ARMED NEGROES GIVE TROUBLE.

Fatal Shooting the Outcome of a Lynching in Mississippi.

A band of armed negroes, none of whom was known, rode into Cleveland, Miss., at 1:30 Sunday morning, and stopped a party of three white men on the main street. The negroes made a threatening demand. Being called upon to identify, they answered by bringing their rifles into play. One of the negroes was killed by the white men, another was wounded and is reported to have been found Sunday morning on the outskirts of the town, and the others escaped, although it is reported that three more were hurt. They were all armed with Winchester rifles and well mounted. Excitement was at fever heat during the remainder of the night, squads of armed men patrolling the streets until daylight. The trouble grew out of the lynching of Jesse Phillips, a negro, in the earlier part of the night, who shot and killed Lucius Reed, a plantation manager, in Cleveland, Tuesday. It was reported that a negro named there Saturday night and lynched by a mob of unknown men. Phillips was discovered in the swamps by bloodhounds, and while attempting to escape from a posse was shot in the leg. An officer took the negro in charge and started for Cleveland to place him in jail. About a mile from town a mob met the officer and took the negro from him, took him to the spot where he was killed and hanged him to a telephone pole. So quietly was he hanged that the majority of the inhabitants of Cleveland did not know when the lynching occurred.

RIOT AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Governor Called Upon for Troops—By-stander Perhaps Fatally Shot.

While 10,000 people were crowded under the trees in Fairview park at Indianapolis Sunday night, a riot broke out between the "Burgolos," a local crowd of white boys, and some colored boys. The whites chased the colored boys into the main pavilion and when the officers of the park protected them the Burgolos fired several shots and stoned and clubbed the crowd. The officers were powerless for two hours and telephoned to the governor for a company of militia. Failing to get the governor, 15 policemen were asked for and sent out. Charles Daniels, a bystander, was shot through the neck and may die. Two other young men were badly beaten with clubs and a dozen or more women and children were bit with sticks and stones. An old fellow has been injured by the white boys, living in the western part of the city, and the negro boys.

MAINE WOMAN ARRESTED.

Charged With Trying to Kill Her Husband.

Mrs. Belle Day, wife of Alonzo Day, was arrested Sunday afternoon at Rockland, Me., on a warrant charging assault with intent to kill her husband.

Wednesday afternoon Day was found near his home, intoxicated, and with a gash in his throat. He was taken to the police station and the officers in charge state that his wife had attempted to kill him. He said that early in the day she attempted to make him drink carbolic acid and later, when he had fallen asleep on a sofa, she had thrown a razor at him. Mrs. Day said her husband's injuries were self-inflicted, and she was not arrested.

When brought into court the following morning Day pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and said that the story he told the officers the day before was untrue. He explained that the gash in his throat was self-inflicted, and that his wife had nothing whatever to do with it.

Sunday, however, he again appeared at police headquarters and repeated the story as first told, and asked that the woman be arrested.

FOUR KILLED.

A Fatal Accident at Lebanon, N. H.—Team Struck by Train and Mailed Express.

A carriage containing James Goodwin of Hinsdale, Mass., William Thurston, of Perry, N. H., Thomas Burns of Winslow, and Eddie McCabe of Lebanon was struck by the Montreal express on the Boston & Maine railroad shortly after midnight Sunday, and all four were instantly killed.

Goodwin and Burns were waiters employed by the American Woolen company. The team was hired by Goodwin at Peter Stone's stable about 7 o'clock for a drive to Enfield, and he was seen with Burns at 9 o'clock. It is not known where Thurston and McCabe joined the party.

Thurston had just finished work as a farmer at Lebanon. He was married. McCabe was 19 years old, employed by Carter & Rogers of Lebanon, and leaves a widow, mother and sister. The team was hired by Goodwin at Peter Stone's stable about 7 o'clock for a drive to Enfield. It is evident that the party tried to cross in advance of the train. Examination showed that death in each case was instantaneous, the skulls of all being crushed. The examination by the coroner revealed part of a bottle, labeled alcohol. No blame attaches to the trainmen.

Mrs. Patrick Goodwin of Hinsdale received a telegram announcing the death of her son. The telegram was from Frank Walker, a former Hinsdale man, but no particulars of the accident were given. He had found employment in the woolen mills and on railroads as brakeman, but had not been heard from since leaving home about six weeks ago. He was born in Hinsdale, was unmarried, and is survived by his mother, four sisters, the Misses Annie, Mary, Maggie and Lizzy, and five brothers, John, Thomas, Owen, Frank and Hugh. His brother, John Goodwin, started Sunday to take charge of the body.

ANOTHER ITALIAN TRAGEDY AT MONTPELIER.

LEADING ITALIAN WAYLAIN AND ASSAULTED.

Head Pounded to a Jelly—Recognized Assaults Who Escaped—Warrants Out for Their Arrest.

Montpelier, July 22.—Rocco Lotti, a keeper of an Italian boarding house in this city, the leading Italian of the city was murdered Sunday night by two of his countrymen who have thus far evaded arrest. Lotti was met on the street by these two men who he recognized as Augusti Sanguinetti and another Italian by the name Diacoh Sanguinetti accused him of telling people in Barre that he Sanguinetti owed him (Lotti) and would not pay. Lotti denied that he had told about it to injure Sanguinetti and offered to come to court and prove it.

While he was talking to Sanguinetti Lotti says that Diacoh stepped behind and struck him with brass knuckles or some sharp instrument cutting a gash on his head. Sanguinetti then pitched in and Lotti was getting badly punished when an electric car came along and scared off his assailants. Lotti was taken home and attended by a doctor. 13 gashes were found on his head and breast but none were deep and he is expected to recover. The Montpelier police began a hunt for the assailants but up to 2 o'clock today they had not been apprehended.

MURDER AT BOSTON.

White Woman Shot Down by Mulatto at Door of Her Apartments.

Boston, July 22.—At the threshold of her own apartments, in the Hotel Inland, Mrs. Albert H. Crowell was last night shot and killed by Benjamin H. Brown, who gave himself up and confessed the crime.

Mrs. Crowell was the wife of a member of the fire department, but Brown claims that he was on terms of intimacy with her, and that he killed her on account of a quarrel. So great was the man's rage that he fired six shots, no more than once pressing the revolver against her neck, as he sent bullet after bullet into her head.

So far as known the shooting was witnessed by only one person, J. J. O'Connor who carried a note from Brown to Mrs. Crowell.

Brown was employed at Hotel Bellevue as a waiter.

WILD PANIC AT A HORSE RACE.

Four Horses Bolted and Galloped Wildly Over Spectators.

Chicago, July 22.—Six persons were severely injured and a large throng thrown into a panic last night when four horses engaged in a race in a gypsy camp became frightened. They threw their riders, bolted from the track, and galloped full speed into the crowd of spectators.

The animals were coming down the home stretch at the time and so sudden was the veering from their course that hundreds of pleasure-seekers gathered at the side of the track had little time to reach a place of safety. Men, women and children struggled with one another to escape. Many were knocked down and trampled upon.

Police Capt. William G. White and Dr. W. W. Schofield, who were two of the first persons to arrive at the Foshburgh house, and a number of the men who found articles scattered in the vicinity of the premises on the morning of the tragedy were also witnesses.
