THE NEW MILL SITE.

The Yale Milling Company Has Purchased the John Hoskin Property.

The new mill company has purchased the Hoskin property near the depot for $1,200, which they will use for a site for their new mill. They will also use the lot immediately back of this which is now owned by John Holden, one of the incorporators. The large price paid for this property by the company indicates that they don't intend to let trifles interfere with their having the best there is going.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Things That Interest Church Goers.

Rev. Desjardins will continue meetings in Brockway during next week.

YPSCE of Disciple church will hereafter meet at 2:00 p. m. instead of 2:30.

Services of the Presbyterian church next Sabbath will be in the evening at 7 o'clock.

Miss Violet Trask will conduct the Young People's meeting in M. E. church next Sunday evening.

The topics for next Sunday in M. E. church will be: Morning: "Follow thou Me." Evening: "The Final Division."

No meeting at Disciple Church next Sunday morning on account of union services in Menerey church. Usual services in the evening.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in Disciple church next Thursday morning at 10:30. Elder J. H. Paton will preach. It is hoped that all will come prepared to contribute toward the collection for the poor.

The members of the Disciples of Christ have decided to go to the Menerey church next Lord's Day morning to engage with the brethren there in the reopening service at 10:30 a. m. The evening service will be held in the chapel at the usual hour 7 p. m. Subject: "Love not the world."

The Free Methodists will hold their quarterly meeting in Yale beginning the 22nd day of November and continue over the Sabbath. Services Friday evening, Saturday afternoon and evening, love-feast Sunday morning at 9:30 followed by preaching. Children's meeting at 3 o'clock. Services Sunday evening, Rev. W. H. Hoyt will have charge.

Next Lord's Day, Nov. 24th, the Church of Christ, meeting at Menerey's Corner, will reopen the house of worship with a special service of thanksgiving and rejoicing. Mr. Phil Sanderson and the singing evangelist, Mr. Phil Gray, of Detroit, will be present. Cordial invitations to the Churches of Christ of Yale and neighborhood have been extended, and a joyful gathering in the Master's spirit is expected.

The Epworth League meeting next Tuesday evening will be in charge of the Department of Mercy and Help. An appropriate programme will be rendered and offerings will be received toward providing a Thanksgiving dinner for needy families. Any one having anything to give for this worthy object is requested to leave word with Miss Fannie Mathews, chairman of the mercy and help committee, or at M. E. church Tuesday evening next.

The entertainment to be given by the Junior Aid Society of the M. E. church on Thanksgiving night, will be sure to please the public. The program consists of music, recitations, solos, etc. The admittance fee has been placed so low that everybody may attend. Since the proceeds are to be applied on the pastor's salary, the patronage of the church people is expected. At the close of the entertainment several interesting tableaux will be given. Everybody invited to attend. Admission 5c and 10c.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life.

Mr. Thos. Egers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Grant Holden's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Peruvian Bitters.

LaFayette, Ind., Aug. 6, 1893.

Aunt Rachael Speer:

I have been using your Peruvian Bitters of late for malarial fever that I have not been entirely rid of for the past two years until now. I must say your bitters beat everything. I used it only six weeks and began to improve the first week. I am now well and feel young again, even now in this very hot weather.

THOS. McVEAGH, JR.

The Eloquent Young Orator Coming to Yale.

Thos. McVeagh, Jr., of Detroit, the eloquent young orator who spoke here in the campaign of 1888 and whom many people will remember, will be in Yale on Monday evening, Dec. 2nd.

Tom's progress since that year has been remarkable and brilliant. In the campaign of 1892 he made a tour of Ohio with McKinley, and in 1894 under the auspices of the Republican National Committee, he spoke in Virginia, Kentucky, Maine and New York, concluding the campaign in New York in company with Joseph H. Choate and Chauncey M. Depew. He has just returned from a tour of Europe and his talk on "A tour through England, Ireland and Scotland" will no doubt be vivid and eloquent. His talk is illustrated by more than 100 beautifully colored views, thrown on 900 square feet of canvas by a $600 specially constructed McAlister stereopticon. If eloquence, education, and art can contribute to an entertaining evening, then the evening of Dec. 2nd will be a very pleasant one.

NEWS OF A WEEK.

A Budget of Happenings in and Around St. Clair County.

Scarlet fever seems to be spreading in Marine City.

D. L. Ballentine is now proprietor of the Port Huron Saturday Press.

There is talk of changing the name of the town of Deckerville to Beloit.

St. Clair county's share of the primary school money amounts to $15,047.07.

The Detroit street car company sold 100 horses in Port Huron last week for one dollar a head.

