all cases arising under these complicated questions. It is neither his duty nor his pleasure to disturb the relation of master and slave—that is for the courts, which, having been destroyed here by our enemy, are inoperative for the present, but in the due course of events there must and will be tribunals re-established here that will judge and decide in cases which have already arisen or may arise, under the laws and Constitution of the United States. Then loyal masters will recover their slaves and the wages they have earned during their temporary use by the military authorities; but it is understood that all masters who are in open hostility to the Constitution of their country will lose their slaves, the title to which only exists by force of that very Constitution they seek to destroy.

No influence must be used to entice slaves from their masters; and if fugitives desire to return to their masters they will be permitted to do so, but on the other hand, no force or undue persuasion will be permitted to recover such fugitive property.

Officers of the army, from Generals to Lieutenants, must not employ such fugitives for servants. The Government provides to each officer a distinct pay for his servant, and this is ample for the hire of a freeman. Were we to employ such fugitives as servants, our motives would be misconstrued; whereas, their employment by the Government is in pursuance of law, is clearly within the rules of war, and will increase our effective force by the number of negroes so employed.

By order of Major General W. T. Sherman.
J. H. HAMMOND,
aug10-1w Assistant Adjutant General.
