

PUTNEY

Mrs. Twitchell returned home Friday after visiting at H. B. Powell's.

A Thanksgiving ball will be held in the town hall next Thursday evening.

A. D. Leavitt of the Hartford Theological Seminary will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church next Sunday.

Mrs. H. L. Pierce returned home Saturday from Springfield, Mass., where she underwent an operation in a hospital. She is improving rapidly.

The Putney musical club will hold its annual meeting to-morrow evening with Miss E. M. Walker, when all members are requested to be present. Magazines will be sold at that time.

The Star musical club held its annual meeting Monday evening at Dr. Foster's and had a good sale of books. The club elects no officers, Mrs. C. D. Knight acting as its head by common consent.

R. H. Fenn was the last of last week to his new position as a teacher at the school in Putney for a while. Mr. Fenn is succeeded here by Eugene Tatro of Northampton, Mass.

Teachers have been engaged for the coming term of school, as follows: Central, Miss Sawyer; primary, Miss Pierce; No. 1, Miss Kinney; No. 2, Miss Shaughtnessy; No. 3, Miss Kahan; No. 4, Miss Shattuck; No. 7, Miss McCarthy; No. 8, Miss Black.

Among those who accepted the invitation to visit Hingham chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in Brattleboro, Tuesday evening were Mrs. M. D. Whitman, Mrs. F. D. Kendall, Mrs. H. G. Everitt, Mrs. Hattie Tuff, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Huntley and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coyer.

A meeting of the Congregational parish, called by Rev. W. T. Sparhawk, who recently resigned the pastorate of the church, was held Monday evening, when plans were talked over for the coming year. Mr. Sparhawk was presented a sum of money, which was a great surprise to him. Mr. Sparhawk went Wednesday to his home in Randolph. He will return soon for a day or two, and will then go to California to spend the winter.

The Central school closes under peculiarly trying circumstances. One of the students, a youth of unusual reputation heretofore, and of a good family, is under arrest for theft. The case—"The Great Umbrella Case"—will be tried before Judge O'Hoolahan in the town hall next Monday evening. Every effort is being made to find out the facts, if any, in the case, and counsel, brilliant, although unknown to fame, has been secured on both sides. As nearly all the village boys are mixed up in the affair, it is hoped that all the heads of families will be present and see that justice is done.

CHESTERFIELD, N. H.

Elmer Cobsurn and family have moved to Guilford, Vt.

Scille Holman will soon move to Jackson hill for the winter.

We are glad to see Mrs. C. W. Cressy out again after an illness of six months.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Thatcher and daughter are spending ten days in Boston and vicinity.

Rev. E. J. Deane of Hinsdale supplied the pulpit of the Methodist church Sunday in exchange with Rev. Noble Fish.

Beginning next week Rev. E. J. Deane will hold services every night at the Methodist church. Every one is earnestly requested to attend.

Alfred Feathers, the poet, whose verses on Spofford lake have attracted great attention, has rented Mrs. Holman's house and furnished it in a tasteful manner.

The closing exercises of school No. 5 were held in the town hall Monday evening. They were of a very high character and entertaining. The work done speaks well for the pains and efforts put forth by the teachers, Misses Smith and Merriam. Supper was served at a late hour to all the children and others. Both teachers have signified their intention to remain during the winter.

Wm. Holman, who was on Plagah mountain running lines with T. N. Robinson and others, got separated from the party at about 4 p. m. and was bewildered in the dense woods and semi-darkness. The alarm being given, his sons and others started in the search, a second party, 22 in all, starting an hour or two later. He was found about 11 p. m. by the first party, who, in turn, had lost their bearings, and was led out by the latter. Fortunately he had been able to start a fire and make the best of his situation, but was hungry and exhausted when rescued.

WEST CHESTERFIELD, N. H.

Miss Bertha Davis has been staying a few days at O. R. Farr's.

The ladies' circle met yesterday, Thursday, afternoon with Mrs. Richard Farr. Mrs. Bigelow of West Brattleboro is the nurse who is caring for Mrs. E. A. Carey.

