here Saturday and registered at The Randall.

Mrs. P. K. Gled and F. G. Fleetwood were in Johnson a part of Tuesday.

George Morse and family and J. R.
Parker and family have gone to Highgate Springs, where they will camp out for three or four weeks.

Walter Bridge has recently passed a successful examination before the State Dental Board, and can now practice dentistry in this state.

Water and sewer connection has been made with the site of G. M.
Powers' proposed residence, and the work of digging the cellar commenced.

Mrs. J. W. Fairbanks and son of Chicago, Ill., have arrived and are the guests of Mrs. Seymour Tefft.
Mr. Fairbanks runs the largest tea and coffee house of the west side.

The frequent rains of late have forged all growing crops ahead in a wonderful manner, and been of great value to the early mown grass land, insuring a very fair second crop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Currier went to-day to Franklin County to remain there for a few days. This is the first time in thirty years that Mr. and Mrs. Currier have taken a railroad ride together.

Mrs. M. E. Roberts of Montpelier came here Monday night and remaining until to-day. While here she disposed of her Main street property to Mrs. O. R. Luce, who occupied it for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon Bugbee, of South Bend, Indiana, arrived here last Friday and were the guests of the Misses Bugbee until Tuesday, when they went to Waterbury, but they will return here later.

Don't forget the lawn party and band concert in Academy Park tonight, given by the ladies of St.
Teresa's church. If the weather is unfavorable this event will take place to-morrow evening.

William G. Wood of Chicago was in town several days the first of the week. Mr. Wood was a student in the Academy at its start, and found quite a number of his fellow students to talk over old times with.

A. R. Campbell, the optician, has filled 600 prescriptions since 1897-- a good indication that he is meeting with success in that branch of his business. It should not be forgotten that he is here the year round.

A. B. Austin and W. I. Paul were on Elmore mountain Saturday.
While there Mr. Paul fell and sustained a dislocation of the right shoulder. He came home all right, but the next morning found that his arm did not work just right, so Dr.
Robbins was called, who pronounced it dislocation and placed it in position.

Enos Hill took possession of the Centennial House at Hardwick, Monday, and the people of that town and traveling public may rely upon the best of service, as Mr. and Mrs. Hill with "Chub" Mears as clerk, have had the necessary experience to make the patrons of the house feel at home from the very first.

Miss Adah Valiquette of Rutland is the guest of Misses Marguerite and Lou Slocum. A lawn party in her honor was given on the spacious grounds of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Slocum yesterday afternoon, for which thirty invitations were issued. The young people enjoyed themselves immensely, if appearances count for anything.

M. S. Rosenberg closed up the Globe Clothing Co. affairs here the first of the week, and left to-day for St. Johnsbury, where he will remain over Sunday, before returning to St.
Albans, where he and Sam have a large clothing store. As the two brothers have a large circle of friends here, numerous visits from them in the future may be expected.

A ferry fell into George Town's clutches Sunday for indulging too freely in "Jersey lightning" and creating a disturbance at Worcester, coming here for a safe retreat. The duet fell here at 1 a. m. Monday morning for Worcester, where the usual assessment was levied, when George and his prisoner went to the Capitol, where a charge of cattle stealing hangs over Emory.

Mrs. Geo. W. Parmenter of Montpelier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
C. A. Sanders over Sunday.

Mrs. John Ahern of Lyndonville, was the guest of Miss Mary E.
Moody the first of the week.

Will Whipple completed his vacation and returned to his book-keeping duties in Boston, Monday.

Worcester, Mass., came here Monday evening to visit her father, J. A. Bundy.

Mrs. O. P. Foster, who has been living in Wolcott for some time came back Monday and is occupying her house.

I. O. Andrews held the lucky number that took possession of Conductor Simpson's watch, last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hartson, who is living in North Wolcott, is gaining health rapidly. Dr. Campbell of Albany, is treating her.

Capt. Kenfield went to Bennington Monday evening to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Soldier's Home.

Mrs. E. A. Hadley has had for guests Mrs. M. R. Lewis and three grandchildren from Wilmington, Del.
They are going to Hardwick, Monday.

An adjourned meeting of the W. R. C. will be held in G. A. R. hall next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.
All members are especially requested to be present.

Ernest Foss has the carpenter work to square up his building on Main street well under way. Ernest is making things hustle this year, in the building line.

There will be a special communication of Mr. Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M., Wednesday evening Aug. 2. The officers are in hopes that there will be a large attendance.

Miss Ella Barrows of Barton Landing came down yesterday from Caspian Lake, where she has been enjoying an outing, and will be here the rest of the week.

Letters from Mrs. E. H. Stone, who is attending a summer school at Penn Yan, New York, state that she is getting along finely, and is also doing some teaching.

Elmer Rider's little boy, while playing in the barn last Thursday, fell through a feed hole into the manger of the horse stable and broke his left arm about one and a half inches of the shoulder joint. The fracture was reduced by Dr. C. C. Rublee and the little fellow, whose years do not span the half of a decade, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Sunday night the two barns on Chet. Ward's farm in Elmore were burned, together with two horses, four cows, a number of calves, and 20 tons of hay. Suspicion pointed to Herman Tucker as the one setting the fire and he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff H. Stevens and brought to Morrisville, and later taken to Hyde Park. The evidence is circumstantial.

The play, "A Celebrated Case," under the direction of C. Walcott Russell, is now stated for the evenings of Thursday and Friday, Aug.
10 and 11. To the cast of characters, published in these columns some weeks since, may be added the names of Miss Emily Rublee, Leon Booth and little Helen Russell, who has played the beautiful child part on the road for the past two seasons. The costumes are beautiful and are of the Louis XV period.

