Dummerston

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED NATIVE.

Francis S. Thayer of Troy. N. Y., who field at Colorado Springs on Friday last, was a native of Dummerston, where he was born Sept. 11, 1822. He left the Vermont schools at the age of 16 years, and four years later he removed to Troy. He served five years as a clerk, and was then admitted as a partner in the business which he followed thereafter—the manufacture of flour. He cast his first vote for Henry Clay in 1844, and remained a Whig from that time until the formation of the Republican party. He was elected to the Schate from the 12th district as a Republican in 1867, and was reclected in 1869. During his first term he was chairman of the committees on manufactures, and during both terms he was a member of the committees on canals and public buildings. In 1873 Mr. Thayer was the Republican candidate for secretary of state, but was defeated. From April S, 1874, until Jan. 1, 1876, he held the office of auditor of the canal department.

Westminster A GOLDEN WEDDING.

The primary department of the winter term of the village school commenced on Monday the 29th uit. It is taught by Miss Stella M. Stotson of this place, who also taught the summer term. The higher department of the school commenced on Wednesday the 1st inst. taught by Mr. Willie A. Brown of this place.

The singing school taught by W. E. King of Mariboro, is held on Saturday and Sunday evenings of each week; the attendance is large and the school very interesting.

During seven successaive days in November—from the 22d to the 28th, inclusive—the average temperature of the weather, reckoning from the lowest point, was 5 degrees believe to the 28th, the mercury baving previously fallent to degrees in about twelve hours. The average for the last nine days in November was a fraction below zero. Add to this the act that the snow was six inches deep and sleighing very fine, and we think the "oldest inhabitant" has very seldom seen it on this wise in November. Vennor failed to foretell the coming of so cold a wave.

The bride of the hour, Mrs. Casandra Grout, was daughter of Joseph and Prudence (Wetherell) Hunt of Westmoreland, N. H., where the marriage of our host and hostess was solemnized by the Rev. Mr. Whitin fifty years ago. During these years of their wedded life they have had born to them seven children, two sons and five daughters. The sons, Henry and George, died in infancy. The daughters are all living. Mary E. married John Jennison, Jr., of Walpole, N. H. She has two sons and two daughters. Fannie M. married B. W. —In looking over the progress of our village in the last seventeen years we find that the population has doubled in that time. Seventeen years ago there were 130 dwelling houses in the village; now there are 215. Other buildings have increased in numbers as much, and all kinds of business has increased in proportion. This is the kind of change that we like to see in a village. In that time we have built two large nice school-houses. We have a high school with one of the best of teachers, and five other whools, graded. Thirty-five years ago Hinsdale was a little one-horse town, a laughing stock for the towns around her: but to-day the same towns people like to come to Hinsdale and sell their bread, rish, huilted cern, meat and all kinds of produce, and we like to see them come. Seventeen years ago there were but two churches in the village; now there are four, all well attended. The Catholies hold their meetings in Fisk's hall, and have large congregations. Hinsdale is not a city yet, but is nearer to it than Brattlebore was a few years ago, when we used to go to school on the old common—the only schoolhouse in the village.
