Whitson-Rich Wedding.

On Wednesday last Rev. John Mc-Learie spoke the words which joined in marriage Mr. Charles Whitson and Miss Galena Rich, both of this city. The ceremony was witnessed by the members of the Lignum Vitae and a few close friends only, and occurred at the home of the bride.

The bride is a charming young lady and has grown to womanhood here in Rapid City. She is beloved by all. The groom is a young man of integrity and sterling worth. Space forbids a further write-up of the kappy event, but THE UNION joins the people of Rapid City in extending its best wishes and heartiest congratulations.

AN ALL-THE-YEAR SEASON.

Range Cattle Industry Undergoing a Change.

Chicago Drovers Journal.

The business methods of the range cattle men are now in a state of evolution that will result ultimatly in an all-year season instead of the summer and fall season as heretofore. This is evidenced by the growing frequency of shipments to this market of western cattle direct from the ranges of the northwest. Chicago has received more of this class of live stock during the last three months than in any similar peroid since this market was

Several years ago this movement began in Texas, when a number of cattlemen began to feed so as to have something for market during the winter and spring months. The Texas cattle man looked further for feed than his unmowed pasture; he began to plant forage crops, which were havrested to be fed in connection with more concentrated foods. The idea was, primarily, to systematize the work so as to ship to market at any time instead of limiting the shipments to the months when cattle were attended exclusively up-

While the initiative wrs taken by the Texas cattle men, this movement has spread rapidly to the western and northwestern ranges, where some corn and great quantities of hay and other roughage is grown and harvested. The native grasses of Montana and the Dakotas make an ideal cured hay that is conceded by some teeders to contain more nutritive properties even than the clover hay of the corn belt. The northwestern range country is one of unestimated richness, and with resources fully developed the cattle man of that section will become an important factor in the beef market every month in the year.

Another reason why this evolution or progression is so rapid is that the range cattle men are improving their herds by the purchase of pure-bred bulls or buying stock cattle of a better grade than formerly. Last fall at the Minnesota state fair nearly 300 head of pure-bred Shorthorn, Angus and Hereford cattle were sold at auction, and the bulk of them went to the ranches of Minnesota, Montana and the Dakotas for the improvement of the herds; the sales of pure-breds have continued up to the present time, every sale, no matter where held. having a good representation of range men.

idaho shippers will soon be on the market with alfalfa-fed cattle, and others will come from western Montana. This is manifestly more profitable than feeding high-priced corn, and the rangeman is showing his ocumen by shaping his business so as to meet the market at all times. He is "strictly in it," so to speak, and the prediction made a year ago that he would be one of the powers in the fancy cattle market is very near fulfillment.

often permanently. Life is a continuous struggle, and the man or woman afflicted with a Chronic Disease is outclassed at every turn. In this age of sharp competition, no man can hope to be successful unless sound in mind and body.

During my long career as a specialist, I have seen thousands who are carrying around some obstinate chronic disease as a bur-densome companion, which they could easily rid themselves of by the proper treatment. Any honest physician will tell you that these diseases are stubborn and obdurate, and a special knowledge is required to treat them successfully. My special fitness for treating Chronic Diseases has been acquired by twenty years of close application, devoted exclusively to their study and treatment. I have treated more cases than any other physician in the United States, and I thoroughly understand just what is required in each case My specialty includes all chronic diseases, such as Stricture, Varicocele, Blood and Skin Disease, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, Diseases of Women, etc., and my original method of treatment has proven successful in even the most obstinate cases

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you

Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected car would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain

Very truly yours.
