

CORRESPONDENCE.

WHITE SALMON.

(From the Enterprise.)
Rev. E. F. Brown, of the M. E. church, and now supplying the Gilmer circuit, departed Tuesday for conference, which will be held at North Yakima, commencing September 5th. Mr. Brown expects to be absent about three weeks.

Grandpa Waters went down to Portland and will spend some time in a hospital there. Grandpa has been in rather poor health all summer, and thinks that a season in the hospital will do him good. He does not seem to be seriously afflicted.

Fred W. Balaiger went to Ione, Oregon, last Saturday and returned Tuesday. He went up on a business trip.

The old soldiers and their wives gave an entertainment and dinner at Lauterbach's hall last Saturday for the purpose of starting a relief fund for their port. A fund of $2.50 was thus realized. One of the features was a fine cake, presented by Mrs. Boorman, and which was auctioned off, bringing 75 cents.

The grand social event of the season was the ball at the new Odd Fellows hall last night. The hall was given by some of the members of the order, and the proceeds will be used to purchase furniture for the new hall. A fine string band was procured from Hood River, which discoursed delightful music during the evening, while fair ladies and brave men tripped the light fantastic to their heart's content. The supper which was served in the banquet hall by members of the Rebekah assembly was a joy to the heart and very satisfying to the appetite, and the large crowd was very nicely taken care of in that department. The floor in the new hall is splendid, and it is to be regretted that it is not to be used for that purpose hereafter, but it is probable that the first dance there will be the last, as it is to be used strictly for lodge purposes. Eighty-seven numbers were given out at the hall and there were more ladies than gentlemen present, but even this large crowd was easily accommodated in the splendid new hall. The net proceeds of the ball, after all expenses were paid, was $125. This ball will long be remembered by many who attended as the most delightful time of their lives.

BELMONT.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ellis went to Wyeth last Saturday to see their son and daughter. They returned Monday.

Mr. Phillips, of the firm of Closet & Deyers, of Portland, was in Belmont on his ranch for a couple of weeks. He returned to take up his work last Thursday.

Alta and Edith Ordway entertained their friends last Saturday evening by giving a nice lawn party. Ice cream and cake were served at a late hour. Every body went home saying what a fine time we had.

Mr. John Hudson was called home last week by the illness of his daughter. She is on her way to recovery now.

Rev. Clark and wife have gone to conference. They will visit friends on the way.

Those who intend to go to the Yakima hop fields be ready to start next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Summerville, also their daughter May, are visiting friends below Portland.

Mr. Brown, of Gilmore, visited his brother, Prof. Brown, last week.

Rev. Tufts, of Portland, who has been camping in Belmont for some time, returned to his home this week.

GILMER.

Everybody has been harvesting. Crops have been fine and ranchers are baling their hay now. Some are taking their summer vacation.

Messrs. Armstrong and Tompkins' folks took in Trout Lake and the huckle berry patch last week, but fisherman's luck, hungry and few berries, except what caught on a silver dollar.

Herman Jundt had the misfortune to get cut on an edge saw Saturday. Four of his fingers were cut but not very badly.

One of the Palmers boys, aged 10 years cut his foot Saturday by letting the axe drop on it and nearly severing his toe. He is getting along nicely.

M. Manely, who has been at the co at for a week, returned last week.

Miss Ruff, of Portland, is visiting the Pittmans.

Mrs. Earnest Palmer, of Sherman county, and daughter are visiting her cousin, Mrs. Gilmer and her brother, Mr. Palmer.

Mr. Brown left last week for conference. He does not know whether he will return here or not, but we hope so.

Miss Mattie Reynolds has been making more improvements on her homestead by building an addition to her house.

Pete Hughes, son-in-law of John Robbins, has just returned from Kansas. He says this country is good enough for him.

J. Elton is building a fine house on Oak Ridge. He can see out over Hood River valley from his new house.

Ruth Tompkins has returned home from Hood River convalescent from her attack of typhoid fever.

ODELL.

This day, August 27, marks the 28 years of life for the writer, 25 of those years were passed in Douglas county, Kansas, 10 years near Burlington, in Coffey county, of the same state, the two years just passed in Odell, the beautiful food river valley. I have never been so dear to me and will ever be.

