SAND HOLLOW.

Joe Sibley has his incubators going.
Mrs. Ben Swaggart's sister is visiting her.

Lonnie Copenhaver is suffering with the Grippe.

Quite a few of the school children have been sick and out of school.
Mrs. Ashinhus is not able to be out but we trust she will soon be better.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Bundy and son Dale were callers at the Rice ranch Sunday.

School will be out the last of March and we hear will close with an entertainment.

Mr. Roy Campbell and Miss Winnie Smith were Sunday guests of B. S.
Clarke and wife.

W. L. Copenhaver is selling from 15 to 16 rolls of butter a week and will make more soon. He has some extra fine Jerseys.

Mrs. W. B. Finley, Mr. and Mrs.
Rice and Mrs. Arthur Finley and children attended preaching Sunday and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs.
Copenhaver.

We hear Mr. Lyness and sister are having good crowds, preaching splendid sermons and meeting with some success—all of which is a good thing and we trust may continue.

Mrs. W. B. Finley's mother, Mrs.
Windom, received quite a "shower" of post cards last week in honor of her 81st birthday. "Grandma" is still able to gather eggs each day and piece beautiful quilts.

LEXINGTON.

Mrs. C. O. Burrows was an Ione visitor Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner have gone to the McMillan ranch to live.

Harry McCormick has moved his family from the Wilcox ranch to town.

Mrs. C. O. Burrows will entertain the Ladies' Aid next week on Wednesday.

John Helms and daughter visited Wat Breslers and family at Ione the middle of the week.

The farmers attended a lecture on Wednesday night given for their benefit by Mr. N. C. Maris.

Mrs. Verda McBee and daughter, of Cecil were visiting relatives and friends in our city. They returned to their home Monday.

Mr. Burrows is running the wood saw this week. He has Ed Pointer, Chas. Johnson, Jerry Phillips and Lank Booher employed.

Ed Armsmeyer and family, who have been working for Mr. McMillan at his ranch have quit and will start for Missouri on next Sunday. In the meantime they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stockard at Hermiston.

Mrs. Carl Beach entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burrows and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Scott at a turkey dinner on Sunday the occasion being in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Burrows, which occurred on March 3rd.

IONE.

Rufus, Rastus, Johnson, Brown what ye all go to do when the taxes come around.

Miss Joey Woolery came down from Heppner Monday morning, having spent Sunday up there.

Mrs. Della Corson and Mrs. John Cochran were up to Heppner last week and spent a couple of days.

Call at Walker's store and inquire about seed spuds. Just received a car of Early Rose, Early Everetts, and Burbanks.

Mrs. Bert Mason returned to her home last Saturday night after an extended visit with friends and relatives at different points along the line.

Mrs. Loren Hale is enjoying a visit with her sister from The Dalles; also with another sister and brother who have just lately come out from North Carolina.

Fred and Geo. Ritchie went up to Heppner last Saturday morning and were operated on for appendicitis.
They were getting along nicely at last reports.

Mr. C. F. Swander secretary and superintendent of missions for the Christian church, preached in Walker's hall Thursday night the 29th. The Christian people also held a meeting the same afternoon, several of the Heppner people being present. We understand Mr. French, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Humphreys of Heppner, were some of the visitors present.

We are glad to see Joe Cronan among us again. Joe got along fine and dandy after the operation, and he says he will soon feel as good as he ever did.

Fred Austin, who went down to Portland last week, returned to Ione the first of the week. Rufus Cochran went down to Portland the beginning of the week. He was accompanied by his daughter Lillie.

Supt. Notson and N. C. Maris were down from Heppner one day last week visiting the Ione public school. Mr.
Maris is the field assistant for the O.
A. C. and he gave the pupils a nice address while he and Mr. Notson were visiting the school.

"Ma, am I the decedent of a monkey?" asked a little boy. "I don't know," replied the mother. "I never knew any of your father's folks." The father, who was present, went out in the coal-shed and kicked the cat through the roof.

Several people from the vicinity of Ione have been out to where the big plow is working. It is somewhere near Joe Devine's on the base line.
They all claim that the caterpillar engine draws it along without any trouble and does splendid work.
They also say they harrow, it at the same time it is plowed, leaving the ground in a finished condition, and getting over from 20 to 25 acres per day.

Died—At her home near Cecil Wednesday morning, Feb. 28 at 8:40, Mrs.
Joseph Miller, age 69. Mrs. Miller was born in Pennsylvania, came to Nebraska in 1872 moved to Oregon in 1882, and has lived in this state since then. She leaves her husband and seven children to mourn her loss. Her children are as follows: Mrs. R. E.
Anderson, of Kalama, Wash.; George Miller of Cecil; Mrs. Wilhelm of Portland; Mrs. S. E. Johnson of Ridgeway, Wash.; J. H. Miller of Cecil; Mrs. James Montague of Mon-tagne, Ore.; and B. C. Miller of Cecil. The bereaved family has our sympathy.

A Question of Color.

