Important News Events of the World Summarized

European War News

The advance guard of the Austro-Germans who crossed the Danube at Belgrade, has been partly destroyed and partly captured, and those who entered Serbian territory across the Save have met with enormous losses, according to an official dispatch received by the Serbian legation at London from Nish.

The new Greek coalition cabinet decided that it was not called upon to enter the war in defense of Serbia, and, according to Berlin advices, Bulgaria issued a manifesto announcing her intention to enter the war on the side of the central powers.

Serbia and Bulgaria are officially at war. The Serbian government handed his passports to the Bulgarian minister. The Bulgarian minister to France has been given his passports. All the allies' ministers at Sofia, including the Italian, received their passports at Sofia.

Since the war in Europe started more than 2,000,000 men have been killed; the wounded number nearly 4,000,000, while the total number of prisoners and missing is more than 2,000,000. There are conservative minimum figures compiled by Brig. Gen. Francis Vinton Greene, U. S. A., retired, and made public at West Point, N. Y.

It was announced in London that the British steamer Arbanian had been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. Twenty survivors have been landed.

Officially admitting that the renewal of the French drive in the Champagne region had resulted in a gain of 800 yards, as was announced by Paris, Berlin asserts that the French offensive continues with great violence.

The Austro-German drive into Serbia has begun. An official statement from Berlin announced that 400,000 German and Austro-Hungarian troops have crossed the Drina, Danube and Save rivers at numerous points and established a firm footing on Serbian territory.

The Cologne Gazette reports two Russian cruisers actively bombarding the Bulgarian port of Varna.

Private advices received in New York from Athens say that a French auxiliary cruiser was torpedoed and sunk September 9 while anchored off the Turkish island of Rhodes by a submarine of the central powers.

Russia, whose armies for five months have been retiring, has begun an energetic offensive along a wide front from Riga to the southeast of Vilna, and according to unofficial reports received in London has met with considerable success.

Severe snowstorms are now raging in the Baltic provinces, where Field Marshal von Hindenburg's campaign against Riga and Dvinsk has thus far completely failed, according to Petrograd.

The allies have resumed their smashing offensive on the western front. Along the whole front, from Belgium to the Vosges, violent bombardment has been in progress for more than forty-eight hours. The French have captured the village of Tahure.

Domestic

Lying in a bathtub filled with scalding water, the body of Mrs. Fricilla J. Crowninshield of Marblehead was found in a room of the Parker house in Boston. The dead woman was the wife of Bowden B. Crowninshield, prominent naval architect of national reputation. The cause of death was drowning.

The terms under which William E. Corey and his associates bought the Midvale Steel company, the Remington Arms company, the Coatesville Rolling Mill company and the Worth Brothers company were learned at New York, and show the stock of these concerns cost $60,500,000.

HIGH WATER MARK IN REGISTRATION

STATE UNIVERSITY PASSES GOAL SET FOR ATTENDANCE.

GREATER THAN LAST YEAR

Almost Six Thousand Students Are On Campus While Extension Courses and Summer School Bring Number to 7,532.

Ann Arbor—Registration in the University of Michigan at the closing time Saturday had totaled 8,855, which is 92 more than the total registration of the entire university last year, exclusive of summer school and extension courses given for credit.

Inasmuch as registrations already reported for extension work in Grand Rapids, Saginaw and Detroit are equal to the entire registration in extension work last year, there is no fear of a falling off in this branch of university work, and as summer school this last summer totaled 1,677 as again 1,600 the year before, the 7,200 mark, set as a goal for attendance this year, has already been passed without depending upon registrations during the second semester at all.

The registrations in the different departments to date are: Literary college, 2,876, or 324 more than at a corresponding date last year and 52 more than last year's total literary college enrollment; engineering college, 11,489, eight more than last year at a corresponding date; medical department, 325, 16 more than total in 1914-1915; law school, 418, 70 less than at corresponding date 1914; pharmacy college, 115, or two more than 1914 total; homeopathic college of medicine, 65, loss of 10; dental college, 348, or 25 more than total registration last year; graduate school, 229, one ahead of a corresponding date last year. Total now on campus, 5,855. Total, including summer school registration, 7,532.

This figure will be further increased by the figures from the extension course classes.

OFFICERS FOR YEAR CHOSEN

Liberal Churches Close State Meeting at Lansing With Election.

Lansing—Universalists and Unitarians of the state named officers and considered meeting places for next year at the closing sessions of their joint convention here Wednesday.

Officers for the Universalist denomination are: President, F. C. Aldinger, Lansing; vice-president, William Holmes, Eagle; secretary, W. A. Moore, Detroit; treasurer, W. S. Snyder, Detroit; member of executive board, R. A. Smith, Lansing.

J. A. Heath Dies at Richmond.

Richmond—The plucky fight for life and business reputation made by J. A. Heath, one-time manager of the Richmond Elevator company, ended by his death Sunday night at 10 o'clock.