School begins Monday, September 3. Mrs. M. D. Odell has as stylish a little buggy as one might wish to see, a new harness also. Roswell Shelby loaded two cars of wood at Dukes Valley siding last week to be shipped to Portland. It is very inconvenient for Odell shippers to haul to another siding instead of loading at Odell station and they anxiously await action of the Mount Hood Railroad company that will make Odell station a loading place as good as the best.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ehrek spent last week at Green Point.

Mr. Klemmer has a piece of land, one half of which was cleared by using dynamite, blowing everything out of the ground. This land is entirely clear of fern while the other half cleared by grubbing has a good growth of fern. Mr. Klemmer thinks this fact worth knowing.

Marie Lockman and Gertrude Crosby cleaned the school house last week and it is said the ladies going to church need not say "Is my hat straight" as they have a but to walk over to the school house and behold themselves reflected as in a mirror.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ennis are once more residents of Odell being in camp on the C. L. Rogers place. This house is the one occupied by Mrs. Ennis and family last winter and it is being enlarged for their occupancy during the ensuing school year. Odell gladly welcomes this family.

A number of friends were invited to the home of A. Woods Saturday evening. Friday August 24, being Clinton Woods' birthday. The affair was intended as a surprise on that occasion but as Clinton was expected home from Mosier on Saturday that evening was chosen. Ice cream and cake were served. A pleasant time is reported.

Mrs. G. E. Bowerman entertained for Bertha Lafferty Sunday. A number of young people were invited and a pleasant time had. It was expected this would be Bertha's last Sunday here before going to Weiser, Idaho, but news of an expected visit from an aunt in Missouri caused a change of plans and she will remain at home for a time.

J. U. Lafferty and family, of Mount Hood, visited Mr. Lafferty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lafferty, Sunday. Elmer Lafferty and friends, from Hood River, also visited at home as did Everett Lafferty, of Green Point.

The C. E. of Odell Sunday evening, August 26, had for their subject "Home missions among our island missions." Mrs. Ida Young, leader.

A special song by the choir. Elmer Lafferty will give a dance in the I. O. O. F. hall at Odell Friday night, August 31. The full Tillamook orchestra of Hood River, will furnish music. Everybody invited.

Hazel Rebekah Lodge No. 156 initiated two new members last Tuesday night.

Rev. H. C. Clark, of Belmont, preached in the church at Odell Sunday afternoon. This is his last sermon here before conference.

CRAPPER.

G. A. McCurdy, Jasper Wickham, Prof. Arneson and James Black returned from Green Point on Friday of last week after spending a few days fishing. Up to date they have not been telling any marvelous fish stories, but claim that they had a good time.

Mrs. Jantzen and her daughter Miss Agnes and their father returned from Portland in Thursday of last week, after visiting several days with friends in that city.

J. J. Jordan has sold his fine farm in West Cray, Oregon, for $14,000, no more to have them leave the neighborhood. Joe is a good citizen and a good and accommodating neighbor. However he and his excellent family day go or best wishes we will follow them.

I. N. Huxett returned from Portland on last Saturday.

Since the return of their mother and sister from Portland, Henry and Carl Jantzen have smiles all over their faces, smiles that won't rub off. They did not like bachelors just a little bit. Rev. Henry Glen, a "Holiness" preacher from Ashland, Oregon, preached at the school houses on Saturday evening, also on Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. F. S. Perry, of Portland, accompanied by her daughter Miss Lela and small son Lester, are visiting with Mrs. E. Lyons and family.

Master Fred Lyons entertained 23 of his young friends on Wednesday of last week. The usual courses of ice cream, cake, candy, nuts and fun were in evidence.

UNDERWOOD.

Cora Clarkson is on the sick list.

Rev. Hershner visited our Sunday school last Sunday and held services afterwards.

Mr. Vetch and Mr. Kelley and family, spent a few days camping on Little White Salmon last week.

Mrs. Cronwell proved up on her homestead on 13th St. White Salmon. Mr. Vetch and Mr. Bates were witnesses.

The Norwegian consul and wife, of Portland, spent a few days at the Cottage hotel recently.

Road Supervisor Luthy and men returned last Saturday from a working expedition in the western part of our district.

Clifford Roberts is again able to make his regular visits to Underwood and was a jolly addition to the social Saturday night.

