

Windham County & Vicinity.

All the News in the Reformer's Bailiwick as Gathered by a Score of Special Correspondents.

(Other County and Vicinity News on 7th Page.)

HINSDALE.

The proprietors of Hotel Ashuelot received their liquor license Tuesday.

The New York Bioscope Co. will give an exhibition at the town hall tomorrow evening.

The local baseball team defeated the North Hinsdale nine on Riverside Park Saturday afternoon. The score was 27-8.

The piano which was purchased by the two minstrel organizations for the town hall, has been presented to the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bergeron returned Tuesday evening from their wedding tour and home to their friends in their house on Brattleboro street.

G. S. Goddard sustained severe bruises from a fall in his coal shed on Depot street Friday afternoon. He has been confined to the house since the accident.

Wantageque grange held a memorial service at Grand Army hall Wednesday evening. This service was to have been held Sunday but on account of the rain was postponed.

The Odd Fellows elected the following officers Monday evening: John P. Davenport, noble grand; C. D. Royce, vice noble grand; D. B. Tyrrell, recording secretary; W. M. Hall, financial secretary; C. H. Pearson, treasurer.

The Rogers Lyceum Co. gave an exhibition of moving pictures, illustrated songs, etc., at the town hall Wednesday evening. The entertainment was under the direction of Rev. D. C. Ling and for the benefit of St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Mrs. F. H. Fuller entertained the young ladies of her Sunday school class at her home on Northfield street Saturday evening. A delicious supper was served and the evening was spent in a social way. The affair was a delightful one and much enjoyed.

The following officers of Valley Commandery, No. 414, were installed last evening: M. D. White, noble commander; Mrs. Hattie Aldrich, vice commander; George A. Robertson, prelate; Mrs. Addie Dix, keeper of records; J. T. Powers, treasurer; C. A. Pearson, herald; A. F. Fisher, warden of inner gate; Mrs. Della Estey, warden of outer gate; F. O. Packard, past noble commander; C. H. Pearson, M. D. White and G. A. Robertson, financial committee.

Friday evening there was a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clark on Brattleboro street in honor of Mrs. Taylor and Mr. Peck from Massachusetts, who have been visiting their uncle, Thomas F. Dix and other relatives. The evening was spent in talking over old times, listening to graphophone selections, vocal and instrumental music and recitations. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The guests departed at a late hour, feeling that the evening had been delightfully spent.

Misses Annie and Lillian Myers visited in Winchester last week.—Miss Sarah Stearns is visiting relatives in Athol.—Mrs. William R. Howe and two children of Des Moines, Ia., are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Howe on Main street.—Miss Eva Robertson is spending the week in Boston.—Miss Bertha Cole of Keene is visiting at the home of R. P. Nims on High street.—Will Bellville has gone to Boston where he will be employed as conductor on an electric car.—E. L. Robinson of St. Louis, Mo., has joined his wife and child at the home of Mr. Leach.—Mrs. Chas. Sanderson of Clinton, Mass., is a guest at D. L. Sanderson's on the Brattleboro road.—Hugh Sanderson, who attends the High School in Clinton, Mass., is spending his vacation at home.—Miss Carrie Stearns, teacher of music in Goddard's seminary, spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Stearns.—Miss Florence M. King has been the guest of Mrs. Fred Leonard this week.—Miss Lilla Hancock came up from Greenfield Saturday to spend Sunday at home.—W. Jackson Leonard came home Thursday. He went Friday, accompanied by his sister, Miss Margaret Leonard, to join a camping out party on Mt. Tom.—Miss Elfa Streeter is at Spofford lake.—Ray Seales came Sunday from Philadelphia to spend a week's vacation here and with friends in Chesterfield.—Misses Mary and Julia Felch are employed in the Brightwood paper mill.

Death of Lockhart Wellman.

Lockhart Wellman, one of Hinsdale's oldest citizens, died at his home on the Northfield road Friday morning, June 26, from the effects of paralysis. He was 83 years old. Mr. Wellman was born in North Hinsdale. In 1852, he went to California, where he remained but two years, on his return settling in Guilford, Vt., where he lived for 14 years. He then returned to Hinsdale, where he has lived ever since. Three children by his first wife survive him. They are: Mrs. A. L. Sweet of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. William Stevenson and William E. Wellman of this place; also one sister, Mrs. Eveline Taylor. Mrs. Wellman died but a few months ago. The funeral was held at Mr. Wellman's late residence Sunday afternoon, Rev. W. F. White officiating, and the burial was in Pine Grove cemetery.