L. C. Belows of West Brattleboro is expected to move to the Smith place this week.

Charles Winn and family have moved this week to Dr. E. S. Bowen's farm in the south part of the town.

Mr. Buell of Wilmington, Vt., has been laying the foundation for a new monument on C. P. Gilson's lot in the West cemetery.

The next assembly of the course will be held on Thursday evening, Nov. 23. A chicken-pie supper will be served in the lower hall by the ladies.

Miss Ellen Cheney, teacher of school No. 3, returned home Monday for a few days' vacation, after which she will go back for the winter term.

On account of the rain Nov. 12 there was only a small company, all our own people, present at the anniversary celebration. The ladies' society received most all expenses, and the only time was provided for the tea. The readings by Miss Howe were excellent, and the music by the orchestra pleased all. Mrs. A. J. White, Harold Randall, with No. 19, was the winner of the pillow.

HOUGHTONVILLE.

Frank Holden has finished his job here drawing pulp for Will Prouty.

The second term of school taught by Merle Willis closed Nov. 8, and like the first, was very successful.

E. S. Cadoret and family visited in Manchester and Dorset last week. Mr. Cadoret bought two cows in Dorset. Frank Cadoret drove them here from Manchester. The snow drifts were so deep on top of Peru mountain that it was impossible to drive a horse through, and a course had to be taken some distance through the field to avoid them.

VERNON.

Ernest Thayer Horribly Lacerated on Circular Saw.

Ernest Thayer, 18, oldest son of Oscar Thayer, met with a serious accident on Tuesday morning at Mr. Field's saw-mill near Vernon station. He was not at work at the mill, but was there in quest of work, and was standing on a slab, with his back to the saw, which was running. It is not known exactly how it happened, but Mr. Field thinks the boy blew his foot on the saw caught it and drew him backward upon the saw, which cut a fearful gash in his back, cutting off four ribs near the spine, and lacerating the lungs and liver, also in the lower part of his back a deep wound was cut. Drs. Conland and Pratt were summoned and dressed the wound, taking some 40 or 50 stitches in closing it, but they had little hope of being able to save his life. Yet, strange as it may seem, he soon rallied.

and at the present time appears to be doing well, with a probability that he will recover.

There will be preaching in the chapel next Sunday at 11 a. m.

Rev. R. F. Lowe will preach in the church next Sunday at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Howe of East Jamaica are at the farm of their brother, Harlan Howe, where they will remain through the winter. Mr. Howe's mother has gone to Roseville, N. J., to spend the winter with her daughter, Dr. Euphonia Howe Turtan.

The entertainment given on Wednesday evening by the young people under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Newton at the vestry was good and much enjoyed by all. The costumes of the living pictures surprised every one, and indicated that much work and talent had been called into service in preparation. Special mention should be made of the apt illustration of "I don't want to play in your yard," by Jennie Dole and Pauline Fairbanks, and sung by Mrs. Johnson; also of the "Rock of Ages," picture by Mrs. Bessie Weatherhead.

Last Saturday evening the Northfield Grange gave a very interesting entertainment at Vernon Grange hall, consisting of recitations, readings and singing, also a guessing contest, the answers of which required the abbreviated names of the several states. The prize winners were Harvey Lee, first, and Mrs. F. E. Johnson, booby. The entertainment closed with a supper by Vernon Grange, of sandwiches, cake, coffee, etc. The supper served by the ladies gave much sport, and many were surprised when their orders from the "menu cards" were placed before them.

SOUTH VERNON.

E. Lee is at home for a few weeks.

Miss L. Fairfield has gone to Springfield for a short visit.

Miss Fred Russell returned to her home in Dover this week.

Mrs. Mary Waldo is a guest at F. W. Johnson's this week.

Miss Clara Cary is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. E. Weatherhead.

Mrs. Fred Jackson and little girl are visiting at Charles Jackson's a few days.

The H. F. Johnson Woman's Relief Corps spent a very pleasant day Wednesday with Mrs. L. W. Bailey, sewing for their fair, which will be held some time in December.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat;

and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however, you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

HINSDALE, N. H.

Net Receipts of Fair Between $300 and $400.

