

For Disordered Nerves.

When the nervous system gets out of order all comfort departs. Any weakened or disordered condition of the nerves not only causes direct distress, but also leads to defective action of the digestive and other organs. Our is a true nerve tonic. It builds up and restores the harmony of the whole nervous system. Results are usually seen from a few doses and the improvement grows rapidly more marked.

PHONE 24 DAY OR NIGHT

Local and Otherwise.

Tuesday was pay day at the Yale Woolen Mills.

Farming land is cheaper in this vicinity than it will be a year hence.

Regular meeting of Yale Chapter, O. E. S., next Wednesday evening, March 6th.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Palmer on Monday, February 26, a daughter, Congratulations.

William H. Reddick has sold his farm in North Speaker to his son, Kord, and will soon move to Yale.

Thomas Wark has sold his farm of eighty acres in Speaker township to Joseph Ludington. Consideration $4,500.

A lady, deaf mute made the rounds of Yale business places and homes, Wednesday, and picked up considerable change selling jewelry.

Special meetings are being held in the Avoca Presbyterian church. Good interest is manifested. All are cordially invited. Rev. George Hosmer.

Another Dakota blizzard struck Yale Monday morning which turned to rain about ten o'clock. For sudden changes this section of the state holds the candle.

A photograph of the streets of Yale after the blizzard and big snow storm last week would have made an interesting picture—a winter scene of the real north country kind.

Amos Slacho reports that while at Annandale last week, he caught a live frog. It seemed rather flimsy and hardly creditable, but when he stated that he had pumped it out of a well he would not doubt his word.

W. J. Martin who has looked after the interests of the Watkins Remedy Co. in this territory in the past, this week sold out to his son who will keep in stock a full and complete line of the remedies and supply your wants.

Invitations are issued for a Masonic Hall to be given by Brookway Lodge, No. 316, F. & A. M., in Central Hall Wednesday evening, March 6th. Dancing from 8:30 to 2:30. Music by Stone's famous orchestra of Detroit. Bill, $1.00, including lunch.

Roy Menerey, who is a chicken fancier, has just received a dandy Barred Plymouth Rock cockerel from E. B. Thompson of America, N. Y., a breeder of considerable note. Always makes it a point to keep his flock of fowls up to the standard.

Benjamin Lane, while coming down stairs Monday, fell and landed at the bottom. His head, hip and arm are badly bruised and his left hand is considerably swollen. Ben struck every step on the way down and he declares that there were fifty. He will be laid up for a week or two.

What's the matter with a business man's banquet? Don't you think it would be a good thing? Of course we are aware that a business man—a good one—can hardly spare the time to eat or sleep, but we imagine the most of them could knock off an hour or two for an event of this kind.

It is the intention of A. V. Parmlee to convert his newly acquired property known as Kennedick hall on the corner of Wood and Kennedick streets, into a residence for three families. The apartments will be made modern in every respect and will command good rent and the best of tenants.

Rev. H. D. Hunter, of Williamston, W. Va., the new pastor of the Presbyterian church will be here and occupy the pulpit on Sunday next, morning and evening. Every member and attendant of the church is requested to be present at each service and give Rev. Hunter a royal welcome.

The young people were rather disappointed at the absence of Stone's Orchestra for the dance last Friday night, but as the storm last week had made it impossible for the orchestra to get here in time by train, they made the best of it and local musicians ably supplied the deficiency and a good time was had.

The North Branch Gazette has organized a Booster club and last week's issue contained a list of forty names of people who had paid their subscriptions during the week. These folks are appreciative of their home paper and are willing to shove a little prosperity into the editor's pocket. Shall the Expositor adopt the scheme or will this hint be sufficient?

The Just-a-Mere club was entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Ada Beard by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beard, Mayme Currier, Ada Beard, Julia Wallace, Alex. Sayles, Bert Evans and James Melrose. The first prize was taken by Mrs. Clyde Adams, second, Mrs. Roswell Green; gentleman's first, Floyd Reid, second, Wm. Leamont. A dainty lunch was discussed at the close of the game.

We have our kind friends Mr. and Mrs. Valentine, of Riverside Fruit Farm, to thank for a pair of apples and a dozen fresh eggs brought in to our office today. We are informed that during the months of January and February the flock of Leghorns on this farm laid 106 dozen eggs, notwithstanding the thermometer was down to zero and below two weeks at a stretch. These hens must be getting the proper kind of feed and housed in warm quarters.

There is a habit and a delusion among a large number of our people to go to some nearby town or city to shop, believing that they can purchase cheaper. We think these good people may be banded by their own thought. Please reckon your car fare and time, if the latter is worth anything. If our town merchants try to "soak" you or have not what you want, of course, you are justified to go elsewhere. But first find out by getting prices and see what your home merchants have.

C. J. Seely, representative of the National Hay Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, has been given a leave of absence and is spending a good share of the time in Yale and towns surrounding visiting among his many friends. Mr. Seely spent several months in Yale a couple of years ago and during his stay became acquainted with a large number of people who pronounce him a prince of good fellows and were pleased to have him return and make them a visit. We cannot say but believe that he has picked up considerable hay while here.