SPOFFORD.

Nathan Puffer has bought the Hewitt farm on the Atherton hill, formerly owned by the late Francis Hewitt.

Fred Holman will commence July 6 to go to Brattleboro every day to accommodate the public. He will have daily papers, etc. errands, etc.

The members of Pistearene grange held a meeting at the hall Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After the exercises they marched to the cemetery to decorate the graves of the departed members.

Bessie Jackson is at home for the summer vacation from Northampton, Mass., where she attends school.—Quite a number of people are at the lake for their summer vacation.—Mrs. Lizzie Bonney went to Salem, Mass., last week to attend the graduation of her niece, Ethel Holt.—Miss Emma Hutchins of West Chesterfield is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Torrey.—Mrs. Helen Fletcher has gone to Westmoreland for a visit with friends.—Joseph Lapoint and family of Keene spent Sunday with his parents.—Miss Sadie Lincoln of Brockton, Mass., is visiting at Levi Lincoln's.—Several from here attended the opening dance at Silverdale Saturday night.—Mrs.

Jane Pierce has come home from Lawrence, Mass., to care for her daughter, Mrs. John Underwood, who is sick.—Miss Alice Warrell and friend of Athol, Mass., are stopping at the hotel for a few days.—Mrs. Helen Sweet has returned to her home here for the summer.—Mrs. Earle Burt is enjoying a visit from her sister and little niece of Walpole.—Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hall of South Keene spent Sunday here.

CHESTERFIELD.

Success to the old New England Farmer in its new home, hale and hearty as ever, after more than three-fourths of a century of city life!

Mrs. Morse has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Smith, after a visit of three weeks with friends in her old home, Wardsboro, which she greatly enjoyed.

Silverdale hotel gave its opening dance Saturday evening which was well attended. It is said that Mr. Pullen will run the business with Mr. Aubrey as manager.

Bert Davis received a bad cut on one foot, a few days ago while at work on A. M. Davis' barn; at one time blood poisoning was feared, but it is coming out all right. The barn is nearly done and all the buildings, new and old, are slated, making a fine plant.

C. L. Puffer evidently intends to raise his own pork, as he has 17 pigs, a few days old, with two mothers. He has also two hogs from high grade stock, and found five deer feeding in his out field last week, but whether he will adopt and here them is not yet known.

WEST CHESTERFIELD.

The telephone has been moved from William Ford's to F. M. Davis' new store.

Rev. W. S. Turner preached a very interesting discourse here Sunday. He will preach again in two weeks.

Ellen Smith, who has been very sick at C. P. Gilson's in Brattleboro the past three weeks, hopes to be able to come home this week.

Marcia Burnham visited Mrs. U. G. Davis in Dummerston the first of the week.—Mrs. Needham is enjoying a visit from her two daughters.—Mrs. George Amidon has not been as well the past week.—Arno Porter and bride are expected home from Boston this week.—The Children's day exercises were very good.

SOUTH WINDHAM.

J. E. Harris of Rockingham was in town this week.—Miss Elsie Fisher finished her school in Stratton and is at home.—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Howard are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Puffer.—Mr. and Mrs. Alva Harris spent Saturday and Sunday in Pike Falls.—A. J. Fisher and daughter, Effie, were in Chester Tuesday.—Mrs. Ella Stewart of Lebanon, N. H., is visiting in town.

ATHENS.

Mrs. E. W. Robbins is suffering from the effects of a shock.—Miss Nellie Keefe who graduated last week from the Rutland Business college has taken a position in Portland, Me.—Miss Maggie Keefe has gone to Pennsylvania to visit friends.—Miss Jennie Bemis and Mrs. H. E. Smith spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Bemis.—Will Marvin spent Sunday in town.—The father of Mrs. Wm. Dunn has been paying her a visit.

BROOKLINE.

Robert Potwine, workman in Pierce's mill, had his right hand badly cut and scratched while at work with a saw recently.

The Methodist church was well filled Sunday to hear the exercises arranged for the children's day. Several came from Athens.

Mrs. Charles Wainman of Brattleboro and Miss Helen Wellman of Athens visited this week at the home of A. O. Wellman.—C. W. Barnes and M. Norse spent the week in Stratton and Winhall to try their luck at trout fishing.—T. B. Goddard and his daughter Luna of Dedfield, O., and Mrs. Fred Combs of Guilford were the guests at C. P. Stickney's the past week.

