

AN INDIGESTION REMEDY FREE

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspeptics cannot eat the things they like; food sour in the stomach, then chronic constipation begins, or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your drug-gist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich., did and he is well to-day. Others who did the same and were cured are: J. A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the drug, and, taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never gripes, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

TORE HIS SKIN OFF

In Shreds—Itching Was Intense—Sleep Was Often Impossible.

Cured by Cuticura in Three Weeks.

"At first an eruption of small pustules commenced on my hands. These spread later to other parts of my body, and the itching at times was intense, so much so that I literally tore the skin off in shreds in seeking relief. The awful itching interfered with my work considerably, and also kept me awake nights. I tried several doctors and used a number of different ointments and lotions but received practically no benefit. Finally I settled down to the use of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills, with the result that in a few days all itching had ceased and in about three weeks' time all traces of my eruption had disappeared. I have had no trouble of this kind since. H. A. Krutskoff, 5714 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., November 18 and 28, 1907."

WAS THE TIME LIMIT OPERATIVE?

WERE IMPORTANT ACTS PASSED TOO LATE IN THE SESSION TO BE VALID?

QUESTION MAY BE RAISED

A Difference of Opinion May Be Aired in the Courts and Result in Overthrow of Some Measures.

It is rumored that an attack will be made in the courts on one of the labor bills passed during the last session of the legislature. This is believed to be the general labor bill repealing several previous bills and re-enacting the labor laws and factory laws of the state in what is claimed to be a more consistent and workable form than were the originals, which conflicted in many ways. The basis of the expected attack will be the fact that this bill was passed after the session had drawn so close to adjournment that the five-day rule for legislation established by the constitution could not be observed.

If it comes to a contest along this line some of the most important acts passed during the session will undoubtedly become involved. Among them will be the home rule bill for cities, the Warner-Cramton liquor bill, the county home rule bill and the highway bill.

The point involved is whether a substitute or amended bill could be passed after the time limit expired. All of these bills were changed in committee during the closing days of the session and then passed. The question whether they came within the constitutional inhibition was raised at the time. Speaker Campbell ruled that they did not, and could not be acted on. Attorney General Bird was of the same opinion.

The section of the new constitution which bears on the question at issue is No. 22, and reads thus: "No bill shall be passed or become a law at any regular session of the legislature until it has been printed and is in the possession of each house for at least five days. No bill shall be altered or amended on its passage through either house so as to change its original purpose."

In the explanatory note accompanying this section in the copies of the constitution which the convention ordered sent out to voters before the new fundamental law was adopted, occurred this statement:

"The provision that no bill shall be altered on its passage so as to change its original purpose is included so that by no possibility can the publicity secured by the five-day rule be nullified or evaded."

That the important bills alluded to above were altered is not controverted in capitol circles. Whether they were so altered as to "change its original purpose" is the question at issue.

Will Go to Jail.

Dr. J. J. Ryecroft, mayor of Petoskey, has decided to serve a 15-day sentence in the county jail. About two years ago the Lockwood hospital was built, from a fund of $10,000, which was bequeathed by a former summer resident of the city. The officials in charge of the institution, soon after taking office, were accused by several local members of the medical profession of unfair discrimination in choosing physicians to handle cases.

The arguments over the question between the doctors concerned were heated, and it is said that during an operation on a patient in the hospital Dr. Ryecroft struck a brother physician. He was convicted in justice court of assault and battery, and sentenced to pay a fine of $50, or spend 15 days in the county jail. He appealed to the circuit court, and there the decision of the lower court was sustained. Then he took the case to the supreme court, and was again defeated, the decision being handed down about two weeks ago. During the interval the complainant died.

Now Dr. Ryecroft refuses to pay the $50 fine, and the prosecuting attorney and the sheriff say that there is nothing for them to do but to confine him in the jail. The mayor admits that this is the only course, and says that on Sunday night he will deliver an address in a local church, giving his side of the story; then on Monday he will go to jail.

While his practice will probably suffer while he is in durance, the affairs of the city will go on as usual. The council has made arrangements whereby Ryecroft may attend the sessions in charge of an officer.

Daily Released on Bail.

