R. E. WEST IN ADA

Prof. R. E. West, who has for the past four years been one of the instructors in the Caddo county Normal has ten weeks work in Ada, doing state work. When the county Superintendent, Mrs. Wamsley was ready to secure Prof. West's services during the June Institute here, he had contracted for a longer term of work in Ada. Prof. West is classed with the very best instructors that have been on the force in the county and the only reason for the change is that he has a longer term. He will continue his school work in Davis this Fall, with a $200 raise in his salary.

The United States Express Co. has a new manager J. S. Cole of El Reno. Mr. Cole has been in El Reno for the past five years and thoroughly understands the express business. He has brought his wife to Anadarko. They have rooms at the Gish rooming house on west Oklahoma ave.