EAST JAMAICA.

W. J. Allen gave a photograph concert Thursday evening, June 18, at schoolhouse in No. 1. It was much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leonard welcomed a little daughter to their home June 25 and honored it with the name of Ruth Mildred.

Miss Ada Symonds closed her school on South Hill Saturday with a picnic in the grove. Refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time. School in district No. 1 closed Friday with a picnic in Butler's grove. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all. We hope to see Miss Doane back for the fall term.

Mrs. Ralph Howe and little son are with her sister, Mrs. Leonard, for the present.—Mrs. Selfors has been caring for Mrs. Frank Leonard.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halliday took a carriage drive to Jacksonville Saturday returning Monday.—Mrs. M. W. Howard and son Waldo of Brattleboro are visiting in town.

JACKSONVILLE.

Grange meeting July 14. Look for program next week.

C. H. Waste has furnished North River grange hall with a new carpet, and the furniture has all been primed, making Grange hall one of the neatest in town.

There will be another adjourned meeting of the citizens Monday evening to hear the report of the committee on soliciting for shares.

Mrs. George Roberts of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Stickney and daughter Bertha and husband of Rutland were among their many friends in town last week.—Dr. Thomas returned Tuesday from Kansas where he had been called to see a sick brother.—Mrs. Cook who has been ill for several weeks remains about the same.—Mrs. Bliss is quite sick.—H. O. Allen and family visited at E. S. Allen's the first of the week.—Dr. Thomas is at home for the Fourth of July. A. A. Corse and wife, E. W. Corkins and E. H. Murdoch of Orange, Mass.

G. O. Taylor Whiskies, impart strength and vigor.

WILMINGTON.

Death of Mrs. Maury L. Burr.

Mrs. Maury L. Burr died at her home in this village Saturday, June 27. She had been ill for quite a long time and her death was unexpected. She was the eldest daughter of Elijah and Alice Bowker and was born in this town Sept. 6, 1846. Two sisters died, Eliza about 40 years ago, and Lizzie in 1874. Surviving sisters, Mrs. K. P. Ames, Mrs. Nellie MacLellan and Mrs. Frank A. Childs. She was married to Mr. Burr April 23, 1868, and with the exception of two years in Dover has lived in Wilmington continuously. She has suffered from heart disease for fully three years and has been a great sufferer. Mrs. Burr was a most estimable woman and was deeply beloved by all who knew her. She was thoroughly domestic in her tastes and was devoted to her family and friends. Her loss will be deeply felt by a large circle. The funeral was attended at her late home Tuesday afternoon, June 23, at 4 o'clock, the rooms being filled to their capacity with relatives and mourning friends. Rev. Mr. Wells of the Methodist church conducted the services, the pastor of the Universalist church, the society with which the deceased was identified, being absent. Mr. Wells spoke appropriate and comforting words, basing his thoughts upon the scriptural passage, "She is not dead but sleeping." Mr. and Mrs. Kidder rendered appropriate vocal selections. The floral offerings were unusually beautiful. Among those present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burr of Guilford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Burr of Boston; Mrs. C. W. Wood of Worcester; Mrs. Fred Gaines of Greenfield; S. R. Newton of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Charles K. Ames of Brooklyn. Burial in Riverview cemetery.

DUMMERSTON CENTER.

Otis Amidon who has a market garden, is selling peas at Brattleboro for which there is a good demand.

W. F. Walker harvested 12 bushels of strawberries Tuesday which he sold at Brattleboro for 15 cents per quart.

A few of our farmers have commenced haying, but the weather is unfavorable for making hay just now.

The usual fortnightly meeting of the grangers was held at the church vestry Tuesday evening. Several new members were admitted.

The lecture given by Mr. Jackson Friday evening was fine and well attended. The strawberry entertainment following was an enjoyable one.

E. H. Miller with his brother, W. D. Miller and son of Easthampton, Mass., and Rev. Jackson are spending the week at Sunset lake, Marlboro, hunting and fishing.—Luella Reed of Brattleboro has been visiting her cousins at T. N. Reed's the past week.

The spring term of school at the center closed Friday, June 19. Miss Carrie White, teacher. The whole number of pupils was 27 and the average attendance, 24. The following are the names of those who were not present during the term: Aubrey Amidon, Robert Blood, Nellie Davis, John Evans, Bertha Hazleton, Ida May, Warren May, Blanche Newton, Fanny Wilder and Marion Miller. Those who were absent one day or less are Dale Bogie, Harold Reed and Miriam Reed.

