HOPE FOR WOMEN.

An Avenue of Escape from Life Long Invalidism.

Thousands of once happy wives, now despondent and scarcely able to stagger a step or force a pallid smile; young women, who as girls were blithesome, merry and never knew a sick day, now thin, sallow and miserable. Is it any wonder these conditions exist? Is it any wonder that constant irritability succeeds an angelic temper, and our homes and hopes are blighted?

ed? This is all the doing of that hydra-headed monster, the fearful enemy of womankind—female complaint. From time immemorial, this great affliction has been ruining the lives of our women. No one can shake it off or do battle with it single handed; but, and here is a message of hope for all—armed with Zoa Phora, you will win, and be as well, strong and happy as you ever were.

Zoa Phora is a scientific remedy, the perfect product of years of study and experiment. It is a positive cure for all complaints peculiar to the female sex. For girls, wives and mothers.

Read this from a thankful woman.

"I doubt if anyone anywhere can give a stronger testimonial to the merits of Zoa Phora than I. One bottle accomplished wonders. When I began I was completely run down and suffered greatly in many ways. When your agent called my attention to Zoa Phora I was discouraged. After using it the first month I became regular and have continued so. By the time I had finished my first bottle I was a new woman. I shall continue to take Zoa Phora till the trying change is passed, and advise others to do so.

Please don't publish my name, but if anyone wants to write me, give them my full address and I will gladly answer them. Meadow, Mass. Mrs. B. C. East. Using it the first month. Book free. ZOA PHORA MEDICINE CO., Kalamazoo, Mich.

Whatever Thomas Wentworth Higginson has to say about the Abolition period is read with the keenest interest because of the active and prominent part he himself played in those stirring days. Under the title "Anti-Slavery Days," he has written a charmingly readable article for the September Magazine Number of The Outlook. The article is illustrated with some particularly fine portraits of the anti-slavery leaders, men and women, and reproductions of some famous placards of the time. All these pictures are taken from the extensive collection of Mr. F. J. Garrison, of Boston. ($3 a year. The Outlook Co., 287 Fourth Avenue, New York.)

OWOSSO.

Has moved from the place occupied last year to the old Dewey Mill Lot at the end of West Exchange street, and will be ready for business early in September. The business at Owosso has out-grown the capacity of the house in Boston, and for that reason I was not able to handle many choice lots of Poultry offered me last year. I have now overcome that embarrassing condition and have arranged with a house at Boston of unlimited capacity, to handle my goods, and hope to be able to handle all of your Poultry this season when ready for market. Give me good stock and I will pay you good prices. I have sold out my interest in the building occupied by me last year and I now have nothing to do with that house although it is run by another party, using my old business sign. Don't be deceived.