An exchange well says: "It is a notable fact that many good items are lost to the newspapers every week by the modesty of the people who hesitate to tell the reporter or editor matters concerning themselves. The right thing to do is to stop the newspaper man on the street, or any other place you may see him, and tell him you have been on a visit, have relatives visiting you, that you and your wife have a new baby at your house, or that your wife entertained friends, or anything that is in any way a matter of news. If you have done anything mean, keep that to yourself, for there are others who make it their business to tell about it."

Since last Friday until Monday night there has been trouble with the incandescent lighting system of this village. It was known that a short circuit existed, but just where, was the question, and apparently is yet, as it has not been located. Supt.
Dow, and assistant, Morton Cheney, have made the grand rounds several times, climbing poles and trees in their search, but without avail. Then an electrical expert was called, G. B.
Wilson of Lynn, Mass., who put in Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon with the local force to solve the mystery, yet the "hadoo" if such it is, is unapproachable as ever.
It can be said, however, that every effort possible is being put forth to give the Morrisville people light for business and domestic purposes.

Rev. D. E. Croft and family, who have been stopping for a few weeks with friends in Greenfield, Mass., arrived in town this afternoon. They will spend the month of August at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hall, Mrs.
Croft's mother.

The Morrisville laundry commenced active work yesterday, with a liberal supply of orders. Mr. and Mrs. Flann-agan seem to be the right parties in the right place, and the patronage they have a right to expect will keep the plant running. See his business notice.

Francis Blair, who electrified a Burlington audience and elicited much favorable comment on his oration at the U. V. M. commencement exercises, is at home again, after having put in some time in viewing quite an important portion of "Uncle Samuel's" domain.

A union service of all the village churches will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of this town. The exercises will consist of music and brief addresses by the various pastors. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Ella Hardy, Mrs. Lamson and H. H. Hardy went to Greensboro Tuesday to witness the grand illumination given by the guests in the summer cottages. They returned this morning, reporting the affair a success and well worthy the travel and time expended to view it.

Deputy Sheriff Town received a message from Stowe at 9 a. m. Saturday, requesting the arrest of Chas.
Gilbert for a theft. George found out that the man he wanted had taken the Morrisville-Swanton train, so he followed on the express, and bagged his game at Sheldon Junction, in time to return on the mail train, arriving here at 12:12 p. m., having traveled 72 miles in about three hours. George has reason to be proud of this work.

This section was visited last Friday by the worst electrical storm of years, yet no great damage was done in this vicinity. The flashes and reports followed each other in rapid succession, and the snapping of fuses in telephone and electric light wires added not a little to the terrors of the situation. During the storm, lightning entered the office of H. A. Slayton & Co., but beyond throwing a picture hanging over the telephones, to the floor, but no damage was done. Several poles were struck.

Y. P. S. C. E. Convention.
The semi-annual convention of the Lamoille County Y. P. S. C. E. held at Jeffersonville Tuesday was largely attended. There were about a hundred representatives from Endeavor societies, a number of them being from outside of the county. Several from outside the state were present.
The program was very interesting throughout and the convention pronounced one of the best ever held.
The Jeffersonville people entertained the guests in excellent style. The officers for the ensuing year are: Pres., Rev. G. C. Jenkins, Wolcott; Vice-Pres., Lucius H. Noyes, Hyde Park; Treas., Edgar H. Scott, Waterville; Sec'y., B. F. Atwell, Johnson; Junior Supt., Miss Jane K. Holmes, Johnson; Asst. Junior Supt., Mrs. S. A.
Fife, Wolcott. The mid-winter meeting will be at Wolcott.

Obituary--Mrs. C. L. Bingham,
"Light after darkness, gain after loss, Strength after weakness, crown after cross."

One more of Earth's children has gone to take possession of her heavenly mansion. Mrs. Clarinda Lord Bingham, for twenty-two years a resident of Binghamville, Vt., after a nine weeks' illness, passed beyond our sight July 19, 1899. Her presence in the home and in the community was an inspiration to all who knew her, and an illustration of the poet's thought:

Can be pure in its purpose and strong in its style,
And all life not be purer and stronger thereby."

HYDE PARK.

Miss Alameda Peo from Elmore is in town.

Miss Lucy Sawyer has returned from Massachusetts.

spent Sunday at his home in Bakers-field.

A party of six took a bicycle trip to Stowe and Waterbury the first of the week.

Harry Parker is spending a couple of weeks at his sister's at Enosburg Falls.

Mrs. M. C. Demming is spending a few weeks with her grandson, Walter Strong.

Bernard Fairbanks assisted in Crane & Andrews' store a few days last week.

L. G. Fullam of Ludlow was in the place to-day looking over the electric light plant.

Phil Clark and wife and Mrs. Ahern from Lyndonville, called on friends here Monday.

Mrs. L. M. Hill has returned from Franklin, where she has been spending a few weeks.

Omer Corey has completed work for L. W. Minor and returned to his home at Berkshire.

Mrs. C. M. Small, Mrs. Geo. Brown and Wm. Wood spent a day in Hardwick the past week.

Improvements are being made on the M. E. parsonage buildings by way of new shingles.

Misses Grace Conners and Edna Slayton are home from a three weeks' stay at Elmore Pond.

Russell Page has rebuilt the "Idle Hour," a sail boat, and placed the same on Elmore Pond.

Chester and Wilson Leach and Miss Wilma Leach spent a couple of days in Cambridge last week.

Lee Andrews returned to-day from Lyme, N. H., where he attended the funeral of his grandfather.