JAMAICA.

Did you ever see a maple leaf 10x11? E. A. Wilder found one the other day. It is the largest ever found here.

Election of officers in Baptist Sunday school Sunday: E. M. Butler, Supt.; E. H. McEwen, Asst. Supt.; Mrs. Rider, Sec. and Treas.; Harry Amiden, librarian; Mrs. Amiden, auditor.

Wednesday evening at the Congregational church the W. C. T. U. gave a very enjoyable and profitable entertainment with music, speaking and reading. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Wyman and Miss Mabel Sage.

Pastor McEwen expects to begin preaching in East Jamaica Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He preaches Sunday morning, and evening at Jamaica, morning subject, "Thoughts at Lord's table. Evening subject, "Hearts music."

A growing business in Jamaica is the junk business. Mr. Williams is improving every opportunity. He has paid out in Jamaica alone this past year $1035.47, $186.47 being for labor. This is a benefit to the town in appearance as well as financially. This is the day of small things and often more is made out of waste materials than one would suppose.

Mrs. Annie Boynton of Cambridge, Mass., with her family came Tuesday to their summer home.—Miss Jessie Boynton of Boston is spending the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Myron Boynton.—John Wolcott who has been teaching at Grafton came home this week. We are glad to see him. Mrs. E. came Thursday.—The bridge in the upper end of the town is finished.

WARDSBORO.

Walton Fletcher has sold his farm to Mr. Carpenter of New York.

The A. Z. club will meet at Mrs. W. Kidder's Thursday afternoon, July 9, to sew.

Charles Wells was called to the north part of the town Wednesday by the death of his mother.

Merle Willis closed a very successful term of school Friday. This made his third successive term and we hope we can have him again next fall.

The body of Mrs. J. E. Gleason was brought here Tuesday evening for burial which took place Wednesday forenoon. She leaves a husband and three children, Lucia, Martin and James who have the sympathy of all. Relatives present from a distance were Mrs. Fred Clevelev of Troy, N. Y.; Irene McManis of Petersham, Mass.; and James Gleason of Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Underwood visited Mrs. Underwood's sister in Putney the first of the week.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin have gone to visit their son in Putney.—Vera Morgan has gone to work for Mrs. Gary Martin in Putney.—Mrs. Fred Clevelev has come to spend the month of July with her mother, Mrs. Dexter, and aunt, Mrs. Blanchard.—Mr. and Mrs. Pike of Wilmington visited their son, Ernest Pike Sunday.—Gilbert Miller of Springfield, Mass., is stopping at Underwood's hotel, and Mr. Wheeler who has been attending a business college has returned home.—Mrs. Ed Davis has gone to South Londonderry.—Mrs. C. H. Newcomb and Mrs. W. W. Kidder visited in Brattleboro last week.—Mrs. Barnard and her brother, Charles Clark, visited Mrs. Emma Clark Sunday.—A. M. Farrum is visiting his sister, Mrs. Prouty.—Andrew Fogelsted has returned to Boston, Mass.

G. O. Taylor Whiskies used by critical judges.

WILLIAMSVILLE.

Monday evening the first quarterly conference of this conference year will be held in the M. E. church, Rev. W. N. Newton presiding.

Rev. Mr. Webster is contemplating giving series of sermons in the near future. The subject will be, "Building for Eternity." None should fail to hear these.

The children's day exercises that were repeated in the Methodist church Sunday morning, were a decided success. Mr. Matthews of Boston was present and rendered one vocal selection and one recitation very beautifully.

Rev. W. N. Newton, presiding elder of the Montpelier district of the M. E. church, will preach in the M. E. church of this place Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock and administer the sacrament of the Lord's supper. All are cordially invited to be present and worship with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Stedman are visiting his brother Lucien in Worcester, Mass.—Mrs. C. D. Lazelle and daughter are visiting her brothers in Lynn, Mass. Mr. Lazelle joins them there Monday.—Joe D. Morse goes to Northboro, Mass., Monday to visit his sister, Mrs. Lena Morse Lang.—Miss Leda Smith of Gayville, this state, is the guest of Miss Luella Williams.—Amos Stratton has gone to Springfield, Mass., for a week's visit.—Miss Violette Robertson of Hinsdale, N. H., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. H. Richardson.—Miss Florence Dickinson was at Goddard seminary commencement week. Miss Nellie Dickinson returned home with her for the summer vacation.—Chas. H. Dickinson and niece, Miss Elsie Newton, of Wallingford, Conn., are at his father's, Dr. D. D. Dickinson's.—Mr. and Mrs. Perley Sparks spend the 4th in Keene, N. H.—Arthur Curtis has finished work for A. M. Morrill and is going to his home in Connecticut.—Mrs. Geo. Mathews of Boston, who has been visiting at E. R. Willard's, left Wednesday for Moosehead Lake, Me.