Roman Catholic Society's Fair Three Nights was a Great Success—Some of the Prize Winners.

The St. Joseph's Catholic society held a very successful fair and festival of three evenings last week, closing on Friday evening. On Wednesday and Thursday evenings the ladies served a supper in the so-called "selection room" on the first floor of the building. The tables were kept well filled with guests from 5 to 8 o'clock on both evenings, and were constantly replenished with what seemed to be an inexhaustible supply of excellent eatables.

The new hall made a fine background for the booths and tables which were arranged about the outer edge of the room. On entering the hall on the west side visitors were greeted by the Misses Margaret O'Brien of Keene and Annie Lang of this village who had charge of a table where every thing was sold by number, but no blanks were drawn.

The parish booth was decorated with the national colors, and here Mrs. James Redding, Miss Anna Welsh and Miss Mary Fitzgerald had a briske trade in useful and fancy articles. A candy table in a pretty blue and white booth was presided over by Mrs. F. Burkinshaw. At the Socially booth, a dream in green and white, the Misses Anna White, Corliss, Ann McCaughen and Belle Delaney were in charge, and had for sale a large variety of goods. Mrs. H. Bergeron was in a booth called St. Anne, where her many useful articles attracted the purchasers. All the booths were well patronized, each having a good sum of money to turn into the fair treasury at its close.

A varied entertainment, the main features of which were the same, was given on the first two evenings. Every member met with new and interesting specialties were the "Pantomime Star Spangled Banner," by nine young ladies, under the direction of Miss Rose Burrows; "The Star Spangled Banner," a musical recitation and dance by Miss Bessie Mullen; mandolin solos by Titus Hancock of New York, with piano accompaniment by Miss Lillian Hancock; songs by Mrs. Thomas Raleigh; Joe Bertram in "coon songs" and "Jack" Mann in a variety of specialties. The farce, "A Temperance Family," with the happy feature of a family of five, was given by the J. E. Mann as Jotham, Maples, a Vermont farmer, and Miss Kate Healey, as his wife, Sally Ann, who was expected, took their parts admirably, and were ably supported by Miss Flora Morin as Huldah Maples, H. C. Holland and Paul H. Mann as "the boys" and W. P. Lyman as cousin Tom, the dude pianist. The Hinsdale brass band furnished music on the two first evenings.

A lively business was carried on by the young women, who with book and pencil solicited subscriptions for the various prizes. The twenty prizes on tickets went to the following persons who held the tickets bearing the lucky numbers: Mr. Leander Dole, $10 in gold; Mrs. L. Christian, a ton of coal; Miss Lillian Myers, box cigars; Patrick Mann, barrel of flour; Mrs. M. D. White, lady's hat; Rev. Father Devoy, set of fancy chairs; C. E. Keyser, clothes wringer; Mrs. Joseph Devoy, $5 in gold; M. J. Kelley of Springfield, Mass., writing desk; William Winn of Hinsdale, fancy rug; Miss Susie McCaughen, parlor lamp; F. E. Field, suit of clothes; Miss May Beaul, toilet set; Mrs. F. C. Fairbanks of Ashuelot, clock; R. Gonvon, box of cigars; William Winn, set of drawers; Miss Georgianna Scott, photograph album; Mrs. E. P. Kelley, rug; Monroe, marble, table clock. Ticket No. 174, upon which there was no name, drew cash prize of $10, which the holder can have by presenting ticket. Valuable prizes were drawn at the several booths and also by the book subscription. Friday evening was devoted to a concert by Leitinger's orchestra, followed by a dance, for which 120 tickets were sold. No regular supper was served, but refreshments of ice cream and cake were provided. The exact amount realized is not known, but will surely figure up between $70 and $80, a much larger sum than has ever been made in town by a church or other society from any social money making scheme.

The fair was generously patronized by the other societies, and guests were present from Guilford, South Falmouth, Millers Falls and Northfield, Brattleboro, Keene, Marlboro, Greenville, Winchester, Harrisville and Ashuelot. Rev. D. C. Jones, the pastor, and his people, are to be congratulated upon the success of their undertaking. This is the third fair held under the auspices of the Catholic society since its organization in 1898. The first was 23 years ago, in the old "American hall," the second during the incumbency of Rev. Father Holihan, was held in the vestry, while the third was held in the new hall, which was the first local social function to be held in the new town hall.

