

The Adventures of Ann

By HAL COFFMAN

(Copyright, 1920, International Feature Service, Inc.)

"I don't care what happens now," said the mysterious woman to Ann and Betty.

CHAPTER 34.
Betty finally managed to get the mysterious woman into her state-room, and with sobs she told Ann and Betty of her life with Harwood and the misery it had caused her. Putting her arms around Ann, she told her, "and this is what I want to save you from if I can. Harwood is rich and powerful and what he goes after he usually gets, so be warned in time and profit by the miserable mess I have made of my life."

"You are young, pretty and the world is before you, so choose your future well. As for me, I don't care what happens now. Cut him forever out of your life and do not be blinded by the glitter of his wealth or what he says or does."

"As soon as we get ashore I am going to pack up the few belongings I possess and go back to my girlhood home. I have enough money for my carfare, but there will be nothing left to tide me over until

I can get some kind of a position. But I shall manage to get on somehow."

"When I think of the opportunity of a real, wholesome life I laughed aside in my younger days it nearly kills me, but this is all gone now."

Ann, warned by my fate, and if you ever have a chance to win the real love of an honest man, no matter how poor he is, do not cast him aside for the glitter and tinsel of the unreal life I led."

Prominent Western Man Praises Tanlac

G. W. Logan, Peabody, Kansas.

"Tanlac has completely restored my health and I feel finer than in years," was the straightforward statement made recently by Mr. George W. Logan, of Peabody, Kansas, one of the most prominent stock dealers in the Middle West.

"It has not only made a new man of me but I have actually gained thirty-five pounds in weight and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I am telling all of my friends about Tanlac but they can see for themselves what it has done in my case."

"I was in an awfully run-down condition. I was away off in weight, felt weak and nervous all of the time and couldn't take any interest in my work or anything else. My main trouble was indigestion. Nothing seemed to agree with me. At times I would have dizzy spells and at other times my back would ache so bad that I could hardly get up and down in my chair. This is just the condition I was in when I started to take this medicine. It took just six bottles to make a well man of me. I now have a fine appetite, everything tastes good and my digestion is perfect."

"My wife was also troubled with indigestion at times and it relieved her the same way. You may publish my statement wherever you like and if anyone doubts it, just tell them to see me."

Tanlac is sold by the leading druggists in every town. adv.
