Unquestioned Pre-eminence

The clothing which we announce below are bargains extraordinary. Better garments never were made or sold at such small prices. The fabrics and trims used are good through and through—the best money can buy—with a guaranteed fit and implicit satisfaction to the purchaser.

$7

This suit in a genuine all wool cloth, woven in France, will be sold down from 6 for this occasion, and for style and wear isn’t equalled at any price.

$6

Suits sold in good sizes for $3. In light and dark colors, a good cut, called Harvard shape—these suits sell at a cost that can’t be duplicated.

$10

A surprise awaits you in every way; for we have a large stock of blue and black, and a few black bengalines with colored silk trimmings. Choice for $3.

$10

A network at $5. Worth at least twice the price.

E. E. PERRY.

HALEY.

June 4

Capes and Jackets—Leaving Out Prices

Black caps as low as $1; black and navy, jet trimmed, were $3, now $1.99.

Window full of handsome fur caps, and a few black bengalines with colored silk trimmings. Choice for $3.

For $5 to $6, buy any cape let which was $7.50 to $10.

Children’s jackets, new, stylish, good, to 10 years, $2.50.

Have a few ladies’ jackets at $2.

At $3, $6, $7, $8, $10 and $12 which were all much higher price.

We still find that the black broadcloth skirt which we sell at $2.50 leads all the rest, where people want something at about that price. The way it is lined, the way it hangs seems right. Have already sold more than 100 of this particular skirt, 20 more came yesterday.

Some numbers in Hathaway under which customers have been waiting for; came in today.

H. I. HAWLEY.

Told in Secret.

Woman’s New Fashions.

The great New Fashions for Fall are on, and it is going to be a great season. The new Fashions announced by the great Fashion Houses of Europe and America are sweeping the country, and we are the first to announce them here in Brattleboro.

New line of Ladies’ Ties.

STARKEY & CO., Hatters and Furnishers.