PROBATE ORDER.

State of Michigan, County of St. Clair: ss.
At a session of the Probate Court for said County of St. Clair, held at the Probate Office, in the City of Port Huron, on the 27th day of September in the year one thousand nine hundred.

Present, Hon. Frank T. Wolcott, Judge of Probate.
In the matter of the Estate of Robert G. Jackson, deceased. Abner E. Jackson having filed his petition in this court praying that a certain instrument now here on file may be allowed and admitted to Probate as and for the last Will and testament of said deceased and that the administration of said estate be granted to Abner E. Jackson and Benjamin H. Jackson the executors therein named.

It is ordered, that Monday the 29th day of October, 1900, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate office, be appointed for hearing thereof; and it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Yale Expressor a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of St. Clair.

(A true copy.) FRANK T. WOLCOTT,
Judge of Probate.

Mrs. Eliza Sheldon.

Mrs. Eliza Sheldon whose death occurred at her home in the village on Sunday evening, Oct. 21st, was born in Philadelphia in the year 1845 of Irish and Scotch parentage, came to Michigan with her parents settling on a farm in the township of Fremont, Sanilac county. She was married to Alfred Sheldon, a soldier in the war of the rebellion, on the 12th of December, 1871, and settled in the village of Yale about 14 years later, her husband preceding her to the other shore 9 years. Since her husband's death she has remained a widow, living alone and enjoying a pension of $12 a month. She had a very quiet, unassuming nature, true as steel in her friendship, faithful and loyal to her religious convictions and duties for which she cheerfully suffered reproach. She was a consistent and devoted member of the Church of Christ in Yale, and was always ready to give a reason for the hope she had, and often during her last sickness and even in her intervals of consciousness nearing the end, she expressed her unbounded faith in the ever overshadowing mercy of a living Father, and in the power of Jesus to save.

The disease which caused her death was a disordered liver, and was of long standing, she having been a sufferer for over eight years. Funeral services were held at Brick Chapel, Elder Paton officiating, his sermon based on the word of Paul, "All things work together for good for those who love the Lord and who are called according to his purpose." Her remains were laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery beside her husband. Her aged father, John Willoughby, of Fremont; her brother Alexander, of same place; and two sisters in Oregon, besides her circle of intimate friends mourn the loss of an affectionate daughter, sister, and friend.

Died at her home in Lynn township on Sunday, Oct. 21, Mrs. Maria Dorman, aged 71 years. The deceased was an old resident of this region having lived in Lynn for many years. Her husband had preceded her to the better world some 20 years ago. She leaves three children, two sons and one daughter. The funeral occurred on Wednesday, Oct. 24th, at the Lynn church, and the sermon was preached by Rev. C. Grey. The interment was made in the Lynn burying ground.

Mrs. Abner Clyne died at her home near Jeddo on Sunday, Oct. 21 aged about 25 years. The husband, who is a brother of Dr. Clyne of this place is thus left to mourn the loss of a companion. The funeral took place last Tuesday at Jeddo, conducted by Rev. Crandell, and the interment was made in the Jeddo cemetery. Abner will have the sympathy of many in this region as soon as the news of his bereavement reaches them.
