MORRISVILLE.
Rev. V. M. Hardy, D. D., of Randolph, arrived in town yesterday and went to Caspian Lake to-day. The doctor has resigned his pastorate at Randolph, where he has been located 22 years. He has a call to Dover, Me.

Geo. E. Town, who had not fully recovered from a fall through the high beams, "dropped a stitch," or several of them, in his back, last week, and has been somewhat crippled since. George thinks he is "playing" in harness this summer.

George Dyke has been devoting his attention more closely than ever to farming this season, and as a result can show six acres of corn that finished roasting ears last week. He also has 14 acres of barley and oat that experts rate above the average.

The watermelon, canteloupe, peach and pear are the only things that the Vermont gardens and orchards need any protection for these days. Our gardeners and orchardists supply the rest—and of a prime quality, too. Plenty of garden truck of the home grown kind these days.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Woman's Club will make a strong protest to the candidacy of a high license man as Representative. The programs of the work of the coming year for the Woman's Club can be obtained by the members at the library.

W. W. Peck is somewhat of a lumber magnate. During the past season at his three mills—one in this town and two in Bakersfield—the output foots up 3,100,000 feet, with the work for the season not yet completed. The entire output would make quite a pile if possible to view it as a whole.

John Gould of Ohio, a speaker on agricultural topics of national reputation, accompanied by Mrs. Gould, arrived here Saturday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith over Sunday. Mr. Gould is not a stranger to our people, as he has visited this section before and addressed farmers' meetings here.

The weather was not very favorable for the Epworth League lawn party at A. R. Campbell's Aug. 7, nevertheless about 50 gathered and passed a pleasant evening. Musical entertainment was furnished by Misses Cora Woodward, Ida Niles and Miss Noble, who accompanied her, which was very much enjoyed and appreciated.

The work of painting the exterior of the school buildings has been pushed as rapidly as the weather conditions would permit. Vic Heath and men handled the new structure, while C. H. Small and men devoted their attention to the Academy, toning down the coloring to a great degree, forming a more pleasant contrast with the surroundings.

A good many of our village people will recollect Mr. and Mrs. Browning, who recently left here for Hanover, N. H., where Fred has a position in a boot and shoe store. It is the intention of these worthy people, who made a large circle of friends during their stay here, to commence housekeeping soon, and of course they will be at-home to Morrisville callers.

Sunday afternoon, while Mrs. G. M. Woodside was seated in her parlor, with her back to the window, she heard a crash of glass and felt a severe blow in the head. At first she thought she had been struck by a bullet, but investigation revealed that it was a stone that had been hurled from gravel bank hill. Bys should be more careful in their artillery practice with cobble stone. It was lucky for her that she was not facing the window.

Sheriff Stevens was in town Monday evening and left his umbrella in front of Stone's store. On leaving the store Chas. Brigham picked up the storm shelter and went for his team, when he found he was "long" on umbrellas. A two-forty gait brought Charles back with the umbrella and an apology, but Jones had departed with a borrowed article. The man returning an umbrella in the midst of a rainstorm lives in Morrisville. Let it be known to all the world.

The insurance on the farm buildings, etc., of F. L. Slayton, recently burned in Elmore has been adjusted by the Vermont Mutual Insurance Co., but not wholly to the satisfaction of the insured party. In one schedule is enumerated "dairy tools" and in another, "separator," the disagreement being as to the classification of the milk separator, the company contending it came in under the head of dairy tools, while the other party said it did not belong there, consequently Mr. Slayton gets no insurance money on his separator. The adjustment has "hung fire" for some time. By the final settlement Mr. Slayton gets about $3800.

Probably nearly all hereabouts are fully aware that last week contained about as much warm weather as is usually allotted to this section, Saturday, apparently containing the greatest quantity, the rising sun assuming a reddish hue. Along towards evening one of the heaviest windstorms accompanied by a heavy rainfall, prevailed, though the heaviest part of both probably did not reach this village. From the scattered reports coming to this office it is learned that the corn crop is the one sustaining the most damage, though swaths were mowed through the forests in several places. The electric display was quite brilliant, accompanied by heavy peals of thunder, the whole "artillery" crew apparently being out in force. It is rated as being the most severe storm that has been had hereabouts for years.

E. R. Sherburne of Boston is latest summer guest arrival at The Randall.

Topic books, from the News and Citizen press, have just been got out by the Congregational Christian Endeavor Society.

A clerk in one of our Morrisville stores has been accused of selling pea beans for salt. Dan Spaulding has been appointed referee in the matter, and his decision is anxiously waited for.