Ole Mammy Lize was dusting the Southern woman's drawing room.
She came to a small bronze bust of Shakespeare and began carefully going over him with her rag. "Mis Juliet, Chile, who am dis hyre gemmun?" "That is Shakespeare Lize, a wonderful poet, who died centuries ago." "Dat him, missy. Lor, I see done hyar o' Mistah Shakespeare a lot o' times. Ebery body seems to know him. Deed I done lyar so much 'bout him dat I alles thought he was a white gemmun."

EIGHT MILE.

Miss Addie Anderson visited with Frank Anderson Saturday and Sunday.

C. D. Huston and wife and Ed Huston and family attended church at Heppner last Sunday.

Rev. Teague has moved his family out from Heppner to live in Eight Mile during the spring and summer.

Mrs. Ed Huston entertained her Sunday school class Friday evening.
Mrs. Huston takes a great interest in her work.

A. E. Anderson shipped to Enterprise two of his Brown Leghorn cockerels a few days ago. He says it pays to raise the best.

John Olden and wife entertained their friends and neighbors last Thursday evening. All passed a pleasant evening and wish Mr. and Mrs. Olden a happy future.

Count us in on your poultry show and set aside one of the firsts for me.
Mose Ashbaugh and family and Mrs. N. L. Jones were visitors at the home of O. E. Jones on Sunday.
Hurrah for the West Umatilla project. Ye scribe hopes to be able to grab at least an acre of this fertile sand.

Miss Dell Fuqua who has been under the doctor's care at the Heppner hospital for several days, was able to return to her home on Eight Mile last Wednesday.

E. M. Hawley, of Alameda, Calif., and formerly of this county, spent a few days here visiting old friends and looking after his interests he still has here. He departed for home Wednesday. Come again Ed.

Eight Mile has had to contend with a very cold north wind the last few days, accompanied by a light snow.
We enjoyed the spring days that we had during February so much that we do not appreciate these cold days.

BLACK BUTTE.

Enoch Cave and John Ridgeway are cutting wood for Art Minor.

O. A. Hoskins got a new stove recently. He is thinking it is getting near school time.

Harley Matteson, William Ridgeway and Charlie Ridgeway visited Heppner on Thursday.

Eugene Matteson, Adran Matteson and Dick Crowdon started to tagging sheep for Wigglesworth the first of March.

Paul Webb went to town recently and got a new wagon. I suppose all the girls will want to go with Paul now and take a buggy ride in the new vehicle.

Jessie Ridgeway says she is going to beat it to that dance at the school house, if she has to walk or go by hand. Guess she didn't think about it being leap year.

Hardy Long has been at work making a violin and now has it completed.
Suppose he will be out playing for dances and enjoying himself with the rest of the young people.

The big dance at Joseph Hogeland's was well attended. The floor manager and caller bumped his head against the wall a few times, but the reason he did that he was always chewing gum.

Some say that Lou Hogeland has his partner engaged for the 4th of July.
If he has he is very popular among the ladies—in other words, he is a ladies' man. That is going some ask her.

Wm. Ridgeway recently caught a coyote down on Balm creek. Bill is a trapper by trade and says a little coyote is the hardest animal to catch he ever set a trap for. He says when he was young and had time, he could catch a coyote most any time.

PINE CITY.

J. T. Ayers made a business trip to Heppner last week.

Miss Goodall visited at R. F. Wigglesworth's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neil were in Heppner one day last week.

I. O. Cox and family visited at W. J. Gordon's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvine went to Heppner Friday, returning Saturday.

R. F. Wigglesworth made a business trip to Pendleton the first of the week.

Joe Wilson went to Heppner Saturday for supplies for the Vincent ranch.

W. W. Howard has his new fence almost completed, which adds greatly to the appearance of his place.

C. H. Bartholomew's have been having quite a spell of LaGrippe but all are better at the present writing.

The weather is a little cooler with frosty nights. Wish we could have some more spring weather like we had last month.

Lambing is commencing in the Butter creek country and the sheepmen are very busy getting ready for it.
There is an abundance of feed and if the weather is favorabl we look for a good lambing.

There was preaching at Pine City Sunday by the Rev. Dr. Reese.
There was a good crowd. Bro. Reese is an able speaker and will preach again the first Sunday in April at eleven o'clock. Come and hear him.

ALPINE.

Most of the spring seeding in this vicinity is now done. A. A. Finley finished up this week. On the Alpine ranch there remains about fifty acres to be seeded.

Ralph Finley attended church at Pine City last Sunday.

Several in this vicinity are reporting little chicks already.

W. B. Finley was a visitor to Lexington twice the last week.

O. V. Gibson made a trip to Lexington the first of the week.

Fred Maixner purchased a young mare from Jas. Farmer last week.

J. H. Deardorf was a business caller at the Alpine ranch Friday last.

Jas. Waid is again out on the homestead, arriving from Stanfield last Thursday. He brought feed with him and will begin plowing at once.

Wm. Sanders, Jr. and O. V. Gibson brought home their stock from butter creek, where they had them been wintered on the ranch of the Butter Creek Land & Livestock Co.

IRRIGON.

Huine Park came down from Hermiston Sunday to visit his sister, Miss Sue Park.

Mrs. Sushauer and Mrs. Johnson attended church services at Umatilla Sunday morning.

Clifford Caldwell and family have moved to Irrigon and taken up abode in the L. M. Davis house.