MARLBORO.

J. White has bought Mrs. Gilbert Stanley's place and has begun repairing it.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Adams returned Monday from South Vernon where they had been visiting. William Winchester and family of Holyoke came last week to spend a few weeks at the Poplars.—H. Whiting Shaw and bride spent a few days with his parents last week.—Mrs. W. O. Powers of Whately spent a few days with her mother recently.

The schools in town have closed. The one in No. 15, taught by Miss Alice Whitney, closed June 19; number of pupils, 24; average attendance, 22.15; Lena Randall, Hazel Whitney, Mabel Whitney, Louis, Oscar and Edith, all of Holyoke, came to see their names. The school at the four corners taught by Mrs. Prentiss numbered 15; average attendance, 14.15; Lena Plant, Louise Thomas, Ella Whitney, Louie and Fred Fletcher, Clarence and Rollin Moon and Robert Prentiss had no marks. The south school, taught by Corabel Cary, closed June 27; the following pupils had no marks: Harold Wright, Reuben Angier and Luke Dalrymple.

Two Pleasant Family Gatherings. A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Anna Baxter Friday when her three sisters, Mrs. Tyler of Hudson, Mass., Mrs. Amos Whitney of Halifax and Mrs. Aldrich of Wilmington, met at her home. The four sisters had not met together for 15 years. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aldrich and son of Wilmington, Miss Tyler of Hudson, Miss Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Leonard and son of Halifax.

The same day Albert Halladay and family, Mrs. Harriet Powers and Marjiam Winchester of Williamsville, Leon Powers and family, Lyman Powers and family, Mrs. Charles Stancliff and daughter of Bernard met at the home of Justin Thomas to celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Thomas and her sister, Mrs. Stancliff. Some very pretty presents were left as reminders of the occasion.

BARTONSVILLE.

Wilson Peabody and Mrs. Fred Kendall attended the funeral of Benjamin Marshall in Poplar Grove Saturday.

Royal C. DeCamp and Mrs. H. M. Abbott of Landgrove visited at E. E. DeCamp's last week.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hazleton visited at Morgan Lovell's Tuesday.—Leon Bosworth and family visited at M. T. Edwards' Sunday.—Mrs. Emma Weston is now stopping in Bellows Falls.—Arthur Day is at home.—Leon DeCamp commenced work in Rockingham for P. Weston Monday.—Miss Grace Worrall, who has been so long ill, has gone to Boston to enter a sanitarium.

Miss Rosie Finn of Fitchburg, Mass., who has lately been staying here with her sister, Mrs. E. M. Welch, was married to Frank Welch of Healdville Tuesday in St. Charles church at Bellows Falls. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Welch repaired to No. 4 Church Place, their future home, where they gave a reception. The presents were numerous and beautiful. Mrs. Welch is very popular here and every one wishes them a prosperous life. Those from here who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Welch, Misses Annie, Elizabeth and Margaret Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taggart and Miss Margaret.

CHESTER.

F. P. Wells has sold his farm and farming tools and has moved to the village.

The Windsor County summer school is to be held in this village in July and a good attendance is expected. For further information address F. W. Pierce of Chester or State Supt. Walter E. Ranger of Montpelier.

Harry Peabody has returned from Northfield where he has recently been graduated from the Norwich university. Mr. Peabody expects soon to leave for Pennsylvania where he has a position.—The electric lamp fixtures are partly in place but where are the lights?—A. N. Chandler has been in Ailestad to visit his mother who is very ill.

George W. Hall is putting in a sewer for drainage of his new house and it would seem that all our citizens should wake up to the necessity for better drainage in this village. Why not get a hustle on and have a good sewer system instead of the disease breeding cess pools? What do you say, gentlemen? Do you care enough for the health of your family and family to take hold of the matter or are you going to "let her slide?"

WEST BRATTLEBORO.

The little son of Fred Fox is not as well this week.

Mrs. Pratt has moved this week from Mr. Bond's back to Dummerston.

Mrs. Francisia Kellogg went to Lancaster, Mass., by invitation to attend the 250th anniversary of the town and will return later.

Frank S. Clark, formerly with Dunham Bros., now of Waltham, is stopping for a short time with his aunt, Mrs. VanDoorn at Maple Lodge.

Guests at the Melrose this week are: F. S. Brown, South Londonderry; Frank Worden, West Halifax; E. S. Wilder, E. O. Felton, Jamaica; J. H. Shaw, Turners Falls.

The village people were saddened at the accident resulting in the death of W. D. Stockwell Monday. Mrs. Stockwell is crushed by the blow. She has the sympathy of all the people.

WESTMINSTER.

Farr-Yale Wedding at Charlotte.

The closing and most brilliant June wedding of the season at Charlotte occurred June 30 in the Congregational church when Mary A., daughter of W. S. and Ellen L. Yale, was united in marriage to Winfred R. Farr of Westminster, one of the state agents of the Burlington Free Press. The church was filled with friends of the young couple, many from out of town being present. The edifice was very prettily trimmed with evergreens, cut and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Gulick, pastor of the church. The groom was attended by Elton W. Wynch of Lebanon, N. H., as best man, and the bridesmaid was Miss Pearl B. Cook of Charlotte. The ushers were: Dr. F. E. Spear, John T. Spear, Monroe Hill and H. Paul Gulick. Miss Emma Leavenworth presided at the organ. At the close of the ceremony the Misses Yale, aunts of the bride, gave the young couple a reception at their home. A large number of people met the bride and groom, extending to them their best wishes and viewed the large display of presents arranged there. Refreshments were served and the young couple drove away in a carriage for a few days' wedding trip.

WHITINGHAM.

Mrs. Augusta Boyd has been staying with her father, Abram Chase, caring for him since her mother's death. A niece and nephew of his are expected to come there to live with him and care for him. His daughter will remain until their arrival.

Miss Edith Fowler went to Wilmington Tuesday and Wednesday.—Mrs. Frank Jilson went to North Adams Wednesday.—Little Daphne Chase of Wilmington has been here with her aunt, Mrs. Nellie Bryant, for a few days.—Bethra Murdock of Chicago came Wednesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Murdock.—Christine Murdock is at E. L. Wheeler's for her vacation, having resigned her position as a teacher in Great Barrington, where she has taught for many terms.

WEST HALIFAX.

Nearly all the schools in town closed last week Friday; but one at Harris Corner has just got well begun.

A. C. Jones is at the North Adams hospital for treatment. His neighbors and friends are to meet at his house Saturday, July 4, for a picnic and to hoe his corn. Everybody is invited.

Albert L. Cooke, jr., formerly of Wilmington, but now of Rochester, N. Y., was at his uncle's, E. S. Cooke's, the first part of the week on his wedding tour.—Mrs. Arthur Gates and son from Springfield, Mass., are at her mother's, Mrs. Hudson's.

HALIFAX.

Mrs. Alice Prouty is very ill. Her sisters, Mrs. Halliday of Newfare, and Mrs. Justin Thomas of Marlboro have been assisting in caring for her.

Accidents at Warren's Mill.

Thursday, June 25, was quite a day for accidents in the mill, the most serious being that sustained by Newton Chase, who had one hand caught in the shingle machine, severing one finger and badly lacerating some of the others. The hand is now in a badly inflamed and swollen condition. He was carried to Brattleboro where the wound was dressed. Fred Chase also had a piece of one of his thumbs sawed off.

Assurance doubly sure is furnished the purchasers of G. O. Taylor Old Bourbon and Pure Rye, bottled by C. H. GRAVES & SONS, Brattleboro, by a label with a trade-mark is placed on the bottle, besides the name of the firm is over the cork in the bottle, and the purchaser observing these guards can feel fully assured of obtaining a pure article. Buy from licensed dealers generally.

GUILDFORD CENTER.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.

Charles Clark from Springfield, Mass., is with his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Bullock. He goes to Maine Friday for a fishing trip.—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Legate spent three days in Jacksonville last week the guests of his brother, Nellie Miner went to Silverdale Wednesday as table girl.—George Ingraham returned Tuesday from New Britain, Conn., where he visited his brother Warren. His brother's wife and three children returned with him for a visit of a few weeks.