It is stated that J. S. Banister is to join with those closing their business places Tuesday and Thursday evenings. It is a wise move, and we trust the few who have been holding out will conclude to do likewise.

ANOTHER RALLEY.

On Thursday evening Aug. 23, Hon. W. W. Stickney, Republican candidate for Governor, and Hon. J. L. Martin of Brattleboro will address the voters of Morrisville on the issue of the day, at which time a band will be engaged to furnish the music. There should be a general attendance from this and adjoining towns on the flag raising as well as this occasion.

The Granite Sheds.

The town which pushes forward here in Vermont to secure manufacturing plants will generally succeed, though it may take years to make a success of it. Morrisville has had some experience in this line, and contributed thousands of dollars for it. Some of the enterprises it has fostered have proven to be successes, and some failures. The people have never become discouraged over the failure part, for if they had, a stop would have been made years ago. At the present time a bid has been made by a neighboring town for one of our industries. It came to Morrisville under similar auspices, and was well cared for. A paper has been in circulation for some time to get the stockholders of the granite sheds to relinquish their holdings to Drew Daniels, provided he would enlarge the works, purchase the grounds, and maintain the plan a number of years. Most of the stockholders relinquished their holdings. The ground is owned by Fisk & Slocum, and the building and large part of the machinery is in the Assignee Court to find out whether the title rests with John Brechin, et als, or a local company. If we understand the situation correctly, a failure on the part of Mr. Daniels to secure a further lease is what has precipitated action at this time. Another report contributes it to a concession of freight rates on the part of the Central Vermont Railroad. If this be true, it means a good deal to the manufacturer. There is a great need of getting excited over the matter, and we believe the Morrisville public able and willing to talk over the same calmly and dispassionately. There never was a more approachable man for ventures of this kind than right here. Perhaps Mr. Daniels will say so; as he had the rent of sheds, village electric lights and water privileges free, and the good will of our citizens, to further the cause, a larger investment than offered to him at Waterbury. The matter should be looked after, before it is too late.

TAKE NOTICE—Election comes Sept. 4. Caucuses for the nomination of Representatives should be held at least 15 days before that, as certificates of nomination must be filed with the Town Clerk not less than fifteen days before election.

Making Both Ends Meet.

It is often one of the perplexities of life and where there is a large family the problem is somewhat complicated. When the time comes round for additional goods to be added to the home, we can make the matter easy for you. Here's where you have the advantage over buyers who buy elsewhere. If you have been thinking of purchasing Ladies' or Children's Shoes just drop in and let us show you what we are doing to save you money.

Ladies' Low Shoes.—Just 13 pairs left in the lot, a good shoe at $1, to move them quickly, only 75c per pair.

Misses Dongola Button Shoes, sizes 12 1/2 to 2, manufactured to retail at $1.25 per pair, as a special inducement for a few days we shall sell them at $1 per pair.

Soft Sole Shoes for Babies, in a large variety of styles, actually worth from 35c to 50c as the result of a lucky purchase we shall sell them for 25c per pair. Good variety of colors and styles in both lace and button. We wish to especially call the attention of parents and heads of families to the above items as they are very much less than the same goods can be bought for elsewhere.

Cotton Dress Goods in a good variety of colors, many of them in small even checks, styles copied from the wool goods, and actually worth 10c and 12 1/2c per yard, sale price only 7c per yard. This is an unusual opportunity to secure school dresses at about the price of common prints.

New Plaid Back Dress Goods For Rainy Day Skirts.—We place on sale this week some new styles in plaid back dress goods, the regular $1.75 quality, but to boom the sales in our dress goods department we shall sell these very desirable goods at $1.39 per yard. Don't delay buying too long as the supply is limited and the goods are actually worth $1.75 to day.

We also wish to call your attention to our line of nice black dress goods ranging in price from $1.00 to $1.75 per yard, an assortment which cannot be duplicated outside of the large cities and which we would like to compare with goods found there.

Separate Dress Skirts.—We are constantly receiving new goods in this department but at this time wish to especially call your attention to a few special items.—A special value in a ladies' skirt at $1.69, sold by many at $2. A line of dress skirts with extra large waist measures, (hard goods to find elsewhere.) A rainy day skirt at $3.75 as good as sold by many at $4.50 and $5.00. Also a line of colored dress skirts in Misses sizes. (Just what you have been looking for.)

Lace Curtains.—Wouldn't your home look cosier if a few pairs of lace curtains were added to the furnishings? No excuse in regard to prices as we have them from 44c per pair upwards. Two leaders this week are Ruffled Curtains, made from bobbinet and muslin at $1.25 per pair, would be glad for you to compare them with curtains sold elsewhere at $1.75 and $2.00.