Milton J. Daly, who is fighting extradition on a bribery charge after indictment by the grand jury of Jackson county in connection with the binder twine plant and sisal grafts at the state prison, has been released on $25,000 bail at Chicago, following his arraignment. He will have a hearing on habeas corpus proceedings on June 8.

Deputy Sheriff Stroebel has returned from Chicago, where he went to serve the extradition papers and be present at Daly's arraignment.

Village Wiped Out. Neganuee is covered by dense smoke, caused by forest fires which completely surrounded it. Fishing parties who camped Wednesday night at Goose lake, five miles south, were compelled to flee for their lives. At an early hour in the morning they returned, nearly exhausted.

The city fire engine was sent to Dalton, a small town south of Marquette, on the Muskogee railroad. Families were compelled to flee on a special train.

Late advices say that the town is practically wiped out. Fire from an engine spark started the blaze. Among the buildings burned is the Dalton Lumber Co.'s plant, entailing $40,000 loss. Two mills were saved with difficulty. Forest fires are reported at McMillan, east of Neganuee and near Sidaw. Wire communication is interrupted. No immediate danger is expected near the city. The firemen are held in readiness. No rain storms have occurred this spring and every thing is as dry as tinder.

Sale of Beer Stamps. Here is a puzzle: The May receipts for the sale of all kinds of internal revenue stamps are nearly double those of last May, despite the fact that some 19 counties embraced local option last fall, and as a result are now supposedly as dry as the Sahara desert. The sale of beer stamps has not fallen off, and a few of the breweries in local option towns bought as many stamps as ever during the month.

The latest records in the local internal revenue office shows that there has been a heavy influx of saloonkeepers, hoteliers, etc., into the wet counties, and that the number of new arrivals in Detroit just about tops the list of wet migrants.

The Missing Mr. Curtis. A letter bearing the postmark of Seattle, Wash., has been received by Mrs. Frank S. Curtis from her husband, who disappeared from the Wayne hotel in Detroit April 27, while bound for Mackinaw, Mich. The letter is so incoherent as to lead his wife, who lives in Cranford, N. J., to fear that his mind has failed him.

Curtis is a railroad engineer, and while designing the intricate track plans for the new Grand Central station in New York he was engaged to lay out a railroad in West Virginia. It was on that business that he went to Michigan, from where he disappeared. The letter gives no address and the Seattle police have been asked to look for him.

An Aged Suicide. Feebe with the weight of his 75 years, and despondent, Henry Hoffman, a well-known farmer living near Traversa city, took his own life with a shotgun. A son, sole survivor of the immediate family, while at work in the fields, heard the report of the gun, but thought nothing of it, as his father had said he was going to town. When the son reached the house at noon he found the aged man dead, one side of his head shot away. In his bare feet, Hoffman had pulled the trigger of the gun with a toe. On the table lay a note in German, telling where would be found $108, the household fund.

Crushed Under a Roller. Thrown off a land roller, a heavy cylinder drawn over a plowed field to crush the lumps, dragged by the foot, then thrown under the roller and crushed, Harley Norris, 18-year-old son of John Norris, of New Haven township, seems certain to die. Both his shoulder blades are broken, as also three ribs, and there are other internal injuries.

The horse drawing the roller was a colt. It started suddenly, throwing the boy off the seat. It raced across the field, hauling him along by the tangled reins, and brought up against a fence. There it backed the roller over the driver.

Doesn't Want Fourth Term. Mayor Bretmeyer followed Gov. Warner in an address at Ludington when the Detroit Board of Commerce landed there and, during the course of his remarks, said: "Good people of Ludington, Gov. Warner told me this morning that he will not be your governor again."

This is probably the first public announcement that the governor does not want a fourth term.

MICHIGAN ITEMS.

E. J. Moon, laborer, has put in a claim of $1,000 against the city of Marshall for a broken ankle, the result of a cave-in while he was digging a city sewer.

John H. Dennis, president of the Barry County Pioneer and Historical society, announces that the annual meeting of the society will be held in Hastings on June 24.

George Buregon and Eliza May Porter, the Chicago couple arrested in Port Huron on a statutory charge, were fined $125 or 65 days in the Detroit workhouse. They are unable to pay the fines.

Owosso's estimated budget, as approved by the council, is a record-breaker, totaling $71,000, which is an increase of $10,000 over last year's budget. The increase is attributed to many public improvements.

Because his little daughter caught her foot in a defective walk and fell, causing a fractured shoulder which developed into congestion of the lungs, from which she died, Henry DeBruin wants Grand Rapids to pay him $5,000.

The board of tax review of Benessemer was this year controlled by the citizens. A raise of the mines within the city from $550,000 last year to $1,205,000 now is the result. The total valuation of the city is raised from $950,000 to $1,585,900. This is the first time since the raise by Pingree's tax commission in 1904 that the mines have been fairly assessed.

Col. George B. McCaugha, for 12 years municipal judge of Owosso, has resigned the office and will go west. Col. McCaugha was elected each term on the Democratic ticket, despite the fact that the city has a normal Republican majority of 500.

TORNADO BRINGS DEATH TO MANY

ZEPHYR, A TEXAS TOWN, IS MADE DESOLATE BY A FIERCE TORNADO.

NORTH DAKOTA SUFFERS

Human Bodies Blown Miles Away and Twisted Round Trees and Horrors Were Numerous.

A tornado wrecked Zephyr, a village in Brown county, Texas, Saturday, killing more than 30 persons, seriously wounding 50, and hurting a score others. Extreme darkness made the catastrophe awful. The storm formed half a mile southwest of Zephyr and swept down upon the village, cutting a wide swath directly through the residence and business quarters.

Nearly 50 houses were demolished. Lightning struck a lumber yard and started a fire, which destroyed an entire business block.

No effort was made to fight the fire, as the care of the dead and wounded demanded all attention.

A section hand pumped a hand car to Brownwood and spread the alarm. In two hours the Santa Fe was speeding a special train to Zephyr with nine surgeons and a score of Brownwood citizens.

Hundreds of persons in the country around Zephyr saved themselves by taking refuge in storm cellars.

The big stone school building and two churches at Zephyr were razed. Daylight found 15 surgeons working on the wounded.

Brownwood hurried her second relief train at noon, loaded with provisions, clothing and necessary articles, and 40 nurses.

Two children were found dead two miles from Zephyr, having been blown that distance.

A special train carried the more seriously injured to a hospital at Temple. While the tornado's path was 300 yards wide, the twister swept the earth for a distance of only about a mile. Its fury was more terrible than any previous tornado experienced in this region.

When the first relief party reached Zephyr, a desolate scene awaited. The hillsides were covered with debris of all kinds, intermingled with bodies of animals and human beings. The ruins were dimly lighted by burning buildings and the cries of the wounded ring above the screeching of the dying storm, guided the rescuers in their work.

Human bodies were found twisted about trees and distorted in every conceivable shape. Survivors, mad with grief and terror, walked the streets almost naked, crying for their lost relatives.

Those houses that escaped the storm were turned into hospitals and morgues.

Brownwood, with a splendidly organized relief corps, has the situation well in hand.

North Dakota Visited.

Seven persons are known to be dead, many are dying and over a score are seriously injured as a result of a tornado that swept over northwest North Dakota Saturday night.

The storm was especially severe at Langdon, where the residence section of the city was practically wiped out, four people killed and 20 injured.

The tornado demolished all of the buildings of the Jamestown Fair association, the loss being $50,000, and several other large buildings.

Casselton, Devil's Lake and other towns have been completely cut off from communication, and it is feared that the death list will be greatly increased.

Millions for Meat.

That the four big Chicago packers who comprise the meat trust, and their side partner, the National Packing Co., do an annual business far in advance of the biggest year ever enjoyed by the United States Steel Corporation is shown by the statement filed under the new Massachusetts compulsory law. These reveal that during the past year Swift, Armour, Morris, Cudahy and the National did a gross volume of business amounting to $780,000,000. Figures furnished by the National are not official and are said to be $25,000,000 too low. The steel trust's biggest year was 1907, when it touched the $757,000,000 mark.

The figures secured by the state show that the meat packers do business on a much closer margin of profits than the other big concerns. The total net profits on the enormous business done during the year will hardly reach $25,000,000, a margin of only about 3 per cent. In sharp contrast with this is the 23 per cent profit of the steel corporation last year.

ONE THING THAT WAS CERTAIN

No Doubt in the Baggage-man's Mind as to Contents of What Looked Like Coffin.

In an emergency the manufacturer of Limburger cheese was forced to use strategy with a shipment. Ordinarily his product went in special cars, but in this instance no car was available and the order must be filled. Two hundred pounds of the fragrant comestible was put in a rough, oblong box, and taken to the railroad baggage room. Then the manufacturer bought a ticket for himself and the box, and entered the train. At the first stop he went ahead to the baggage car to see that there was no trouble. He stood by the box in a disconsolate attitude and shaded his eyes with his hand. The baggage man was sympathetic. "A relative?" he asked. "Yes," answered the manufacturer. "It is my brother." "Well," said the railroad man, philosophically, "you have one consolation. He's dead, all right."—San Francisco Argonaut.

As the Boy Saw the Lesson.

Prof. Charles Zeublin of the University of Chicago was discussing at a dinner the greatest paintings of the world.

"The legends that are beautiful and immortal," he said, "have in them truths that we all, according to our kind, take home. This is true in likenesses of immortal works of art—pictures, poems, songs. For different people they have different messages. For instance, in my native Pendleton some of the mothers used to cut the children's hair. They did it with shears and a bowl. The operation was often painful, and the result was never elegant."

"In Sunday school a Pendleton teacher once told her pupils the tragic story of Samson and Delilah. Then she turned to a little boy:

"What do you learn, Joe," she said, "from the Samson story?"

"It don't never pay," piped Joe, "to have a woman cut a feller's hair!"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mutual Surprise.

A mission worker in New Orleans was visiting a reformatory near that city not long ago when she observed among the inmates an old acquaintance, a negro lad long thought to be a model of integrity. "Jim!" he claimed the mission worker. "Is it possible I find you here?" "Yassum," blithely responded the backslider. "I'm charged with stealin' a barrel of sweet pertaters." The visitor sighed. "You, Jim!" she repeated. "I am surprised!" "Yassum," said Jim. "So was I or I wouldn't be here!"

OVER THE FENCE Neighbor Says Something.

The front yard fence is a famous council place on pleasant days. Maybe to chat with some one along the street, or for friendly gossip with next door neighbor. Sometimes it is only small talk but other times neighbor has something really good to offer.

An old resident of Baird, Texas, got some mighty good advice this way once.

He says: "Drinking coffee left me nearly dead with dyspepsia, kidney disease and bowel trouble, with constant pains in my stomach, back and side, and so weak I could scarcely walk."

"One day I was chatting with one of my neighbors about my trouble and told her I believed coffee hurt me. Neighbor said she knew lots of people to whom coffee was poison and she pleaded with me to quit it and give Postum a trial. I did not take her advice right away but tried a change of climate, which did not do me any good. Then I dropped coffee and took up Postum."

"My improvement began immediately and I got better every day I used Postum."

"My bowels became regular in two weeks, all my pains were gone. Now I am well and strong and can eat anything I want to without distress. All of this is due to my having quit coffee, and to the use of Postum regularly."

"My son who was troubled with indigestion thought that if Postum helped me so, it might help him. It did, too, and he is now well and strong again."

"We like Postum as well as we ever liked the coffee and use it altogether in my family in place of coffee and all keep well." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in Pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

A $5000 farm that didn't cost a cent

W. B. Northrup, went to the Gulf Coast Country of Texas, last December, to contract for a lot of cabbages. One cabbage crop of 20 acres, on a 41-acre farm, near Brownsville, looked so good to him that he bought the entire farm, including the crop. He paid $125 an acre, the man who sold it agreeing to bring the crop to maturity, gather and deliver it on the cars.

The crop has been shipped; the yield averaged 24,000 pounds to the acre, and brought from $1.75 to $2.00 per hundred—over $8,000 for the crop.

As Mr. Northrup only paid $5,125 for the farm, he now has the farm, his original capital, and a handsome bonus besides. Mr. Northrup was fortunate. It isn't often one finds a man who is willing to sell his farm, after he has it under cultivation, for the crop usually brings more than the land. But there is plenty of similar land in the Gulf Coast Country of Texas, not under cultivation, that you can buy for a trifle, compared with its earning capacity. Why don't you go there and make an investigation while the land is within your reach? Next year it will cost more.

A trip of investigation will be inexpensive. It is your opportunity. Don't wait.