The end came after many months of suffering, first in the east, when he successfully coped with cancer at a New York hospital, later, at the state tuberculosis sanitarium at Howell, Mich., and finally at his home here.

The failure of the elevator company involved the closing of the bank of W. H. Acker, his friend and business associate.

Another Disease of Cattle.

Saginaw—Another forage poisoning which has attacked young cattle in Bridgeport township has been diagnosed by Dr. Snell, city food inspector, as coccidiosis.

A warning has been issued to farmers to take their young stock off the low lands and feed them dry forage.

A parasite seems to have caused the disease. Two calves have died on the Ellis farm and five more are sick there. Several more on nearby farms are also reported sick.

Gust Peterson, 20 years old, employed in a sawmill at South Leroy, fell on a big saw and his body was cut in two.

An excursion train of 14 coaches Wednesday morning brought about 1,500 people to Bay City from Peck and other points in the Thumb district to spend the day. The excursion was given by the Bay City Board of Commerce, to bring the people here from along the newly completed extension of the Detroit, Bay City & Western railroad.

Not Here.

She was looking for an apartment. "It must be in a first class neighborhood," she said, "and it must have ten large rooms, three baths and all modern improvements, and I won't pay a cent over $40 a month."

"I know the very place you're looking for," replied the agent, "but if you want to find out how to get there you'll have to consult a clergyman."

A man plays golf because he likes to sport. A woman plays golf because it is a proper thing to do.

One of the compensations of life is that a man can't study himself through a microscope.

The girl who doesn't use slang may be more attractive than the one who does, but she is less numerous.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines.

It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do the mother's watchfulness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Period of Romance Ended.

"No more shall I hear his footsteps on yonder walk just as the clock strikes eight."

"Gracious, Jeannette!"

"And the old parlor light will never burn low for him again."

"You don't mean it?"

"I do; and, furthermore, he will never sit on this sofa three nights a week and call me pet names, as he has been doing for two years."

"I am astonished."

"And tonight I am going to burn all the old love letters in my chest of drawers."

"But why? Are you going to discard him?"

"Discard him! Why, you goose, I am going to marry him!"

Smile, smile, beautiful clear white clothes. Red Cross Ball Blue, American made, therefore best. All grocers. Adv.

Warrior of Today.

George Wharton Pepper said at a luncheon at the Pittsburgh training camp for officers:

"The methods of warfare have changed enormously in the past year. The sword, for example, is no longer carried. The sword has quite disappeared from war."

"A story comes from the Argonne about a French chasseur who took a German officer prisoner. The chasseur, a boy, a tyro, said to the officer:

"Give up your sword."

"But the officer shook his head and answered:

"I have no sword to give up. But I won't my vitriol spray, my oil projector or my gas cylinder do as well."

Enterprising White.

A writer gives a little sketch of black and white in Natal. He tells how he came across a white boy, some fourteen years old, and a group of raw natives playing a game. They were shooting with an old muzzle-loading shotgun at a bottle on the top of a case. When the youngster smashed a bottle he received a "licky" (a threepenny bit) from the natives. When a native hit it he received threepence from the boy.

"That seems a funny sort of game," remarked the witness to the boy.

"Oh, the game's all right, sir," replied the lad. "You see I load the gun."

Why They Don't Go.

"How did it happen you didn't go away during the summer? I thought you were having an extensive outfit prepared for you?"

"That was the trouble. By the time I got the outfit paid for I didn't have any money left."

Constantinople was founded in 330 A. D.

EVIDENTLY NOT AN ARTIST

Judging From Comment, Bilkins Had a Good Deal to Learn About Photography.

Young Bilkins is an enthusiastic devotee of amateur photography. He always insists upon "taking" his family and friends posed in more or less artistic attitudes.

Not long ago there was an exhibition of the work of a local photographic club to which the young fellow belongs, and where were displayed the results of certain of his efforts to immortalize his family and friends. In one corner hung a group of figures twisted into the most extraordinary positions, the general effect being that of persons in various stages of paralysis.

"Who in the world are those queer-looking people?" asked someone.

"Oh, those are some of Bilkins' strained relations," said a bystander.

Acting in One Lesson.

"Do you think I could learn to be a moving picture actor?"

"Sure you could. Just remember this one thing: A heaving chest denotes surprise, fear, hate or any other emotion."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Logical.

"Do you know, I think Dick acts rather bashful when he's with you?"

"Maybe so, but you should see him when we are where no one can see us."

The rule in politics is that the side that owns the steam roller use it.

Men Who "Do Things"

should be most particular about what they eat. They require nourishment that builds mental and physical energy, the force behind all large undertakings.

Grape-Nuts

FOOD

made of choice whole wheat and malted barley, contains the virgin, strength-giving nutriment of these grains, including the vital mineral salts—Phosphate of Potash, etc.

These salts are not found in proper proportion in many ordinary foods but are essential to complete up-building of sinew, brain and nerves.

Grape-Nuts is a concentrated cereal ration—partially predigested in its making. When served with cream, it is a self-sufficient food, but is usually eaten as the cereal part of the meal.
