Death of L. J. Kemp.

Lewis J. Kemp, aged 63 years, died of Bright's disease, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. A. Bement, in Ovid at three o'clock Sunday morning. He was born in Vermont, but for sixty years had been a resident of Shiawassee county. He was one of the noblest of men, and will be greatly missed in the community where he has resided. He purchased the farm which he owned at the time of his death, when he was 18 years of age, and made it one of the finest places in Middlebury. He was a kind and indulgent father, and his Christian example worthy of imitation. Three children, are left to mourn his departure. Mrs. F. A. Bement, of Ovid, Mrs. A. W. Gunn, of Baldwin, and George L. Kemp, who resides on the farm. The funeral was conducted at his late residence, and interment in Sciota cemetery.—News.

In some of the Swiss valleys the inhabitants are all afflicted with goitre or "thick neck." Instead of regarding this as a deformity they seem to think it a natural feature of physical development, and tourists passing through the valleys are sometimes they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a natural and necessary condition of life. It is so, to a large extent, with what are called diseases of women. Every woman suffers more or less from irregularity, ulceration, debilitating drains, or female weakness, and this suffering is so common and so universal that many women accept it as a condition natural and necessary to their sex. But it is a condition as unnatural as the goitre. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the delicate womanly organs and regulates the womanly functions, so that woman is practically delivered from pain and misery that eat up ten years of her life-between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.

A lazy liver makes a lazy man. Burdock Blood Bitters is the natural, never failing remedy for a lazy liver.

Supply of Eggs Not Equal to the Demand.

While the demand for eggs is constantly increasing the supply shows a disappointing decrease. The speculative element in the market is in consequence expecting higher prices, while the trade in general is only striving to keep up its supply.

Last year's receipts on the New York markets were over 90,000,000 dozen, but the receipts for the first six months of this year show a decided falling off.

New York is the largest egg market in the world, and last year handled over $18,000,000 worth of eggs, figured at the average retail price of 30 cents.

The calico print interests use, it is roughly estimated, over 40,000,000 dozen eggs annually, while the coffee roasters, the photographic trades, the cracker and biscuit combines, and the chemical trades consume twice as many. In fact, the grocer is to-day compelled to compete in the general market against the buyers from a dozen manufacturing interests. The leather and leather product trades are also extensive users of eggs for tanning and refining purposes, as are also the several patent food concerns. Wine and liquor jobbers find the egg indispensable in "finishing," and, in fact, when all the other interests have been supplied the grocer is indeed fortunate if he gets what he needs.

England last year imported over $20,000,000 worth of eggs, but the American egg had hardly any representative in these millions of cases. French, German and especially Canadian eggs reached the English market to the exclusion of the American article. This is principally due, say the leading dealers, to the fact that under the present tariff Canada, being unable to ship eggs into this country, sends them to Europe. Under these conditions, even if the American supply were in great excess of the demand, which it has never been, competition with Canada would be out of the question.

"It may not be generally known," said Mr. Martin, of G. W. Martin & Bros., "but the volume of the egg business in this country is larger than many of the supposed great businesses. The profit is much smaller, with the transactions quicker, but in the aggregate the egg business is one of the most important and extensive in the country. Eighteen millions of dollars' worth of eggs were handled in this city alone last year, while Chicago, St. Louis and the other markets together would probably more than double this figure. The manufacturing interests, of course, have had a great effect upon the market, but the demand from the table is growing heavier every day. The farmers are learning this and chicken raising, which a few years ago was practically neglected, is now becoming as much of an industry as hay or wheat raising, and much more profitable.

"The National Biscuit Co. buys 4,000 dozen eggs a week, or 16,000 dozen a month, while the innumerable smaller and independent concerns buy as much more—all in the local market. Outside of New York, these and similar interests are also heavy buyers, as in the instance of the calico print trades, which buy from five million to eight million dozen eggs a year on this market. Statistics show that these trades use over 40,000,000 dozen annually, buying mostly in the New England markets. Dye manufacturers are also extensive buyers of eggs, as are the confectioners and bakers. The commercial uses of the egg are numerous, and in a dozen trades it is found absolutely indispensable."

