An Open Letter.

Nov. 12, 1896.

Editor Expositor.

Please inform your readers that the good work accomplished by the British Medical Institute during its two months' existence at Port Huron, has resulted in attracting so many patients from all over this section that Dr. Hale, the general manager and chief consulting physician, has decided to go to the Port Huron office with two able assistants, and remain there until Jan. 1st in order to accommodate the unusual large number of callers.

In order that the rich and poor may alike enjoy the services of these skilled specialists during that time, all professional fees will be suspended and no money whatever will be received (except for medicines furnished).

Can every reader, suffering from a chronic disease, fully realize what this means to him? It is simply this: Between now and Jan. 1st you can consult doctors who have devoted their lives to the study and cure of chronic diseases, and can have the benefit of all their rare knowledge of modern medical science and vast experience without going to some distant city, or paying the large fees regularly charged for such services.

No matter what treatment you have taken heretofore, if you have not been cured, call on the doctors and get an honest and honorable opinion of your case. In all difficult and complicated cases the combined wisdom of the Institute's staff of seven eminent specialists is brought to bear. If incurable you will be kindly and frankly told so.

If impossible to call upon the doctors personally, send a stamp for a symptom blank. Yours faithfully,

British Medical Institute.

Mr. James Jones, of the firm of Jones & Son, Cowdon, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowdon and Pans could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from the first dose, and a half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Grant Holden's drug store.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes
