Annual 1/4 Off Sale.

Begins Saturday, Jan. 6, at 8 o'clock with the greatest stocks of winter merchandise we've ever had at this time of year.

The inflexible policy of this store demands that "All Merchandise Must be sold in the season for which it is bought"—that's a fundamental principle of this store. You make your selections from the very finest Ready-for-Service Clothing in the World—and everybody is treated alike. One discount to all—one-quarter—whether you buy a $100 Suit or Overcoat, or a $25 one. This is an event backed by the J. I. Rosenthal reputation for a high standard of modern merchandising, for integrity and a "square deal"—a reputation of 11 years' standing, which we hold inviolable.

A Cold That Causes a Dry, Hacking Cough

* Different kinds of colds require different treatment.

* If you have a dry, "hacking" sort of cough that keeps you from sleeping a cough that is really more in the throat than on the lungs—you need DIKE'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, a quieting syrup that will stop the cough.

* If the air passages are clogged with phlegm, you need DIKE'S WHITE PINE WITH TAR. In a cold of this kind coughing is necessary. This cough syrup promotes relaxation of the inflamed air passages and allows the mucous membranes to throw off the phlegm.

* Choose your cough syrup carefully. The surest way is to get the DIKE'S Cough Syrup that is intended for your own particular sort of cough. Both remedies are offered in two sizes, 25c and 50c.

New Bank Building.

The Citizens State Bank of Brown City has erected a fine new home which will be completed and ready to occupy by February 1st.

This building has a forty-three foot frontage, is fifty feet deep with twenty feet beam ceiling. A sky light 12x12 feet set with prison glass occupies a prominent place in the roof in the center of the building. The lobby is finished in white marble with rubber tile floors.

The latest patent burglar alarm system is installed.

Our old friend and former fellow townsman, Duncan A. McKeith, is the cashier of this solid, substantial financial institution and the Expressor compliments him on being capable of handling the affairs of this bank so successfully.

Brown City is proud of its new bank building and well it may be.

Trade With Home Merchants.

A bunch of itinerant cloth dealers have infested this section and are out among the farmers soliciting orders. This old game has been worked in and around Yale before and it seems as though the Expressor need not advise anyone to pass these fellows up. Our city has a woolen mill that manufactures a good grade of cloth, suitable for your needs at a reasonable price and you take no chances in buying from this institution. It is the same with our tailors, clothing merchants and other business firms. If this little word of warning is not sufficient to place our readers on guard we will bring facts and figures from other localities where these fellows have operated that will startle you. Be wise in taking our advice and buy from your home dealers and you will never be sorry.

Annual Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holden entertained the stockholders of the Yale Milling Company and their wives at the annual dinner, which has become such a pleasant social event, on Friday last week at 6 p. m. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. James McColl, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ruh, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wharton, Mrs. Elizabeth Lothian and Mr. and Mrs. John Holden. Mrs. Ira Bricker, of Saginaw was not present.

J. M. Smith is selling all kinds of underwear at sacrifice prices. Piano votes must be returned every Saturday for recording. Saturday, January 27, extra votes given on all kinds of Washing Powder.

OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Mrs. John Tobin died at her home one half mile south and one mile east of Valley Center, at 3:15 p. m. Wednesday.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Ceila Lavalley, was born in Rochester, N. Y., December 15, 1848 and married in Buffalo, N. Y., to John Tobin, of Dundas, Canada in 1865.

They came at once to Michigan, settling on the farm near Valley Center, where twelve children were born to them, eleven of whom are left to mourn. Five daughters and six sons, Mary, Barney, Homer, Dick, Mrs. Barley Wilson, Melvin; Mrs. Fred Welch, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. L. A. Hydorn, Valley Center; Andrew, of Battle Creek; Jim, Lucy and Ben at home.

Mrs. Tobin, who has been suffering from heart trouble for some years, was kind and generous to all and her life has been well spent; but the silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken, the dust has returned to the earth and the spirit returned to the God who gave it.

Rev. Clark, of Yale, the pioneer preacher of Sanilac and St. Clair counties, delivered a most fitting sermon at the home at 1:30 p. m. Saturday.

Interment was made in Valley Center cemetery.

The sad news reached the people of Yale this morning, Thursday, January 18, 1912, that Mrs. J. B. Stevens had passed away at about 7 o'clock. Mrs. Stevens illness has dated back two years when she fell and broke a limb. Since then she had not seen a well day and early developed a cough which led into consumption, and her death has not been unexpected the last two weeks. Mrs. Stevens was fifty-four years of age and was a bright, capable woman, an earnest, active worker in her days of health and patient in her long confinement.

Arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been made.

Thanks! Brother Ranger.

Charlevoix, Mich., Jan. 1, 1912.
Mr. J. A. Mathews
Yale, Mich.

Dear Sir and Friend:—Mrs. Ranger says that it is nearly time to send a dollar for the Expressor another year. To tell the truth I believe she would give away and die if she could not get the Expressor. Every time I go down town on a Saturday Mrs. R. will say, "William, don't forget to go to the office and see if the Expressor has come."

Why she will read the Expressor first of all. You ought to see the happy, contented expression on her face when I hand her the paper, but if I should say, no, it did not come then she would look sad and worried until it did come. As for myself I cannot help praising your efforts in getting out a good newspaper. Your Christmas number is certainly a credit to yourself and the city which your newspaper represents.

You will pardon me for being late in writing to you but better late than never.

Wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year I remain

Yours very truly
Wm. Ranger.

Announcement Extraordinary.

To demonstrate the rich, beautiful tone of the celebrated Upright Parlor Grand Piano which I will give away absolutely free on Saturday, June 8th, 1912, at 10 p. m., as heretofore announced, and which is now on exhibition in our store, Masonic Block, I have arranged for a piano recital by Miss Sylvia Card, pianist, violinist and expert whistler, to be given at our store on Saturday, January 20th, 1912, at 2:30 p. m. We extend a cordial invitation to the music lovers of our city and surrounding country to attend, as this recital will be a genuine musical treat. Remember the date, Saturday, January 20th, at 2:30 o'clock. The program will last two hours.

J. M. Smith.

Such Is Life.

None but the initiated know the accuracy required in the printing office. The average reader who detects a misspelled word or a letter upside down feels that his mission on earth is not accomplished until he has called the attention of the overworked editor to the glaring defect. He does not notice the thousands of letters that are in place, or the multitude of words correctly spelled, but his eagle eye is glued on the one that is out of place. So it is with our deeds. Man does a thousand good deeds and no attention is paid to them, but if he makes one little mistake it is flashed all over the world. A lifetime may be spent in building up a reputation that may be wrecked in a moment. The world is a harsh critic, exacting to a fault.—St. Clair County Press.
