All-Old-time Cough Syrup bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes, relieves cough, cold, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Geo. E. Greene.

CHESTERFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grover buried a child last week. Mrs. Safford is improving from her recent illness. Our January thaw left us without a speck of snow or ice in sight for 29 miles and the teamsters make very faces over their loss of business and idle teams. Those who attended the recent fair and entertainment at Spofford report a fine time. The play given under the management of Mrs. Henry La Point was superior to any given here for a long time, the parts being sustained in a realistic manner. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ware will celebrate the 25th anniversary of their marriage at the town hall this evening with a dance and card party. All friends and townspeople are cordially invited. Florence's orchestra will furnish music and Miller will serve lunch in the hall.

Rev. Mr. Swart is slowly improving. Chester Washer is visiting his brother, S. S. Washer. A number of young people attended the masquerade ball at Brattleboro. Henry Champlain has moved to the quarry and occupies the George Downs house. Miss Willa Crocker spent Sunday with Mrs. Fred Rogers and left Monday for Boston. Hon. John Merrill, Lewis Lynde and several lawyers were here attending court this week. Mr. and Mrs. Forest Combs have gone to West Swazey, N. H., where they have employment for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham of Northampton, Mass., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burnham.