"The egg is a much more important factor of commerce than most people believe," said Supt. F. W. Henry, of the Mercantile Exchange, to a reporter for the Commercial. In only one instance have I noticed that a substitute for the egg has been found, and that is in the manufacture of photographic paper, where collodion and gelatine are now being used, which are just as satisfactory and much cheaper. In the other trades, however, the egg is still a factor, and an important one at that."

Who Will be our next President?

Politicians are now planning for the presidential campaign of 1900, but the war has so overshadowed all other matters that politics is almost unnoticed. Many people are of the opinion that the candidates will be the same as in 1896, but there may be a "dark horse" who will win the race. Popularity has much to do with candidates. This is also true with medicine. The most popular remedy today is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and it has retained this for many years. Science never discovered the equal of this medicine for stomach, liver and kidney diseases. It builds up solid flesh tissue, imparts vigor and vitality to all organs, and makes life worth living. A bottle will make a big change for the better. Try it.

Free-trade almost wrecked the greatest trust in this country, the legislative, executive and judicial trust, known as the United States of America, the only concern allowed to do business in its peculiar lines within its vast territory, extending from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. The Brooklyn Times thoroughly believes that free-trade would wreck a great many trusts—and a lot of legitimate business as well.—Brooklyn Times.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—For some time I have thought of writing to you to let you know of the great benefit I have received from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Soon after the birth of my first child, I commenced to have spells with my spine. Every month I grew worse and at last became so bad that I found I was gradually losing my mind.

"The doctors treated me for female troubles, but I got no better. One doctor told me that I would be insane. I was advised by a friend to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and before I had taken all of the first bottle my neighbors noticed the change in me.

"I have now taken five bottles and cannot find words sufficient to praise it. I advise every woman who is suffering from any female weakness to give it a fair trial. I thank you for your good medicine."—MRS. GERTRUDE M. JOHNSON, JONESBORO, TEXAS.

A Horrible Crime.

A horrible murder was committed in the northeastern section of Washington on the 6th. The murderer was Benjamin H. Snell, a special examiner in the pension office, a man about 45 years of age. His victim was Liza Weissenberger, a girl 13 years of age, who had been employed in his household until a few months ago, when she was taken home by her parents, who became suspicious of Snell's conduct toward her. Snell seemed to be infatuated with the child and paid her a great deal of attention, which, however, she resented. On the day of the tragedy Snell went to the home of the girl, and, finding her asleep, cut her throat with a razor and nearly severed the head from the body. He then attempted to make his escape but was caught by the police and lodged in jail.

While cutting brush at Pinckney, Edward Kennedy came upon a quail and a hen, both setting upon one nest. In the nest were 12 quail eggs and six hen eggs. They were not molested, and the two returned to their material duties. It is a conundrum as to which will own the chicks and which the birds.

Trolley Car Plunged Into a Mill Pond.

Nearly 30 people were killed by an accident on the Stratford extension of the Shelton street railway company at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Aug. 6th, when a loaded trolley car went off the trestle over Peck's mill pond, about six miles north of Bridgeport, Ct., and sank in the flats 40 feet below. The trestle is 440 feet long, made of iron, with stone foundations, and was not protected by guard rails. South of the trestle is an incline down which the car ran at a high rate of speed. After it ran onto the trestle for about 10 feet the trucks left the rails and then the car continued on the ties for about 75 feet, when it went off the trestle and dropped into the pond below, overturning completely and up-ended. When the car struck, the four-ton motor and the heavy trucks crushed into it, instantly killing many of the passengers.

Have Taken Up Arms.

Gen. Pablo Reyes, Ramon Pacheco, Cienas Navarro, Jose Polo and Jose Jimenez have taken up arms in Santo Domingo in favor of Don Juan Ildiro Jimenez, and occupy the plains of Chaguel and Curabo, as far as Jose de las Matas, as well as the towns of Guayabin, Sabana, Manzanillo and Guajabin, abandoned by the troops of the government of Santo Domingo. More than half these troops are said to have gone over to the camp of Gen. Pacheco, who is reported to have more than 300 well-armed men under his command. Gen. Guellito, governor of Monte Cristi, who, it is claimed, has already lost half his troops, who have gone over to the enemy, is in a desperate position and unable to attack the revolutionists. It is added that he will be obliged to capitulate.

An 8-Years-Old Aeronaut.