One-third off on coats at Rosenthal's.

CHOIR DISCORDS.

A Very Pleasant Evening Spent at the Home of J. E. Beavis.

This was the heading of the place cards which the members of the Presbyterian Choir and their guests saw as they were finding their seats at the table in the home of J. E. Beavis on Tuesday at 7 p. m.

The officials of the church were giving a banquet for the choir and instead of discords the whole evening was one of the most harmonious pleasure. But the place cards did not refer to the people themselves but the manner in which their names could be mixed up and brought out in the shape of the popular and crazy daffydills with which the card was filled, to the great hilarity of the twenty guests who almost forgot they were there to eat, in the absorbed enjoyment of this feature.

However the delicious four course dinner found extraordinarily good appetites and plenty of praise was bestowed upon the cooks, several of the ladies from the L. E. S. having taken the serving of the banquet upon themselves.

Afterwards in the parlors a musical program in the shape of appropriate games, contests and songs was given for the entertainment and not a dull moment was experienced. Just before leaving, Mr. Beavis, in behalf of the officials, presented Mrs. Palmer, the pianist and choir leader, with a beautiful cut glass fruit bowl, in token of the appreciation of the church of her untiring services. By 11:30 all good nights had been said and this good time passed into the past with other pleasant memories.

Below we copy the menu:

Vermicelli Soup	Wafers
Jello	Olives
Chicken Patties	Potato Cones
Rolls	Coffee
Fruit Salad	Wafers
Orange Sherbet
White Cake	Dark Cake
Marshmallow Toasts

The Merry Cobbler at Central Hall March 8th.

We understand that Lewis Etchells has purchased the house on Kennedick street in which he is living.

John H. Merrill is very sick at his home on Main street. It is reported his trouble is appendicitis.

The L. E. S. of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. James Wallace next Tuesday afternoon instead of Wednesday.

Alfred Jones, who moved to Port Huron last fall, has purchased a grocery at the corner of Cherry and Elmwood streets, of L. N. Leach.

Lowell Munroe is slowly recovering from a long siege of sickness at his home on Kennedick street. He will altogether likely be laid up for several weeks yet.

The ladies of Sacred Heart church will give a calendar social and supper in Central hall March 18. Admission 25 cents. Everybody invited. Supper from 6:00 till all are served.

Frank Phillips, whose leg was broken in a friendly scuffle about three weeks ago, takes a walk each fine day. He uses crutches as he is not able to let his weight on the limb as yet.

Willard Welch, who has been confined to his home on South Main street nearly all winter by sickness, was out last week, feeling some better. His friends hope that he may regain his usual good health soon.

Raymond Knapp's class of boys in the M. E. Sunday school hugely enjoyed a highlight on Tuesday night out to their teacher's home, three miles north and further had the pleasure of an evening of enjoyment from games and a fine lunch.

The Yale Creamery Company pays a larger price and gives a better test than any other dealer in cream in this section.

Dr. Cornell.

Dr. Cornell, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, of Port Huron, will be at the Paisley Hotel, Yale, on Friday, April 5th, 1912.

Rhode Island Reds.

I have a number of Rhode Island Red cockerels for sale at my farm west of Yale. W. A. Campbell, 45-3

This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reason for it as every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases that so often follow. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Mathews & Wright and Grant Holden.

Poultry and Dressed Hogs.

I am prepared to buy and pay the highest market price every day of the week for poultry and dressed hogs. If you have any to sell bring them in. T. J. Minnie, Yale.

"A Good Place to Trade"

QUESTION?

It has been asked us several times:—"How can you afford to give away that beautiful $400.00 Upton Grand Piano, as you advertise you will do?"

OUR ANSWER.

We prefer to sell 100 articles at a profit of 10 cents each, rather than 10 articles at a profit of $1.00 each. It means just 90 more people patronizing our store. The only reason for our being in business is to do business. This means that we must bring the people to our store. Low prices and good values will bring us customers always. Our giving away this piano is simply to bring additional business to our store and it is doing it every day. It pays you and us.

Saturday, March 2nd,

500 Extra Votes given on every Can of "Our Baking Powder" purchased, and Saturday, March 2d, 100 Extra Votes given with every 5ct purchase of Soap.

Trading Books.

We sell $5.00 Trading Books, each good for 30,000. Votes. Secure one of these books and boost your favorite candidate along and up to the top of the list.

Walk-Over Shoes and Oxfords.

THE MOST IMPORTANT thing about a Walk Over purchase is the Price. You'll say so too, if you buy them. Our Spring Line is open for your inspection and our south window has them. TAKE A LOOK.

W. L. Douglas Shoes

Are for long wear and comfort. The comfort last is a good indicator of such, and if you try them, with toe-cap or without, you will be more than satisfied that you have at least found what you were looking for—a comfortable shoe.

MEN'S-EASE SHOES, The Shoe for Hard-Knecks. We have one special shoe we would like to show you. It is a blucher shoe, 8 inch high, thick, soft tannage, and waterproof. Call and see it before you buy.