Editor Sutton, of the Marine City Reporter, has gone to Atlanta, Ga., to attend the exposition.

Evangelist Chas. Black, of Deannville, has finished a series of meetings at Hightbanks, Macomb county.

A fire at George Yokum's electrical works in Port Huron destroyed considerable property Sunday night.

George Vrooman, of Port Huron, committed suicide at the Stringer House last week by taking a dose of laudanum.

Alfred Kinney shot George Betts at Port Sanilac last week in a drunken row. Betts died and Kinney gave himself up.

It is said that William Tierney, a resident of Emmet, is insane and roaming at large. The people want him taken care of.

On the Lester farms near Capac over 7,000 bushels of grain were raised this year, including oats, peas, spring wheat and buckwheat.

The cornerstone of the new building of the Young Men's Christian Association will be laid on Thanksgiving Day with appropriate exercises.

Gilbert Hathaway, of New Baltimore, suddenly left that village recently, and he is now charged with forging notes amounting to $3,000.

John Cannis, a pioneer and well-to-do farmer living near Capac, died last week of heart failure, superinduced by inflammatory rheumatism.

Thieves stole 27 bushels of potatoes from Mrs. Jane Jackson, of Crosswell. It would seem as though most any one could buy their potatoes this year.

A new railroad is being constructed through Arenac county, beginning at Emery Junction and extending south to Bay City, to be known as the D. & M.

Twenty of the Port Huron customs officials have had their salaries raised and now receive $231 a year more salary than they have been receiving.

A scheme now being talked of in Sanilac county is that of each farmer putting his name on his barn, so that every one who passes may know who lives there.

John Thompson, one of Port Huron's first policemen, died last week of paralysis. Mr. Thompson had suffered from softening of the brain for a number of years.

Birdie Mabel Kimball, of Riley township, deserted her nine-months-old baby in Port Huron last week, leaving it upon the doorstep of William Garrison's residence.

Port Huron's truancy officer finds children in that city who can not go to school on account of not having necessary clothing. Charitable people will look after the cases.

Luther H. Beecher, of Detroit, grandson of the late Luther Beecher, was run over by the Detroit train on the Michigan Central four miles south of Lapeer on November 15.

Horace Perkins, of New Baltimore, aged 23 years, shot himself in the breast last week and at last reports he was not expected to live. The shooting is said to have been accidental.

Wm. Cruise, a German of Clyde, has been locked up for the past month on a charge of being insane. Some friends claim that he is not insane and will have him re-examined.

Daniel Webster, of St. Clair, has begun suit in the circuit court against Constance Terney for $1,000 damages, claiming that Terney has a large amount of farming utensils which he wont give up to him (Webster).

G. W. Wilkinson, of Sanilac township, left last week with his family with two covered wagons and teams, expecting to reach his destination in the southern part of Georgia in about 30 days, where he will settle with a new colony.

Governor Rich has pardoned John Diem, of Port Huron, who was sentenced in 1892 for five years and six months for killing Captain David Genaw, his adopted father. Both men had been drinking and engaged in a drunken quarrel. Diem is a young man and now has a chance to become a good citizen.

From Now Until Spring

Overcoats and winter wraps will be in fashion. They can be discarded, temporarily, while traveling in the steam heated trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. For solid comfort, for speed and for safety, no other line can compare with this great railway of the West. 29-3

Hold Tight Your Dollars

UNTIL YOU HAVE LEARNED THE TRUE VALUE OF L. HIGER & SONS' BARGAINS.

We make it a point to be lower in price on everything and away under the price elsewhere on most things. A few of which we mention. Read:

A comparison of prices on our MEN'S SUITS with others always reflects credit on ours:

Men's all wool cassimere suits at $7.50 by comparison, worth $10.

Men's all wool cheviot suits at $10, by comparison, worth $15.

Men's fine worsted suits at $12 by comparison, worth $18.

Men's fine imported worsted and cassimere suits at $15 by comparison worth $20.

The unerring judgment of Clothing Buyers is that our OVERCOATS are better in quality and LOWER in PRICE than any others.

Men's chinchilla overcoats at $4 by comparison worth $6.

Men's beaver overcoats at $6 by comparison worth $8.50.

Men's kersey overcoats at $8.50 by comparison worth $12.

Men's all wool kersey overcoats at $10 by comparison worth $15.

Men's kersey overcoats at $15 (clay worsted lined) by comparison worth $18.

Men's fine Melton overcoats at $16 by comparison worth $22.

If there's a seedy young man in Port Huron today it's not our fault; we're coming as near to dressing these young men free as we can and not be accused of running a lottery.
