FINE PROGRAM FOR TEACHERS

Caddo County Winter Institute to Be Held in Anadarko Nov. 27 and 28

The Teachers' Winter Institute of Caddo county will be held at the Presbyterian church in Anadarko on Nov. 27 and 28. E. E. Balcomb, of the A. & M. college and who is at the head of the work in agriculture in Oklahoma, will be here and will have with him an expert in domestic science. These two will give the teachers practical instruction in how to present agriculture and domestic science in the public schools.

On Friday evening, Nov. 27, Vice President S. M. Barrett of Central Normal at Edmond will lecture on "Our Manifest Destiny." Besides these three who are paid for their services out of the normal institute fund, an excellent program by the teachers of the county has been arranged to occupy part of both days.

Miss Widaman, county superintendent, will have a supply of school law pamphlets and courses of study to distribute to the teachers present. Every teacher in the county should make it his business to be here for the two days. It will probably be the most helpful winter institute ever held in the county because of the special work at this time when the teachers are most in need of help.

Mr. Barrett is the author of "Geronimo" and of "Practical Pedagogy," a book adopted by the state board for reading circle work this year and is at the head of the Department of Psychology at the Central Normal.

Mr. B. Youngblood, who is chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry for Oklahoma and Texas, will give valuable help in Agriculture.

DEATH OF A BOY

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Love Dies After Long Illness

Vernon, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Love, died Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock after a ten weeks illness, following an attack of diphtheria. The boy died from exhaustion, his system being unable to recover from the effects of the disease from which he first suffered and from which he was supposed to have recovered. All that medical science could do was done for the little sufferer, but to no avail. Mr. Love and his family were traveling through Oklahoma by wagon from Missouri when the child was taken sick, and since then they have been camping in the park. The boy was a bright little fellow, and was known in many places as "Little Billy Bryan", he having spent considerable of a reputation as a "boy orator." The funeral will be held Thursday.

Box Cars Blaze

Some box cars in the Rock Island yards were discovered to be on fire this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and an alarm was turned in for the department. The fire boys responded quickly, and the flames were soon under control.

No mistakes will be made by returning all lost articles found on the cotton yard to Oscar Morris.

The Department President Clara M. Brown will meet with the ladies of the circle Thursday and all members are requested to be present at 2:30 sharp.

FAMOUS SUIT COMES TO TRIAL

Mrs. Frances Burke-Roche Batonyi's Action for Divorce on in New York

Special to the Democrat.

New York, Nov. 18.—When the divorce suit of Mrs. Frances Burke-Roche Batonyi against her husband, Aurel Batonyi, is called for trial in the courts here today, fashionable society will look forward to some delectable, although rather spicy testimony, in connection with the marital difficulties of the famous New York Four Hundred belle, and her Austrian coach driver husband. The case has been pending for some time, having been repeatedly postponed.

The principals in the proceeding are known from one end of the continent to the other. Eastern society was startled nearly two years ago to learn of the secret marriage of Mrs. Burke-Roche to Batonyi, the famous professional whip. She had been his wife nearly a year when the announcement was made, and herself confessed that the marriage was the "result of love at first sight." She was then famous as one of the handsomest women in the "Four Hundred", a noted horse woman and breeder of prize toy bull terriers. She married Batonyi Aug. 9, 1905, and following the announcement of the wedding about a year later the couple spent some time in Europe, returning to take up their residence in Newport.

Mrs. Roche was formerly Miss Frances Work, a leading society belle of this city, who in 1880 met the Hon. James Boothby Burke-Roche, brother of the present Baron Fernoy, while on a trip abroad and married him. The wedded life of the two was unhappy, and in 1890 the wife obtained a divorce from her husband, with the custody of the three children.

Batonyi, an accomplished Hungarian horseman and professional whip, was engaged as an instructor for Mrs. Roche, who was fond of outdoor sports, and while he instructed her in the arts of horsemanship as her coachman, he also instructed her in the arts of love, and captured her heart. After the announcement of the marriage, came trouble. Mrs. Batonyi's father cut off her allowance and told her that she and her husband must shift themselves. Then came divorce proceedings as the direct result of the opposition of the woman's parent.

Mrs. Emma Blackman and Mrs. Martinez are spending the day in Verden.

S. D. Barr, of Barr Bros., Chickasha, is taking up cotton at Gracemont today.

W. W. Terry, our genial gin-ner, canvassed the situation at Apache yesterday.

Mr. Harwell of Harwell, King & Co., of Chickasha, did business in this vicinity yesterday.

Jay Andrews accompanied by his father, of Apache, went to Gracemont on loan business.

A. M. Liddell of Hobart, King Collie & Co's, representative passed the word here yesterday.

The ladies social union of the Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Dr. Wade. All members are invited to be present.