During the balloon ascension at Fremont, O., on the 3d, by Aeronaut Harry Davis, of Delphos, thousands witnessed a thrilling sight not down on the program. Guy ropes holding the balloon became entangled about the arm of 8-year-old Lester Miller, just as the balloon shot up in the air, carrying the boy with it, suspended by one arm and shouting for help. The balloonist did not notice his companion until they were fully 1,000 feet in the air. He immediately cut the parachute loose, which changed the balloon's course, and fortunately all reached the ground alive, but the balloonist was more or less injured and the boy's arm was displaced.

Florida Town Almost Wiped Out.

The town of Carrabelle, a prosperous port on the Gulf of Mexico, southwest of Tallahassee, Fla., is reported almost completely destroyed by a terrific wind and rain storm which passed through that section on Aug. 2d. Many boats, which were in the harbor, have been wrecked and most of the long wharf is gone, together with large quantities of naval stores. At Lanark, the boat houses, pavilion and boats have been destroyed. The turpentine interests in this section are greatly damaged and much damage had been done to crops.

Tornado Visited New Jersey.

A tornado with a velocity of 90 miles and a width of three blocks, passed through Elizabeth, N. J., on Aug. 2d, doing damage conservatively estimated at $55,000. It raged for 10 minutes, then rain fell in torrents and afterward the sun came forth. The towers of the First Presbyterian, Third Presbyterian and Central Baptist churches were thrown down, and the Lyceum and Star theaters unroofed. Many other buildings and private dwellings were unroofed. No persons were seriously injured.

Does England Intend to Fight?

The imperial government and the dominion authorities have decided to increase both the regular military and militia forces at Victoria, B. C., and at Pacific coast depots of the British army and navy. Coming at a time when the relations between Canada and the United States are acknowledged by Premier Laurier to be rather strained over the Alaskan boundary question, it looks as though Great Britain and Canada were determined to assert their claims to those portions of Alaska demanded by Canada, by force of arms if necessary.

Dreyfus in Court.

The celebrated Dreyfus court-martial trial opened at Rennes, France, Aug. 7th. Every inch of space in the court room was filled a quarter of an hour before proceedings opened. Capt. Dreyfus answered the opening questions of the judge as to his name, age, etc., in a clear, determined voice. As the trial proceeds Dreyfus shows himself very keen of intellect, and several times he has corrected the judge's statements as to certain dates.

Six Wounded in a Race Riot.

A race riot occurred at the Poe cotton mills near Greenville, S. C., on the 7th in which one white man and five Negroes were wounded. Early in the evening several Negroes fired into the home of Mr. Greenberg, a mill operator, while he and his family were at supper. No one was struck by the shots but Greenberg and his friends followed the Negroes, capturing the leader. He was taken to jail.

On Aug. 3 there were confined in the Jackson prison 788 convicts, the smallest number in eight years.

Everyday Life of the Roman Populace.

Here in the Forum were the soldiers lounging in groups or advancing with measured tread among the unorderly throngs, pushing all authoritative aside and preserving order. Here, too, gathered all those people without any occupation, who appeared every week at the storehouses on the Tiber for grain, who fought for lottery tickets to the circus, who spent their nights in rickety houses beyond the river, their sunny, warm days under covered porticoes, and in foul eating houses of the Subura, on the Milvian bridge, or before the "insulae" of the great, where from time to time remnants from the tables of slaves were thrown out to them. Last of all, portions of these always took advantage of that custom of the Roman nobles, who desired to shine as patrons of the public, to make themselves hangers-on. It must be remembered that in those days a patron's nobility was measured by the number of clients who mustered in the morning and saluted him at his first appearance on the balcony of his house. Thereafter they lounged for the remainder of the day in the temples and porticoes of the Forum. They whiled away the lagging hours which separated them from the hoped for invitation to dine with their patron by scratching rude verses and coarse jests on the walls or pillars against which they leaned, or by tracing on the pavements gaming tables whereon to play dice.—Ainslee's.

Currency Shortage.

Chicago Tribune: Chicago banks are suffering from the annual shortage of small bills. While none of them is crippled in its business transactions thus far, there is a probability of a shortage in the near future which will necessitate some measure to replenish the stock. The cause of the shortage is the direction of the current money toward the country districts. The farmers and the manufacturers in the country towns are employing large numbers of men, and require small bills for their pay rolls.