The Sunday-school will be held immediately after the morning service.

Deacon Lorenzo Stebbins was the recipient of an elegant gold-headed cane, suitably inscribed, from his brother-in-law, David Walton and wife, who came from East Orange, N. J., last Friday to help the deacon celebrate his 74th birthday anniversary. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Walton to Keene, where a pleasant reunion of the Walton family was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Morgan.

A notable social event has been arranged for next Wednesday evening, Nov. 27. Thanksgiving eve, when Court Ashuelot, No. 8, Foresters of America, will give their members a most excellent dinner in the new town hall. The concert will be rendered from 8 to 9 o'clock by the Springfield (Mass.) Orchestral club, one of the finest musical organizations of the country. The dancing program will contain 24 numbers. Supper will be served at Hotel Ashuelot.

Mrs. Louise Odette of this village died at the Elliot City hospital in Keene last week Thursday at the age of 35 years. Mrs. Odette had lived in Hinsdale about seven years, but was a native of St. George, Canada. She was a member of the St. Ann society connected with the Roman Catholic church, and also of the Company of the Forest (N. H.) youngster, a husband and two daughters, a mother, four brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Catholic church Saturday morning. The singing was by Misses Josephine White and Mabel Roach and Dr. LaHiff St. Bernard of Keene. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

The following from the Worcester Spy will be of interest to Mr. McCormick's friends here, as he is a Hinsdale boy, and a graduate of the Hinsdale high school class of 1891. "One of the baseball finds of the year in college circles is reported on the Holy Cross list for next season. James McCormick, a Hinsdale (N. H.) youngster, who pitched for the team in that town the past year, is the chap. Mr. McCormick has splendid control, and is a good fielder. He is believed to be one of the likeliest of the young college players that has been brought to the front in recent years, and Holy Cross will undoubtedly gain if the young man adheres to his original intention of completing a course at the college on the hill."

NORTHFIELD, MASS.

The Flower Show.

The chrysanthemum show last Friday night was a great success and was heartily enjoyed by a crowd which filled the town hall to its utmost capacity. Last June small plants were placed in the keeping of every school child in town, which being offered to the school children, these plants were on exhibition, also a fine exhibit of flowers and vegetables from farmers in town.

Severely merchants exhibited their wares, a few pet pigs, chickens and dogs appeared, and Mr. Flint of Winchester and Charles Matton of this place had a fine exhibit of chrysanthemums. On the walls and tables were placed specimens of work taken from the school-rooms, consisting of drawings, number and essay work.

Northfield amateurs showed specimens of note-books in Bible and household science, drawings in zoology and a fine herbarium. Mr. Flint, the judge, awarded the following prizes to the school children: First prize, E. Mary Goss; second, E. Josephine Fisher; third, H. Frank Sprague. Messrs. Ware, Eaterbrook and Braman, exhibitors of fruit, flowers or vegetables, were awarded degrees of merit as follows: Cabanas, James Wall; corn, first, C. E. Webster, second, Oscar State; potatoes, first, Joseph Colton; second, J. J. Shattuck; special on popcorn, Joseph Colton; apples, John Driscoll. Every school district in town was well represented, over 100 families contributing either fruit, flowers or vegetables. The special committees carried out the plans of the Village Improvement society most admirably and this Northfield chrysanthemum show will be one of the most attractive features of the town. At 8 o'clock N. P. Wood of the society called the company to order and read the following resolutions: Resolved, that the public schools rendered several fine selections of music under the direction of their teacher, Miss Annie Palmer.

The Northfield Grange visited Vernon last Saturday night and furnished the literary entertainment. The Vernon women served refreshments and a very pleasant evening was spent.

William Whitaker, 81, one of the oldest citizens in town, passed away last Friday, having succumbed to an attack of pneumonia. He had been a resident at Northfield a greater part of his life. He was a much respected citizen, and was valued highly as a neighbor and a citizen. He is survived by one son, who lived with him.