Mrs. Ed Underwood and party returned last Saturday from their trip to Buckleberry mountain, having an enjoyable trip but not very profitable.

The government fish hatchery men there returned and are preparing for their work.

We learn that Mrs. Endrey, of White Salmon, had the misfortune to break her arm one day last week.

A number of friends who could not attend the social sent in contributions. Among them were Miss Alice Giddard, Uncle Amos and Ed Underwood.

If the Underwood people would hand in any little item of interest they would be appreciated. We pick up what we can with as little time as possible.

A fine little crowd attended the social last Saturday night and $10.00 was collected and turned over to Mr. Cash as a payment on the new organ, he having advanced the money when the organ was received.

A. J. Haynes and family expect to spend the winter on Knapp's flat, to be closer to Mr. Haynes' work of doing the carpenter work preparatory to building concrete work on the railroad here.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, gone!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

D. N. Byrnes, of Hood River, with his Sunday school class of little boys, spent Saturday in a little picnic on this side of the Columbia. Your correspondent regrets that she could not accept his invitation to join them with a party of her friends.

Commissioner Coulter, of Stevenson, Lawyer Henderson, of Hood River, Mr. Cameron, of the Menominee Lumber Co., and a railroad representative, were here on the road business last week but nothing was settled and they continued it Monday at Stevenson. A few of the people ask the railroad to make a bridge over the old road, the other side want a road over the track and down to the proposed dock.

How About Your Fire Insurance?

In last Saturday's Journal was published a classified list of the different insurance companies showing their standing in regard to the settlements of the San Francisco losses. Only about 35 companies were in class "A," that is, those that paid dollar for dollar.

Now is the time for all those who carry insurance and pay for protection to look over their policies and see that the company with whom they are dealing are reputable and honest. There are a great number of companies that are willing to take your yearly premiums and naturally you think you are protected in case of fire.

The California conflagration should teach us a lesson, and every policy not included in class "A" list should be cancelled.

Why pay for protection and not get it? George R. Dornin, Pacific Coast Manager of the Springfield, has expressed himself as follows:

"An insurance company, like an individual, has a reputation to maintain if it would succeed. A man in business cannot afford to have his standing jeopardized or ruined by dishonesty or failure to meet his just debts. Every policy holder in the Springfield will be paid their losses to the full amount of their policy without cuts of any kind."

Both the Springfield and the Law Union and Crown, of London, class "A" companies are represented in Hood River by J. H. Heilbrunn & Co.

Autos Will Reach Snow Line.

Dr. Markley, who has just returned from an outing at the foot of Mount Rainier, stated that a government appropriation of $500,000 obtained through the efforts of the Tacoma chamber of commerce is being expended in building a road to the base of the mountain, and that next season autos may reach the snow line, if they don't delay the start too late in the season. "That appropriation and that road should be valuable pointers to our own chamber of commerce, which should use its influence with our representatives in congress to secure an appropriation for the road to Mount Baker," said the doctor. "We will never get anything unless we ask for it and go after it."

Fruit Peddlers Cause Trouble.

War has broken out between some of the peddlers and the board of fruit peddlers that hawk their wares on Third street between Morrison and Washington. The mayor, the police and the other city officials have been appealed to by both sides, but still the battle war rages. The mayor says he is getting grayer every day because of it.

The peddler who pays $200 a year for his license to sell fruit is permitted to stand only 15 minutes in any one spot on the street at a time, when he must move to some other place, stand there 15 minutes, then move on again. The hawkers have found that at certain spots along Third street business is good, and they use these places alternately. The first man stands 15 minutes at the first station, then moves to the second, while a second peddler takes his place at stand No. 1.

The merchants along the route, some of whom sell fruit also, have objections. They watch closely to see that no man lingers overtime, but frequently while their attention is distracted a change takes place, but to the merchant all peddlers look alike, and when he sees a wagon still standing there he promptly sends in a complaint to the mayor or the chief of police.

"I get these complaints until I dream of them at night," said His Honor, "and the chief gets more than I do." The merchant contends that the peddler stays in one place longer than the law allows. The peddler and the policeman on the beat contend that they do not. Now with this sort of an endless chain operating, what a lot to do?—Telegram.
